

Matthew

Chapter 1

The book of the record of Jesus Christ, the Descendant of David, the Descendant of Abraham.

Abraham fathered Isaac;
and Isaac fathered Jacob;
and Jacob fathered Judas and his brothers;

And Judas fathered Phares and Zara by Tamar; and Phares fathered Esrom;
and Esrom fathered Aram;

And Aram fathered Aminadab; and Aminadab fathered Naasson;
and Naasson fathered Salmon;

And Salmon fathered Boaz by Rahab; and Boaz fathered Obed by Ruth;
and Obed fathered Jesse;

And Jesse fathered David the king;
and David the king fathered Solomon by her who had been the wife of Uriah;

And Solomon fathered Roboam; and Roboam fathered Abia;
and Abia fathered Asa;

And Asa fathered Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat fathered Joram;
and Joram fathered Ozias;

And Ozias fathered Joatham; and Joatham fathered Achaz;
and Achaz fathered Ezekias;

And Ezekias fathered Manasses; and Manasses fathered Amon;
and Amon fathered Josiah;

And Josiah fathered Jechoniah and his brothers, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechoniah fathered Shealtiel; and Shealtiel fathered Zorobabel;

And Zorobabel fathered Abiud; and Abiud fathered Eliakim;
and Eliakim fathered Azor;

And Azor fathered Sadoc; and Sadoc fathered Achim;
and Achim fathered Eliud;

And Eliud fathered Eleazar;
and Eleazar fathered Matthan;
and Matthan fathered Jacob;

And Jacob fathered Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom Jesus was born, Who is called Christ.

So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations;
and from the carrying away into Babylon to Christ are fourteen generations.

Now the birth of Jesus Christ took place this way:
When His mother Mary was espoused {engaged} to Joseph, before they came together {sexually}, she was found to be with child by the Holy Spirit.

Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, decided to divorce her privately.

But while he thought about these things, The Angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying,
Joseph, descendant of David, do not be afraid to take Mary to be your wife;
because that which is conceived in her is by the Holy Spirit.

And she will bring forth a son, and you shall call His Name JESUS {Jehovah saves}:
because He will save His people from their sins.

Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet,
saying,

Behold, a [the] virgin shall be with Child, and shall bring forth a Son, and they shall call His Name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

Then Joseph waking up from sleep did as The Angel of the Lord had commanded him, and took his wife to himself:

But had no sex with her until she had brought forth her firstborn son:

and he called His name JESUS
four B.C.}.

Matthew Chapter 2

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, Asking, Where is He Who is born King of the Jews?

Because we have seen His star in the east, and have come to worship Him.

When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ was supposed to be born.

And they said to him, In Bethlehem of Judea:
because it is written by the prophet,

And you Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are not the least among the princes of Judah:
because out of you shall come a Governor, Who shall rule My people Israel.

Then Herod, when he had privately called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young Child;
and when you have found Him, bring me word again, that I too may come and worship Him.

When they had heard the king, they departed; and, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, until it came and stood over where the young Child was.

When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy.

And when they had come into the house, they saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down, and worshiped Him:
and when they had opened their treasures, they presented to Him gifts;
gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

And being warned by God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

And when they had departed, The Angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying,
Arise, and take the young Child and His mother, and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word:
because Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him.

When he arose, he took the young Child and His mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,

Out of Egypt I have called My Son.

Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceedingly angry, and sent forth, and killed all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all its surroundings, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.

Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation {loud crying}, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they were no more.

But when Herod was dead, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt,

Saying,

Arise, and take the young Child and His mother, and go into the land of Israel: because those who sought the young Child's life are dead.

And he arose, and took the young Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel.

But when he heard that Archelaus reigned in Judea in the place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there:

nevertheless, being warned by God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee:

And he came and lived in a city called Nazareth:

that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets,

He shall be called a Nazarene.

Matthew Chapter 3

In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea,

And saying, Repent:
because the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

Because this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying,
The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the LORD {Jehovah}, make His paths straight.

And this same John had his clothing of camel's hair, and a leather belt about his waist; and his food was locusts and wild honey.

Then Jerusalem and all Judea and all the region around the Jordan went out to him.

And were baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.

But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, O generation of vipers {snakes}, who has warned you to flee from the wrath {anger; judgment} to come?

Therefore bring forth fruits worthy for repentance:

And do not think to say within yourselves, We have Abraham as our forefather:
because I say to you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children to Abraham.

And now also the ax is laid to the root of the trees:
therefore every tree which does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire.

I indeed baptize you with water for repentance:
but He Who comes after me is mightier than I, Whose shoes I am not worthy to pick up:
He shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit, and with fire:

Whose {winnowing} fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly purge His floor, and gather His wheat into the barn;
but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan River to John, to be baptized by him.

But John forbade Him, saying, I have need to be baptized by You, and You come to me?

And Jesus answering said to him,
Allow it to be so now:
because it becomes us to fulfill all righteousness.
Then he allowed Him.

And Jesus, when He was baptized, went up straightway out of the water:
and, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon Him:

And a voice from heaven, saying,
This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased.

Matthew Chapter 4

Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

And when He had fasted forty days and forty nights, He was hungry.

And when the tempter came to Him, he said, If You are the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

But He answered and said,

It is written,

Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God

Then the devil took Him up into the holy city, and set Him on a pinnacle of the temple,

And said to Him, If You are the Son of God, cast yourself down:
because it is written,

He shall give His angels charge concerning you:
and in their hands they shall bear you up, lest at any time you dash your foot against a stone.

Jesus said to him,

It is also written,

You shall not tempt the LORD {Jehovah} your God.

Again, the devil took Him up into an exceedingly high mountain, and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory;

And said to Him, All these things I will give You, if You will fall down and worship me.

Then Jesus said to him,

Get yourself away from here, Satan:

because it is written,

You shall worship the LORD
{Jehovah}
your God, and Him only shall you serve.

Then the devil left Him, and, angels came and ministered to Him.

Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, He departed into Galilee;

And leaving Nazareth, He came and lived in Capernaum, which is upon the sea {of Galilee} coast, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali:

That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

The land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, by the way of the sea, beyond

Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles {non-Jews};

The people who sat in darkness saw great light;
and to those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has sprung up.

From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say,

Repent:
because the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea:
because they were fishermen.

And He said to them,
Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men.

And they immediately left their nets, and followed Him.

And going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets;
and He called them.

And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed Him.

And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of sicknesses and all kinds of diseases among the people.

And His fame went throughout all Syria:
and they brought to Him all sick people who were taken with various diseases and torments, and those who were possessed with demons, and those who were lunatic, and those who had paralysis;
and He healed them.

And there followed after Him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

Matthew Chapter 5

And seeing the multitudes, He went up into a mountain: and when He sat down, His disciples came to Him:

And He opened His mouth, and taught them, saying,

Blessed are the poor in spirit:
because theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn:
because they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek {humble}:
because they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness:
because they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful:
because they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart:
because they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers:
because they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness' sake:
because theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you, when men shall revile {curse; say bad things about} you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, because of Me.

Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad:
because great is your reward in heaven:
because they also persecuted the prophets who were before you.

You are the salt of the earth: but if the salt has lost its flavor, with what shall it be salted?
it is from then on good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.

Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel {eight gallons or thirty point two liters} {basket or pot}, but on a candlestick; and it gives light to all who are in the house.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father Who is in heaven.

Do not think that I have come to destroy the law, or the prophets:
I have not come to destroy, but to fulfill.

Because truly I say to you, Until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or stroke of the pen shall pass from the law, until all is fulfilled.

Whoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men to do so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven:
but whoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Because I say to you, That unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

You have heard that it was said by those of old time,
You shall not kill;
and whoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

But I say to you, That whoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment:
and whoever shall call his brother, "idiot", shall be in danger of the council:
but whoever shall call him, "stupid", shall be in danger of hell fire.

Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you;

Leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way;
first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

Agree with your creditor quickly, while you are in the way with him; lest at any time the creditor delivers you to the judge, and the judge delivers you to the officer, and you are thrown into prison.

Truly I say to you, You shall by no means come out from there, until you have paid the last cent.

You have heard that it was said by those of old time,
You shall not commit adultery:

But I say to you, That whoever looks at a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart.

And if your right eye offends you, pluck it out, and cast it from you:
because it is better for you that one of your members perish, than that your whole body should be cast into hell.

And if your right hand offends you, cut it off, and cast it from you:

because it is better for you that one of your members should perish, than that your whole body should be cast into hell.

It has been said, Whoever shall divorce his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:

But I say to you, That whoever shall divorce his wife, unless she is guilty of infidelity, causes her to commit adultery:
and whoever shall marry her who is divorced commits adultery.

Again, you have heard that it has been said by those of old time, You shall not swear in your own name, but shall perform to the Lord your oaths:

But I say to you, Do not swear at all;
neither by heaven;
because it is God's throne:

Nor by the earth;
because it is His footstool:
neither by Jerusalem;
because it is the city of the great King.

Neither shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black.

But let your answer be, Yes, yes;
No, no:
because whatever is more than these comes from evil.

You have heard that it has been said,
An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:

But I say to you, That you not resist evil {people}:
but whoever shall strike you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also.

