(25) Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:	(25) Then He said to them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(26) Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?	(26) Did not Christ have to suffer these things, and to enter into His glory?
(27) And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.	(27) And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, He expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.
(28) And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further.	(28) And they drew near to the village, where they were going: and He acted as though He would have gone further.
(29) But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.	(29) But they constrained Him, saying, Stay with us: because it is towards evening, and the day is far spent. And He went in to stay with them.
(30) And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.	(30) And it came to pass, as He sat at meal with them, He took bread, and blessed it, and broke it, and gave it to them.
(31) And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.	(31) And their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him; and He vanished out of their sight.
(32) And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?	(32) And they said one to another, Did not our hearts burn within us, while He talked with us by the way, and while He opened to us the Scriptures?
(33) And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them,	(33) And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them,
(34) Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.	(34) Saying, The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon.
(35) And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.	(35) And they told what things had happened on the road, and how He was known by them in breaking of bread.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(36) And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.	(36) And as they spoke, Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, Peace be to you.
(37) But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.	(37) But they were terrified and afraid, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.
(38) And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?	(38) But He said to them, Why are you troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?
(39) Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.	(39) See My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself: touch Me, and see; because a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have.
(40) And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.	(40) And when He had so spoken, He showed them H*is* hands and His feet.
(41) And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?	(41) And while they still did not believe for joy, and wondered, He said to them, Have you here any meat?
(42) And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.	(42) And they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish, and of a honeycomb.
(43) And he took it, and did eat before them.	(43) And He took it, and ate it before them.
(44) And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.	(44) And He said to them, These are the words which I spoke to you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning Me.
(45) Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,	(45) Then He opened their understanding, that they might understand the Scriptures,
(46) And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:	(46) And said to them, So it is written, and so it was necessary for Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(47) And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. (48) And ye are witnesses of these things. (49) And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high. (50) And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. (51) And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. (52) And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy: (53) And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.	(47) And that repentance and forgiveness for sins should be preached in His Name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. (48) And you are witnesses of these things. (49) And, indeed, I send the promise of My Father upon you: but stay in the city of Jerusalem, until you are endued with power from on high. (50) And He led them out as far as to Bethany, and He lifted up His hands, and blessed them. (51) And it came to pass, while He blessed them, He was taken from them, and carried up into heaven {Thursday, Iyar 26 [Apr.-May] 2/26/4071 A.H./C-29 A.D.}.[e] (52) And they worshiped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy: (53) And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen {let it be}.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 1 (1) In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. (2) The same was in the beginning with God. (3) All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. (4) In him was life; and the life was the light of men. (5) And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. (6) There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. (7) The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe. (8) He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. (9) That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. (10) He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. (11) He came unto his own, and his own received him not. (12) But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:	Chapter 1 (1) In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. (2) The same was in the beginning with God. (3) All things were made by Him; and without Him nothing was made that has been made.[a] (4) In Him was life; and the life was the light of men. (5) And the light shown in darkness; but the darkness did not comprehend it. (6) There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. (7) He came as a witness, to bear witness to the Light, that all men through Him might believe. (8) He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. (9) That was the true Light, which gives light to every man who comes into the world. (10) He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, but the world did not know Him. (11) He came to His own {creation},[b] but His own {people}[c] did not receive Him. (12) But as many as did receive Him, to them He gave power to become the sons of God, even to those who believe on His Name:

1:3a – Eph. 3:9
1:11b – His own { ιδια}– His own creation
1:11c – His own { ιδιοι}– His own people

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.	(13) Who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
(14) And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.	(14) And the Word was made flesh, and lived among us, (and we saw His glory, the glory as of the only fathered Son of the Father,) full of grace and truth.
(15) John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.	(15) John bore witness of Him, and cried, saying, This is He of Whom I spoke, He Who comes after me is preferred before me: because He was before me.
(16) And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.	(16) And of His fullness we have all received, and grace upon grace.
(17) For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.	(17) Because the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.
(18) No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.	(18) No man has seen God at any time; the only fathered Son, Who is in the bosom of the Father, He has declared Him.
(19) And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?	(19) And this is the record {testimony} of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who are you?
(20) And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.	(20) And he confessed, and did not deny; but confessed, I am not the Christ.
(21) And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.	(21) And they asked him, Who then? Are you Elijah? And he said, I am not. Are you that prophet?[d] And he answered, No.
(22) Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?	(22) Then they said to him, Who are you? that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say of yourself?

1:21d – that prophet - Deut. 18:18; Jn. 7:40

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(23) He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias. (24) And they which were sent were of the Pharisees. (25) And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet? (26) John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not; (27) He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose. (28) These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing. (29) The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. (30) This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me. (31) And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water. (32) And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.	(23) He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the LORD {Jehovah},[e] as the prophet Isaiah proclaimed. (24) And those who were sent were of the Pharisees. (25) And they asked him, and said to him, Why do you baptize then, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, neither that prophet? (26) John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there stands one among you, Whom you do not know; (27) He it is, Who coming after me is preferred before me, Whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to untie. (28) These things were done in Bethabara {house of the ford; crossing} beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing. (29) The next day John seeing Jesus coming towards him said, Look the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world. (30) This is He of Whom I said, After me comes a Man Who is preferred before me: because He was before me. (31) And I did not know Him: but that He should be revealed to Israel, therefore I have come baptizing with water. (32) And John bore record {testimony}, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it sat upon Him.

1:23e – Is. 40:3; Mat. 3:3; Mk. 1:3; Lk. 3:4

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(33) And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.	(33) And I did not know Him: but He Who sent me to baptize with water, the Same said to me, Upon Whom you shall see the Spirit descending, and remaining on Him, the same is He Who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.[f]
(34) And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.	(34) And I saw, and bore record {testimony} that this is the Son of God.
(35) Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;	(35) Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples with him;
(36) And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!	(36) And looking upon Jesus as He walked, he said, Look the Lamb of God!
(37) And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.	(37) And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.
(38) Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?	(38) Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and said to them, Whom do you seek? They said to Him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where do You live?
(39) He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.	(39) He said to them, Come and see. They came and saw where He lived, and stayed with Him that day: because it was about the tenth hour {4 p.m.}.[g]
(40) One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.	(40) One of the two who heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.
(41) He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.	(41) He first found his own brother Simon, and said to him, We have found the Messiah, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.
(42) And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone.	(42) And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus saw him, He said, You are Simon the son of John: you shall be called Cephas,[h] which is by interpretation is, A stone.

1:33f – Mat. 3:16; Mk. 1:10; Lk. 3:22

1:39g – tenth hour - 4:00 in the afternoon

1:42h – Cephas {כ פ ה} is Hebrew for stone - transliterated into Greek {κηφας}
– also in Greek called Petros (Peter) {πετρου } - stone

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(43) The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me. (44) Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. (45) Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. (46) And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see. (47) Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! (48) Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. (49) Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel. (50) Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. (51) And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.	(43) The day following Jesus went forth into Galilee, and found Philip, and said to him, Follow Me. (44) Now Philip was of Bethsaida {house of hunting (fishing)}, the city of Andrew and Peter. (45) Philip found Nathanael,[i] and said to him, We have found Him, of Whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. (46) And Nathanael said to him, Can any good thing come out of Nazareth {separated; sanctified}? Philip said to him, Come and see. (47) Jesus saw Nathanael coming to Him, and said of him, Look an Israelite indeed, in whom there is no evil! (48) Nathanael said to Him, How do You know me? Jesus answered and said to him, Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you. (49) Nathanael answered and said to Him, Rabbi, You are the Son of God; You are the King of Israel. (50) Jesus answered and said to him, Because I said to you, I saw you under the fig tree, you believe? You shall see greater things than these. (51) And He said to him, Truly, I say to you, From now on you shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.

1:45i – Nathanael – also known as Bartholomew {Matt. 10:3} – see list of disciples at end of Matthew.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 2 (1) And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: (2) And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage. (3) And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. (4) Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come. (5) His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. (6) And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece. (7) Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. (8) And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it. (9) When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom, (10) And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.	Chapter 2 (1) And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and Jesus' mother was there:[a] (2) And both Jesus and His disciples were invited to the marriage. (3) And when they wanted wine, Jesus' mother said to Him, They have no wine. (4) Jesus said to her, Woman, what have I to do with you? My hour has not yet come. (5) His mother said to the servants, Whatever He says to you, do it. (6) And there were set there six water pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece {about 18 - 27 gal.; 68 -102 L. apiece}.[b] (7) Jesus said to them, Fill the water pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. (8) And He said to them, Draw out now, and take it to the man in charge of the feast. And they took it. (9) When the man in charge of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and did not know where it came from: (but the servants who drew the water knew;) the man in charge of the feast called the bridegroom, (10) And said to him, Every man sets forth the better wine at the beginning; and when men have drank for a while, then that which is worse: but you have kept the better wine until now.

2:1a – water changed to wine – see Appendix A: Recorded Miracles in the Bible
2:6b – two or three firkins – a firkin is about 9 US gallons or 34.1 liters, 2 or 3 firkins = about 18 - 27 gallons or 68 to 102 liters each – see Appendix J: Bible Weights and Measures

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(11) This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.	(11) This is the beginning of miracles which Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed His glory; and His disciples believed on Him.
(12) After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.	(12) After this He went down to Capernaum, He, and His mother, and His brothers, and His disciples: and they stayed there a few days.
(13) And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,	(13) And the Jews' Passover[c] was at hand, so Jesus went up to Jerusalem,
(14) And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:	(14) And found in the temple those who sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers sitting:
(15) And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;	(15) And when He had made a scourge of small cords, He drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the money changers' money, and turned over the tables;
(16) And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.	(16) And said to those who sold doves, Take these things away from here; do not make My Father's house a house of merchandise.[d]
(17) And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.	(17) And His disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal for Your house {temple} has consumed Me.[e]
(18) Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?	(18) Then the Jews said to Him, What sign will You show to us, since You do these things?
(19) Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.	(19) Jesus answered and said to them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

2:17e – Ps. 69:9

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(20) Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days? (21) But he spake of the temple of his body. (22) When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said. (23) Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did. (24) But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, (25) And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.	(20) Then the Jews said, Forty-six years this temple was in building, and will You rebuild it in three days? (21) But He spoke of the temple of His body. (22) When He later arose from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this to them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said. (23) Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, on the feast day, many believed in His Name, when they saw the miracles which He did. (24) But Jesus did not commit Himself to them, because He knew all men, (25) And He did not need the testimony of man: because He knew what was in man.
Chapter 3 (1) There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: (2) The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. (3) Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.	Chapter 3 (1) There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus,[a] a ruler of the Jews: (2) He came to Jesus at night, and said to Him, Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from God: because no man could do these miracles that You do, unless God is with him. (3) Jesus answered and said to him, Truly, I say to you, Unless a man is born again {from above},[b] he cannot see the kingdom of God.

3:1a – Nicodemus {νικοδημος} 'victorious among his people' – John 7:50; 19:39
3:3b - "born again" - an-ō-then {ανωθεν} literally "born from above

(4) Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?	(4) Nicodemus said to Him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?
(5) Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.	(5) Jesus answered, Truly, I say to you, Unless a man is born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
(6) That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.	(6) That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.
(7) Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.	(7) Do not marvel that I said to you, You must be born again.
(8) The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.	(8) The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell from where it is coming, or where it is going: so is everyone who is born of the Spirit.
(9) Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?	(9) Nicodemus answered and said to Him, How can these things be?
(10) Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?	(10) Jesus answered and said to him, Are you a teacher of Israel, and do not know these things?
(11) Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.	(11) Truly, I say to you, We speak that which we know, and testify of that which we have seen; and you do not receive our witness.
(12) If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?	(12) If I have told you earthly things, and you do not believe, how shall you believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?
(13) And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.	(13) And no man has ascended up to heaven, but He Who came down from heaven, even the Son of Man Who is in heaven.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(14) And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: (15) That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. (16) For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. (17) For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. (18) He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. (19) And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. (20) For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. (21) But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. (22) After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judaea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized.	(14) And as Moses lifted up the serpent {snake} in the wilderness,[c] even so must the Son of Man be lifted up: (15) That whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life. (16) Because God loved the world so much, that He gave the only Son He has ever fathered, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. (17) Because God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved. (18) He who believes on Him is not condemned: but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the Name of the only fathered Son of God. (19) And this is the condemnation, that light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. (20) Because everyone who does evil hates the light, neither comes to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. (21) But he who does what's right comes to the light, that his deeds may be revealed, that they are done in God. (22) After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea; and there He stayed with them, and baptized.

3:14c - Num. 21:9

{43} John
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(23) And John also was baptizing in Aenon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. (24) For John was not yet cast into prison. (25) Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying. (26) And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him. (27) John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven. (28) Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him. (29) He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled. (30) He must increase, but I must decrease. (31) He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all. (32) And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.	(23) And John also was baptizing in Aenon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. (24) Because John was not yet cast into prison. (25) Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying. (26) And they came to John, and said to him, Rabbi, He Who was with you beyond Jordan, to Whom you bore witness, look, the same baptizes, and all men come to Him. (27) John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, unless it is given him from heaven. (28) You yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before Him. (29) He who has the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled. (30) He must increase, but I must decrease. (31) He Who comes from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaks of the earth: He Who comes from heaven is above all. (32) And what He has seen and heard, that He testifies of; and no man receives His testimony.
43.011/092 John Chapter 3 (Page 3351)

(33) He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true. (34) For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him. (35) The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand. (36) He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.	(33) He who has received His testimony has confirmed that God is true. (34) Because He Whom God has sent speaks the words of God: because God does not measure {limit} the Spirit He gives to Him. (35) The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into His hand. (36) He who believes on the Son has everlasting life: and he who does not believe the Son shall not see life; but the wrath {anger; judgment} of God stays on him.
Chapter 4 (1) When therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John, (2) (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,) (3) He left Judaea, and departed again into Galilee. (4) And he must needs go through Samaria. (5) Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. (6) Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.	Chapter 4 (1) When the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John, (2) (Though Jesus Himself did not baptize, but His disciples,) (3) He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee. (4) And He had to go through Samaria.[a] (5) Then He came to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar {end}, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. (6) Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with His journey, sat on the well: and it was about the sixth hour {noon}.[b]

4:4a – Jesus had to go through Samaria. Jews normally would avoid going through Samaria, but Jesus had to go through Samaria because it was part of the Father's plan.

4:6b - sixth hour - i.e. noon – the fact that she was going to the well at noon rather than the normal time of early in the morning suggests that she was trying to avoid other women of the village

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.	(7) There came a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus said to her, Give Me a drink.
(8) (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)	(8) (Because His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.)
(9) Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.	(9) Then the woman of Samaria said to Him, How is it that You, being a Jew, ask a drink of me, who am a woman of Samaria? because the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.
(10) Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.	(10) Jesus answered and said to her, If you knew the gift of God, and Who it is Who said to you, Give Me a drink; you would have asked of Him, and He would have given you living water.
(11) The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?	(11) The woman said to Him, Sir, You have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from where then do you have that living water?
(12) Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?	(12) Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, and his children, and his cattle?
(13) Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:	(13) Jesus answered and said to her, Whoever drinks of this water shall thirst again:
(14) But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.	(14) But whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing[c] up into everlasting life.
(15) The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.	(15) The woman said to Him, Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst, nor have to come here to draw.

4:14c – water springing up – see Jn. 7:38-39

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(16) Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.	(16) Jesus said to her, Go, call your husband, and come here.
(17) The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:	(17) The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said to her, You have well said, I have no husband:
(18) For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.	(18) Because you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband: in that you have truly said.
(19) The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.	(19) The woman said to him, Sir, I perceive that You are a prophet.
(20) Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.	(20) Our fathers worshiped on this mountain;[d] and You {Jews} say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.
(21) Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.	(21) Jesus said to her, Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming, when you shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.
(22) Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.	(22) You worship what you do not know: we know what we worship: because salvation is of the Jews.
(23) But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.	(23) But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: because the Father seeks such to worship Him.
(24) God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.	(24) God is a Spirit: and those who worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth.
(25) The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.	(25) The woman said to Him, I know that Messiah is coming, Who is called Christ: when He comes, He will tell us all things.
(26) Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.	(26) Jesus said to her, I Who speak to you am He.

4:20d – Sychar (v. 5) in Samaria (v. 4) – north of Shiloh where the tabernacle was first set up after the Israelites entered the promised land – near Bethel - Josh. 18:1; Jg. 21:19; I Ki. 14:2; Is. 52:7

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(27) And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?	(27) And upon this His disciples came, and marveled that He talked with the woman: yet no man said, What do You seek? or, Why do You talk with her?
(28) The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,	(28) The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the city, and said to the men,
(29) Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?	(29) Come, see a man, Who told me all things that I have ever done: is this not the Christ?
(30) Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.	(30) Then they went out of the city, and came to Him.
(31) In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.	(31) In the mean while His disciples begged Him, saying, Master, eat.
(32) But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.	(32) But He said to them, I have food to eat that you do not know of.
(33) Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?	(33) Therefore the disciples said one to another, Has any man brought Him anything to eat?
(34) Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.	(34) Jesus said to them, My food is to do the will of Him Who sent Me, and to finish His work.
(35) Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.	(35) Do you not say, There are yet four months, and then comes harvest? Look, I say to you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; because they are white already to harvest.
(36) And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.	(36) And he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to life eternal: that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together.
(37) And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.	(37) And in this is that saying true, One sows, and another reaps.
(38) I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.	(38) I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor: other men labored, and you have entered into their labors.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(39) And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.	(39) And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on Him because of the words of the woman, who testified, He told me all that I ever did.
(40) So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.	(40) So when the Samaritans had come to Him, they requested Him to stay with them: and He stayed there two days.
(41) And many more believed because of his own word;	(41) And many more believed because of His own words;
(42) And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.	(42) And said to the woman, Now we believe, not because of your words: because we have heard Him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world.
(43) Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.	(43) Now after two days He departed from there, and went into Galilee.
(44) For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.	(44) Because Jesus Himself testified, that a prophet has no honor in his own country.
(45) Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.	(45) Then when He had come into Galilee, the Galileans received Him, having seen all the things that He did at Jerusalem at the feast: because they also went to the feast.
(46) So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.	(46) So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where He had made the water wine.[e] And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.
(47) When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judaea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.	(47) When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him, and asked Him that He would come down, and heal his son: because he was at the point of death.

4:46e – Jn. 2:1

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(48) Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe. (49) The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die. (50) Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way. (51) And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth. (52) Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. (53) So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house. (54) This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judaea into Galilee.	(48) Then Jesus said to him, Unless you see signs and wonders, you will not believe. (49) The nobleman said to Him, Sir, come down before my child dies. (50) Jesus said to him, Go your way; your son lives. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken to him, and he went his way.[f] (51) And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Your son lives. (52) Then he inquired of them the hour when he began to recover. And they said to him, Yesterday at the seventh hour {1 p.m.}[g] the fever left him. (53) So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said to him, Your son lives: and himself believed, and his whole house. (54) This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when He had come out of Judea into Galilee.
Chapter 5 (1) After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. (2) Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches. (3) In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.	Chapter 5 (1) After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. (2) Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda {house of kindness},[a] having five porches. (3) In these lay a great multitude of handicapped folk, of blind, lame, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4:50f – nobleman's son healed – see Appendix A: Recorded Miracles in the Bible

4:52g- seventh hour - i.e. 1:00 p.m. in the afternoon

5:2a – Bethesda {βηθεσδα} from Hebrew {בית חסד}– house of kindness

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.	(4) Because an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whoever then stepped in first after the troubling of the water was healed of whatever disease he had.
(5) And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.	(5) And a certain man was there, who had an infirmity thirty eight years.[b]
(6) When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?	(6) When Jesus saw him laying there, and knew that he had been now a long time in that shape, He said to him, Do you want to be healed?
(7) The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.	(7) The lame man answered him, Sir, when the water is troubled I have no man to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steps down before me.
(8) Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.	(8) Jesus said to him, Rise, take up your bed, and walk.
(9) And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.	(9) And immediately the man was healed, and took up his bed, and walked: and that same day was the sabbath {Saturday}.
(10) The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.	(10) The Jews therefore said to him who was cured, It is the sabbath day {Saturday}: it is not lawful for you to carry your bed.
(11) He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.	(11) He answered them, He Who healed me, the same said to me, Take up your bed, and walk.
(12) Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?	(12) Then they asked him, What man is he who said to you, Take up your bed, and walk?
(13) And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.	(13) And he who was healed did not know Who it was: because Jesus had gone away, since there was a multitude in that place.

5:5b – lame man healed – see Appendix A: Recorded Miracles in the Bible

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(14) Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.	(14) Afterwards Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, See, you are healed: sin no more, lest a worse thing comes to you.
(15) The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.	(15) The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, Who had healed him.
(16) And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.	(16) And therefore the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to kill Him, because He had done these things on the sabbath day {Saturday}.
(17) But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.	(17) But Jesus answered them, My Father works until now, and I work.
(18) Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.	(18) Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill Him, because He not only had broken the sabbath {Saturday}, but said also that God was His Father, making Himself equal with God.
(19) Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.	(19) Then Jesus answered and said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, The Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He sees the Father do: because the things He does, these the Son also does.
(20) For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.	(20) Because the Father loves the Son, and shows Him all things that He Himself does: and He will show Him greater works than these, that you may marvel.
(21) For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.	(21) Because as the Father raises up the dead, and causes them to live; even so the Son causes to live whom He wills.
(22) For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:	(22) Because the Father judges no man, but has committed all judgment to the Son:

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(23) That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.	(23) That all men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father Who has sent Him.
(24) Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.	(24) Truly, Truly, I say to you, He who hears My word, and believes on Him Who sent Me, has everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death into life.
(25) Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.	(25) Truly, Truly, I say to you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and those who hear shall live.
(26) For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;	(26) Because as the Father has life in Himself; so has He given to the Son to have life in Himself;
(27) And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.	(27) And has given Him authority to execute judgment also, because He is the Son of Man.
(28) Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,	(28) Do not marvel at this: because the hour is coming, in the which all who are in the graves shall hear His voice,
(29) And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.	(29) And shall come forth; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of damnation.
(30) I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.	(30) I can of My own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and My judgment is just; because I do not seek My own will, but the will of the Father Who has sent Me.
(31) If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.	(31) If I bear witness of Myself, My witness is not true.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(32) There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.	(32) There is another Who bears witness of Me; and I know that the witness which He witnesses of Me is true.
(33) Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.	(33) You sent to John, and he bore witness to the truth.
(34) But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.	(34) But I do not receive testimony from man: but these things I say, that you might be saved.
(35) He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.	(35) He was a burning and a shining light: and you were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.
(36) But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.	(36) But I have a greater witness than that of John: because the works which the Father has given Me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of Me, that the Father has sent Me.
(37) And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.	(37) And the Father Himself, Who has sent Me, has borne witness of Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor seen His shape.
(38) And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.	(38) And you do not have His word living in you: because whom He has sent, Him you do not believe.
(39) Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.	(39) Search the scriptures; because in them you think you have eternal life: and they testify of Me.
(40) And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.	(40) And you will not come to Me, that you might have life.
(41) I receive not honour from men.	(41) I do not receive honor from men.
(42) But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.	(42) But I know you, that you do not have the love of God in you.
(43) I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.	(43) I have come in My Father's Name, and you do not receive Me: if another shall come in his own name, him you will receive.

(44) How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only? (45) Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. (46) For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. (47) But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?	(44) How can you believe, who receive honor from one of another, and do not seek the honor that comes from God only? (45) Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one who accuses you, even Moses, in whom you trust. (46) Because had you believed Moses, you would have believed Me: because he wrote of Me. (47) But if you do not believe his writings, how shall you believe My words?
Chapter 6 (1) After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. (2) And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased. (3) And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. (4) And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh. (5) When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat? (6) And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do. (7) Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.	Chapter 6 (1) After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.[a] (2) And a great multitude followed Him, because they saw His miracles which He did on those who were diseased. (8) One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, (9) There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? (10) And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. (11) And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. (12) When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. (13) Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten. (14) Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world. (15) When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone. (16) And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,	(8) One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, (9) There is a lad here, who has five barley loaves, and two small fish: but what are they among so many? (17) And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them. (18) And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew. (19) So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid. (20) But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid. (21) Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went. (22) The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone; (23) (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:) (24) When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus. (25) And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?	(17) And entered into a ship, and went over the sea towards Capernaum. And it had now become dark, and Jesus had not come to them. (18) And the sea arose because of a great wind that blew. (19) So when they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty furlongs {about 3 mi.; 5 km.},[d] they saw Jesus walking on the sea,[e] and drawing near to the ship: and they were afraid. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(26) Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.	(26) Jesus answered them and said, Truly, Truly, I say to you, You seek Me, not because you saw the miracles, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled.
(27) Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.	(27) Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for that food which endures to everlasting life, which the Son of Man shall give to you: because God the Father has sealed Him.
(28) Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?	(28) Then they said to Him, What shall we do, that we might do the works of God?
(29) Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.	(29) Jesus answered and said to them, This is the work of God, that you believe on Him Whom He has sent.
(30) They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?	(30) They said therefore to Him, What sign do You show then, that we may see, and believe You? what work do You do?
(31) Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.	(31) Our fathers ate manna in the desert;[f] as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.
(32) Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.	(32) Then Jesus said to them, Truly, Truly, I say to you, Moses did not give that bread from heaven; but My Father gives you the true Bread from heaven.
(33) For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.	(33) Because the Bread of God is He Who comes down from heaven, and gives life to the world.
(34) Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.	(34) Then they said to Him, Lord, forever give us this bread.
(35) And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.	(35) And Jesus said to them, I am the Bread of life: He Who comes to Me shall never hunger; and He who believes on Me shall never thirst.

(36) But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.	(36) But I said to you, That you also have seen Me, and do not believe.
(37) All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.	(37) All that the Father gives Me shall come to Me; and he who comes to Me I will in no way cast out.
(38) For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.	(38) Because I came down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him Who sent Me.
(39) And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.	(39) And this is the Father's will Who has sent Me, that of all whom He has given Me I should lose none, but should raise it up again at the last day.
(40) And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.	(40) And this is the will of Him Who has sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son, and believes on Him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.
(41) The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.	(41) The Jews then murmured at Him, because He said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.
(42) And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?	(42) And they said, Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that He says, I came down from heaven?
(43) Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.	(43) Jesus therefore answered and said to them, Do not murmur among yourselves.
(44) No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.	(44) No man can come to Me, unless the Father Who has sent Me draws him: and I will raise him up at the last day.
(45) It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.	(45) It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore who has heard, and has learned of the Father, comes to Me.

(46) Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.	(46) Not that any man has seen the Father, except He Who is of God, He has seen the Father.
(47) Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.	(47) Truly, Truly, I say to you, He who believes on Me has everlasting life.
(48) I am that bread of life.	(48) I am that Bread of life.
(49) Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.	(49) Your fathers ate manna in the wilderness, and are dead.
(50) This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.	(50) This is the Bread which comes down from heaven, that a man may eat of it, and never die.
(51) I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.	(51) I am the living Bread which came down from heaven: if any man eats of this Bread, he shall live forever: and the Bread that I will give is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.
(52) The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?	(52) The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this Man give us His flesh to eat?
(53) Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.	(53) Then Jesus said to them, Truly, Truly, I say to you, Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man, and drink His blood, you have no life in you.
(54) Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.	(54) Whoever eats My flesh, and drinks My blood, has eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.
(55) For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.	(55) Because My flesh is food indeed, and My blood is drink indeed.
(56) He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.	(56) He who eats My flesh, and drinks My blood, lives in Me, and I in him.
(57) As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.	(57) As the living Father has sent Me, and I live by the Father: so He who eats Me, even he shall live by Me.

(58) This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.	(58) This is that Bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers ate manna, and are dead: he who eats of this Bread shall live forever.
(59) These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.	(59) These things He said in the synagogue, as He taught in Capernaum.
(60) Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?	(60) Therefore many of His disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is a hard saying; who can hear it?
(61) When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?	(61) When Jesus knew in Himself that His disciples murmured at it, He said to them, Does this offend you?
(62) What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?	(62) What and if you shall see the Son of Man ascend up where He was before?
(63) It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.	(63) It is the Spirit Who gives life; the flesh profits nothing: the words that I speak to you, they are spirit, and they are life.
(64) But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.	(64) But there are some of you who do not believe. Because Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who would betray Him.
(65) And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.	(65) And He said, Therefore I said to you, that no man can come to Me, unless it were given to him of My Father.
(66) From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.	(66) From that time many of His disciples left, and no longer walked with Him.
(67) Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?	(67) Then Jesus said to the twelve, Will you also leave?
(68) Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.	(68) Then Simon Peter answered Him, Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.
(69) And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.	(69) And we believe and are sure that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(70) Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil? (71) He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve. Chapter 7 (1) After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him. (2) Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand. (3) His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. (4) For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world. (5) For neither did his brethren believe in him. (6) Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready. (7) The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. (8) Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come.	(70) Jesus answered them, Have I not chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil? (71) He spoke of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: because it was he who would betray Him, being one of the twelve. Chapter 7 (1) After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: because He would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill Him. (2) Now the Jews' Feast of Tabernacles[a] was at hand. (3) His brothers therefore said to Him, Depart from here, and go into Judea, that Your disciples also may see the works that You do. (4) Because there is no man who does anything in secret, if he himself seeks to be known openly. If You do these things, show Yourself to the world. (5) Because neither did His brothers believe in Him. (6) Then Jesus said to them, My time has not yet come: but your time is always ready. (7) The world cannot hate you; but Me it hates, because I testify of it, that its works are evil. (8) You go up to this feast: I am not yet[b] going up to this feast; because My time has not yet fully come.

(9) When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. (10) But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. (11) Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? (12) And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people. (13) Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews. (14) Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught. (15) And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? (16) Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. (17) If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself. (18) He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. (19) Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me? (20) The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?	(9) When He had said these words to them, He remained still in Galilee. (10) But when His brothers had left, then He also went up to the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. (11) Then the Jews sought Him at the feast, and said, Where is He? (12) And there was much murmuring among the people concerning Him: because some said, He is a good man: others said, No; but He deceives the people. (13) Nevertheless no man spoke openly about Him for fear of the Jews. (14) Now about the middle of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught. (15) And the Jews marveled, saying, How does this Man know letters, having never been educated? (16) Jesus answered them, and said, My teaching is not Mine, but His Who sent Me. (17) If any man will do His will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it is of God, or whether I speak of Myself. (18) He who speaks of himself seeks his own glory: but He who seeks the glory of Him Who sent Him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in Him. (19) Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you go about to kill Me? (20) The people answered and said, You have a demon: Who seeks to kill You?

(49) But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.	(49) But these people who do not know the law are cursed.
(50) Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,)	(50) Nicodemus[e] (who came to Jesus by night, being one of them,) said to them,
(51) Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?	(51) Does our law judge any man, before it hears him, and knows what he does?
(52) They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.	(52) They answered and said to him, Are you also of Galilee? Search, and look: because no prophet arises out of Galilee.
(53) And every man went unto his own house.	(53) And every man went to his own house.

7:40d – the Prophet – Deut, 18:18; Jn. 1:21

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 8 (1) Jesus went unto the mount of Olives. (2) And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them. (3) And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, (4) They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. (5) Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou? (6) This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not. (7) So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. (8) And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. (9) And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.	Chapter 8 (1) Jesus went to the mount of Olives. (2) And early in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people came to Him; and He sat down, and taught them. (3) And the scribes and Pharisees brought to Him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, (4) They said to Him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. (5) Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned:[a] but what do You say? (6) This they said, tempting Him, that they might have reason to accuse Him. But Jesus stooped down, and with His finger wrote on the ground, as though He did not hear them.[b] (7) So when they continued asking Him, He rose up, and said to them, He who is without sin among you, let him cast the first stone at her. (8) And again He stooped down, and wrote on the ground. (9) And those who heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even to the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

8:5a – Lev. 20:10; Deut. 22:22 – The man and the woman were both to be stoned! Where was the man?
8:6b – Jer. 17:13 – written in the earth

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?	(10) When Jesus had lifted Himself up, and saw no one but the woman, He said to her, Woman, where are your accusers? has no man condemned you?
(11) She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.	(11) She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said to her, Neither do I condemn you: go, and sin no more.
(12) Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.	(12) Then Jesus spoke again to them, saying, I am the Light of the world: he who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the Light of life.
(13) The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.	(13) The Pharisees therefore said to Him, You bear witness of Yourself; Your witness is not true.
(14) Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.	(14) Jesus answered and said to them, Though I bear witness of Myself, yet My witness is true: because I know from where I came, and where I go; but you cannot tell from where I come, or where I go.
(15) Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.	(15) You judge after the flesh; I judge no man.
(16) And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.	(16) And yet if I judge, My judgment is true: because I am not alone, but I and the Father Who sent Me.
(17) It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.	(17) It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.[c]
(18) I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.	(18) I am one Who bear witness of Myself, and the Father Who sent Me bears witness of Me.

8:17c – testimony of two – Deut. 17:6; 19:15

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(19) Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.	(19) Then they said to Him, Where is Your Father? Jesus answered, You neither know Me, nor My Father: if you had known Me, you would have known My Father also.
(20) These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.	(20) These words Jesus spoke in the treasury, as He taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on Him; because His hour had not yet come.
(21) Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.	(21) Then Jesus said again to them, I go My way, and you shall seek Me, and shall die in your sins: where I go, you cannot come.
(22) Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.	(22) Then the Jews said, Will He kill Himself? because He said, Where I go, you cannot come.
(23) And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.	(23) And He said to them, You are from beneath; I am from above: you are of this world; I am not of this world.
(24) I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.	(24) I therefore said to you, that you shall die in your sins: because if you do not believe that I am He, you shall die in your sins.
(25) Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.	(25) Then they said to Him, Who are You? And Jesus said to them, Even the same Whom I said to you from the beginning.
(26) I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.	(26) I have many things to say and to judge of you: but He Who sent Me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of Him.
(27) They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.	(27) They did not understand that He spoke to them of the Father.

{43} John
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(28) Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things. (29) And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him. (30) As he spake these words, many believed on him. (31) Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; (32) And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. (33) They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? (34) Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. (35) And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever. (36) If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. (37) I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you. (38) I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.	(28) Then Jesus said to them, When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you shall know that I am He, and that I do nothing of Myself; but as My Father has taught Me, I speak these things. (29) And He Who sent Me is with Me: the Father has not left Me alone; because I always do those things that please Him. (30) As He spoke these words, many believed on Him. (31) Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed on Him, If you continue in My word, then you are My disciples indeed; (32) And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. (33) They answered Him, We are Abraham's descendants, and were never in bondage to any man: how do You say, You shall be made free? (34) Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Whoever commits sin is the servant of sin. (35) And the servant does not live in the house forever: but the Son lives ever. (36) If the Son therefore shall make you free, you shall be free indeed. (37) I know that you are Abraham's descendants; but you seek to kill Me, because My word has no place in you. (38) I speak that which I have seen with My Father: and you do that which you have seen with your father {the devil}.[d]
8:38d – the devil – see verse 44

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(39) They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. (40) But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham. (41) Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God. (42) Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. (43) Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word. (44) Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. (45) And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. (46) Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?	(39) They answered and said to Him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham. (40) But now you seek to kill Me, a Man Who has told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this Abraham did not do. (41) You do the deeds of your father. Then they said to Him, We are not born of fornication;[e] we have one Father, even God. (42) Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love Me: because I proceeded forth and came from God; neither did I come of Myself, but He sent Me. (43) Why do you not understand My speech? even because you cannot hear My word. (44) You are of your father the devil, and you will do the lusts of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and did not live in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own: because he is a liar, and the father of lies. (45) And because I tell you the truth, you do not believe Me. (46) Which of you convinces Me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do you not believe Me?

8:41e - see Mat. 5:32 - the pharisees did not believe that Jesus' Father was the heavenly Father and apparently they may have heard rumors that Mary was pregnant before she and Joseph were married.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(47) He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.	(47) He who is of God hears God's words: you therefore do not hear them, because you are not of God.
(48) Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?	(48) Then the Jews answered, and said to Him, Do we not correctly say that You are a Samaritan, and have a demon?
(49) Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.	(49) Jesus answered, I do not have a demon; but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me.
(50) And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.	(50) And I do not seek My own glory: there is One Who seeks and judges.
(51) Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.	(51) Truly, truly, I say to you, If a man keeps My sayings, he shall never see death.
(52) Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.	(52) Then the Jews said to Him, Now we know that You have a demon. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and You say, If a man keeps My saying, he shall never taste of death.
(53) Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?	(53) Are You greater than our forefather Abraham, who is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom do you make of Yourself?
(54) Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God:	(54) Jesus answered, If I honor Myself, My honor is nothing: it is My Father Who honors Me; of Whom you say, that He is your God:
(55) Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.	(55) Yet you have not known Him; but I know Him: and if I should say, I do not know Him, I would be a liar like you: but I know Him, and keep His sayings.
(56) Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.	(56) Your forefather Abraham rejoiced to see My day: and he saw it, and was glad.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(57) Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? (58) Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am. (59) Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.	(57) Then the Jews said to Him, You are not yet fifty years old, and have You seen Abraham? (58) Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Before Abraham was, I Am.[f] (59) Then they took up stones to cast at Him: but Jesus hid Himself, and went out of the temple, going through their midst, and so passed by.
Chapter 9 (1) And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. (2) And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? (3) Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him. (4) I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. (5) As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. (6) When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, (7) And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.	Chapter 9 (1) And as Jesus passed by, He saw a man who was blind from his birth.[a] (2) And His disciples asked Him, saying, Master, who sinned, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? (3) Jesus answered, Neither has this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be revealed in him. (4) I must work the works of Him Who sent Me, while it is day: the night comes, when no man can work. (5) As long as I am in the world, I am the Light of the world. (6) When He had said this, He spat on the ground, and made clay of the spit, and He anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, (7) And said to him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam,[b] (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He therefore went his way, and washed, and returned seeing.