And if any man will sue you at the law, and take away your coat, let him have your cloak also.

And whoever shall compel you to go a mile, go with him two.

Give to him who asks of you, and from him who would borrow from you do not turn away.

You have heard that it has been said,
You shall love your neighbor, and hate your enemy.

But I say to you, Love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who despitefully use you, and persecute you;

That you may be the children of your Father Who is in heaven:
because He causes His sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust.

Because if you love those who love you, what reward do you have?
do not even the tax collectors do the same?

And if you greet your brothers only, what do you do more than others?
do not even the tax collectors do the same?

You therefore be perfect, even as your Father Who is in heaven is perfect.

Matthew Chapter 6

Take heed that you do not do your charity before men, to be seen by them:
otherwise you have no reward from your Father Who is in heaven.

Therefore when you do your charity, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have praise from men.
Truly I say to you, They have their reward.

But when you do charitable works, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing:

That your charity may be in secret:
and your Father Who sees in secret He Himself shall reward you openly.

And when you pray, you shall not be as the hypocrites are:
because they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men.
Truly I say to you, They have their reward.

But you, when you pray, enter into your closet, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father Who is in secret; and your Father Who sees in secret shall reward you openly.

But when you pray, do not use worthless repetitions, as the heathen {ungodly; pagans} do:
because they think that they will be heard because of their many words.

Therefore do not be like them:
because your Father knows the things you have need of, before you ask Him.

Therefore you pray in this way:
Our Father Who is in heaven, May Your Name be honored.

Let Your kingdom come.
Let Your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us today our daily food.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive those who are in debt to us.

And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
Because the kingdom, the power, and the glory are Yours, forever.
Amen {let it be}.

Because if you forgive men their sins against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

But if you do not forgive men their sins against you, neither will your Father forgive your sins.

Furthermore when you fast, do not be, as the hypocrites, appearing sad:
because they distort their faces, in order that they may appear to men to fast.
Truly I say to you, They have their reward.

But you, when you fast, anoint your head, and wash your face;

So that you do not appear to men to fast, but only to your Father Who is in secret:
and your Father, Who sees in secret, will reward you openly.

Do not lay up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

Because where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

The light of the body is the eye: if therefore your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light.

But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness.
If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great that darkness is!

No man can serve two masters: because either he will hate the one, and love the other;
or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other.
You cannot serve God and money.

Therefore I say Do not take thought for your life, what you shall eat, or what you shall drink;
nor even for your body, what you shall put on.
Is life not more than food, and the body more than clothing?

Consider the birds of the air: they do not sow, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns;
yet your heavenly Father feeds them.
Are you not much better than they?

Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit {about eighteen inches or point forty-six meters} to how tall you are?

And why worry about your clothing?
Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow;
they do not toil, neither do they spin:

And yet I say to you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not dressed like one of these.

Therefore, if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?

Therefore do not worry, saying,
What shall we eat?

or, What shall we drink?
or, With what shall we be clothed?

(Because all these things Gentiles seek after):
{non-Jews}
because your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things.

But you seek first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things will be added to you.

Therefore do not worry about tomorrow:
because tomorrow will have concerns of its own.
Each day has enough evil of its own.

Matthew Chapter 7

Do not judge, so that you will not be judged.

Because with the judgment you judge, you shall be judged:
and with the measure you give out, it shall be measured back to you.

And why do you see the splinter that is in your brother's eye, but not consider the beam that is in your own eye?

Or how will you say to your brother, Let me pull out the splinter out of your eye;
when, there is a beam in your own eye?

You hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of your own eye; and then you will see clearly to cast out the splinter out of your brother's eye.

Do not give that which is holy to the dogs, neither cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and attack you.

Ask, and it shall be given you;
seek, and you shall find;
knock, and it shall be opened to you:

Because everyone who asks receives;
and he who seeks finds;
and to him who knocks it shall be opened.

Or what man is there of you, whom if his son asks for food, will he give him a stone?

Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a snake?

If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shall your Father Who is in heaven give good things to those Who ask Him?

Therefore all things that you would have men do to you, even so you do to them:
because this is the law and the prophets.

Enter in at the straight gate:
because wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leads to destruction, and there many are who enter there:

But straight is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leads to life, and there are few who find it.

Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves.

You shall know them by their fruits.

Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

Even so every good tree brings forth good fruit;
but a corrupt tree brings forth bad fruit.

A good tree cannot bring forth bad fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

Every tree that does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire.

Therefore by their fruits you shall know them.

Not everyone who says to Me,
Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven;
but he who does the will of My Father Who is in heaven.

Many will say to Me in that day,
Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your Name and in Your Name have cast out demons?
and in Your Name done many wonderful works?

And then I will say to them,
I never knew you:
depart from Me, you who do works of sin.

Therefore whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will compare him to a wise man, who built his house upon a rock:

And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house;
and it did not fall; because it was founded upon a rock.

And everyone who hears these sayings of Mine, and does not do them, shall be compared to a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand:

And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house;
and it fell:
and great was its fall.

And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at His teaching:

Because He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

Matthew Chapter 8

When He had come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him.

And, there came a leper and worshiped Him, saying,
Lord, if You will, You can make me clean.

And Jesus put forth His hand, and touched him, saying,
I will;
be clean.

And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

And Jesus said to him,
See that you tell no man;
but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

And when Jesus had entered into Capernaum, there came to Him a centurion, begging Him,

And saying,
Lord, my servant lies at home sick with the paralysis;
in great pain.

And Jesus said to him,
I will come and heal him.

The centurion answered and said,
Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof:
but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

Because I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me:
and I say to this man, Go,
and he goes;
and to another, Come,
and he comes;
and to my servant,
Do this,
and he does it.

When Jesus heard it, He marveled, and said to those who followed, Truly I say to you, I have not found so great a faith, no, not in Israel.

And I say to you, That many will come from the east and west, and will sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness:

there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

And Jesus said to the centurion, Go your way;
and as you have believed, so shall it be done for you.
And his servant was healed in the very same hour.

And when Jesus had come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying down, and sick with a fever.

And He touched her hand, and the fever left her:
and she arose, and ministered to them.

When the evening had come, they brought to Him many who were possessed with demons:
and He cast out the spirits with His word, and healed all who were sick:

That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,
He Himself took our sicknesses, and bore our pain.

Now when Jesus saw great multitudes around Him, He gave commandment to depart to the other side.

And a certain scribe came, and said to Him, Master, I will follow You wherever You go.

And Jesus said to him,
The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests;
but the Son of man has nowhere to lay His head.

And another of His disciples said to Him,
Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father.

But Jesus said to him,
Follow Me;
and let the dead bury their dead.

And when He had entered into a ship, His disciples followed Him,

And, there arose a great storm on the sea {of Galilee}, so much so that the ship was covered with the waves:
but He was asleep.

And His disciples came to Him and awoke Him, saying, Lord, save us:
we are about to perish.

And He said to them,
Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?
Then He arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea;

and there was a great calm.
But the men marveled, saying,
What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him!

And when He had come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met Him two possessed with demons, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

And, they cried out, saying,
What have we to do with You, Jesus, You Son of God?
Have You come here to torment us before the time?

And there was a good way off from them a herd of many swine feeding.

So the demons begged Him, saying,
If You cast us out, allow us to go away into the herd of swine.

And He said to them,

Go.

And when they had come out, they went into the herd of swine:
and, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea {of Galilee}, and perished in the waters.

And those who kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told everything, and what had happened to those possessed of the demons.

And, the whole city came out to meet Jesus:
and when they saw Him, they begged Him that He would depart out of their coasts.

Matthew Chapter 9

And He entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into His own city.

And, they brought to Him a man paralyzed, lying on a bed:
and Jesus seeing their faith said to the paralyzed one;

Son, be of good cheer;
your sins are forgiven you.

And, certain of the scribes said within themselves,
This man blasphemes {claims to be God}.

And Jesus knowing their thoughts said,
Why do you think evil in your hearts?

Which is easier, to say,
Your sins are forgiven you;
or to say,
Arise, and walk?

But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins, (He then said to the paralyzed one,) Arise, take up your bed, and go to your house.

And he arose, and departed to his house.

But when the multitudes saw it, they marveled, and glorified God, Who had given such power to men.

And as Jesus passed forth from there, He saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of taxes:
and He said to him,
Follow Me.
And he arose, and followed Him.

And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at a meal in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Him and His disciples.

And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to His disciples, Why does your Master eat with tax collectors and sinners?

But when Jesus heard that, He said to them,
Those who are well do not need a physician, but those who are sick.

But you go and learn what this means,
I will have mercy, and not sacrifice:
because I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Then the disciples of John came to Him, saying,
Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your disciples do not fast?

And Jesus said to them,
Can the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them?
but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then they will fast.

No man puts a piece of new cloth onto old clothing, because that which is put on to fill it up tears from the clothing, and the tear is made worse.

Neither do men put new wine into old wine skins:
else the bottles will break, and the wine runs out, and the wine skins perish:
but they put new wine into new wine skins, and both are preserved.

While He spoke these things to them, there came a certain ruler, and worshiped Him, saying,
My daughter is even now dead:
but come and lay Your hand upon her, and she shall live.