8:58f – Before Abraham was; I Am – Ex. 3:14. These words signified to the Jews that Jesus was claiming to be God. If He was not God, He was guilty of blasphemy; a capital crime – since they did not believe He was God, they were ready to stone Him.- See John 10:33

9:1a – man born blind healed – see Appendix A: Recorded Miracles in the Bible

9:7b – Siloam {σιλωαμ} from Hebrew {שִׁלֹחַ שִׁלֹּחַ} – 'sent' - a fountain in Jerusalem – the Fountain had the name before Jesus was born!

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(8) The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?	(8) The neighbors therefore, and those who before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he who sat and begged?
(9) Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.	(9) Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.
(10) Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?	(10) Therefore they asked him, How were your eyes opened?
(11) He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.	(11) He answered and said, A man Who is called Jesus made clay, and anointed my eyes, and said to me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.
(12) Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.	(12) Then they said to him, Where is He? He said, I do not know.
(13) They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.	(13) They brought him who was before blind to the Pharisees.
(14) And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.	(14) And it was the sabbath day {Saturday} when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.
(15) Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.	(15) Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said to them, He put clay upon my eyes, and I washed, and now I see.
(16) Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.	(16) Therefore some of the Pharisees said, This man is not of God, because He does not keep the sabbath {Saturday}. Others said, How can a man Who is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.
(17) They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.	(17) They said to the blind man again, What do you say of Him, Who has opened your eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(18) But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.	(18) But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called his parents who had received his sight.
(19) And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?	(19) And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who you say was born blind? how then does he now see?
(20) His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:	(20) His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:
(21) But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.	(21) But by what means he now sees, we do not know; or Who has opened his eyes, we do not know: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.
(22) These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.	(22) These words his parents spoke, because they feared the Jews: because the Jews had agreed already, that if any man confessed that He was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.
(23) Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.	(23) Therefore his parents said, He is of age; ask him.
(24) Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.	(24) Then again they called the man who was blind, and said to him, Give God the praise: we know that this Man is a sinner.
(25) He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.	(25) He answered and said, Whether He is a sinner or not, I do not know: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.
(26) Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?	(26) Then they said to him again, What did He do to you? how did He open your eyes?
(27) He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?	(27) He answered them, I have told you already, and you did not listen: why would you want to hear it again? Do you also want to be His disciples?

(28) Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.	(28) Then they reviled {cursed} him, and said, You are His disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.
(29) We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.	(29) We know that God spoke to Moses: as for this fellow, we do not know where He is from.
(30) The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.	(30) The man answered and said to them, Why this is a marvelous thing, that you do not know where He is from, and yet He has opened my eyes.
(31) Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.	(31) Now we know that God does not hear sinners: but if any man is a worshiper of God, and does His will, He hears him.
(32) Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.	(32) Since the world began it has not been heard of that any man opened the eyes of one who was born blind.
(33) If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.	(33) If this man were not of God, He could do nothing.
(34) They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.	(34) They answered and said to him, You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us? And they cast him out.
(35) Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?	(35) Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when He had found him, He said to him, Do you believe on the Son of God?
(36) He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?	(36) He answered and said, Who is He, Lord, that I might believe on Him?
(37) And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.	(37) And Jesus said to him, You have both seen Him, and it is He Who talks with you.
(38) And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.	(38) And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshiped Him.
(39) And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.	(39) And Jesus said, For judgment I have come into this world, that those who do not see might see; and that those who see might be made blind.

(40) And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also? (41) Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.	(40) And some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these words, and said to Him, Are we blind also? (41) Jesus said to them, If you were blind, you would have no sin: but now you say, We see; therefore your sin remains.
Chapter 10 (1) Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. (2) But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. (3) To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. (4) And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. (5) And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. (6) This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them. (7) Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. (8) All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.	Chapter 10 (1) Truly, truly, I say to you, He who does not enter in by the door {gate} into the sheep pen, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. (2) But he who enters in by the door {gate} is the shepherd of the sheep. (3) To him the porter {gate keeper} opens; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out. (4) And when he puts forth his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him: because they know his voice. (5) And a stranger they will not follow, but will flee from him: because they do not know the voice of strangers. (6) This parable Jesus spoke to them: but they did not understand the things which He spoke to them. (7) Then Jesus said to them again, Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. (8) All who ever came before Me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not listen to them.

(9) I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. (10) The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. (11) I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. (12) But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. (13) The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. (14) I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. (15) As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. (16) And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. (17) Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. (18) No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.	(9) I am the door: if any man enters in by Me, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. (10) The thief does not come, except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I have come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. (11) I am the good Shepherd: the good Shepherd gives His life for the sheep. (12) But he who is hired, and not the shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep, and flees: and the wolf catches them, and scatters the sheep. (13) The hired hand flees, because he is a hired hand, and does not care for the sheep. (14) I am the good Shepherd, and know My sheep, and am known of by them. (15) As the Father knows Me, even so I know the Father: and I lay down My life for the sheep. (16) And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they will hear My voice; and there will be one fold, and one Shepherd. (17) Therefore My Father loves Me, because I lay down My life, that I might take it again. (18) No man takes it from Me, but I lay it down of My own self. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment I have received of My Father.

(19) There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings. (20) And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him? (21) Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind? (22) And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter. (23) And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch. (24) Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly. (25) Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me. (26) But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. (27) My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: (28) And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. (29) My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.	(19) There was a division therefore again among the Jews because of these sayings. (20) And many of them said, He has a demon, and is mad; why do you listen to Him? (21) Others said, These are not the words of One who has a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind? (25) Jesus answered them, I told you, and you did not believe: the works that I do in My Father's Name, they bear witness of Me. (26) But you do not believe, because you are not of My sheep, as I said to you. (27) My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me: (28) And I give to them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of My hand. (30) I and my Father are one. (31) Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him. (32) Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? (33) The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God. (34) Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? (35) If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken; (36) Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God? (37) If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. (38) But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him. (39) Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand, (40) And went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first baptized; and there he abode. (41) And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spake of this man were true. (42) And many believed on him there.	(30) I and My Father are one. (31) Then the Jews took up stones again to stone Him. (32) Jesus answered them, Many good works I have shown you from My Father; for which of those works do you stone Me? (33) The Jews answered Him, saying, For a good work we do not stone You; but for blasphemy; and because You, being a man, make Yourself God. (34) Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, You are gods?[c] (35) If He called them gods, to whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken; (36) Do you say of Him, Whom the Father has sanctified, and sent into the world, You blasphemy; because I said, I am the Son of God? (37) If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me. (38) But if I do, though you do not believe Me, believe the works: that you may know, and believe, that the Father is in Me, and I in Him. (39) Therefore they sought again to take Him: but He escaped out of their hand, (40) And He went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first baptized; and there He stayed. (41) And many followed Him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spoke of this Man were true. (42) And many believed on Him there.

Chapter 11 (1) Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. (2) (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) (3) Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick. (4) When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby. (5) Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. (6) When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was. (7) Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judaea again. (8) His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? (9) Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. (10) But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.	Chapter 11 (1) Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. (2) (It was that same Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment,[a] and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) (3) Therefore his sisters sent to Him, saying, Lord, look, he whom You love is sick. (4) When Jesus heard that, He said, This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified by it. (5) Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. (6) Therefore when He had heard that he was sick, He stayed two days still in the same place where He was. (7) Then after that He said to His disciples, Let us go into Judea again. (32) Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. (33) When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, (34) And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see. (35) Jesus wept. (36) Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him! (37) And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died? (38) Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. (39) Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days. (40) Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God? (41) Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. (51) And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; (52) And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad. (53) Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death. (54) Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples. (55) And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves. (56) Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast? (57) Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him. Chapter 12 (1) Then Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. (2) There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him. (3) Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment. (4) Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him, (5) Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor? (6) This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein. (7) Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this. (8) For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always. (11) Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus. (12) On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, (13) Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord. (14) And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, (15) Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. (16) These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him. (17) The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record. (18) For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle. (19) The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.	(11) Because of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus. (20) And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast: (21) The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. (22) Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus. (23) And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. (24) Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. (25) He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. (26) If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. (27) Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour. (28) Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. (29) The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him. (24) Truly, truly, I say to you, Unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it lives alone: but if it dies, it brings forth much fruit. (25) He who loves his life shall lose it; but he who hates his life in this world shall keep it to life eternal. (26) If any man would serve Me, let him follow Me; and where I am, there My servant shall also be: if any man serves Me, My Father will honor him. (32) And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.	(32) And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to Myself.
(33) This he said, signifying what death he should die.	(33) This He said, signifying by what manner of death He would die.
(34) The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?	(34) The people answered Him, We have heard out of the law that Christ lives forever: and how do You say, The Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?
(35) Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.	(35) Then Jesus said to them, For yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness comes upon you: because he who walks in darkness does not know where he goes.
(36) While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.	(36) While you have Light, believe in the Light, that you may be the children of Light. These things Jesus spoke, and departed, and hid Himself from them.
(37) But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:	(37) But though He had done so many miracles before them, yet they did not believe on Him:
(38) That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?	(38) That the saying of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, Lord, who has believed our report? and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?[e]
(39) Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,	(39) Therefore they could not believe, because Isaiah also said,

12:38e - Is. 53:1

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(40) He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.	(40) He has blinded their eyes, and hardened their hearts; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.[f]
(41) These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.	(41) These things Isaiah said, when he saw His glory, and spoke of Him.
(42) Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:	(42) Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on Him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:
(43) For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.	(43) Because they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.
(44) Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.	(44) Jesus cried and said, He who believes on Me, does not believe on Me, but on Him Who sent Me.
(45) And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.	(45) And he who sees Me sees Him Who sent Me.
(46) I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.	(46) I have come a light into the world, that whoever believes on Me should not stay in darkness.
(47) And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.	(47) And if any man hears My words, and does not believe, I do not judge him: because I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world.
(48) He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.	(48) He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has One Who judges him: the word which I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.
(49) For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.	(49) Because I have not spoken of Myself; but the Father Who sent me, He gave Me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

12:40f - Is. 44:18

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(50) And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.	(50) And I know that His commandment is everlasting life: therefore whatever I speak, even as the Father said to Me, so I speak.
Chapter 13	Chapter 13
(1) Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.	(1) Now before the Feast of the Passover,[a] when Jesus knew that His hour had come that He should depart out of this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end.
(2) And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;	(2) And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray Him;
(3) Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God;	(3) Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God, and went to God;
(4) He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.	(4) He arose from supper, and laid aside His outer clothes; and took a towel, and wrapped Himself.
(5) After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.	(5) After that He poured water into a bowl, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which He was wrapped.
(6) Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?	(6) Then He came to Simon Peter: and Peter said to Him, Lord, do You wash my feet?
(7) Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.	(7) Jesus answered and said to him, What I do you do not know now; but you shall know later.
(8) Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.	(8) Peter said to Him, You shall never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. (10) Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. (11) For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean. (12) So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? (13) Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. (14) If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. (15) For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. (16) Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him. (17) If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. (18) I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me. (19) Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.	(9) Simon Peter said to Him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. (10) Jesus said to him, He who has bathed does not need to wash except for his feet, but is clean altogether: and you are clean, but not all. (11) Because He knew who would betray Him; therefore He said, You are not all clean. (12) So after He had washed their feet, and had taken His clothes, and had sat down again, He said to them, Do you know what I have done to you? (13) You call Me Master and Lord: and you say correctly; because I am. (14) If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; you also ought to wash one another's feet. (15) Because I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you. (16) Truly, truly, I say to you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he who is sent greater than he who sent him. (17) If you know these things, happy are you if you do them. (18) I do not speak of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He who eats bread with Me has lifted up his heel against Me.[b] (19) Now I tell you before it happens, that, when it comes to pass, you may believe that I am He.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(20) Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.	(20) Truly, truly, I say to you, He who receives whomever I send receives Me; and he who receives Me receives Him Who sent Me.
(21) When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.	(21) When Jesus had so spoken, He was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Truly, truly, I say to you, that one of you shall betray Me.
(22) Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.	(22) Then the disciples looked at one another, questioning of whom He spoke.
(23) Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.	(23) Now there was leaning on Jesus' breast one of His disciples, whom Jesus loved.[c]
(24) Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.	(24) Simon Peter therefore motioned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom He spoke.
(25) He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?	(25) He then lying on Jesus' breast said to Him, Lord, who is it?
(26) Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.	(26) Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop {piece of bread}, when I have dipped it. And when He had dipped the sop {piece of bread}, He gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.
(27) And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.	(27) And after the sop {piece of bread} Satan entered into him. Then Jesus said to him, What you do, do quickly.
(28) Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.	(28) Now no man at the table knew for what intent He spoke this to him.
(29) For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.	(29) Because some of them thought, because Judas had the {money} bag, that Jesus had said to him, Buy those things that we have need of for the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

13:23c – disciple whom Jesus loved – John – see John 21:20, 24

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(30) He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night. (31) Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him. (32) If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him. (33) Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you. (34) A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. (35) By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. (36) Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards. (37) Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake. (38) Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.	(30) He then having received the sop {piece of bread} went immediately out: and it was night. (31) Therefore, when he had gone out, Jesus said, Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in Him. (32) If God is glorified in Him, God shall also glorify Him in Himself, and shall soon glorify Him. (33) Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You shall seek Me: and as I said to the Jews, Where I go, you cannot come; so now I say to you. (34) A new commandment I give to you, That you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. (35) By this all men shall know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another. (36) Simon Peter said to Him, Lord, where are You going? Jesus answered him, Where I go, you cannot follow Me now; but you shall follow Me later. (37) Peter said to Him, Lord, why can I not follow You now? I will lay down my life for Your sake. (38) Jesus answered him, Will you lay down your life for My sake? Truly, Truly, I say to you, The cock shall not crow, until you have denied Me three times.[d]

Chapter 14 (1) Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. (2) In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. (3) And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. (4) And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. (5) Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? (6) Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. (7) If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him. (8) Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. (9) Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?	Chapter 14 (1) Do not let your heart be troubled: you believe in God, believe also in Me. (2) In My Father's house are many mansions {rooms}:[a] if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. (3) And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also. (4) And where I go you know, and the way you know. 14:2a – mansions - monai {μοναι} – rooms [but they will be like mansions to us!]

(10) Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.	(10) Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in Me? the words that I speak to you I speak not of Myself: but the Father Who lives in Me, He does the works.
(11) Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.	(11) Believe Me that I am in the Father, and the Father in Me: or else believe Me for the very works' sake.
(12) Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.	(12) Truly, truly, I say to you, He who believes on Me, the works that I do he shall do also; and greater works than these he shall do; because I go to My Father.
(13) And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.	(13) And whatever you shall ask in My Name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.
(14) If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.	(14) If you shall ask anything in My Name, I will do it.
(15) If ye love me, keep my commandments.	(15) If you love Me, keep My commandments.
(16) And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;	(16) And I will ask the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter,[b] that He may stay with you forever;
(17) Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.	(17) Even the Spirit of truth; Whom the world cannot receive, because it does not see Him, neither knows Him: but you know Him; because He lives with you, and shall be in you.
(18) I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.	(18) I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.
(19) Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.	(19) Yet in a little while, and the world will see Me no more; but you see Me: because I live, you shall live also.

14:16,26b – Comforter – parakletos {παράκλητος} – consoler, intercessor, advocate

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(20) At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.	(20) At that day you shall know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you.
(21) He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.	(21) He who has My commandments, and keeps them, he it is who loves Me: and he who loves Me shall be loved by My Father, and I will love him, and will reveal Myself to him.
(22) Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?	(22) Judas, not Iscariot, said to Him, Lord, how is it that You will reveal Yourself to us, and not to the world?
(23) Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.	(23) Jesus answered and said to him, If a man loves Me, he will keep My words: and My Father will love him, and We will come to him, and make Our home with him.
(24) He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.	(24) He who does not love Me does not keep My sayings: and the word which you hear is not Mine, but the Father's Who sent Me.
(25) These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.	(25) These things I have spoken to you, while still present with you.
(26) But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.	(26) But the Comforter,[b] Who is the Holy Spirit, Whom the Father will send in My Name, He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatever I have said to you.
(27) Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.	(27) Peace[c] I leave with you, My peace I give to you: not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
(28) Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.	(28) You have heard how I said to you, I am going away, and will return to you. If you loved Me, you would rejoice, because I said, I go to the Father: because My Father is greater than I.

14:27c – peace - eireney {εἰρήνη} – quiet calmness

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(29) And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe. (30) Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. (31) But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.	(29) And now I have told you before it happens, that, when it does happen, you might believe. (30) Hereafter I will not talk much with you: because the prince of this world comes, and has nothing in Me. (31) But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave Me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go from here.
Chapter 15 (1) I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. (2) Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. (3) Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. (4) Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. (5) I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. (6) If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. (7) If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.	Chapter 15 (1) I am the true vine, and My Father is the gardener. (2) Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He takes away: and every branch that bears fruit, He purges it, that it may bring forth more fruit.[a] (3) Now you are clean through the word which I have spoken to you. (4) Live in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it lives in the vine; neither can you, except you live in Me. (5) I am the vine, you are the branches: He who lives in Me, and I in him, the same brings forth much fruit: because without Me you can do nothing. (6) If a man does not live in Me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. (7) If you live in Me, and My words live in you, you shall ask what you want, and it shall be done to you.

15:2a – fruit – karpos {καρπός} – fruit of the Spirit – Gal. 5:22-23

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(8) Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.	(8) In this is My Father glorified, that you bear much fruit; so you shall be My disciples.
(9) As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.	(9) As the Father has loved Me, so I have loved you: continue in My love.[b]
(10) If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.	(10) If you keep My commandments, you shall live in My love; even as I have kept My Father's commandments, and live in His love.
(11) These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.	(11) These things I have spoken to you, that My joy might remain in you, and that your joy[c] might be full.
(12) This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.	(12) This is My commandment, That you love[c] one another, as I have loved you.
(13) Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.	(13) Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
(14) Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.	(14) You are My friends, if you do whatever I command you.
(15) Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.	(15) From now on I do not call you servants; because the servant does not know what his lord does: but I have called you friends; because all things that I have heard of My Father I have made known to you.
(16) Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.	(16) You have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, and ordained[d] you, that you should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatever you shall ask of the Father in My Name, He may give it to you.
(17) These things I command you, that ye love one another.	(17) These things I command you, that you love one another.

15:9b – love – agape {ἀγάπη} – Godly love – active love – often translated as charity
15:11c – joy – chara {χαρά} – calm cheerfulness
15:16d – ordained – tithemi {τίθημι} – appointed – set aside

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(18) If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. (19) If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. (20) Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. (21) But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me. (22) If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin. (23) He that hateth me hateth my Father also. (24) If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. (25) But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause. (26) But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me: (27) And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.	(18) If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you. (19) If you were of the world, the world would love his own: but because you are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. (20) Remember the word that I said to you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted Me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept My saying, they will keep yours also. (21) But all these things they will do to you for My Name's sake, because they do not know Him Who sent Me. (22) If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin: but now they have no covering for their sin. (23) He who hates Me hates My Father also. (24) If I had not done among them the works which no other man did, they would not have had sin: but now they have both seen and hated both Me and My Father. (25) But this comes to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated Me without a cause.[e] (26) But when the Comforter[f] has come, Whom I will send to you from the Father, even the Spirit of Truth, Who proceeds from the Father, He shall testify of Me: (27) And you also shall bear witness, because you have been with Me from the beginning.