And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did His disciples.

And, a woman, who was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind Him, and touched the hem of His clothing:

Because, she said within herself,
If I may but touch His clothing, I shall be healed.

But Jesus turned Himself around, and when He saw her, He said, Daughter, be of good comfort;
your faith has made you well.
And the woman was made well from that hour.

And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the musicians and the people making a noise,

He said to them,
Make room:
because the maid is not dead, but sleeps.
And they laughed Him to scorn.

But when the people were put out, He went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

And the fame of it went abroad into all the land.

And when Jesus departed from there, two blind men followed Him, crying, and saying,
You Descendant of David, have mercy on us.

And when He had come into the house, the blind men came to Him:
and Jesus said to them,

Do you believe that I am able to do this?
They said to Him,
Yes, Lord.

Then He touched their eyes, saying,
According to your faith so be it to you.

And their eyes were opened;
and Jesus strictly charged them, saying,
See that no man knows it.

But they, when they had departed, spread abroad His fame in all that country.

As they went out, they brought to Him a dumb man {unable to speak} possessed with a demon.

And when the demon was cast out, the dumb spoke:
and the multitudes marveled, saying,
This has never been so seen in Israel.

But the Pharisees said,
He casts out demons through the prince of the demons.

And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

Then He said to His disciples,
The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few;

You pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth laborers into His harvest.

Matthew Chapter 10

And when He had called to Himself His twelve disciples, He gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all kinds of sicknesses and all kinds of diseases.

Now the names of the twelve apostles are these;
The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother;
James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

Philip, and Bartholomew;
Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector;
James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus whose surname was Thaddaeus;

Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him.

These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying,

Do not go into the way of the Gentiles {non-Jews},
and do not enter into any city of the Samaritans:

But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

And as you go, preach, saying,
The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons:
freely you have received, freely give.

Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses,

Nor money for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor staff:
because the workman is worthy of his food.

And into whatever city or town you enter, inquire who in it is worthy;
and stay there until you leave from there.

And when you come into a house, salute {greet} it.

And if the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it:
but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.

And whoever will not receive you, nor hear your words, when you depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet.

Truly I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

Indeed, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves:

therefore be wise as serpents {snakes}, and harmless as doves.

But beware of men:

because they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues;

And you shall be brought before governors and kings for My sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles {non-Jews}.

But when they deliver you up, do not worry how or what you shall speak:

because it shall be given you in that same hour what you shall speak.

Because it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father Who speaks in you.

And the brother will deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child:
and the children will rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

And you will be hated by all men because of My Name's sake:

but he who endures to the end will be saved.

But when they persecute you in this city, flee into another:

because truly I say to you, You will not have gone through the cities of Israel, before the Son of Man comes.

The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord.

If they have called the Master of the house Beelzebub {prince of demons}, how much more will they call those of His household?

Therefore do not fear them:

because there is nothing covered, that will not be revealed;

and hid, that will not be known.

What I tell you in darkness, that you speak in light:

and what you hear in the ear, that preach upon the housetops.

And do not be afraid of those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul:

but rather fear Him Who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing {about a penny}?

and yet not one of them shall fall on the ground without your Father.

But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

Therefore do not be afraid, you are of more value than many sparrows.

Therefore whoever will confess Me before men, him I also will confess before My Father Who is in heaven.

But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father Who is in heaven.

Do not think that I have come to send peace on earth:
I have not come to send peace, but a sword.

Because I have come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

And a man's foes will be those of his own household.

He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me:
and he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me.

And he who does not take his cross, and follow after Me, is not worthy of Me.

He who finds his life shall lose it:
and he who loses his life for My sake shall find it.

He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him Who sent Me.

He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.

And whoever shall give a cup of cold water to drink to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple, truly I say to you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

Matthew Chapter 11

And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding His twelve disciples, He departed from there to teach and to preach in their cities.

Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

And said to Him,
Are You the One Who is to come, or do we look for another?

Jesus answered and said to them,
Go and tell John again those things which you are hearing and seeing:

The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

And blessed is he, whoever shall not be offended in Me.

And as they departed, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John,
What did you go out into the wilderness to see?
A reed shaken with the wind?

But what did you go out to see?
A man clothed in soft clothing?
Indeed,
those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

But what did you go out to see?
A prophet?
yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet.

Because this is he, of whom it is written,
Look, I send My messenger before Your face, who shall prepare Your way before You.

Truly I say to you, Among those who are born of women there has not risen one greater than John the Baptist:
nevertheless he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven allows violence, and the violent take it by force.

Because all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

And if you will receive it, this is Elijah, who was to come.

He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

But to what shall I compare this generation?
It is like children sitting in the markets, and calling to their fellows,

And saying,
We have piped to you, and you have not danced;
we have mourned to you, and you have not lamented.

Because John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He has a demon.

The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, Look a gluttonous man, and a drunk, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.
But wisdom is justified of her children.

Then He began to scold the cities in which most of His mighty works were done, because they did not repent:

Woe to you, Chorazin!
woe to you, Bethsaida {house of hunter}!
because if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

But I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

And you, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, shall be brought down to hell:
because if the mighty works, which have been done in you, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

But I say to you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom, in the day of judgment, than for you.

At that time Jesus answered and said,
I thank You, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent, and have revealed them to babes.

Even so, Father:
because it seemed good in Your sight.

All things are delivered to Me by My Father:
and no man knows the Son, except the Father;
neither does any man know the Father, except the Son, and he to whomever the Son will reveal Him.

Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy burdened, and I will give you rest.

Take My yoke upon you, and learn from Me;
because I am humble and lowly in heart:
and you shall find rest for your souls.

Because My yoke is easy, and My burden is light.

Matthew Chapter 12

At that time Jesus went on the sabbath day {Saturday}, through the corn;
and His disciples were hungry, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to Him,
Look, Your disciples do that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath day {Saturday}.

But He said to them,
Have you not read what David did, when he was hungry, and those who were with him;

How he entered into the house {tabernacle} of God, and ate the holy bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests

Or have you not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days {Saturdays}, the priests in the temple profane the sabbath {Saturday}, and are blameless

But I say to you, That in this place is One greater than the temple.

But if you had known what this means,
I will have mercy, and not sacrifice,
you would not have condemned the innocent.

Because the Son of Man is Lord even of the sabbath day {Saturday}.

And when He had departed from there, He went into their synagogue:

And, there was a man who had a withered hand.
And they asked Him, saying,
Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days {Saturdays}?
that they might accuse Him.

And He said to them,
What man is there be among you, who has one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the sabbath day {Saturday}, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

How much then is a man better than a sheep?
Therefore it is lawful to do good on the sabbath days {Saturdays}.

Then He said to the man,
Stretch forth your hand.
And he stretched it forth;
and it was restored whole, like the other.

Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against Him, how they might destroy Him.

But when Jesus knew it, He withdrew Himself from there:

and great multitudes followed Him, and He healed them all;

And charged them that they should not make Him known:

That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

Look My servant, Whom I have chosen;
My beloved, in Whom My soul is well pleased:
I will put My Spirit upon Him, and He shall show judgment to the Gentiles {non-Jews}.

He shall not strive, nor cry;
neither shall any man hear His voice in the streets.

A bruised reed He shall not break, and smoking flax He shall not quench, until He sends forth judgment to victory.

And in His Name shall the Gentiles {non-Jews}
trust.

Then one possessed with a demon, blind, and dumb was brought to Him:
and He healed him, so that the blind and dumb both spoke and saw.

And all the people were amazed, and said,
Is not this The Descendant of David?

But when the Pharisees heard it, they said,
This fellow does not cast out demons, except by Beelzebub the prince of the demons.

And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said to them,
Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation;
and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself;
how shall then his kingdom stand?

And if I by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your children cast them out?
therefore they will be your judges.

But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man and then he will spoil his house.

He who is not with Me is against Me;
and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad.

Therefore I say to you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven men:

but the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall not be forgiven men.

And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it shall be forgiven him:
but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, nor in the world to come.

Either make the tree good, and its fruit good;
or else make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt: because the tree is known by its fruit.

O generation of vipers {snakes}, how can you, being evil, speak good things?
because out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.

A good man out of the good treasure of the heart brings forth good things:
and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things.

But I say to you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account for it in the day of judgment.

Because by your words you shall be justified, and by your words you shall be condemned.

Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying,
Master, we want to see a sign from You.

But He answered and said to them,
An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign;
but there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonah:

Because as Jonah was three days and three nights in the whale's belly;
so shall the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it:
because they repented at the preaching of Jonah;
and, indeed, a greater than Jonah is here.

The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it:
because she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon;
and, indeed, a greater than Solomon is here.

When the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he walks through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none.

Then he says,
I will return into my house from where I came out;
and when he has come, he finds it empty, swept, and decorated.

Then he goes, and takes with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and live there:
and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

Even so shall it be also to this wicked generation.

While He yet talked to the people, His mother and His brothers stood outside, desiring to speak with Him.

Then one said to Him,
Look, Your mother and Your brothers stand outside, desiring to speak with You.

But He answered and said to the one who told Him,
Who is My mother?
and who are My brothers?

And He stretched forth His hand toward His disciples, and said, See My mother and My brothers!

Because whoever does the will of My Father Who is in heaven, that one is My brother, and sister, and mother.

Matthew Chapter 13

The same day Jesus went out of the house, and sat by the sea side.

And great multitudes were gathered together to Him, so that He went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

And He spoke many things to them in parables, saying,
Listen, a sower went out to sow;

And when he sowed, some seed fell by the side of the road, and the birds came and ate them:

Some fell upon stony places, where they did not have much earth:
and quickly they sprang up, because they had no depth of earth:

And when the sun came up, they were scorched;
because they had no root, and they withered away.

And some fell among thorns;
and the thorns sprang up, and choked them:

But other seed fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

Let the one who has ears to hear, hear.

And the disciples came, and said to Him,
Why do You speak to them in parables?

He answered and said to them,
Because it is given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

Because whoever has, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance; but whoever does not have, from him shall be taken away even what he has.

Therefore I speak to them in parables: because even though they see they do not see;
and even though they hear they do not hear, neither do they understand.

And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which says,
By hearing you shall hear, and shall not understand;
and seeing you shall see, and shall not perceive:

Because this people's heart has hardened, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

But blessed are your eyes, because they see:
and your ears, because they hear.

Because truly I say to you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which you see, and have not seen them;
and to hear those things which you hear, and have not heard them.

Therefore hear the parable of the sower.

When anyone hears the word of the kingdom, and does not understand it, then the wicked one comes and snatches away that which was sown in his heart.
This is the one who received seed by the side of the road.

But he who receives the seed into stony places, the same is he who hears the word, and at once receives it with joy;

Yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while:
but when tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, by and by he is offended.

Also he who received seed among the thorns is one who hears the word;
but the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful.

But he who receives seed in the good ground is he who hears the word, and understands it;
and also bears fruit, and brings forth, some a hundredfold some sixty, some thirty.

He put forth another parable to them, saying,
The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field:

But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and went his way.

But when the blade sprang up, and brought forth fruit, then the weeds also appeared.

So the servants of the householder came and said to him, Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field?
where then did the weeds come from?

He said to them,
An enemy has done this.
The servants said to him,
Do you want us to go and gather them up?

But he said,
No;
lest while you gather up the weeds, you also root up the wheat with them.

Let both grow together until the harvest:

and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather together first the weeds, and bind them in bundles to burn them:
but gather the wheat into my barn.

Another parable He put forth to them, saying,
The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

Which indeed is the smallest of all seeds:
but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and live in its branches.

Another parable He spoke to them;
The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened.

All these things Jesus spoke to the multitude in parables;
and without a parable He did not speak to them:

That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

I will open My mouth in parables;
I will speak things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house:
and His disciples came to Him, saying,
Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.

He answered and said to them,
He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man;

The field is the world;
the good seed are the children of the kingdom;
but the weeds are the children of the wicked one;

The enemy who sowed them is the devil;
the harvest is the end of the world;
and the reapers are the angels.

Therefore as the weeds are gathered and burned in the fire;
so shall it be in the end of this world.

The Son of Man shall send forth His angels, and they shall gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who do evil;

And shall cast them into a furnace of fire:
there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

Then the righteous shall shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father.

The one who has ears to hear, let him hear.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hid in a field; which when a man has found it, he hides it, and because of his joy he goes and sells all that he has, and buys that field.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant man, seeking precious pearls:

Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind:

Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

So shall it be at the end of the world:
the angels shall come forth, and separate the wicked from among the just,

And shall cast them into the furnace of fire:
there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

Jesus said to them,
Have you understood all these things?
They said to Him,
Yes, Lord.

Then He said to them,
Therefore every scribe who is instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like a man that is a householder, who brings forth out of his treasure things new and old.

And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, He departed from there.

And when He had come into His own country, He taught them in their synagogue, so much so that they were astonished, and said,
Where has this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

Is not this the carpenter's son?
is not His mother called Mary?
and His brothers, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

And His sisters, are they not all with us?
Where then has this man all these things?

And they were offended in Him.
But Jesus said to them,
A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and in his own house.

And He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

Matthew Chapter 14

At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of Jesus' fame,

And said to his servants,
This is John the Baptist;
he has risen from the dead;
and therefore mighty works are showing themselves in Him.

Because Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison because of Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife.

Because John said to him,
It is not lawful for you to have her.

But when he wanted to put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

But when Herod's birthday was celebrated, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

Upon which he promised with an oath to give her whatever she would ask.

And she, being instructed beforehand by her mother, said,
Give me John the Baptist's head on a platter.

And the king was sorry:
nevertheless because the oath's sake, and those who sat with him at meal, he commanded it to be given her.

And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

And his head was brought in on a platter, and given to the girl:
and she brought it to her mother.

And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

When Jesus heard of it, He departed from there by ship to a desert place apart:
and when the people had heard of it, they followed Him on foot out of the cities.

And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and He healed their sick.

And when it was evening, His disciples came to Him, saying,
This is a desert place, and the time is now past;
send the multitude away, so that they may go into the villages, and buy food for themselves.

But Jesus said to them,
They do not need to depart;
you give them food to eat.

And they said to Him,
We have here only five loaves, and two fish.

He said, Bring them to Me.

And He commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed, and broke, and gave the loaves to His disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

And they all ate, and were filled:
and they took up of the fragments that were left;
twelve baskets full.

And those who had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

And immediately Jesus commanded His disciples to get into a ship, and to go before Him to the other side, while He sent the multitudes away.

And when He had sent the multitudes away, He went up into a mountain by Himself to pray:
and when the evening had come, He was alone.

But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves:
because the wind was rough.

And in the fourth watch of the night {between three a.m. and six a.m.} Jesus went to them, walking on the sea.

And when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying,
It is a spirit;
and they cried out for fear.

But Jesus quickly spoke to them, saying,
Be of good cheer;
it is I;
do not be afraid.

And Peter answered Him and said,
Lord, if it is You, call me to come to You on the water.

And He said,
Come.
And when Peter had come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

But when he saw the rough wind, he was afraid;
and beginning to sink, he cried, saying,

Lord, save me.

And immediately Jesus stretched forth His hand, and caught him, and said to him,
O you of little faith, why did you doubt?

And when they had come into the ship, the wind ceased.

Then those who were in the ship came and worshiped Him, saying,
Truly You are the Son of God.

And when they had crossed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret.

And when the men of that place had knowledge of Him, they sent out into all around that country, and brought to Him all who were diseased;

And sought for Him that they might only touch the hem of His clothing:
and as many as touched Him were made perfectly whole.

Matthew Chapter 15

Then scribes and Pharisees came to Jesus, who were from Jerusalem, saying,

Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders?
Because they do not wash their hands when they eat bread.

But He answered and said to them,
Why do you also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

Because God commanded, saying, Honor your father and mother:
and, He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.

But you say,
Whoever shall say to his father or his mother, by whatever you might have profited from me,
*It is a gift to the temple;

And does not honor his father or his mother, he shall be free.
So you have made the commandment of God of no effect by your tradition.

You hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

This people draws near to Me with their mouth, and honors Me with their lips;
but their heart is far from Me.

But in vain they do worship Me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

And He called the multitude, and said to them,
Hear, and understand:

It is not that which goes into the mouth that defiles a man;
but that which comes out of the mouth, this is what defiles a man.

Then His disciples came, and said to Him,
Do You know that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?

But He answered and said,
Every plant, which My heavenly Father has not planted, shall be rooted up.

Let them alone:
they are blind leaders of the blind.
And if the blind leads the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

Then Peter answered and said to Him,
Explain to us this parable.

And Jesus said,
Are you still also without understanding?

Do you still not understand, that whatever enters in at the mouth goes into the belly, and is cast out into the waste?

But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

Because out of the heart proceeds evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

These are the things which defile a man:
but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man.

Then Jesus went from there, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.

And, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried to Him, saying,
Have mercy on me, O Lord, You Descendant of David;
my daughter is in great pain with a demon.

But He did not answer her not a word.
And His disciples came and sought Him, saying, Send her away;
because she cries after us.

But He answered and said,
I am not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

Then she came and worshiped Him, saying,
Lord, help me.

But He answered and said,
It is not right to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.

And she said,
That is true, Lord:
yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

Then Jesus answered and said to her,
*O woman, great is your faith:
it shall be for as you want it.*
And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

And Jesus departed from there, and came near to the Sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

And great multitudes came to Him, having with them those who were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet;

and He healed them:

So much so that the multitude marveled, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing:
and they glorified the God of Israel.

Then Jesus called His disciples to Himself, and said,
I have compassion on the multitude, because they have stayed with Me now three days, and have nothing to eat:
and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint along the road

But His disciples said to Him,
Where could we have so much food in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

And Jesus said to them,
How many loaves do you have?
And they said, Seven, and a few little fish.

And He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

And He took the seven loaves and the fish, and gave thanks, and broke them, and gave to His disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

And they all ate, and were filled:
and they took up of the broken food that was left seven baskets full.

And those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children.

And He sent away the multitude, and took a ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

Matthew Chapter 16

The Pharisees also came with the Sadducees, and tempting Him desired that He would show them a sign from heaven.