15:26f – Comforter – parakletos {παράκλητος} – consoler, intercessor, advocate

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 16 (1) These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended. (2) They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service. (3) And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me. (4) But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you. (5) But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? (6) But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. (7) Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. (8) And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: (9) Of sin, because they believe not on me; (10) Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; (11) Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.	Chapter 16 (1) These things I have spoken to you, that you should not be offended. (2) They shall put you out of the synagogues: yes, the time comes, that whoever kills you will think that he does God service. (3) And these things they will do to you, because they have not known the Father, nor Me. (4) But these things I have told you, that when the time shall come, you may remember that I told you of them. And these things I did not say to you at the beginning, because I was with you. (5) But now I go My way to Him Who sent Me; and none of you asks Me, Where are You going? (6) But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. (7) Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is to your advantage that I go away: because if I do not go away, the Comforter[a] will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send Him to you. (8) And when He has come, He will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: (9) Of sin, because they do not believe on Me; (10) Of righteousness, because I go to My Father, and you see Me no more; (11) Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.

16:7a - Comforter – parakletos {παράκλητος} – consoler, intercessor, advocate

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(12) I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.	(12) I have yet many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now.
(13) Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.	(13) However when He, the Spirit of Truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth: because He shall not speak of Himself; but whatever He shall hear, that He shall speak: and He will show you things to come.
(14) He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.	(14) He shall glorify Me: because He shall receive of Mine, and shall show it to you.
(15) All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.	(15) All things that the Father has are Mine: therefore I said, that He shall take of Mine, and shall show it to you.
(16) A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.	(16) A little while, and you shall not see Me: and again, a little while, and you shall see Me, because I go to the Father.
(17) Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?	(17) Then some of His disciples said among themselves, What is this that He says to us, A little while, and you shall not see Me: and again, a little while, and you shall see Me: and, Because I go to the Father?
(18) They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.	(18) They said therefore, What is this that He says, A little while? we do not know what He says.
(19) Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?	(19) Now Jesus knew that they wanted to ask Him, and said to them, Do you inquire among yourselves of what I said, A little while, and you shall not see Me: and again, a little while, and you shall see Me?

(20) Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.	(20) Truly, truly, I say to you, That you shall weep and cry aloud, but the world shall rejoice: and you shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.
(21) A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.	(21) A woman when she is in child birth has sorrow, because her hour has come: but as soon as she has delivered the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, because of the joy that a man is born into the world.
(22) And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.	(22) And therefore you now have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and no man can take your joy from you.
(23) And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.	(23) And in that day you shall ask Me nothing. Truly, truly, I say to you, Whatever you shall ask the Father in My Name, He will give it to you.
(24) Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.	(24) Before now you have asked nothing in My Name: ask, and you shall receive, that your joy may be full.
(25) These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.	(25) These things I have spoken to you in proverbs: but the time comes, when I shall no more speak to you in proverbs, but I shall show you plainly of the Father.
(26) At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:	(26) At that day you shall ask in My Name: and I will not say to you, that I will pray to the Father for you:
(27) For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.	(27) Because the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me, and have believed that I came out from God.
(28) I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.	(28) I came forth from the Father, and have come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

(29) His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.	(29) His disciples said to Him, Now You speak plainly, and do not speak in a proverb.
(30) Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.	(30) Now we are sure that You know all things, and do not need that any man should ask You: by this we believe that You came forth from God.
(31) Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?	(31) Jesus answered them, Do you now believe?
(32) Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.	(32) Look, the hour is coming, yes, it has already come, that you shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave Me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me.
(33) These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.	(33) These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you might have peace. In the world you shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.
(1) These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:	(1) These words Jesus spoke, and lifted up His eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour has come; glorify Your Son, that Your Son also may glorify You:
(2) As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.	(2) As You have given Him power over all flesh, that He should give eternal life to as many as You have given Him.
(3) And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.	(3) And this is eternal life, that they might know You the only true God, and Jesus Christ, Whom You have sent.
(4) I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.	(4) I have glorified You on the earth: I have finished the work which You gave Me to do.

(5) And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.	(5) And now, O Father, glorify Me with Your own self with the glory which I had with You before the world was.
(6) I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.	(6) I have revealed Your Name to the men whom You gave Me out of the world: they were Yours, and You gave them to Me; and they have kept Your word.
(7) Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.	(7) Now they have known that all things whatever You have given Me are of You.
(8) For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.	(8) Because I have given to them the words which You gave Me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from You, and they have believed that You sent Me.
(9) I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.	(9) I pray for them: I do not pray for the world, but for those whom You have given Me; because they are Yours.
(10) And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.	(10) And all Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine; and I am glorified in them.
(11) And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.	(11) And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to You. Holy Father, keep through Your own Name those whom You have given Me, that they may be one, as We are.
(12) While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.	(12) While I was with them in the world, I kept them in Your Name: those who You gave Me I have kept, and none of them is lost, except the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.
(13) And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.	(13) And now I come to You; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have My joy fulfilled in themselves.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(14) I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.	(14) I have given them Your word; and the world has hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
(15) I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.	(15) I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but that You should keep them from the evil {one}.
(16) They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.	(16) They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
(17) Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.	(17) Sanctify {make holy} them through Your truth: Your word is truth.
(18) As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.	(18) As You have sent Me into the world, even so I have also sent them into the world.
(19) And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.	(19) And for their sakes I sanctify Myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.
(20) Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;	(20) Neither do I pray for these alone, but for those also who shall believe on Me through their word;
(21) That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.	(21) That they all may be one; as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You, that they also may be one in Us: that the world may believe that You have sent Me.
(22) And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:	(22) And the glory which You gave to Me I have given to them; that they may be one, even as We are One:
(23) I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.	(23) I in them, and You in Me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them, as You have loved Me.

(24) Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. (25) O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me. (26) And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.	(24) Father, I will that they also, whom You have given Me, be with Me where I am; that they may see My glory, which You have given Me: because You loved Me before the foundation of the world. (25) O righteous Father, the world has not known You: but I have known You, and these have known that You have sent Me. (26) And I have declared to them Your Name, and will declare it: that the love with which You have loved Me may be in them, and I in them.
Chapter 18 (1) When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples. (2) And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus ofttimes resorted thither with his disciples. (3) Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. (4) Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye? (5) They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them. (6) As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.	Chapter 18 (1) When Jesus had spoken these words, He went forth with His disciples over the brook Cedron, where there was a garden, into which He and His disciples entered. (2) And Judas also, who betrayed Him, knew the place: because Jesus often times went there with His disciples. (3) Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with lanterns and torches and weapons. (4) Jesus therefore, knowing all things that would come upon Him, went forth, and said to them, Whom do you seek? (5) They answered Him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus said to them, I Am He. And Judas also, who betrayed Him, stood with them. (6) As soon then as He had said to them, I Am He,[a] they went backward, and fell to the ground.

18:6a – I Am – Ex. 3:14

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.	(7) Then He asked them again, Whom do you seek? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.
(8) Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:	(8) Jesus answered, I have told you that I Am He: if therefore you seek Me, let these go their way:
(9) That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.	(9) That the saying might be fulfilled, which He spoke, Of those whom You gave Me I have lost none.
(10) Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.	(10) Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear.[b] The servant's name was Malchus.
(11) Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?	(11) Then Jesus said to Peter, Put up your sword into the sheath: shall I not drink the cup which My Father has given Me?
(12) Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him,	(12) Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound Him,
(13) And led him away to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.	(13) And led Him away to Annas first; because he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was the high priest that same year.[c]
(14) Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.	(14) Now Caiaphas was he, who gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.[d]
(15) And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.	(15) And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known to the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.[e]

18:10b – Mat. 6:51; Luke 22:51 – Jesus touched his ear and healed it – Mark 14:47
18:13c – Annas – father-in-law to Caiaphas the high priest – Lk. 3:2; Acts 4:6
18:14d – Jn. 11:50
18:15e – John was known to Caiaphas so he was allowed to follow and so was able to see and hear what took place.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(16) But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. (17) Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. (18) And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself. (19) The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine. (20) Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing. (21) Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said. (22) And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? (23) Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? (24) Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest. (25) And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.	(16) But Peter stood outside the door. Then that other disciple went out, who was known to the high priest, and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter. (17) Then the young woman who kept the door said to Peter, Are you not also one of this Man's disciples? He said, I am not. (18) And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; because it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself. (19) The high priest then asked Jesus of His disciples, and of His teaching. (20) Jesus answered him, I spoke openly to the world; I continually taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, where the Jews always resort; and I have said nothing in secret. (21) Why do you ask Me? ask those who heard Me, what I have said to them: see, they know what I said. (22) And when He had said this, one of the officers who stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Do You answer the high priest[f] in this way? (23) Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why do you strike Me? (24) Now Annas had sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest. (25) And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. Therefore they said to him, Are you not also one of His disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

18:22f – Luke 3:2; John 18:13; Acts 4:6

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(26) One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?	(26) One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, said, Did I not see you in the garden with Him?
(27) Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.	(27) Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crowed.
(28) Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.	(28) Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves did not go into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the Passover.
(29) Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?	(29) Pilate then went out to them, and said, What accusation do you bring against this man?
(30) They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.	(30) They answered and said to him, If He were not a criminal, we would not have delivered Him up to you.
(31) Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:	(31) Then Pilate said to them, You take Him, and judge Him according to your law. The Jews therefore said to him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:
(32) That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.	(32) That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which He spoke, signifying what death he should die.
(33) Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?	(33) Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said to Him, Are You the King of the Jews?
(34) Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?	(34) Jesus answered him, Do you say this of yourself, or did others tell it to you about Me?
(35) Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?	(35) Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered You to me: what have You done?

(36) Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. (37) Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. (38) Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all. (39) But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? (40) Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.	(36) Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if My kingdom were of this world, then My servants would fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now My kingdom is not from here. (37) Pilate therefore said to Him, Are You a king then? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. To this end I was born, and for this cause I came into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. Every one that is of the truth hears My voice. (38) Pilate said to Him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, I find no fault in Him at all. (39) But you have a custom, that I should release to you one at the Passover: therefore do you want that I release to you the King of the Jews? (40) Then they all cried again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas {Son of the Father}.[g] Now Barabbas was a robber.
Chapter 19 (1) Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. (2) And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe, (3) And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.	Chapter 19 (1) Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged Him. (2) And the soldiers braided a crown of thorns,[a] and put it on His head, and they put on Him a purple robe, (3) And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they struck Him with their hands.

18:40g - Barabbas {βαρ-αββαν} - Son of the Father - two presented; one a sacrifice for sin, the other set free – Lev. 16:5-22 - Mat. 27:16; Mk. 15:7; Lk. 23:18
19:2a – crown of thorns – part of the curse [Gen. 3:18] – Mat. 27:29; Mk. 15:17

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.	(4) Pilate therefore went forth again, and said to them, Look, I bring Him forth to you, that you may know that I find no fault in Him.
(5) Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!	(5) Then Jesus came forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them, Look, the Man!
(6) When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.	(6) Therefore when the chief priests and officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, Crucify Him, crucify Him. Pilate said to them, You take Him, and crucify Him: because I find no fault in Him.
(7) The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.	(7) The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law He ought to die, because He made Himself the Son of God.
(8) When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;	(8) When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;
(9) And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.	(9) And went again into the judgment hall, and said to Jesus, Where are You from? But Jesus gave him no answer.
(10) Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?	(10) Then Pilate said to Him, Do You not speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to crucify You, and have power to release You?
(11) Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.	(11) Jesus answered, You could have no power at all against Me, except it were given you from above: therefore he who delivered Me to you has the greater sin.
(12) And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar.	(12) And from that time forth Pilate sought to release Him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If you let this man go, you are not Caesar's friend: whoever makes Himself a king speaks against Caesar.

(13) When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. (14) And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King! (15) But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar. (16) Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away. (17) And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: (18) Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. (19) And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. (20) This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.	(13) When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement {mosaic},[b] but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. (14) And it was the preparation of the Passover, and about the sixth hour at night {midnight}:[c] and he said to the Jews, See your King! (15) But they cried out, Away with Him, away with Him, crucify Him. Pilate said to them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar. (16) Therefore he then delivered Him to them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led Him away. (17) And He carrying His cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: (18) Where they crucified Him, and two others with Him, one on either side, and Jesus in the middle.[d] (19) And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.[e] (20) This title then was read by many of the Jews: because the place where Jesus was crucified was near to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

(21) Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. (22) Pilate answered, What I have written I have written. (23) Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. (24) They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did. (25) Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. (26) When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son! (27) Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.	(21) Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, Do not write, The King of the Jews; but that He said, I am King of the Jews. (28) After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. (29) Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. (30) When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost. (31) The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. (32) Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. (33) But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:	(28) After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, said, I thirst.[h] (29) Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled h sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to His mouth. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 21 (1) After these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself. (2) There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. (3) Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing. (4) But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. (5) Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No. (6) And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. (7) Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.	Chapter 21 (1) After these things Jesus showed Himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias {Sea of Galilee};[a] and in this way He showed Himself. (2) There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus {the twin},[b] and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of His disciples. (3) Simon Peter said to them, I am going fishing. They said to him, We will also go with you. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing. (4) But when the morning had now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. (5) Then Jesus said to them, Children, have you any meat? They answered Him, No. (6) And He said to them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and you shall find {a catch}. They therefore cast the net, and now they were not able to draw it in because of the multitude of fish. (7) Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his fisher's coat around him, (because he was naked,) and jumped into the sea.

(8) And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.	(8) And the other disciples came in a little ship; (because they were not far from land, but as it were about two hundred cubits {about 300 ft.; 91.4 m.}[c] dragging the net with the fish.
(9) As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.	(9) As soon then as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread.
(10) Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.	(10) Jesus said to them, Bring of the fish which you have now caught.
(11) Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.	(11) Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of large fish, one hundred fifty-three:[d] and although there were so many, the net was still not broken.
(12) Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.	(12) Jesus said to them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples dared ask Him, Who are You? knowing that it was the Lord.
(13) Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.	(13) Jesus then came, and took bread, and gave it to them, and fish likewise.
(14) This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.	(14) This is now the third time that Jesus showed Himself to His disciples, after He had risen from the dead.
(15) So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.	(15) So when they had dined, Jesus said to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, do you love[e] Me more than these? He said to Him, Yes, Lord; You know that I love[f] You. He said to him, Feed My lambs.
(16) He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.	(16) He said to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, do you love[e] Me? He said to Him, Yes, Lord; You know that I love[f] You. He said to him, Feed My sheep.

(17) He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.	(17) He said to him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, do you love[e] Me? Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, Do you love[e] Me? And he said to him, Lord, You know all things; You know that I love[f] You. Jesus said to him, Feed My sheep.
(18) Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.	(18) Truly, truly, I say to you, When you were young, you clothed yourself, and walked wherever you wanted: but when you are old, you shall stretch forth your hands, and another shall lead you, and carry you where you do not want to go.
(19) This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.	(19) This He spoke, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He said to him, Follow Me.

Chapter 1 (1) The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, (2) Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen: (3) To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God: (4) And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me. (5) For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence. (6) When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? (7) And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.	Chapter 1 (1) The former writing I have made, O Theophilus {friend of God},[a] of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, (2) Until the day in which He was taken up, after He through the Holy Spirit had given commandments to the apostles whom He had chosen: (3) To whom also He showed Himself alive after His passion by many infallible proofs, being seen by them forty days,[b] and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:[c] (4) And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the Promise of the Father, which, He said, you have heard from Me. (8) But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. (9) And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. (10) And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; (11) Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. (12) Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey. (13) And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James. (4) And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. (5) And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. (6) Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. (7) And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans? (8) And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? (9) Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, (10) Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, (11) Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God. 2:4b - languages - tongues - glossais { γλωσσαις}

2:8c - tongue - dialect - dialekto - {διαλεκτω}; language

Note: What is taking place is the opposite of what happened at the tower of Babel. At the tower of Babel men had gathered together to "make a name" for themselves [Gen. 11:14] and God confounded their languages. Here men are gathered to worship God and God enables men to hear the Gospel in their own language.

2:13d - new wine (sweet wine, alcoholic) gluekous {γλευκους}
Note: King James Version does not make a distinction between "new wine" and "sweet wine", but it is clear from the context that the disciples were accused of being drunk. The Greek text uses the word gluekous [we get the word glucose from] which is sweet wine. Technically, "new wine" is grape juice that has not fermented, "sweet wine" is alcoholic [grape juice that has fermented].

2:15e - third hour of the day - 9 o'clock in the morning - people who get drunk usually do so at night or late evening, not early in the morning

3:11d - Solomon's Porch - a covered entry-way on the east side of the temple in the outer courtyard of the Gentiles - Herod had reconstructed the porch that Solomon had built - it was known for its beauty and was probably where Jesus' disciples were when they were showing Him the beauty of the building - see Mat. 24:1

(16) And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.	(16) And His Name through faith in His Name this man has been made strong, whom you see and know: yes, the faith which is by Him has given him this perfect wholeness in the presence of you all.
(17) And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.	(17) And now, brothers, I know that through ignorance you did it, as did also your rulers.
(18) But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.	(18) But those things, which God beforehand had shown by the mouth of all His prophets, that Christ should suffer, He has so fulfilled.
(19) Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;	(19) Repent therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out,[e] when the times of refreshing comes from the presence of the Lord;
(20) And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:	(20) And He shall send Jesus Christ, Who beforehand was preached to you:
(21) Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.	(21) Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restoring of all things,[f] which God has spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began.
(22) For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.	(22) Because Moses truly said to the forefathers, the Lord your God shall raise up a Prophet to you of your brothers, like me; Him you shall hear in all things whatever He shall say to you.
(23) And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.	(23) And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that Prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.[g]

3:19e - blotted out - literally - lifted out of the book
3:21f - times of restoring - Armaggedon - when Christ returns to restore the earth and reign on the present earth for 1000 years
3:22g- Deut. 18:18-19

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(24) Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days. (25) Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. (26) Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.	(24) Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel and those who followed after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days. (25) You are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our forefathers, saying to Abraham, And in your Descendant shall all the peoples of the earth be blessed.[h] (26) To you God, having raised up His Son Jesus, first sent Him to bless you, in turning everyone of you away from his sins.
Chapter 4 (1) And as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them, (2) Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. (3) And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide. (4) Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand. (5) And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, (6) And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.	Chapter 4 (1) And as they spoke to the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them, (2) Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. (3) And they laid hands on them, and put them in jail until the next day: because it was now evening. (4) Nevertheless many of those who heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand. (5) And it came to pass in the morning, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, (6) And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas,[a] and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kin of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

3:25h - Gen. 22:18

4:6a - Annas and Caiaphas high priests - Caiaphas is the son-in-law of Annas - we believe that Annas had been the high priest and then gave the title to his son-in-law, but out of respect both are still referred to as high priests – see John 18:13; Luke 3:2

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?	(7) And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what Name, have you done this?
(8) Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,	(8) Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, You rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,
(9) If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;	(9) If we this day are being examined for the good deed done to the lame man, how it is he has been made whole;
(10) Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.	(10) Let it be known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, Whom you crucified, Whom God raised from the dead, even by Him this man stands here before you whole.
(11) This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.	(11) He is the Stone which was rejected by you builders, which has become the head of the corner.[b]
(12) Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.	(12) Neither is there salvation in any other: because there is no other Name under heaven given among men, by which we must be saved.
(13) Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.	(13) Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated and ignorant men, they marveled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.
(14) And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.	(14) And seeing the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

4:11b - Ps. 118:22-23; Is. 28:16

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,	(15) But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,
(16) Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.	(16) Saying, What shall we do to these men? because indeed a notable miracle has been done by them which is evident to all those who live in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.
(17) But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.	(17) But that it spreads no further among the people, let us strictly threaten them, that they not from this time forward speak to any man in this Name.
(18) And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.	(18) And they called them, and commanded them to not speak at all nor teach in the Name of Jesus.
(19) But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.	(19) But Peter and John answered and said to them, Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you more than to God, you judge.
(20) For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.	(20) Because we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.
(21) So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.	(21) So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way that they might punish them, because of the people: because all men glorified God for that which was done.
(22) For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.	(22) Because the man was over forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shown.
(23) And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.	(23) And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(24) And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is: (25) Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things? (26) The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ. (27) For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, (28) For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done. (29) And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word, (30) By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.	(24) And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, You are God, Who has made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is: (25) Who by the mouth of Your servant David has said, Why did the heathen {ungodly nations} rage, and the people imagine vain things? (26) The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against His Christ.[c] (27) Because truly against Your holy Child Jesus, Whom You have anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles {non-Jews}, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, (28) In order to do whatever Your hand and Your counsel determined beforehand to be done. (29) And now, Lord, hear their threats: and grant to Your servants, that with all boldness they may speak Your word, (30) By stretching forth Your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the Name of Your holy Child Jesus.