He answered and said to them,
When it is evening, you say, It will be fair weather:
because the sky is red.

And in the morning, It will be foul weather today:
because the sky is red and lowering.
O you hypocrites, you can discern the face of the sky;
but you cannot discern the signs of the times?

A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign;
but no sign shall be given to it, except the sign of the prophet Jonah.
And He left them, and departed.

And when His disciples had come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

Then Jesus said to them,
Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

And they reasoned among themselves, saying,
It is because we have taken no bread.

But when Jesus perceived it, He said to them,
O you of little faith, why do you reason among yourselves, because you have brought no bread?

Do you not yet understand, nor remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up?

Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up?

How is it that you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread, but that you should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

Then they understood how that He did not tell them to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of Man am?

And they said,
Some say that You are John the Baptist:
some, Elijah;
and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.

He said to them,
But Whom do you say that I am?

And Simon Peter answered and said,
You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.

And Jesus answered and said to him, Blessed are you, Simon Bar-jona {son of John}:
because flesh and blood has not revealed it to you, but My Father Who is in heaven.

And I also say to you, That you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My church;
and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

And I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of heaven:
and whatever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven:
and whatever you shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Then He charged His disciples that they should tell no man that He was Jesus the Christ.

From that time forth Jesus began to show to His disciples, how that He must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

Then Peter took Him, and began to rebuke Him, saying, Far be it from You, Lord:
this shall not happen to You.

But He turned, and said to Peter,
You get behind me, Satan:
you are an offense to Me:
because You do not delight in the things that are of God, but those that are of men.

Then Jesus said to His disciples,
If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me.

Because whoever will save his life shall lose it:
and whoever will lose his life for My sake shall find it.

What does it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?
or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

Because the Son of Man shall come in the glory of His Father with His angels; and then He shall reward every man according to his works.

Truly I say to you, There are some standing here, who will not taste of death, before they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom.

Matthew Chapter 17

And after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and brought them up into a high mountain apart,

And His appearance was changed before their eyes:
and His face shone as the sun, and His clothing was white as the light.

And, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with Him.

Then Peter spoke up, and said to Jesus,
Lord, it is good for us to be here:
if You are willing, let us make here three tabernacles;
one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.

While he was still speaking, a bright cloud overshadowed them:
and a voice came out of the cloud, which said,
This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased;
you listen to Him.

And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were greatly afraid.

And Jesus came and touched them, and said,
Arise, and do not be afraid.

And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, except Jesus alone.

And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying,
Do not tell any man the vision, until the Son of Man has risen again from the dead.

And His disciples asked Him, saying,
Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must first come?

And Jesus answered and said to them,
Elijah truly shall come first, and restore all things.

But I say to you, That Elijah has come already, and they did not know him, but have done to him whatever they wanted.
Likewise also the Son of Man will suffer by them.

Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them of John the Baptist.

And when they had come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to Him, and saying,

Lord, have mercy on my son:
because he is lunatic, and in great pain:
because often he falls into the fire, and often into the water.

And I brought him to Your disciples, but they could not cure him.

Then Jesus answered and said,
O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you?
how long shall I suffer you?
bring him here to Me.

And Jesus rebuked the demon;
and he departed out of him:
and the child was cured from that very hour.

Then the disciples came to Jesus apart, and said,
Why could we not cast him out?

And Jesus said to them,
Because of your unbelief:
because truly I say to you, If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you shall say to this mountain, Remove from here to yonder place;
and it shall remove;
and nothing shall be impossible to you.

Nevertheless this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting.

And while they stayed in Galilee, Jesus said to them,
The Son of Man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

And they shall kill Him, and the third day He shall be raised again.
And they were exceedingly sorrowful.

And when they had come to Capernaum, those who received tax money came to Peter, and said,
Does your master not pay taxes?

He said,
Yes.
And when he had come into the house, Jesus stopped him, saying,
What do you think, Simon?
of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or taxes?
of their own children, or of strangers?

Peter said to Him,
Of strangers.
Jesus said to him,
Then the children are free.

Nevertheless, lest we should offend them, you go to the sea, and cast a hook, and take up the fish that first comes up;

and when you have opened his mouth, you shall find a piece of money:
take that, and give to them for Me and yourself.

Matthew Chapter 18

At the same time the disciples came to Jesus, saying,
Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

And Jesus called a little child to Himself, and set him in the midst of them,

And said, Truly I say to you, Unless you are converted, and become as little children, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Whoever therefore will humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

And whosoever will receive one such little child in My Name receives Me.

But whoever offends one of these little ones who believe in Me, it would be better for him that a millstone were hung about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

Woe to the world because of offenses!
Because it is necessary that offenses come;
but woe to that man by whom the offense comes!

Therefore if your hand or your foot offends you, cut them off, and cast them from you:
it is better for you to enter into life handicapped or mutilated, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

And if your eye offends you, pluck it out, and cast it from you:
it is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

Take heed that you do not despise one of these little ones;
because I say to you, That in heaven their angels are always looking upon the face of My Father Who is in heaven.

Because the Son of Man has come to save that which was lost.

What do you think?
If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine, and go into the mountains, and seek that which has gone astray?

And if it happens that he finds it, truly I say to you, he rejoices more over that sheep, than in the ninety-nine which did not go astray.

Even so it is not the will of your Father Who is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

Moreover if your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone:

if he will listen to you, you have gained your brother.

But if he will not listen to you, then take with you one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

And if he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church: but if he refuses to listen to the church, let him be to you as an unbeliever and a tax collector.

Truly I say to you, Whatever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven:
and whatever you shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth concerning anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them by My Father Who is in heaven.

Because where two or three are gathered together in My Name, there am I in the midst of them.

Then Peter came to Him, and said, Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him?
until seven times?

Jesus said to him,
I do not say to you, until seven times:
but, until seventy times seven.

Therefore the kingdom of heaven is compared to a certain king, who would take account of his servants.

And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought to him, who owed him ten thousand talents {about seven point fifty-six million pounds or three hundred forty-three thousand kilograms} {of silver}.

But since he was unable to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

The servant therefore fell down, and worshiped him, saying,
Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay you all.

Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow servants, who owed him a hundred pence:
and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying,
Pay me what you owe.

And his fellow servant fell down at his feet, and begged him, saying,
Have patience with me, and I will pay you all.

But he would not listen:
but went and cast him into prison, until he should pay the debt.

So when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were very sorry, and came and told to their lord all that had taken place.

Then his lord, after he had called him, said to him,
O you wicked servant, I forgave you all that debt, because you asked me:

Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, even as I had pity on you?

And his lord was angry, and delivered him to the tormentors, until he should pay all that was owed to him.

So likewise shall My heavenly Father do to you, if every one of you from your hearts do not forgive your brothers their sins against you.

Matthew Chapter 19

And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, He departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judea beyond Jordan;

And great multitudes followed Him;
and He healed them there.

The Pharisees also came to Him, tempting Him, and saying to Him,
Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason?

And He answered and said to them,
*Have you not read, that He Who made them at the beginning made them male and female,*

*And said,
For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall cling to his wife:
and they two shall be one flesh*

*Therefore they are no more two, but one flesh.
What therefore God has joined together, let no man put asunder.*

They said to Him,
Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

He said to them,
*Moses because of the hardness of your hearts allowed you to put away your wives:
but from the beginning it was not so.*

*And I say to you, Whoever shall put away his wife, unless she is guilty of fornication, and shall marry another, commits adultery:
and whoever marries her who is put away commits adultery.*

His disciples said to Him,
If the case of the man is so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

But He said to them,
*All men cannot receive this saying, except those to whom it is given.*

*Because there are some eunuchs, who were born so from their mother's womb:
and there are some eunuchs, who were made eunuchs by men:
and there are eunuchs, who have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake.
He who is able to receive it, let him receive it.*

Then there were brought to Him little children, that He should put His hands on them, and pray:
but the disciples rebuked them.

But Jesus said,

Allow little children to come to Me, and do not forbid them:
because of such is the kingdom of heaven.

And He laid His hands on them, and departed from there.

And, one came and said to Him,
Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

And He said to him,
Why do you call Me good?
there is none good but One, that is, God but if you will enter into life, keep the commandments.

He said to Him, Which ones? Jesus said,
You shall not murder, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness,

Honor your father and your mother:
and, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

The young man said to Him,
All these things have I kept from my youth up:
what do I still lack?

Jesus said to him,
*If you want to be perfect, go and sell all that you have, and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven:
and come and follow Me.*

But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful:
because he had great possessions.

Then Jesus said to His disciples,
Truly I say to you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

And again I say to you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

When His disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying,
Who then can be saved?

But Jesus saw them, and said to them,
With men this is impossible;
but with God all things are possible.

Then Peter answered and said to Him,
Indeed, we have forsaken all, and followed You;
therefore what shall we have?

And Jesus said to them,

Truly I say to you, That you who have followed Me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of His glory, you also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

And everyone who has forsaken houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for My Name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

Matthew Chapter 20

Because the kingdom of heaven is compared to a man who was a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his vineyard.

And when he had agreed with the laborers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

And he went out about the third hour {nine a.m.}, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

And said to them; You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

Again he went out about the sixth {noon} and the ninth hour {three p.m.}, and did likewise.