(31) And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.	(31) And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit,[d] and they spoke the word of God with boldness.
(32) And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.	(32) And the multitude of those who believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither did anyone say of any of the things which they possessed were his own; but they had all things in common.
(33) And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.	(33) And with great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.
(34) Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,	(34) Neither was there any among them who lacked: because as many as possessed lands or houses sold them, and brought the money from the things that were sold,
(35) And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.	(35) And laid it down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made to every man according to his need.
(36) And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus,	(36) And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation, {comfort}) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus,
(37) Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.	(37) Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

4:31d – filled with the Holy Spirit – they had been baptized by the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Baptism of the Holy Spirit is a one-time event that occurs when a person believes in Jesus – the filling of the Holy Spirit may occur many times because we are earthen vessels with cracks and leaks – we need repeated filling!

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 5 (1) But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, (2) And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. (3) But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? (4) Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. (5) And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things. (6) And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him. (7) And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. (8) And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much. (9) Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.	Chapter 5 (1) But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, (2) And kept back part of the price, his wife also knowing about it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.[a] (3) But Peter said, Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land? (4) While it remained, was it not yours to own? and after it was sold, was it not in your own power? why have you conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to God. (5) And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the spirit {he died}:[b] and great fear came on all those who heard these things. (6) And the young men arose, wrapped him up, and carried him out, and buried him. (7) And it was about the space of three hours later, when his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in. (8) And Peter said to her, Tell me whether you sold the land for so much? And she said, Yes, for so much. (9) Then Peter said to her, How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and shall carry you out.

5:2a - kept back part of it - the land was his to do with as he chose - the problem was that apparently he claimed that he was giving all of the money to the apostles in order to receive the praise of people - see Acts 5:4,8

5:5b - gave up the ghost - gave up his spirit - i.e. he died

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.	(10) Then she fell down immediately at his feet, and yielded up the spirit {died}: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.
(11) And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.	(11) And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.
(12) And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.	(12) And by the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were performed among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.[c]
(13) And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them.	(13) And of the rest no man dared to join himself to them: but the people magnified them.
(14) And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)	(14) And more believers were added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)
(15) Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.	(15) So much so that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.
(16) There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.	(16) There also came a multitude out of the cities all around Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and those who were harassed by unclean spirits: and every one of them was healed.
(17) Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation,	(17) Then the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation,
(18) And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.	(18) And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

5:12c – Acts 3:11

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(19) But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said,	(19) But the Angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said,
(20) Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.	(20) Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this Life.
(21) And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.	(21) And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.
(22) But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,	(22) But when the officers came, and did not find them in the prison, they returned, and told them,
(23) Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.	(23) Saying, The prison we truly found shut with all security, and the keepers standing outside in front of the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man inside.
(24) Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.	(24) Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they questioned of themselves where this would lead.
(25) Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.	(25) Then one came and told them, saying, Indeed, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.
(26) Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.	(26) Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence: because they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.
(27) And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,	(27) And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(28) Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.	(28) Saying, Did we not strictly command you that you should not teach in this Name? and, indeed, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this Man's blood upon us.
(29) Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.	(29) Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.
(30) The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree.	(30) The God of our forefathers raised up Jesus, Whom you killed and hung on a tree.
(31) Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.	(31) God has exalted Him with His right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, in order to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.
(32) And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.	(32) And we are His witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Spirit, Whom God has given to those who obey Him.
(33) When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.	(33) When they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to kill them.
(34) Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;	(34) Then there stood up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel,[d] a doctor of the law, who had a reputation among all the people, and commanded that the apostles be put forth a little distance;
(35) And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.	(35) And said to them, You men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what you intend to do concerning these men.
(36) For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.	(36) Because before these days Theudas rose up, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was killed; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nothing.

5:34d - Gamaliel - Acts 22:3

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(37) After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.	(37) After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away many people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.
(38) And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:	(38) And now I say to you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: because if[e] this counsel or this work is of men, it will come to nothing:
(39) But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.	(39) But if[f] it is of God, you cannot overthrow it; lest perhaps you are found even to fight against God.
(40) And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.	(40) And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the Name of Jesus, and let them go.
(41) And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.	(41) And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His Name.
(42) And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.	(42) And daily in the temple, and in every house, they did not cease to teach and preach Jesus Christ.
Chapter 6	Chapter 6
(1) And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.	(1) And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministry of food.[a]

5:38e - "if this counsel or this work is of men" - the Greek word for "if" in this verse is ean {εαν} which suggests that Gamaliel really suspected that it wasn't of men

5:39f - "if it is of God" - the Greek word for "if" in this verse is ei {ει} which implies that Gamaliel suspected that it was of God

6:1a - the law of Moses specifically provided for widows, but apparently the widows who were Greek speaking Jews from other parts of the country were not being provided for - see Deut. 14:29

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(2) Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.	(2) Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples to themselves, and said, It is not reasonable that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.
(3) Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.	(3) Therefore, brothers, seek out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.
(4) But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.	(4) But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.
(5) And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:	(5) And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:[b]
(6) Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.	(6) Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.
(7) And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.	(7) And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.
(8) And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.	(8) And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.
(9) Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.	(9) Then there arose certain ones of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia[c] and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.
(10) And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.	(10) But they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spoke.

6:5b - we believe these are the first deacons - their job was to make sure that all those, primarily the widows, needs were provided for

6:9c - Libertines, Cyrenians, Alexandrians, Cilicians, and of Asia - Jews from the various parts of the Roman empire, possibly gathered together for the Feast of Pentecost or one of the other feasts: Libertine, Cyrene, Alexandria, Cilicia, etc.

(11) Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. (12) And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council, (13) And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law: (14) For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us. (15) And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.	(11) Then they recruited men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. (12) And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council, (13) And set up false witnesses, which said, This man does not cease to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law: (14) Because we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered to us. (15) And all who sat in the council, looking steadfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.
Chapter 7 (1) Then said the high priest, Are these things so? (2) And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran, (3) And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.	Chapter 7 (1) Then the high priest said, Are these things so? (2) And he {Stephen} answered, Men, brothers, and fathers, listen; The God of glory appeared to our forefather Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran,[a] (3) And said to him, Get out of your country, and away from your kindred, and come into the land which I shall show you.[b]

7:2a - Charran - Haran {The "Ch" is a variant in transliteration of the Hebrew}
7:3b - Gen. 12:1

(4) Then came he out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.	(4) Then he came out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and lived in Haran: and from there, when his father was dead,[c] he removed himself into this land, in which you now live.
(5) And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.	(5) But He gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet He promised that He would give it to him for a possession, and to his descendants after him, when as yet he had no child.
(6) And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years.	(6) And God spoke in this manner, That his descendants should live in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and treat them evil four hundred years.[d]
(7) And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.	(7) And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage I will judge, said God: and after that they shall come forth, and serve Me in this place.[e]
(8) And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.	(8) And He gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham fathered Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac fathered Jacob; and Jacob fathered the twelve patriarchs.
(9) And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,	(9) And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,

7:4c – when his father was dead – by this we know that Abraham came to Canaan following the death of his father who was 205 at the time {Gen. 11:31-32} and Abraham was 75 years old at the time {Gen. 11:32 –12:5} which means that Terah was 130 (205-75=130) when Abraham was born. See note on Gen. 11:26. - See Appendix G: World Time Line of Biblical History

7:6d - treated evil 400 years and put into bondage - see Gen. 15:13 - note: based on Gal. 3:17 we know that Israel was not in bondage for 400 years since there was only 430 years from the time the promise was given to Abraham until Moses received the Law [Gal. 3:17]. Israel was in Egypt 215 years – see How Long Was Israel in Egypt? at www.TheWordNotes.com The 400 years is counted from Isaac's 5th birthday. See note on Gen. 15:13 and Appendix G: World Time Line of Biblical History

7:7e - Gen. 15:14, 16

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.	(10) And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.
(11) Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.	(11) Now there came a famine over all the land of Egypt and Canaan,[f] and great affliction: and our forefathers found no food.[g]
(12) But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.	(12) But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our forefathers first.
(13) And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.	(13) And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers; and Joseph's kindred were made known to Pharaoh.[h]
(14) Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.	(14) Then Joseph sent, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, seventy-five souls.[i]
(15) So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers,	(15) So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our forefathers,
(16) And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem.	(16) And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem.[j]
(17) But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,	(17) But when the time of the promise drew near, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,
(18) Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.	(18) Until another king arose, who did not know Joseph.[k]
(19) The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.	(19) The same dealt subtly with our kindred, and treated our forefathers evilly, so that they cast out their young children, intending to kill them.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(20) In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months: (21) And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. (22) And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds. (23) And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. (24) And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian: (25) For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not. (26) And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another? (27) But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? (28) Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday? (29) Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons. (30) And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.	(20) During that time Moses was born, and was exceedingly fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months: (21) And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. (22) And Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds. (23) And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers the children of Israel. (24) And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, and struck the Egyptian:[l] (25) Because he supposed his brothers would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they did not understand. (26) And the next day he showed himself to them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, you are brothers; why do you wrong one to another? (27) But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? (28) Will you kill me, as you did the Egyptian yesterday?[m] (29) Then Moses fled at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Midian,[n] where he fathered two sons. (31) When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, (32) Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold. (33) Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground. (34) I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt. (35) This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush. (36) He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years. (37) This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear.	(31) When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to see it, the voice of the Lord came to him, (32) Saying, I am the God of your forefathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.[p] Then Moses trembled, and dared not look. (38) This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us: (39) To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, (40) Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. (41) And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands. (42) Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness? (43) Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon. (44) Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.	(38) This is He, Who was in the church in the wilderness with the Angel Who spoke to him in the mount Sinai, and with our forefathers: who received the living oracles to give to us: (39) To whom our forefathers would not obey, but pushed him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, (40) Saying to Aaron, Make for us gods to go before us: because as for this Moses, who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.[t] (41) And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifices to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands. (45) Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David; (46) Who found favour before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob. (47) But Solomon built him an house. (48) Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, (49) Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest? (50) Hath not my hand made all these things? (51) Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. (52) Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers: (53) Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it. (54) When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.	(45) Which our forefathers who came in afterward also brought in with Jesus {Joshua}[v] into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drove out before the face of our forefathers, until the days of David; (46) Who found favor before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob. (47) But Solomon built Him a house {temple}. (48) However the most High does not live in temples made with hands; as the prophet says, (49) Heaven is My throne, and earth is My footstool: what house {temple} will you build Me? Says the Lord: or what is the place of My rest? (50) Has not My hand made all these things?[w] (51) You stubborn and uncircumcised in heart and ears,[x] you always resist the Holy Spirit: as your forefathers did, so do you. (52) Which of the prophets have your forefathers not persecuted? and they have killed those who showed beforehand the coming of the Just One; of Whom you have now been the betrayers and murderers: (53) Who have received the law delivered by angels, and have not kept it. (54) When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth.

(55) But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, (56) And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. (57) Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, (58) And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul. (59) And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. (60) And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.	(55) But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up intently into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing[y] on the right hand of God, (56) And said, Look, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing on the right hand of God. (57) Then they cried out with a loud voice, and covered their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, (58) And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their coats at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.[z] (59) And they stoned Stephen, even as he was calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. (60) And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, do not lay this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.
Chapter 8 (1) And Saul was consenting unto his death. (2) And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.	Chapter 8 (1) And Saul was consenting to his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. (2) And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and cried greatly over him.

7:55y - Jesus is standing - showing His love and support of Stephen and his testimony
7:58z - Acts 22:20

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.	(3) As for Saul, he made havoc of the church, entering into every house, and taking men and women putting them into prison.
(4) Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.	(4) Therefore those who were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word.
(5) Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.	(5) Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ to them.
(6) And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.	(6) And the people with one accord gave heed to those things which Philip spoke, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.
(7) For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.	(7) Because unclean spirits, crying with loud voices, came out of many who were possessed with them: and many taken with paralysis, and who were lame, were healed.
(8) And there was great joy in that city.	(8) And there was great joy in that city.
(9) But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:	(9) But there was a certain man, called Simon, who previously in the same city used sorcery {magic; fake miracles},[a] and deceived the people of Samaria, pretending that he himself was some great one:
(10) To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.	(10) To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man has the great power of God.
(11) And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.	(11) And to him they had regard, because for a long time he had deceived them with sorceries {magic; fake miracles}.
(12) But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.	(12) But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the Name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

8:9a - sorcery - literally: magic {μαγευων}

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.	(13) Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, seeing the miracles and signs which were done.[b]
(14) Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:	(14) Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John:
(15) Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost:	(15) Who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit:

(17) Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.	(17) Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.
(18) And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money,	(18) And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money,
(19) Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.	(19) Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit.
(20) But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.	(20) But Peter said to him, Your money perish with you, because you have thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.
(21) Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.	(21) You have neither part nor lot in this matter: because your heart is not right in the sight of God.
(22) Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.	(22) Repent therefore of this your wickedness, and pray to God, if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you.

8:13b - Simon who previously practiced magic (which is fake) now saw true power and recognized that it was real

8:16c - They had been baptized in the Name of Jesus, but had not received the Holy Spirit - it was necessary for the Jewish apostles to see for themselves that the Samaritans believed and the laying on of hands was an identification both to the Jews and to the Samaritans that Jesus was Savior for all and they were one body in Christ Jesus.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(23) For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.	(23) Because I perceive that you are caught up with bitterness, and in the bonds of sin.
(24) Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.	(24) Then Simon answered, and said, You pray to the Lord for me, that none of these things which you have spoken come upon me.
(25) And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans. (29) Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.	(29) Then the Spirit said to Philip, Go near, and join yourself to this chariot.
(30) And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?	(30) And Philip ran there to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, Do you understand what you read?
(31) And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.	(31) And he said, How can I, unless some man should guide me?[e] And he desired that Philip would come up and sit with him.

8:27d - eunuch - a man who has been castrated or for some other reason is unable to perform sex - eunuchs were often put in charge of harems since there was no possibility of them having sex with the women - being a eunuch, he would not be allowed to enter the temple [Lev. 21:17-23] so he would not have access to learning from the teachers of the law - see Deut. 23:1; Acts 8:31; Mat. 19:12

8:31e - See Acts 8:27

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(32) The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth: (33) In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth. (34) And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man? (35) Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus. (36) And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? (37) And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. (38) And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. (39) And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.	(32) The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb who is dumb before his shearer, so He did not open His mouth: (33) In His humiliation His judgment was taken away: and who shall declare His generation? Because His life is taken from the earth.[f] (34) And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I ask you, of whom does the prophet speak these things? of himself, or of some other man? (35) Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached to him Jesus. (36) And as they went on their way, they came to a certain body of water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what hinders me to be baptized? (37) And Philip said, If you believe with all your heart, you may be. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.[g] (38) And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. (39) And when they had come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

(9) And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink. (10) And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. (11) And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, (12) And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight. (13) Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem: (14) And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name. (15) But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: (16) For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake. (17) And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost.	(9) And he was three days without sight, and neither did he eat nor drink. (10) And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him the Lord said in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Look, I am here, Lord. (11) And the Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: because, indeed, he is praying, (12) And has seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight. (13) Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he has done to Your saints at Jerusalem: (14) And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on Your Name. (15) But the Lord said to him, Go your way: because he is a chosen vessel to Me, to bear My Name before the Gentiles {non-Jews}[d] and kings, and the children of Israel: (16) Because I will show him what great things that he must suffer for My Name's sake. (39) And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree: (40) Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; (41) Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. (42) And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. (43) To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. (44) While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. (45) And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. (46) For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, (47) Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? (48) And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.	(39) And we are witnesses of all things which He did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; Whom they killed and hung on a tree: (40) God raised Him up the third day, and showed Him openly; (41) Not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen beforehand by God, even to us, who ate and drank with Him after He arose from the dead. (29) Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judaea: (30) Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.	(29) Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judea: (30) Which they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.
Chapter 12 (1) Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church. (2) And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. (3) And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.) (4) And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people. (5) Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.	Chapter 12 (1) Now about that time Herod the king[a] stretched forth his hands to harass certain of the church. (2) And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. (3) And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (These were the days of Unleavened Bread.)[b] (4) And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to sixteen soldiers[c] to keep him; intending after Easter[d] to bring him forth to the people. (5) Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing by the church to God for him.

12:1a – Herod Agrippa I – son of Herod Antipas the 5th son of Herod I – see notes on Mat. 2:1; Mat. 14:1; Lk. 3:1; Lk. 13:31; Lk. 23:7; Acts 25:13 {see Josephus}
See Appendix O: The Herods of Scripture.

12:3b - days of Unleavened Bread - seven days beginning with Passover – Lev. 23:5-6

12:4c - quaternions - four soldiers, so 4 quaternions = 16 soldiers

12:4d - Easter - modern translations incorrectly say Passover, but if it is the days of Unleavened Bread [v. 3], Passover has already passed. – this is one of the places where the King James version varies from the Greek Received Text which also says "Passover" rather than "Easter" – the verse could read: "after the Passover holidays" but the King James version solves this problem by using the word "Easter." The Bishops Bible published in 1568 also uses Easter.