And about the eleventh hour {five p.m.}
he went out, and found others standing idle, and said to them,
Why do you stand here all the day idle?

They said to him,
Because no man has hired us.
He said to them,
You also go into the vineyard;
and whatever is right, that you shall receive.

So when evening had come, the lord of the vineyard said to his steward, Call the laborers, and give them their hire, beginning with the last to the first.

And when they came who were hired about five o'clock in the evening, they each received a penny.

But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more;
and they likewise each received a penny.

And when they had received it, they murmured against the good man of the house,

Saying,
These last have worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who have borne the burden and heat of the day.

But he answered one of them, and said,
Friend, I am not doing you wrong:

did you not agree with me for a penny?

Take what is yours, and go your way:
I will give to these last, even as I give to you.

Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with my own?
Is your eye evil, because I am good?

So the last shall be first, and the first last:
because many are called, but few are chosen.

And Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said to them,

Indeed, we are going up to Jerusalem:
and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes, and they will condemn Him to death,

And will deliver Him to the Gentiles {non-Jews} to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify Him:
and the third day He will rise again.

Then the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons came to Him, worshiping Him, and desiring something of Him.

And He said to her,
What is it you want?
She said to Him,
Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on Your right hand, and the other on the left, in Your kingdom.

But Jesus answered and said,
You do not know what you are asking.
Are you able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?
They said to Him,
We are able.

And He said to them,
You shall indeed drink of My cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with:
but to sit on My right hand, and on My left, is not Mine to give, but it shall be given to those for whom it is prepared for by My Father.

And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brothers.

But Jesus called them to Himself, and said,
You know that the princes of the Gentiles {non-Jews} exercise rule over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them.

But it shall not be so among you:
but whoever will be great among you, let him be your minister;

And whoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:

Even as the Son of Man came not to be ministered to, but to minister, and to give His life a ransom for many.

And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed Him.

And, two blind men sitting by the road side, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying,

Have mercy on us, O Lord, You son of David.

But the multitude rebuked them, that they should hold their peace:
but they cried the more, saying,

Have mercy on us, O Lord, You son of David.

And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said,

What is it you want Me to do for you?

They said to Him,

Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes:
and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

Matthew Chapter 21

And when they drew near to Jerusalem, and had come to Bethphage, to the mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples,

Saying to them,

Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you shall find a donkey tied, and a colt with her:

loose them, and bring them to Me.

And if any man says anything to you, you shall say,

The Lord has need of them;

and immediately he will send them.

All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

Tell the daughter of Zion,

Look, your king comes to you, humble, and sitting upon a donkey;
a colt the foal of a donkey.

And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

And brought the donkey, and the colt, and put their clothes upon them, and they set Him on the clothes.

And a very great multitude spread their coats in the road;
others cut down branches from the trees, and spread them in the road.

And the multitudes who went before, and those who followed, cried, saying,

Hosanna

{Save us now}

to the son of David:

Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord;

Hosanna

{Save us now}

in the highest.

And when He had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying,
Who is this?

And the multitude said,

This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of those who sold doves,

And said to them,

It is written,
My house shall be called the house of prayer;
but you have made it a den of thieves.

And the blind and the lame came to Him in the temple;
and He healed them.

And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying,
Hosanna
{Save us now}
to the son of David;
they were greatly displeased,

And said to Him,
Do You not hear what these say?
And Jesus said to them,

Yes; have you never read,
Out of the mouths of babes and nursing children You have perfected praise

And He left them, and went out of the city into Bethany; and He lodged there.

Now in the morning as He returned into the city, He was hungry.

And when He saw a fig tree by the road, He came to it, and found nothing upon it, but leaves only, and said to it,
Let no fruit grow on you from this time forward forever.
And presently the fig tree withered away.

And when the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying,
How soon the fig tree has withered away!

Jesus answered and said to them,
Truly I say to you, If you have faith, and do not doubt, you shall not only do this which has been done to the fig tree, but also if you shall say to this mountain,
Be removed, and be cast into the sea;
it shall be done.

And all things, whatever you shall ask in prayer, believing, you shall receive.

And when He had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to Him as He was teaching, and said,
By what authority do You do these things?
and who gave You this authority?

And Jesus answered and said to them,
I also will ask you one thing, which if you tell Me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

The baptism of John, where was it from?
from heaven, or from men?

And they reasoned with themselves, saying,
If we say,
From heaven;
He will say to us,
Why did you not then believe him?

But if we say,
Of men;
we fear the people;
because all hold John as a prophet.

And they answered Jesus, and said,
We cannot tell.
And He said to them,
Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

But what do you think?
A certain man had two sons;
and he came to the first, and said,
Son, go work today in my vineyard.

He answered and said,
I will not:
but afterward he repented, and went.

And he came to the second, and said likewise.
And he answered and said,
I go, sir: but did not go.

Which of the two did the will of his father?

They said to Him,
The first.

Jesus said to them,
Truly I say to you, That the tax collectors and prostitutes shall go into the kingdom of God before you.

Because John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him;
but the tax collectors and prostitutes believed him:
and you, when you had seen it, did not afterward repent, that you might believe him.

Hear another parable:

There was a certain householder, who planted a vineyard, and encircled it with a hedge, and dug a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to gardeners, and went into a far country:

And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the gardeners, that they might receive of its fruits.

And the gardeners took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

Again, he sent other servants more than the first:
and they did to them the same.

But last of all he sent to them his son, saying,
They will respect my son.

But when the gardeners saw the son, they said among themselves,
This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

Therefore when the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those gardeners?

They said to Him,
He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard to other gardeners, who shall render to him the fruits in their seasons.

Jesus said to them,

Did you never read in the Scriptures,

The Stone which the builders rejected, the same has become the head of the corner:

this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?

Therefore I say to you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth its fruits.

And whoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken:
but on whomever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard His parables, they perceived that He spoke of them.

But when they sought to lay hands on Him, they feared the multitude, because they took Him for a prophet.

Matthew Chapter 22

And Jesus answered and spoke to them again by parables, and said,

The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king, who made a wedding for his son.

And sent forth his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding:
but they would not come.

Again, he sent forth other servants, saying,
Tell those who are invited,
Look, I have prepared my dinner:
my oxen and my fattened calves are killed, and all things are ready:
come to the marriage.

But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

And the remnant took his servants, and treated them spitefully, and killed them.

But when the king heard of it, he was angry:
and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

Then he said to his servants,
The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy.

Go therefore into the highways, and as many as you shall find, invite to the marriage.

So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good:
and the wedding was furnished with guests.

And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who did not have on wedding clothes:

And he said to him,
Friend, how is it you came here without wedding clothes?
And he was speechless.

Then the king said to the servants,
Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness;
there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Because many are called, but few are chosen.

Then the Pharisees went, and took counsel how they might entrap Him in His talk.

And they sent out to Him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that You are true, and teach the way of God in truth, neither do You care for any man:

because You do not regard the person of men.

Tell us therefore,
What do You think?
Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?

But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said,
Why do you tempt Me, you hypocrites?

Show Me the tax money.
And they brought to Him a penny.

And He said to them,
Whose image and superscription is this?

They said to him,
Caesar's.
Then He said to them,
Therefore give to Caesar the things which are Caesar's;
and to God the things that are God's.

When they had heard these words, they marveled, and left Him, and went their way.

The same day the Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection, came to Him and asked Him,

Saying,
Master, Moses said, If a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up offspring for his brother.

Now there were with us seven brothers:
and the first, when he had married a wife, died, and, having no offspring, left his wife to his brother:

Likewise the second also, and the third, to the seventh.

And last of all the woman died also.

Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven?
Because they all had her.

Jesus answered and said to them,
You do err, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God.

Because in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying,

I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?
God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.

But when the Pharisees had heard that He had put the Sadducees to silence, they gathered together.

Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked Him a question, tempting Him, and saying,

Master, which is the greatest commandment in the law?

Jesus said to him,

You shall love the LORD {Jehovah} your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.

This is the first and greatest commandment.

And the second is like it,

You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,

Saying,

What do you think of Christ?
whose son is He?

They said to Him,
The son of David.

He said to them,

How then does David in spirit call Him Lord, saying,

The LORD {Jehovah} said to my Lord, Sit on My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool?

If David then calls him, Lord, how is He his son?

And no man was able to answer Him a word, neither did any man dare from that day forth ask Him any more questions.

Matthew Chapter 23

Then Jesus spoke to the multitude, and to His disciples,

Saying,

The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:

Therefore everything they bid you observe, that observe and do;
but do not do according to their deeds:
because they say, but do not do.

Because they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders;
but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

But all their works they do in order to be seen by men:
they make broad their phylacteries {scripture pouches} and enlarge the borders of their robes,

And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

And greetings in the markets, and to be called by men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

But you should not be called Rabbi:
because one is your Master, even Christ;
and all of you are brothers.

And do not call any man your father upon the earth:
because One is your Father, Who is in heaven.

Neither be called masters:
because One is your Master, even Christ.

But he who is greatest among you shall be your servant.

And whoever shall exalt himself shall be humbled;
but he who shall humble himself shall be exalted.

But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!
because you shut up the kingdom of heaven against men:
because you neither go in yourselves, neither allow those who are entering to go in.

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!
because you devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers:
therefore you shall receive the greater damnation.

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!
because you go around sea and land to make one convert, and when he is made, you make him twice the child of hell that you are.

Woe to you, you blind guides, who say,
If anyone swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

You fools and blind:
which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifies the gold?

And, Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

You fools and blind:
which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifies the gift?

Whoever therefore swears by the altar, swears by it, and by all things upon it.

And whoever swears by the temple, swears by it, and by Him Who lives in it.

And he who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God, and by Him Who sits upon it.

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!
because you pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, but have omitted the more important matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith:
these you ought to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

You blind guides, who strain out a gnat, and swallow a camel.

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!
because you make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but inside they are full of extortion and excess.

You blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is inside the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!
because you are like white-washed tombs, which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but inside are full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and sin.

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!
because you build the tombs of the prophets, and decorate the tombs of the righteous,

And say,
If we had lived in the days of our forefathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

Therefore you are witnesses to yourselves, that you are the children of those who killed the prophets.

Fill yourselves up then the measure of your forefathers.

You snakes, you generation of vipers, how can you escape the damnation of hell?

Therefore, I send to you prophets, and wise men, and scribes:
and some of them you shall kill and crucify;
and some of them you shall scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Barachias, whom you killed between the temple and the altar.

Truly I say to you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who killed the prophets, and stoned those who are sent to you, how often I would have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you would not!

Look, your house is left to you desolate.

Because I say to you, You shall not see Me from this time forward, until you shall say,
Blessed is He Who comes in the Name of the Lord.

Matthew Chapter 24

And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple:
and His disciples came to Him to show Him the buildings of the temple.

And Jesus said to them,
Do you not see all these things?
Truly I say to you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

And as He sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be?
and what shall be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the world?

And Jesus answered and said to them,
Take heed that no man deceives you.

Because many will come in My Name, saying,
I am Christ;
and will deceive many.

And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars:
see that you are not troubled:
because all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

Because nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:
and there will be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in various places.

All these are the beginning of sorrows.

Then they will deliver you up to be afflicted, and will kill you:
and you will be hated by all nations for My Name's sake.

And then many will be offended, and will betray one another, and will hate one another.

And many false prophets will rise, and will deceive many.

And because sin will abound, the love of many will grow cold.

But he who endures to the end, the same will be saved.

And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world for a witness to all nations;
and then the end will come.

Therefore, when you see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoever reads, let him understand):

Then let those who are in Judea flee into the mountains:

Let him who is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house:

Neither let him who is in the field return back to take his clothes.

And woe to those that are with child, and to those who nurse children in those days!

But pray that your flight not be in the winter, neither on the sabbath day {Saturday}:

Because then there shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved:
but for the elect's sake those days will be shortened.

Then if any man says to you,
Look, here is Christ, or there;
do not believe it.

Because there will arise false Christs, and false prophets, and will show great signs and wonders;
insomuch that, if it were possible, they would deceive the very elect.

Indeed, I have told you beforehand.

Therefore if they say to you,
Look, He is in the desert;
do not go forth:
see, He is in the secret chambers;
do not believe it.

Because as the lightning comes out of the east, and shines even to the west;
so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be.

Because wherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

And then there will appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven:
and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

And He shall send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Now learn a parable of the fig tree;
When its branch is yet tender, and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near:

So likewise you, when you see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

Truly I say to you, This generation shall not pass, before all these things are fulfilled.

Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

But of that day and hour no one knows no, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only.

But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.

Because as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark,

And did not know until the flood came, and took them all away;
so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.

Then two will be in the field;
the one will be taken, and the other left.

Two women will be grinding at the mill;
the one will be taken, and the other left.

Watch therefore:
because you do not know what hour your Lord comes.

But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have allowed his house to be broken up.

Therefore you also be ready:
because in such an hour as you do not think the Son of Man comes.

Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord has made ruler over his household, to give them food in due season?

Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he comes will find so doing.

Truly I say to you, That he will make him ruler over all his goods.

But if that evil servant says in his heart,
My lord delays his coming;

And begins to strike his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

The lord of that servant will come in a day when he is not looking for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

And will cut him apart, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites:
there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Matthew Chapter 25

Then the kingdom of heaven will be compared to ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

Those who were foolish took their lamps, but took no oil with them:

But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

And at midnight there was a cry made,
Look, the bridegroom is coming;
go out to meet him.

Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

And the foolish said to the wise,
Give us of your oil;
because our lamps have gone out.

But the wise answered, saying,
Not so; in case there is not enough for us and you:
but you go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.

And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came;
and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage:
and the door was shut.

Afterward the other virgins also came, saying,
Lord, Lord, open to us.

But he answered and said,
Truly I say to you, I do not know you.

Watch therefore, because you do not know either the day or the hour in which the Son of Man is coming.

Because the kingdom of heaven is as a man traveling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered to them his goods.

And to one he gave five talents {of silver} {about three hundred seventy-eight pounds; one hundred seventy-one kilograms}, to another two {about one hundred fifty-one point two pounds; sixty-eight point six kilograms}, and to another one {about seventy-five point six pounds;

thirty-four point three kilograms};
to every man according to each one's ability;
and immediately took his journey.

Then he who had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them five more talents.

And likewise he who had received two, he also gained two more.

But he who had received one went and dug in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

After a long time the lord of those servants came, and reckoned with them.

And so he who had received five talents came and brought five talents more, saying,
Lord, you delivered to me five talents:
look, I have gained besides them five talents more.

His lord said to him,
Well done, you good and faithful servant:
you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things:
enter into the joy of your lord.

He also who had received two talents came and said,
Lord, you delivered to me two talents:
look, I have gained two other talents besides them.

His lord said to him,
Well done, good and faithful servant;
you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things:
enter into the joy of your lord.

Then he who had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew you that you are a hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not planted:

And I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the earth:
look, there you have what is yours.

His lord answered and said to him,
You wicked and lazy servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not planted:

You ought therefore to have put my money to the bankers, and then at my coming I should have received my own with interest.

Take therefore the talent from him, and give it to him who has ten talents.

Because to everyone who has shall more be given, and he shall have abundance:
but from him who does not have shall be taken away even what he has.

And cast the unprofitable servant into outer darkness:
there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

When the Son of Man shall come in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He shall sit upon the throne of His glory:

And all nations shall be gathered before Him:
and He shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats:

Then the King shall say to those on His right hand, Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

Because I was hungry, and you gave Me food:
I was thirsty, and you gave Me drink:
I was a stranger, and you took Me in:

Naked, and you clothed Me:
I was sick, and you visited Me:
I was in prison, and you came to Me.

Then the righteous will answer Him, saying,
Lord, when did we see You hungry, and fed You?
or thirsty, and gave You drink?

When did we see You a stranger, and took You in?
or naked, and clothed You?

Or when did we see You sick, or in prison, and came to You?

And the King shall answer and say to them,
Truly I say to you, Inasmuch as you have done it for one of the least of these My brothers, you have done it for Me.

Then He shall say also to those on the left hand, Depart from Me, you cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

Because I was hungry, and you gave Me no food:
I was thirsty, and you gave Me no drink:

I was a stranger, and you did not take Me in:
naked, and you did not clothe Me:
sick, and in prison, and you did not visit Me.

Then they shall also answer Him, saying,
Lord, when did we see You hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to You?

Then He shall answer them, saying, Truly I say to you, Inasmuch as you did not do it for one of the least of these, you did not do it for Me.

And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

Matthew Chapter 26

And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, He said to His disciples,

You know that after two days is the feast of the Passover, and the Son of Man is betrayed to be crucified.

Then the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, assembled together to the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

And consulted that they might take Jesus secretly, and kill Him.

But they said,
Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,

There came to Him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on His head, as He sat at meal.

But when His disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying,
To what purpose is this waste?

This ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

When Jesus understood it, He said to them,

Why do you trouble the woman?
Because she has done a good work upon Me.

Because you have the poor always with you;
but Me you will not always have.

Because in that she has poured this ointment on My body, she did it for My burial.

Truly I say to you, Wherever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall this also, which this woman has done, be told for a memorial of her.

Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests,

And asked them,
What will you give me, and I will deliver Him to you?
And they contracted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

And from that time he sought opportunity to betray Him.

Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying to Him,
Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?

And He said,
Go into the city to such a man, and say to him,
The Master says, My time is at hand;
I will keep the Passover at your house with My disciples.

And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them;
and they made ready the Passover.

Now when the evening had come, He sat down with the twelve.

And as they ate, He said,
Truly I say to you, that one of you shall betray Me.

And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and every one of them began to say to Him, Lord, is it I?

And He answered and said,
He who dips his hand with Mine in the dish, the same shall betray Me.

The Son of Man goes as it is written of Him:
but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed!
it would have been good for that man if he had not been born.

Then Judas, who betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I?
He said to him,
You have said so.

And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and broke it, and gave it to the disciples, and said,
Take, eat; this is My body.

And He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying,
Drink all of it;

Because this is My blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the forgiveness of sins.

But I say to you, I will not drink again of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew with you in My Father's kingdom.