(6) And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.	(6) And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.
(7) And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.	(7) And the Angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shone in the prison: and He struck Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Get up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.
(8) And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.	(8) And the Angel said to him, Put your belt on, and tie your sandals. And he did so. And He said to him, Put your coat on and follow Me.
(9) And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.	(9) And he went out, and followed Him; and did not know that what the Angel was doing was real; but he thought he was seeing a vision.
(10) When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.	(10) When they were past the first and the second ward, they came to the iron gate that lead to the city; which opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and immediately the Angel left him.
(11) And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.	(11) And when Peter had come to himself, he said, Now I know of a certainty, that the Lord had sent His Angel, and has delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

(6) They were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:	(6) They were made aware of it, and fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the surrounding region:
(7) And there they preached the gospel.	(7) And there they preached the gospel.
(8) And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:	(8) And there sat a certain man at Lystra, lame in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:
(9) The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,	(9) The same heard Paul speak: who steadfastly looking at him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,
(10) Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.	(10) Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on your feet. And he leaped and walked.[a]
(11) And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.	(11) And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men.
(12) And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.	(12) And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercury, because he was the chief speaker.
(13) Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.	(13) Then the priest of Jupiter, who was before their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

Chapter 15 (1) And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. (2) When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question. (3) And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren. (4) And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.	Chapter 15 (1) And certain men who came down from Judea taught the brothers, and said, Unless you are circumcised after the manner of Moses, you cannot be saved. (5) But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.	(5) But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees who believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.
(6) And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.	(6) And the apostles and elders came together to consider this matter.
(7) And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.	(7) And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said to them, Men and brothers, you know how that a good while ago God made a choice among us, that the Gentiles {non-Jews} by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel,[a] and believe.
(8) And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;	(8) And God, Who knows the hearts, bore them witness, giving them the Holy Spirit,[b] even as He did to us;
(9) And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.	(9) And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.
(10) Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?	(10) Now therefore why do you tempt God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our forefathers nor we were able to bear?
(11) But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.	(11) But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.
(12) Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them. 15:7a - Acts 10
15:8b - Acts 10:44-46

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(14) Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name. (15) And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, (16) After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up: (17) That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things. (18) Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world. (19) Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God: (20) But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood. (21) For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.	(14) Simeon {Peter} has declared how God at the first visited the Gentiles {non-Jews}, to take out of them a people for His Name. (15) And to this the words of the prophets agree; as it is written, (16) After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again its ruins, and I will set it up: (17) That the remnant of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles {non-Jews}, upon whom My Name is called, says the Lord, Who does all these things.[c] (18) God knows all His works from the beginning of the world. (19) Therefore my advice is, that we not trouble them, who from among the Gentiles have turned to God: (20) But that we write to them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication,[d] and from things strangled, and from blood.[e] (21) Because Moses from old times has in every city those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day {Saturday}.[f]

15:20d - See Mat. 5:32
15: 20e – four things Gentiles [non-Jews] were to abstain from: fornication [sex outside of marriage] – see Mat. 15:19; Mark 7:21-22; Gal. 5:19-21 – things that defile a man Gal. 5:19-21 specifically states that those who practice fornication cannot enter the kingdom of God. Jesus specifically condemns churches in the Revelation for fornication. Rev. 2:14, 20
15:21f – Because – the reason given for these particular things is to not cause a stumbling block to the Jews who read the law of Moses every Sabbath

(22) Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren: (23) And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia: (24) Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment: (25) It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, (26) Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. (27) We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth. (28) For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things; (29) That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.	(22) Then it pleased the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brothers: (23) And they wrote letters for them after this manner; "The apostles and elders and brothers send greeting to the brothers who are of the Gentiles {non-Jews} in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia: (24) Since we have heard, that certain ones who went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, You must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment: (25) It seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, (26) Men who have risked their lives for the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ who shall also tell you the same things by mouth. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(16) And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying: (17) The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation. (18) And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour. (19) And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers, (20) And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, (21) And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans. (22) And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them. (23) And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely: (24) Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks. (25) And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.	(16) And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain young lady possessed with a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortunetelling: (17) The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, who show to us the way of salvation. (18) And she did this many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command you in the Name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. Chapter 17 (1) Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: (2) And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures, (3) Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.	Chapter 17 (1) Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews: (2) And Paul, as his manner was, went in to them, and for three sabbath days {Saturdays}, reasoned with them out of the scriptures, (3) Opening and explaining, that Christ had to have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, Whom I preach to you, is Christ.

(4) And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.	(4) And some of them believed, and joined with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and not a few of the chief women.
(5) But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.	(5) But the Jews who did not believe, moved with envy, took to themselves certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.
(6) And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;	(6) And when they did not find them, they drew Jason and certain brothers to the rulers of the city, crying, These who have turned the world upside down have come here also;
(7) Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus.	(7) Whom Jason has received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus.
(8) And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.	(8) And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.
(9) And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.	(9) And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.
(10) And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.	(10) And the brothers immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night to Berea: who coming there went into the synagogue of the Jews.
(11) These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.	(11) These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

(12) Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.	(12) Therefore many of them believed; also of honorable women who were Greeks, and not a few of men.
(13) But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.	(13) But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came there also, and stirred up the people.
(14) And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.	(14) And then immediately the brothers sent Paul away to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timothy remained there.
(15) And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.	(15) And those who went with Paul brought him to Athens: but receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy for him to come with all speed, they departed.
(16) Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.	(16) Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.
(17) Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.	(17) Therefore he disputed in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with those who met with him.
(18) Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.	(18) Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans,[a] and of the Stoicks,[b] encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? Some others said, He seems to be one who sets forth strange gods: because he preached to them Jesus, and the resurrection.
(19) And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?	(19) And they took him, and brought him to Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new teaching, of which you speak, is?

17:18a - Epicureans - philosophy sect named for Epicurus, who lived about 300 B.C. They denied that the world was created by God, that the gods exercised any care or providence over human affairs, and that the soul was immortal.

17:18b - Stoicks - philosophy sect named for the Greek word "stoa" for porch {στοά} founded by Zeno who taught in a porch in Athens - taught that the world was created by God, but that all things were controlled by Fate.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(20) For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.	(20) Because you bring certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.
(21) (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)	(21) (Because all the Athenians and strangers who were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)
(22) Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.	(22) Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, You men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are too superstitious.
(23) For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.	(23) Because as I passed by, and saw your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Therefore He Whom you ignorantly worship, I declare to you.
(24) God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;	(24) God Who made the world and all things in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in temples made with hands;
(25) Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;	(25) Neither is worshiped with men's hands, as though He needed anything, since He gives to all life, and breath, and all things;
(26) And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;	(26) And has made of one blood all nations of men to live on all the face of the earth, and has determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of where they live;
(27) That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:	(27) That they should seek the Lord, if perhaps they might feel after Him, and find Him, though He is not far from every one of us:

(28) For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. (29) Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device. (30) And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: (31) Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. (32) And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter. (33) So Paul departed from among them. (34) Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them. Chapter 18 (1) After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth; (2) And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.	(28) Because in Him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, Because we are also His offspring.[c] (29) Since we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved with art and man's devices. (30) And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commands all men everywhere to repent: (31) Because He has appointed a day, in which He will judge the world in righteousness by that Man Whom He has ordained; of Whom He has given assurance to all men, in that He has raised Him from the dead. (32) And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear you again concerning this matter. (33) So Paul departed from among them. (34) However certain men clung to him, and believed: among the them was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them. Chapter 18 (1) After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth; (2) And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, who recently came from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because Claudius[a] had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came to them.

(3) And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers. (4) And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks. (5) And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ. (6) And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. (7) And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue. (8) And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. (9) Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace: (10) For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city. (11) And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.	(3) And because he was of the same craft, he stayed with them, and worked: because by their occupation they were tent makers.[b] (4) And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath {Saturday}, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks. (5) And when Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ. (6) And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his clothing, and said to them, Your blood is upon your own heads; I am clean: from now on I will go to the Gentiles {non-Jews}. (7) And he departed from there, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one who worshiped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue. (8) And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his household; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. (11) And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.[c]

18:3b – Aquila and Paul were both tent makers
18:11c – Paul stays at Corinth a year and 6 months

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(12) And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, (13) Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law. (14) And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: (15) But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters. (16) And he drave them from the judgment seat. (17) Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things. (18) And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow. (19) And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. (20) When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;	(12) And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, (13) Saying, This fellow persuades men to worship God contrary to the law. (14) And when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O you Jews, reasonably I would bear with you: (15) But if it is a question of words and names, and of your law, you take care of it; because I will be no judge of such matters. (16) And he drove them from the judgment seat. (17) Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio did not intervene or concern himself with the matter. (18) And Paul after this stayed there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brothers, and sailed from there into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having cut his hair in Cenchrea: because he had made a vow. (19) And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. (20) When they desired him to stay longer time with them, he did not consent to do so;

Chapter 19 (1) And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, (2) He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost. (3) And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism. (4) Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. (5) When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. (6) And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. (7) And all the men were about twelve. (8) And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. (9) But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.	Chapter 19 (1) And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, (2) He said to them, Have you received the Holy Spirit since you believed? (10) And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.	(10) And this continued for a time of two years; so that all those who lived in Asia Minor heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.[b]
(11) And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:	(11) And God worked special miracles by the hands of Paul:
(12) So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.	(12) So that from his body were brought to the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.
(13) Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.	(13) Then certain of the vagabond[c] Jews, exorcists,[d] took upon themselves to call over those who had evil spirits the Name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We command you by Jesus Whom Paul preaches.
(14) And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.	(14) And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, who did so.
(15) And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?	(15) And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?
(16) And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.	(16) And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.
(17) And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.	(17) And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also living at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the Name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.
(18) And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds.	(18) And many who believed came, and confessed, and showed their deeds.

(34) But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.	(34) But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice for about two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

(35) And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?	(35) And when the town clerk had appeased the people, he said, You men of Ephesus, what man is there that does not know how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshiper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?
(36) Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.	(36) Since then these things cannot be spoken against, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.
(37) For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.	(37) Because you have brought here these men, who are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.
(38) Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.	(38) Therefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen who are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them accuse one another before them.
(39) But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.	(39) But if you inquire anything concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.
(40) For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.	(40) Because we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, since there is no reason by which we may give an account of this assembly.
(41) And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.	(41) And when he had so spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

(13) And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.	(13) And we went on ahead to the ship, and sailed to Assos, intending to take in Paul there: because he had so appointed, deciding himself to go on foot.
(14) And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.	(14) And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.
(15) And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.	(15) And we sailed from there, and came the next day opposite Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and stayed at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.
(16) For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.	(16) Because Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, since he would not spend the time in Asia {Minor}: because he hurried, so if it were possible for him, he might be at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.[i]

(22) And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:	(22) And now, look, I go bound in the spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall await me there:
(23) Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.	(23) Except that the Holy Spirit witnesses in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions await me.
(24) But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.	(24) But none of these things move me, neither do I count my life dear to myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.
(25) And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.	(25) And now, I know that you all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.
(26) Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.	(26) Therefore I take you to witness this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.
(27) For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.	(27) Because I have not hesitated to declare to you all the counsel of God.
(28) Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.	(28) Take heed therefore to yourselves, and to all the flock, over which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which He has purchased with His own blood.
(29) For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.	(29) Because I know this, that after my departing grievous wolves shall enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

Chapter 21 (1) And it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara: (2) And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth. (3) Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden. (4) And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. (5) And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed. (6) And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again. (7) And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day. (8) And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him.	Chapter 21 (1) And it came to pass, that after we had left from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course to Coos, and the day following to Rhodes, and from there to Patara: (2) And finding a ship sailing over to Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth. (9) And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy. (10) And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judaea a certain prophet, named Agabus. (11) And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. (12) And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem. (13) Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. (14) And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done. (15) And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem. (16) There went with us also certain of the disciples of Caesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge. (17) And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. (18) And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present.	(9) And the same man had four daughters, virgins, who prophesied. (10) And as we stayed there many days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet, named Agabus.[b] (11) And when he had come to us, he took Paul's belt, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, This is what the Holy Spirit says, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles {non-Jews}. (12) And when we heard these things, both we, and those of that place, urged him not to go up to Jerusalem. (13) Then Paul answered, Why do you weep and break my heart? I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the Name of the Lord Jesus. (14) And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done. (31) And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.	(31) And as they went about to kill him, news came to the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

21:29e – note that Luke has been with Paul the whole time [see Acts 21:1-18] but Luke points out that the Jews thought Paul had brought Trophimus an Ephesian into the temple [although Luke tells us that was not the case] If Luke was a Gentile as many speculate, since Luke was with Paul the whole time, it would seem that the Jews would have been concerned that Luke may have been brought to the temple. But since Luke was in fact a Jew, the possibility that Luke had entered the temple was not an issue! See note on Luke 1. – See Was Luke a Gentile? at www.TheWordNotes.com

(29) Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him. (30) On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.	(29) Then immediately they left him who should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him. (30) In the morning, because he would have known the certainty of why he was accused by the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.
Chapter 23 (1) And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day. (2) And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth. (3) Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law? (4) And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest? (5) Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.	Chapter 23 (1) And Paul, looking earnestly at the council, said, Men and brothers, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day. (2) And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. (3) Then Paul said to him, God shall strike you, you whitewashed wall: because you sit to judge me after the law, and commanded me to be struck contrary to the law? (4) And those who stood by said, Do you speak against God's high priest? (5) Then Paul sai, I did not know, brothers, that he was the high priest: because it is written, You shall not speak evil of the ruler of your people.

(6) But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. (7) And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided. (8) For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both. (9) And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God. (10) And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle. (11) And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.	(6) But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: because of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. (7) And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided. (8) Because the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.[a] (9) And there arose a great cry: and the scribes who were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him, let us not fight against God. (10) And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain,[b] fearing that Paul would have been pulled in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle. (11) And the following night the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: because as you have testified of Me in Jerusalem, so must you bear witness also at Rome.

(12) And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.	(12) And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.
(13) And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.	(13) And there were more than forty who had made this conspiracy.
(14) And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.	(14) And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have killed Paul.
(15) Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.	(15) Now therefore you with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you would inquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, when he comes near, are ready to kill him.
(16) And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.	(16) And when Paul's sister's son[c] heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.
(17) Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.	(17) Then Paul called one of the centurions to himself, and said, Bring this young man to the chief captain: because he has a certain thing to tell him.
(18) So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.	(18) So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me to himself, and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to say to you.
(19) Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?	(19) Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is it that you have to tell me?

(20) And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.	(20) And he said, The Jews have agreed to ask you that you would bring down Paul tomorrow into the council, as though they would inquire something of him more perfectly.
(21) But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.	(21) But do not yield yourself to them: because there are more than forty men who are lying in wait for him, who have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink until they have killed him: and now they are ready, looking for a promise from you.
(22) So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.	(22) So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See to it that you tell no man that you have made these things known to me.

(28) And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council: (29) Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. (30) And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell. (31) Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris. (32) On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle: (33) Who, when they came to Caesarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him. (34) And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia; (35) I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall.	(28) And when I would have known the cause of why they accused him, I brought him forth into their council: (29) Whom I perceived to be accused of questions about their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. (30) And when it was told to me that the Jews laid in wait for the man, I sent immediately to you, and gave commandment to his accusers also to explain before you what they had against him. Farewell. (31) Then the soldiers took Paul, as it was commanded them, and brought him by night to Antipatris. (32) In the morning they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle: (33) Who, when they came to Caesarea, and delivered the letter to the governor, presented Paul also before him. Chapter 24 (1) And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul. (2) And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence, (3) We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. (4) Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words. (5) For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes: (6) Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law. (7) But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, (8) Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him. (9) And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.	Chapter 24 (1) And after five days Ananias the high priest came down[a] with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul. (10) Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself: (11) Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship. (12) And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city: (13) Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me. (14) But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets: (15) And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. (16) And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men. (17) Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.	(10) Then Paul, after the governor had motioned to him to speak, answered, Since I know that you have been for many years a judge to this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself: (11) In order that you may understand, that there have only been twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship. (12) And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city: (13) Neither can they prove the things of which they now accuse me. (14) But this I confess to you, that after the Way which they call heresy, I so worship the God of my forefathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets: (15) And have hope toward God, which they themselves also admit, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. (16) And in this I do exercise myself, to have always a conscience clear of any offense toward God, or toward men. (17) Now after many years I came to bring gifts to my nation, and offerings.

(9) But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Will you go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged about these things before me?
(10) Then said Paul, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.	(10) Then Paul said, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews I have done no wrong, as you very well know.
(11) For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar.	(11) Because if I am an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I do not refuse to die: but if there are none of these things of which these accuse me, no man may deliver me to them. I appeal to Caesar.
(12) Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Caesar? unto Caesar shalt thou go.	(12) Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Have you appealed to Caesar? to Caesar you shall go.

(25) But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him. (26) Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write. (27) For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.	(25) But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself has appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him. (26) Of whom I have no certain thing to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before you, O king Agrippa, that, after examination, I might have somewhat to write. (27) Because it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him describe the crimes laid against him .
Chapter 26 (1) Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself: (2) I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews: (3) Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. (4) My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; (5) Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.	Chapter 26 (1) Then Agrippa said to Paul, You are permitted to speak for yourself. (6) And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers: (7) Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews. (8) Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead? (9) I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. (10) Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them. (11) And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities. (12) Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, (13) At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me. (14) And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.	(6) And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our forefathers: (7) To this promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. Because of this hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews. (8) Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead? (9) I truly thought in myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the Name of Jesus of Nazareth. (10) Which I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.[a] (11) And I punished them often in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly angry against them, I persecuted them even to strange cities. (12) Because of which as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, (13) At midday, O king, I saw in the road a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining around me and those who journeyed with me. (14) And when we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking to me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me? it is hard for you to kick against the thorns.[b]

(15) And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. (16) But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee; (17) Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, (18) To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. (19) Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: (20) But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance. (21) For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me. (22) Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come: (23) That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.	(15) And I said, Who are You, Lord? And He said, I am Jesus Whom you persecute. (16) But rise, and stand upon your feet: because I have appeared to you for this purpose, to make you a minister and a witness both of these things which you have seen, and of those things in the which I will appear to you; (17) Delivering you from the people, and from the Gentiles {non-Jews}, to whom I now send you, (18) To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith that is in Me. (19) Therefore, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision: (20) But showed first to those of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles {non-Jews}, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works that show repentance. (21) For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me. (22) Having therefore obtained help from God, I continue to this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come: (23) That Christ should suffer, and that He should be the first Who should rise from the dead, and should show light to the people, and to the Gentiles {non-Jews}.

Chapter 1 (1) Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God, (2) (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,) (3) Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh; (4) And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead: (5) By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name: (6) Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ: (7) To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. (8) First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. (9) For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers; (10) Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you.	Chapter 1 (1) From Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, who was called to be an apostle, separated for the gospel of God, (2) (Which He had promised beforehand by His prophets in the Holy Scriptures,) (3) Concerning His Son Jesus Christ our Lord, Who was born of the descent of David according to the flesh; (4) And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of Holiness, by the resurrection from the dead: (5) By Whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for His Name's sake; (6) Among whom you are also the called of Jesus Christ: (7) To all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints:[a] Grace to you and peace[b] from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. (8) First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, because your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. (9) God is my witness, Whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of His Son, that I make mention of you always in my prayers without ceasing; (10) Making request, that if by any means now at last I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come to you.

1:7a – saints – holy ones – righteous – living in a "right" relationship with God – doing the things God wants us to do – Mat. 6:33; Rom. 1:18; Rom. 6:13 – the opposite of Rom. 1:21-32

1:7b – Grace and Peace – grace always precedes peace – I Cor. 1:3; II Cor. 1:2; Gal. 1:3; Eph. 1:2; Phil. 1:2; Col. 1:2; I Thes. 1:1; II Thes. 1:2; I Tim. 1:2; II Tim. 1:2; Tit. 1:4; Philemon 1:3; I Pet. 1:2; II Pet. 1:2; II Jn. 1:3; Rev. 1:4 – grace means receiving something as a free gift that is totally undeserved

(11) For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; (12) That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me. (13) Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles. (14) I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise. (15) So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also. (16) For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. (17) For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. (18) For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; (19) Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.	(11) Because I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, in order that you may be established; (12) That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and myself. (13) Now I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that often I planned to come to you, (but was prevented even until now,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles {non-Jews}. (14) I am indebted both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians {uncivilized}; both to the wise, and to the unwise. (15) So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you who are at Rome also. (16) Because I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: because it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. (17) Because in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith: as it is written. The just shall live by faith.[c] (18) Because the wrath {anger; judgment} of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; (19) Because that which may be known about God is revealed in them; because God has revealed it to them.

1:17c - Hab. 2:4; Gal. 3:11; Heb. 10:38

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(20) For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: (21) Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. (22) Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, (23) And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things. (24) Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: (25) Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. (26) For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: (27) And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.	(20) Because from the creation of the world His invisible attributes have been clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: (21) Because of this, while they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish hearts were darkened. (22) Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, (23) And they exchanged the glory of the incorruptible God for an image made in the form of corruptible man, and birds, and four footed beasts, and crawling things.[d] (24) Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonor their own bodies among themselves: (25) Who exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature more than the Creator, Who is blessed forever. Amen. {Let it be.} (26) For this reason God gave them up to evil affections: because even their women exchanged their natural use into that which is against nature: (27) And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust toward one another; men with men doing that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves just punishment for their error.

1:23d - note the descending order

(28) And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; (29) Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, (30) Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, (31) Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: (32) Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.	(28) And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind,[e] to do those things which are not beneficial; (29) Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication,[f] wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, arguments, deceit, slanders; gossips, (30) Vengeful, haters of God, spiteful, arrogant, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, (31) Without understanding, contract breakers, without natural affection, unsatisfiable, unmerciful: (32) Who knowing the judgment of God, that those who commit such things are worthy of death, not only do them, but have pleasure in those who practice them.
Chapter 2 (1) Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. (2) But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things. (3) And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?	Chapter 2 (1) Therefore you are without excuse, O man, whoever you are who judges another: because in the way you judge another, you condemn yourself; because you who judge do the same things yourself. (2) But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who commit such things. (3) And do you think this, O man, who judges those who do such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of God?

1:28e – reprobate mind – dirty; filthy; unclean
1:29f – fornication – sex outside of marriage - See notes on Mat. 5:30, 32

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? (5) But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; (6) Who will render to every man according to his deeds: (7) To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life: (8) But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, (9) Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile; (10) But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile: (11) For there is no respect of persons with God. (12) For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;	(4) Or do you despise the riches of His goodness and forbearance and patience; not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? (5) But after your hardness and unrepentant heart you store up for yourself wrath {anger; judgment} against the day of wrath {anger; judgment} and the revelation of the righteous judgment of God; (6) Who will "render to every man according to his deeds:"[a] (7) To those who patiently continue doing good deeds and seek for glory and honor and immortality-- eternal life: (8) But to those who are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness-- indignation and wrath {anger; judgment}, (9) Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man who does evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile {non-Jews}; (10) But glory, honor, and peace, to every man who does good deeds, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile {non-Jews}: (11) Because there is no preferential treatment of persons with God. (12) As many as have sinned without law will also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law will be judged by the law;

2:6a -Ps. 62:12

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified. (14) For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves: (15) Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;) (16) In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel. (17) Behold, thou art called a Jew, and restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God, (18) And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law; (19) And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness, (20) An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law. (21) Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?	(13) (Because it is not the hearers of the law who are justified before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. (14) Because when the Gentiles {non-Jews}, who do not have the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, not having the law, are a law to themselves: (15) Who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts in the meantime accusing or else excusing one another;) (16) In the day when God will judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel. (17) Listen, you who are called a Jew, and rest in the law, and make your boast of God, (18) And know His will, and approve the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law; (19) And are confident that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light of those who are in darkness, (20) An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, who have the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law. (21) You therefore who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach that a man should not steal, do you steal?

(22) Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? (23) Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God? (24) For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written. (25) For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision. (26) Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision? (27) And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law? (28) For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: (29) But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.	(22) You who say a man should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who hate idols, do you commit sacrilege {put worldly things ahead of God}?[b] (23) You who make your boast in the law, through breaking the law do you dishonor God? (24) Because "the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles {non-Jews} because of you,"[c] as it is written. (25) Because circumcision truly profits, if you keep the law: but if you are a breaker of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. (26) Therefore if the uncircumcised keep the righteousness of the law, will not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision? (27) And will not the uncircumcised who by nature, if he fulfills the law, judge you, who by the letter and circumcision transgress the law? (28) Because he is not a Jew, who is one outwardly; neither is circumcision, that which is outward in the flesh: (29) But he is a Jew, who is one inwardly; and circumcision is of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.

2:22b – sacrilege – treat the things of God with disrespect; take things that are devoted to God and use them for ungodly purposes – idolize material things - rob what belongs to God– Mat. 6:33; Mal. 3:8-10

2:24c -Is .52:5

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 3 (1) What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision? (2) Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God. (3) For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect? (4) God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. (5) But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man) (6) God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world? (7) For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner? (8) And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.	Chapter 3 (1) What advantage then does the Jew have? or what profit is there of circumcision? (2) Much in every way: chiefly, because to them were committed the oracles {scriptures} of God.[a] (3) So what if some did not believe? Will their unbelief cause the faith of God to be without effect? (4) God forbid: yes, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, "That You might be justified in Your sayings, and might overcome when You are judged."[b] (5) But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous Who takes vengeance? (I speak as a man) (6) God forbid: how then could God judge the world? (7) Because if the truth of God has abounded more through my lie to His glory; why am I still judged as a sinner? (8) And not rather, (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? Their damnation is just.

3:2a – the oracles of God {Scriptures} – were committed to the Jews – some falsely claim that Mark and Luke were Gentiles – this passage proves that is wrong – see note on Luke 1 and Acts 21:29

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; (10) As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: (11) There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. (12) They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. (13) Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: (14) Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: (15) Their feet are swift to shed blood: (16) Destruction and misery are in their ways: (17) And the way of peace have they not known: (18) There is no fear of God before their eyes. (19) Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.	(9) What then? are we better than they? No, not in any way: because we have proven already that both Jews and Gentiles {non-Jews}, are all under sin; (10) As it is written, "There is no one who is righteous, no, not one: (11) There is no one who understands, there is no one who seeks after God. (12) They have all gone out of the way, they have all together become unprofitable; there is no one who does good, no, not one."[c] (13) "Their throat is an open tomb; with their tongues they have used deceit;"[d] "the poison of snakes is under their lips:"[e] (14) "Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:"[f] (15) "Their feet are swift to shed blood: (16) Destruction and misery are in their ways: (17) And they have not known the way of peace:"[g] (18) "There is no fear of God within them."[h] (19) Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law: that every mouth may be silenced, and all the world may become guilty before God.

3:12c - Ps. 14:1-3; 53:1-4	3:13d - Ps. 5:9	3:13e - Ps. 140:3
3:14f - Ps. 10:7	3:17g - Is. 59:7f	3:18h - Ps. 36:1

(20) Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.	(20) Therefore by the deeds of the law no flesh will be justified in His sight: because by the law comes the knowledge of sin.
(21) But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;	(21) But now the righteousness of God without the law is revealed, being witnessed to by the law and the prophets;
(22) Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:	(22) Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of[i] Jesus Christ to all and upon all those who believe: because there is no difference:
(23) For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;	(23) Because all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;
(24) Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:	(24) Being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:
(25) Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;	(25) Whom God has set forth to be a debt-paying sacrifice through faith in His blood, to declare His righteousness for the forgiveness of sins that are past, through the patient-restraint of God;
(26) To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.	(26) To declare, I say, at this time His righteousness: that He might be just, and the justifier of the one who believes in Jesus.
(27) Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.	(27) Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? No: but by the law of faith.
(28) Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.	(28) Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.
(29) Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:	(29) Is He the God of the Jews only? is He not also God of the Gentiles {non-Jews}? Yes, of the Gentiles {non-Jews} also:

3:22i - faith of Jesus Christ – {δια} of or through - many modern translations change of to in but we are saved by Jesus' faith {faithfulness} not our own! – We must believe! – Rom. 10:9; Gal. 3:22; Eph. 3:12; Phil. 3:9; Rev. 14:12 - Even the ability to believe is a free gift of God and nothing we deserve or are capable of on our own! King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(30) Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. (31) Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law. Chapter 4 (1) What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? (2) For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. (3) For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. (4) Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. (5) But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. (6) Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, (7) Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. (8) Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.	(30) Since it is one God, Who will justify the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith. (31) Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: indeed, we establish the law. Chapter 4 (1) What shall we say then that Abraham our forefather, according to the flesh, has found? (2) If Abraham was justified by works, he had reason to boast; but not before God. (3) Because what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness."[a] (4) Now to the one who works the reward is not considered as a gift, but payment due. (5) But to the one who does not work, but believes in Him Who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited as righteousness. (6) Even as David also describes the blessedness of the man, to whom God credits righteousness without works, (7) Saying, "Blessed are those whose sins are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."[b] (8) "Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not count sin."[c]

4:3a - Gen. 15:6 4:7b - Ps. 32:1 4:8c - Ps. 32:2

(9) Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.	(9) Does this blessedness come then upon the circumcised only, or upon the uncircumcised also? We say that "faith was credited to Abraham for righteousness."[d]
(10) How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.	(10) How was it credited? when he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not when he was circumcised, but when he was still uncircumcised.[e]
(11) And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:	(11) And he received the sign of circumcision, as a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while still being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they are not circumcised; that righteousness might be credited to them also:
(12) And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.	(12) And the father of the circumcised to those who are not only of the circumcised, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our forefather Abraham, which he had while still being uncircumcised.
(13) For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.	(13) Because the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his descendants, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.
(14) For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:	(14) Because if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of no effect:
(15) Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.	(15) Because the law works wrath {anger; judgment}: because where there is no law, there is no sin.

4:9d - Gen. 15:6 4:10e – Gen. 15:1f; 17:10f

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(16) Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all, (17) (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were. (18) Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. (19) And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about a hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb: (20) He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; (21) And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. (22) And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. (23) Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;	(16) Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end that the promise might be sure to all the descendants; not to those only who are of the law, but to those also who are of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all, (17) (As it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations,")[f] before Him in Whom he believed, even God, Who gives life to the dead, and speaks of those things which are not yet as though they already are. (18) Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, "So shall your descendants be."[g] (19) And not being weak in faith, he did not consider his own body dead, when he was about one hundred years old, nor even the deadness of Sarah's womb: (20) He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; (21) And being fully persuaded that, what He had promised, He was able also to perform. (22) And therefore "it was credited to him as righteousness."[h] (23) Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was credited to him;

(24) But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; (25) Who was delivered for our offenses, and was raised again for our justification.	(24) But for us also, to whom it shall be credited, if we believe on Him Who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; (25) Who was delivered for our offenses, and was raised again for our justification.
Chapter 5 (1) Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: (2) By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. (3) And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; (4) And patience, experience; and experience, hope: (5) And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. (6) For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. (7) For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. (8) But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. (9) Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.	Chapter 5 (1) Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: (2) By Whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. (3) And not only so, but we rejoice in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation works patience; (4) And patience, experience; and experience, hope: (5) And hope does not make ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit Who is given to us. (6) Because while we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. (7) Because hardly for a righteous man will one die: yet perhaps for a good man some would even dare to die. (8) But God commends His love towards us, in that, while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (9) Much more then, being now justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath {anger; judgment} through Him.

(10) For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.	(10) Because if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of His Son, much more, being reconciled, we will be saved by His life.
(11) And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.	(11) And not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by Whom we have now received our sin debt paid in full.
(12) Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:	(12) Therefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, because all have sinned:
(13) (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.	(13) (Because until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not counted when there is no law.
(14) Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.	(14) Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned after the likeness of Adam's sin, who is the image of Him Who was to come.
(15) But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.	(15) But the free gift is not like the offense. Because if through the offense of one many became dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one Man, Jesus Christ, has abounded upon many.
(16) And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.	(16) And the gift is not like the offense, it was by one who sinned: because the judgment was by one for condemnation, but the free gift is for the justification of many offenses.
(17) For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)	(17) Because if by one man's offense death reigned by one; much more those who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life by One, Jesus Christ.)

(18) Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life. (19) For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. (20) Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: (21) That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.	(18) Therefore as by the offense of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of One the free gift came upon all men for justification for life. (19) Because as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of One will many be made righteous. (20) Furthermore the law entered, that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace much more abounded: (21) That as sin has reigned leading to death, even so might grace reign through righteousness leading to eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.
Chapter 6 (1) What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? (2) God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? (3) Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? (4) Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. (5) For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:	Chapter 6 (1) What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? (2) God forbid. How can we, who are dead to sin, live any longer in it? (3) Do you not know, that as many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into His death? (4) Therefore we are buried with Him by baptism into death: that just as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. (5) Because if we have been planted together in the likeness of His death, we will also be in the likeness of His resurrection:

(6) Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.	(6) Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that from now on we should not serve sin.
(7) For he that is dead is freed from sin.	(7) Because he who is dead is freed from sin.
(8) Now if we be dead with Chris t, we believe that we shall also live with him:	(8) Now if we are dead with Christ, we believe that we will also live with Him:
(9) Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.	(9) Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dies no more; death has no more rule over Him.
(10) For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.	(10) In that He died, He died to sin once: but in that He lives, He lives to God.
(11) Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.	(11) Likewise also consider yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God through Jesus Christ our Lord.
(12) Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.	(12) Therefore, do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts.
(13) Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.	(13) Neither yield your bodies as instruments of unrighteousness to sin: but yield yourselves to God, as those who are alive from the dead, and your bodies as instruments of righteousness to God.
(14) For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.	(14) Because sin cannot rule over you: because you are not under the law, but under grace.
(15) What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.	(15) What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

(16) Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?	(16) Do you not know, that to whom you yield yourselves as servants to obey, his servants you are to whom you obey; whether for sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness?
(17) But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.	(17) But be thankful to God, that though you were the servants of sin, you have obeyed from the heart that form of teaching which was delivered to you.
(18) Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.	(18) Being then set free from sin, you became the servants of righteousness.
(19) I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.	(19) I speak after the manner of men because of the weakness of your flesh: you have in the past yielded your bodies as servants to uncleanness and to sin on top of sin; even so now yield your bodies as servants to righteousness for holiness.
(20) For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.	(20) Because when you were the servants of sin, you were free from righteousness.
(21) What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.	(21) What fruit did you have then in those things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death.
(22) But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.	(22) But now being made free from sin, and being servants to God, you have your fruit for holiness, and the end is everlasting life.
(23) For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.	(23) Because the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Chapter 7 (1) Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth? (2) For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband. (3) So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man. (4) Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God. (5) For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. (6) But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter. (7) What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.	Chapter 7 (1) Do you not know, brothers, (because I speak to those who know the law,) how the law rules over a man as long as he lives? (2) The woman who has a husband is bound by the law to her husband as long as he lives; but if the husband is dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband. (3) So then if, while her husband lives, she becomes married to another man, she will be called an adulteress: but if her husband is dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, even though she becomes married to another man. (4) Therefore, my brothers, you also have become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that you should be married to another, even to Him Who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit for God. (5) Because when we were in the flesh, the deeds of sins, which were by the law, worked in our bodies to bring forth fruit leading to death. (6) But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead in the bodies in which we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter. (7) What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. No, I would not have known what sin was, except by the law: because I would not have known lust, except the law had said, You shall not covet.

(8) But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.	(8) But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, brought about in me all manner of evil desire. Because without the law sin was dead.
(9) For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.	(9) Because I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.
(10) And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.	(10) And the commandment, which was ordained for life, I found to be for death.
(11) For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.	(11) Because sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it killed me.
(12) Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.	(12) Therefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.
(13) Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.	(13) Then was that which is good made death for me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.
(14) For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.	(14) Because we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal {worldly; full of lust}, sold under sin.
(15) For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.	(15) Because that which I do, is what I do not allow: because what I want to do, I do not do; but what I hate, that is what I do.
(16) If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.	(16) If then I do that which I do not want, I agree that the law is good.
(17) Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.	(17) Now then it is no longer I who do it, but sin that lives in me.
(18) For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.	(18) Because I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) lives no good thing: because the will to do good is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I do not find.

(19) For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. (20) Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. (21) I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. (22) For I delight in the law of God after the inward man: (23) But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. (24) O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? (25) I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.	(19) Because the good that I want to do I do not do: but the evil which I do not want to do, that I do. (20) Now if I do that which I do not want, it is no more I who do it, but sin that lives in me. (21) I find then a law, that, when I want to do good, evil is present within me. (22) Because I delight in the law of God after the inward man: (23) But I see another law in my body, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my body. (24) O wretched man that I am! who will deliver me from this body of death? (25) I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.
Chapter 8 (1) There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. (2) For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.	Chapter 8 (1) Therefore there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not live according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. (2) Because the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death.

(3) For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: (4) That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. (5) For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. (6) For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. (7) Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. (8) So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. (9) But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. (10) And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. (11) But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.	(3) Because what the law could not do, because it was weak through the flesh, God sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: (4) That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. (5) Because those who live according to the flesh mind the things of the flesh; but those who live according to the Spirit the things of the Spirit. (6) Because to be carnally {worldly; lustful} minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. (7) Because the carnal {worldly; lustful} mind is an enemy against God: because it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can it be. (8) So then those who live according to the flesh cannot please God. (9) But you are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God lives in you. Now if any man does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him. (10) And if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin; yet the spirit is alive because of righteousness. (11) But if the Spirit of Him Who raised up Jesus from the dead lives in you, He Who raised up Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies by His Spirit Who lives in you.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(12) Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. (13) For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. (14) For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. (15) For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. (16) The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: (17) And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. (18) For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. (19) For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. (20) For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, (21) Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.	(12) Therefore, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. (13) Because if you live according to the flesh, you will die: but if through the Spirit you mortify the deeds of the body, you will live. (14) As many as are led by the Spirit of God, are the sons of God. (15) Because you have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but you have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba,[a] Father. (16) The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: (17) And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if we suffer with Him, that we may be also glorified together. (18) I consider the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. (19) Because the earnest expectation of all creatures waits for the revealing of the sons of God. (20) Because the creatures were made subject to vanity, not willingly, but because of him who had subjected him in hope, (21) Because the creatures themselves also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.[b]

(22) For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.	(22) Because we know that the whole of creation groans and labors in pain together even until now.
(23) And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.	(23) And not only they, but we ourselves also, who have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, for, the redemption of our bodies.
(24) For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?	(24) Because we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: why does a man still hope for what he already sees?
(25) But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.	(25) But if we hope for what we do not see, then we wait for it with patience.
(26) Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.	(26) Likewise the Spirit also helps our weaknesses: because we do not know what we should pray for as we should: but the Spirit itself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be spoken.
(27) And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.	(27) And He Who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God.
(28) And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.	(28) And we know that all things work together for good for those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose.
(29) For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.	(29) Because those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brothers.
(30) Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.	(30) Furthermore those whom He predestined, He also called: and whom He called, He also justified: and whom He justified, He also glorified.