And when they had sung a hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

Then Jesus said to them,
All of you will be offended because of Me this night:
because it is written,
I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

But after I have risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

Peter answered and said to Him,
Though all men shall be offended because of You, yet I will never be offended.

Jesus said to him,
Truly I say to you, That this night, before the cock crows, you will deny Me three times.

Peter said to Him,
Though I should die with You, yet I will not deny You.
All the disciples also said likewise.

Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane {oil press [grape or olive]}, and said to the disciples, Sit here, while I go and pray over there.

And He took with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy hearted.

Then He said to them,
My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death:
stay here, and watch with Me.

And He went a little farther, and fell on His face, and prayed, saying,
O My Father, if it can be possible, let this cup pass from Me:
nevertheless not as I will, but as You will.

And He came to the disciples, and found them asleep, and said to Peter,
What, could you not watch with Me one hour?

Watch and pray, that you not enter into temptation:
the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying,
O My Father, if this cup may not pass away from Me, unless I drink it, Your will be done.

And He came and found them asleep again:
because their eyes were heavy.

And He left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

Then He came to His disciples, and said to them, Sleep on now, and take your rest:
the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Rise, let us be going:
he is at hand who betrays Me.

And while He yet spoke, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

Now he who betrayed Him gave them a sign, saying, Whomever I shall kiss, that same one is He:
hold Him tightly.

And immediately he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master;
and kissed Him.

And Jesus said to him,
Friend, why have you come?
Then they came, and laid hands on Jesus, and took Him.

And, one of those who was with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and cut off his ear.

Then Jesus said to him,
Put up away your sword in its place:
because all who take the sword shall perish with the sword.

Do you not think that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He shall immediately give Me more than twelve legions of angels?

But how then shall the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must be this way?

In that same hour Jesus said to the multitudes,
Have you come out as against a thief with swords and clubs to take Me?
I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and you did not lay hold on Me.

But all this was done, that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled.
Then all the disciples forsook {left} Him, and fled.

And those who had laid hold on Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

But Peter followed Him from a distance to the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put Him to death;

But found none:
yes, though many false witnesses came, yet they found none.
At the last two false witnesses came,

And said, this fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

And the high priest arose, and said to Him, Do You answer nothing?

what is it which these witness against You?

But Jesus held His peace.

And the high priest answered and said to Him,
I command You by the living God, that You tell us whether You are the Christ, the Son of God.

Jesus said to him,

You have said so:

nevertheless I say to you, Hereafter you shall see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying,

He has spoken blasphemy

{claims to be God};

what further need do we have of witnesses?

Indeed, now you have heard His blasphemy.

What do you think?

They answered and said,

He is guilty of death.

Then they spat in His face, and pushed Him;
and others struck Him with the palms of their hands,

Saying,

Prophecy to us, You Christ, Who is the one who struck you?

Now Peter sat outside in the palace:

and a young girl came to him, saying,

You also were with Jesus of Galilee.

But he denied before them all, saying,

I do not know what you are saying.

And when he had gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said to those who were there,

This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

And again he denied with an oath,

I do not know the Man.

And after a while those who stood by came to him, and said to Peter,

Surely you also are one of them;

because your speech betrays you.

Then he began to curse and to swear, saying,

I do not know the Man.

And immediately the cock crowed.

And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, Who had said to him,
Before the cock crows, you shall deny Me three times.
And he went out, and wept bitterly.

Matthew Chapter 27

When the morning had come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put Him to death:

And when they had bound Him, they led Him away, and delivered Him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

Then Judas, who had betrayed Him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented, and brought the thirty pieces of silver back to the chief priests and elders,

Saying,
I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood.
And they said,
What is that to us? see to that yourself.

And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hung himself.

And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said,
It is not lawful to put these coins into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

And they took counsel, and bought with the coins the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

Therefore that field was called, The field of blood, to this day.

Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price that He was valued, Whom those of the children of Israel did value;

And gave them for the potter's field, as the LORD {Jehovah} appointed Me.

And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked Him, saying,
Are You the King of the Jews?
And Jesus said to him,
You say so.

And when He was accused of the chief priests and elders, He answered nothing.

Then Pilate said to Him,
Do You not hear how many things they witness against You?

But He did not answer him a word;
insomuch that the governor marveled greatly.

Now at that feast the governor was willing to release to the people a prisoner, whom they chose.

And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas {Son of the Father}.

Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them,
Whom do you want me to release to you?
Barabbas {Son of the Father}, or Jesus Who is called Christ?

Because he knew that out of envy they had delivered Him.

When he was sat down on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying,
Have nothing to do with that just Man:
because I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of Him.

But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask for Barabbas {Son of the Father}, and destroy Jesus.

The governor answered and said to them,
Which of the two do you want me to release to you?
They said,
Barabbas
{Son of the Father}.

Pilate said to them,
What shall I do then with Jesus Who is called Christ?
They all said to him,
Let Him be crucified.

And the governor said,
Why, what evil has He done?
But they cried out the more, saying,
Let Him be crucified.

When Pilate saw that he could not prevail, but that rather a riot was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying,
I am innocent of the blood of this just person:
you see to it.

Then all the people answered, and said,
His blood be on us, and on our children.

Then he released Barabbas {Son of the Father}
to them:
and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered Him to be crucified.

Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered to Him the whole band of soldiers.

And they stripped Him, and put on Him a scarlet robe.

And when they had plaited a crown of thorns, they put it upon His head, and a reed in His right hand:
and they bowed the knee before Him, and mocked Him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

And they spit upon Him, and took the reed, and struck Him on the head.

And after they had mocked Him, they took the robe off from Him, and put His own clothing on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him.

And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name:
him they compelled to bear His cross.

And when they had come to a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull,

They gave Him vinegar to drink mingled with gall:
and when He had tasted of it, He would not drink.

And they crucified Him, and parted His clothes, casting lots:
that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet,
They parted My clothes among them, and for My robe they cast lots.

And sitting down they watched Him there;

And set up over His head His accusation written,
THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

Then there were two thieves crucified with Him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

And those who passed by spoke evil against Him, shaking their heads,

And saying,
You Who would destroy the temple, and build it in three days, save Yourself.
If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross.

Likewise also the chief priests mocking Him, with the scribes and elders, said,

He saved others;
He cannot save Himself.
If He is the King of Israel, let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe Him.

He trusted in God;
let Him deliver Him now, if He will have Him:
because He said,
I am the Son of God.

The thieves also, who were crucified with Him, mouthed the same in his teeth.

Now from the sixth hour {noon} to the ninth hour {three p.m.} darkness was over all the land.

And about the ninth hour {three p.m.} Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, that is to say, My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?

Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?

Some of those who stood there, when they heard that, said,
This Man is calling for Elijah.

And immediately one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave it to Him to drink.

The rest said,
Let it be, let us see whether Elijah will come to save Him.

Jesus, when He had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the spirit {Nisan 14 [March-April]} four thousand seventy-one A.H./
twenty-nine A.D.}.

And, the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom;
and there was an earthquake, and the rocks tore;

And the graves were opened;
and many bodies of the saints who slept arose,

And came out of the graves after His resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared to many.

Now when the centurion, and those who were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things which happened, they were greatly afraid, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

And many women were there watching from a distance, who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him:

Among them was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

When the evening had come, there came a rich man of Arimathaea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:

He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.
Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock:
and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed.

And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.

Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together to Pilate,

Saying,

Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while He was yet alive, After three days I will rise again.

Command therefore that the tomb be made sure until the third day, in case His disciples come by night, and steal Him away, and say to the people, He has risen from the dead:
so the last error shall be worse than the first.

Pilate said to them,

You have a watch:

go your way, make it as sure as you can.

So they went, and made the tomb sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

Matthew Chapter 28

At the end of the sabbath
{Saturday}, as it began to dawn towards the first day of the week, that is Sunday {Nisan 17 [March-April]} four thousand seventy-one A.H./
twenty-nine A.D.},
Mary Magdalene came and the other Mary to see the tomb.

And, there was a great earthquake:
because the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow:

And because of their fear of him the keepers shook, and became as dead men.

And the angel spoke and said to the women,
Do not be afraid:
I know that you seek Jesus, Who was crucified.

He is not here: because He has risen, as He said.
Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

And go quickly, and tell His disciples that He has risen from the dead;
and, indeed, He goes before you into Galilee;
there you shall see Him:
indeed, I have told you.

And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy;
and ran to bring His disciples word.

And as they went to tell His disciples, Jesus met them, saying,
All hail.
And they came and held Him by the feet, and worshiped Him.

Then Jesus said to them,
Do not be afraid:
go tell My brothers that they should go into Galilee, and there they shall see Me.

Now when they were going, some of the watch came into the city, and told to the chief priests all the things that had happened.

And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave a large amount of money to the soldiers,

Saying,
You say, His disciples came by night, and stole Him away while we slept.

And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

So they took the money, and did as they were told:
and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.

And when they saw Him, they worshiped Him but some doubted.

And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying,
All power is given to Me in heaven and in earth.

You go therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit:

Teaching them to observe all things whatever I have commanded you:
and, indeed, I am with you always, even until the end of the world.
Amen {let it be}.