(31) What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? (32) He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? (33) Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. (34) Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. (35) Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? (36) As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. (37) Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. (38) For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, (39) Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.	(31) What shall we then say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? (32) He Who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, will He not with Him also freely give us all things? (33) Who will lay anything to the charge of God's chosen? It is God Who justifies. (34) Who is he who condemns? It is Christ Who died, yes rather, Who is risen again, Who is even at the right hand of God, Who also makes intercession for us. (35) Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? (36) As it is written, "For Your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are considered as sheep for the slaughter."[c] (37) No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him Who loved us. (38) I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, (39) Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 9 (1) I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost, (2) That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart. (3) For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh: (4) Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; (5) Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen. (6) Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel: (7) Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. (8) That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.	Chapter 9 (1) I say the truth in Christ, I do not lie, my conscience also bears me witness in the Holy Spirit, (2) That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart. (3) Because I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for the sake of my brothers, my kinsmen according to the flesh: (4) Who are Israelites; to whom belongs the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; (5) Whose are the forefathers, and of whom according to the flesh Christ came, Who is over all, God is blessed forever. Amen {let it be}. (6) Not as though the word of God has taken no effect. Because not all who are descended from Israel, are of Israel: (7) Nor, because they are the descendants of Abraham, are they all children of Abraham: but, "In Isaac shall your descent be named."[a] (8) That is, Those who are the children of the flesh, are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the descendants.

9:7a - Gen. 21:12

(9) For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shall have a son. (10) And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac; (11) (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;) (12) It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger. (13) As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated. (14) What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid. (15) For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. (16) So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy. (17) For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.	(9) Because this is the word of promise, "At this time I will come, and Sarah will have a son."[b] (10) And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our forefather Isaac; (11) (Because while the children were still unborn, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of Him Who calls;) (12) It was said to her, "The elder shall serve the younger."[c] (13) As it is written, "Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated."[d] (14) What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid. (15) Because He said to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion."[e] (16) So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God Who shows mercy. (17) Because the Scripture say to Pharaoh, "Even for this very purpose I have raised you up, that I might show My power in you, and that My Name might be declared throughout all the earth."[f]

(18) Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth. (19) Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will? (20) Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus? (21) Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour? (22) What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction: (23) And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory, (24) Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles? (25) As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved. (26) And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.	(18) Therefore He has mercy on whom He will have mercy, and whom He wills He hardens. (19) You will say then to me, Why does He yet find fault? Because who can resist His will? (20) No but who are you, O man, who replies against God? Will the thing that is formed say to him who formed it, Why have you made me this way? (21) Does not the potter have power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel for honor, and another for dishonor? (22) What if God, willing to show His wrath {anger; judgment}, and to make His power known, endured with great patience the vessels of wrath {anger; judgment} made for destruction: (23) That He might make known the riches of His glory upon the vessels of mercy, which He had beforehand prepared for glory, (24) Even us, whom He has called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles {non-Jews}? (25) As He said also in Hosea, "I will call them My people, who were not My people; and her beloved, who was not beloved."[g] (26) "And it will come to pass, that in the place where it was said to them, You are not My people; there they will be called the children of the living God."[h]

(27) Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved: (28) For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth. (29) And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha. (30) What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith. (31) But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness. (32) Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone; (33) As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.	(27) Isaiah also cries concerning Israel, "Though the number of the children of Israel are as the sand of the sea, only a remnant will be saved:"[i] (28) "Because He will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work the Lord will make upon the earth"[j] (29) And as Isaiah said before, Unless the Lord of Hosts {armies; multitudes}[k] had left us a seed, we would have been as Sodom, and been made like Gomorrah."[l] (30) What can we say then? That the Gentiles {non-Jews}, who did not follow after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is by faith. (31) But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, has not attained to the law of righteousness. (32) Why? Because they did not seek it by faith, but by the works of the law. Because they stumbled at that Stumbling-stone; (33) As it is written, "Look, I lay in Zion a stumbling stone, a rock of offense: and whoever believes in Him will not be ashamed."[m]

Chapter 10 (1) Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. (2) For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. (3) For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. (4) For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. (5) For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them. (6) But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:) (7) Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.) (8) But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;	Chapter 10 (1) Brothers, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. (2) Because I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. (3) Because they are ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God. (4) Because Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. (5) Moses describes the righteousness which is of the law, That the man who does those things will live by them. (6) But the righteousness which is of faith speaks in this way, "Do not say in your heart, Who will ascend into heaven?"[a] (that is, to bring Christ down from above:) (7) Or, "Who will descend into the deep?"[b] (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.) King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. (10) For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. (11) For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. (12) For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. (13) For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. (14) How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? (15) And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! (16) But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? (17) So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.	(9) That if you will confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and will believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. (10) Because with the heart a man believes unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. (11) Because the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be ashamed."[d] (12) Because there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: because the same Lord over all is rich towards all who call upon Him. (13) Whoever will call upon the Name of the Lord will be saved. (14) How then can they call on Him in Whom they have not believed? and how can they believe in Him of Whom they have not heard? and how can they hear without a preacher? (15) And how can they preach, unless they are sent? as it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad news of good things!"[e] (16) But they have not all obeyed the gospel. Because Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?"[f] (17) So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you. (20) But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me. (11) I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.	(11) I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles {non-Jews}, to provoke them to jealousy.
(12) Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?	(12) Now if their fall results in the riches of the world, and their diminishing results in the riches of the Gentiles {non-Jews}; how much more their fullness?
(13) For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:	(13) I speak to you Gentiles {non-Jews}, since I am the apostle of the Gentiles {non-Jews}, I magnify my office:
(14) If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.	(14) If by any means I may provoke those who are my kinsmen to imitate me, and might save some of them.
(15) For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?	(15) Because if their casting away results in the reconciling of the world, what will their receiving be, but life from the dead?
(16) For if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.	(16) If the first-fruit is holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root is holy, so are the branches.
(17) And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert graffed in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;	(17) And if some of the branches are broken off, and you, being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them, and with them partake of the root and fatness of the olive tree;
(18) Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.	(18) Do not boast against the branches. But if you boast, remember that you do not bear the root, but the root bears you.
(19) Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.	(19) You will say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

(21) For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.	(21) Because if God did not spare the natural branches, take heed lest He also not spare you.
(22) Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.	(22) Consider therefore the goodness and severity of God: on those who fell, severity; but towards you, goodness, if you continue in His goodness: otherwise you also shall be cut off.
(23) And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.	(23) And they also, if they do not continue to live in unbelief, will be grafted in: because God is able to graft them in again.
(24) For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be graffed into their own olive tree?	(24) If you were cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more will these, who are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?
(25) For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. (10) Have kindly affection towards one another with brotherly love; in honor giving preference to one another; (11) Do not be lazy in business; but be fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; (12) Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer; (13) Distributing to the needs of the saints; given to hospitality. (14) Bless those who persecute you: bless, and do not curse. (15) Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep. (16) Be of the same mind towards one another. Do not mind high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Do not be wise in your own conceit. (17) Repay to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. (18) If it is possible, as much as it depends on you, live peaceably with all men. (19) Dearly beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but rather leave room for wrath {anger; judgment}: as it is written, "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, says the Lord."[a] (20) "Therefore if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him drink: because in so doing you will heap coals of fire upon his head."[b] (21) Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Chapter 13 (1) Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. (2) Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. (3) For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: (4) For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. (5) Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. (6) For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. (7) Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour. (8) Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.	Chapter 13 (1) Let everyone be subject to the higher authorities. Because there is no authority except from God: the authorities that are, are ordained by God. (2) Therefore whoever resists authority, resists the law of God: and those who resist will receive to themselves damnation. (3) Because rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Do you want to not be afraid of the authorities? Then do that which is good, and you will have praise from the same: (4) Because he is the minister of God to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, be afraid; because he does not bear the sword in vain: he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath {anger; judgment} upon the one who does evil. (5) Therefore you must be subject, not only for wrath {anger; judgment}, but also for conscience sake. (6) Because it is for this reason you also pay taxes: because they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. (7) Therefore give to all their dues: taxes to whom taxes are due; custom to whom custom is due; fear to whom fear is due; honor to whom honor is due. (8) Owe no man anything, but love one another: because he who loves another has fulfilled the law.

(9) For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. (10) Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (11) And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. (12) The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. (13) Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying. (14) But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof. Chapter 14 (1) Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations. (2) For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.	(9) Because all this, "You shall not commit adultery, you shall not kill, you shall not steal, you shall not bear false witness, you shall not covet;"[a] and if there is any other commandment, it is briefly summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."[b] (10) Love works no ill to his neighbor: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (11) And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: because now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. (12) The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. (13) Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in going to prostitutes and lustful acts, not in strife and envying. (14) But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not make provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lusts. Chapter 14 (1) Receive the one who is weak in the faith, but not to doubtful disputes. (2) One believes that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eats only vegetables.

13:9b - Lev. 19:18

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.	(3) Do not let the one who eats meat despise the one who does not eat meat; and do not let the one who does not eat meat judge the one who does eat meat: because God has received him.
(4) Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.	(4) Who are you who judge another man's servant? to his own master he stands or falls. Yes, he will be upheld: because God is able to make him stand.
(5) One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.	(5) One man values one day above another: another values every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.
(6) He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.	(6) He who regards the day, regards it for the Lord; and he who does not regard the day, for the Lord he does not regard it. He who eats, eats for the Lord, because he gives God thanks; and he who does not eat does so for the Lord, and gives God thanks.
(7) For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.	(7) Because none of us lives to himself, and no man dies to himself.
(8) For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.	(8) Because if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord: therefore whether we live, or die, we are the Lord's.
(9) For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.	(9) For this purpose Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that He might be Lord both of the dead and living.
(10) But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.	(10) But why do you judge your brother? or why do you put down your brother? We will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

(11) For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. (12) So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God. (13) Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. (14) I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean. (15) But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died. (16) Let not then your good be evil spoken of: (17) For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. (18) For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men. (19) Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another. (20) For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.	(11) As it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee will bow to Me, and every tongue will confess to God."[a] (12) So then every one of us will give account of himself to God. (13) Therefore let us not judge one another anymore: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. (14) I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to the one who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. (15) But if your brother is grieved with what you eat, you are not now walking in charity.[b] Do not destroy with what you eat the one for whom Christ died. (16) Do not let your good be evilly spoken of: (17) Because the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. (18) Because he who serves Christ in these things is acceptable to God, and approved of men. (19) Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things in which we may encourage one another. (20) Because meat does not destroy the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eats with offense.

14:15b – charity – love that is action – see note on I Cor. 13:1

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(21) It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak. (22) Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth. (23) And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.	(21) It is good neither to eat meat, nor to drink wine, nor any thing which causes your brother to stumble, or is offended, or is made weak. (22) Do you have faith? keep it to yourself before God. Happy is he who does not condemn himself in that thing which he allows. (23) And he who doubts is damned if he eats meat, because he does not eat it in faith: because whatever is not done in faith is sin.
Chapter 15 (1) We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. (2) Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. (3) For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me. (4) For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. (5) Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus: (6) That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.	Chapter 15 (1) We then who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves. (2) Let every one of us please his neighbor for his good and for his encouragement. (3) Because even Christ did not please Himself: but, as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached You fell on Me."[a] (4) Because whatever things were written beforehand were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. (5) Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded towards one another according to Christ Jesus: (6) That you may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

(7) Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God. (8) Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers: (9) And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name. (10) And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people. (11) And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people. (12) And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust. (13) Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. (14) And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.	(7) Therefore receive one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God. (8) Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcised for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the forefathers: (9) And that the Gentiles {non-Jews} might glorify God for His mercy; as it is written, "For this reason I will confess to You among the Gentiles {non-Jews}, and sing to Your Name."[b] (10) And again He said, "Rejoice, you Gentiles {non-Jews}, with His people."[c] (11) And again, "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles {non-Jews}; and give praise to Him, all people."[d] (12) And again, Isaiah said, "There will be a root of Jesse, and He Who will rise to reign over the Gentiles {non-Jews}; in Him will the Gentiles {non-Jews} trust."[e] (13) Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Spirit. (14) And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brothers, that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

(15) Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God, (16) That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost. (17) I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God. (18) For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, (19) Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. (20) Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation: (21) But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand. (22) For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you. (23) But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you;	(15) Nevertheless, brothers, I have written the more boldly to you in this matter, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God, (16) That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles {non-Jews}, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles {non-Jews} might be acceptable, being sanctified {made holy} by the Holy Spirit. (17) I have therefore reason that I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God. (24) Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.	(24) Whenever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: because I expect to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way to there by you, if first I am somewhat filled with your company.
(25) But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.	(25) But now I go to Jerusalem to minister to the saints.
(26) For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.	(26) Because it has pleased those of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints who are at Jerusalem.
(27) It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.	(27) It has pleased them indeed; and they are their debtors. Because if the Gentiles {non-Jews} have been made partakers of their spiritual things, it is their duty also to minister to them in material things.
(28) When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.	(28) Therefore when I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.
(29) And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.	(29) And I am sure that, when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.
(30) Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;	(30) Now I urge you, brothers, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;
(31) That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judaea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;	(31) That I may be delivered from those who do not believe in Judea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted by the saints;
(32) That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.	(32) That I may come to you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

1:2a – sanctified – made pure, clean, without sin {because of Jesus' sacrifice}
1:2b – saints – holy ones {holy because of Jesus}
1:3c – Grace and Peace – grace always precedes peace – Rom. 1:7; II Cor. 1:2; Gal. 1:3; Eph. 1:2; Phil. 1:2; Col. 1:2; I Thes. 1:1; II Thes. 1:2; Tim. 1:2; Tit. 1:4; Philemon 1:3; I Pet. 1:2; II Pet. 1:2; II Jn. 1:3 – grace means receiving something as a free gift that is totally undeserved
1:8d - "the day of our Lord Jesus Christ" - i.e. the Rapture
Note: whenever Jesus' Name or "Christ" is used in reference to the coming of the Lord, it is always a day of joy for believers. Whenever Jesus' Name or "Christ" is not used in reference to the coming of the Lord, it is always a reference to the Second Coming at Armageddon or the final judgment, a day of darkness and judgment on ungodly men. [Such as "the day of the Lord" or "the day of God"]
- Rev. 19:11-21; Rev. 20:7-15

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.	(10) Now I urge you, brothers, by the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all be in agreement, and that there be no divisions among you; but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.
(11) For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.	(11) Because it has been declared to me of you, my brothers, by those who are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.
(12) Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.	(12) Now this I say, that everyone of you says, I am of Paul; and I am of Apollos; and I am of Cephas; and I am of Christ.
(13) Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?	(13) Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were you baptized in the name of Paul?
(14) I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius;	(14) I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius;
(15) Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.	(15) Lest any should say that I had baptized in my own name.
(16) And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.	(16) And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides these, I do not know whether I baptized any other.
(17) For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.	(17) Because Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.
(18) For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.	(18) Because the preaching of the cross is foolishness to those who perish; but to us who are saved it is the power of God.
(19) For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.	(19) Because it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent {wise},[e]

1:19e - Is. 29:14

{46} I Corinthians
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(20) Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? (21) For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. (22) For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: (23) But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; (24) But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. (25) Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. (26) For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: (27) But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; (28) And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: (29) That no flesh should glory in his presence.	(20) Where are the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? (21) Because in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom did not know God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save those who believe. (22) Because the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: (23) But we preach Christ crucified, to the Jews a stumbling block, and to the Greeks foolishness; (24) But to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God, and the wisdom of God. (25) Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. (26) Because you see your calling, brothers, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: (27) But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God has chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; (28) And base things of the world, and things which are despised, God has chosen, yes, and things which are not, to bring to nothing things that are: (29) That no flesh should glory in His presence.

(30) But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: (31) That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. Chapter 2 (1) And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God. (2) For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. (3) And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. (4) And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power: (5) That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. (6) Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought: (7) But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:	(30) But of Him you are in Christ Jesus, Who of God is made to us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: (31) That, accordingly as it is written, Let him who boasts, let him boast in the Lord.[f] Chapter 2 (1) And I, brothers, when I came to you, did not come with eloquence of speech or of wisdom, declaring to you the testimony of God. (2) Because I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified. (3) And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. (4) And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power: (5) That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. (6) However we speak wisdom among those who are perfect {mature}: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nothing: (7) But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world to our glory:

1:31f - Jer. 9:23-24

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(8) Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. (9) But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. (10) But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. (11) For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. (12) Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. (13) Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. (14) But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. (15) But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man. (16) For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.	(8) Which none of the princes of this world knew: because had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. (9) But as it is written, Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, neither has it entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for those who love Him.[a] (10) But God has revealed them to us by His Spirit: because the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. (11) Because what man knows the things of a man, except the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God no man knows, except the Spirit of God. (12) Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us by God. (13) Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. (14) But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God: because they are foolishness to him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. (15) But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is judged by no man. (16) Because who has known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct Him? But we have the mind of Christ.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 3 (1) And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. (2) I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. (3) For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? (4) For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal? (5) Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? (6) I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. (7) So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. (8) Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. (9) For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. (10) According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.	Chapter 3 (1) And I, brothers, could not speak to you as to spiritual, but as to carnal {worldly}, even as to babes in Christ. (2) I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: because up to now you were not able to bear it, neither are you now yet able {to bear it}. (3) Because you are still carnal: because whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are you not carnal {worldly}, and walk as men? (4) Because while one says, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are you not carnal? (5) Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom you believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? (6) I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. (7) So then neither is he who plants anything, nor he who waters; but God Who gives the increase. (8) Now he who plants and he who waters are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labor. (9) Because we are laborers together with God: you are God's garden, you are God's building. (10) According to the grace of God which is given to me, as a wise master builder, I have laid the foundation, and another builds upon it. But let every man take heed how he builds upon it.

(11) For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.	(11) Because no other foundation can man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.
(12) Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;	(12) Now if any man builds upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;
(13) Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.	(13) Every man's work shall be revealed: because the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.
(14) If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.	(14) If any man's work stands which he has built upon it, he shall receive a reward.
(15) If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.	(15) If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.
(16) Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?	(16) Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God lives in you?
(17) If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.	(17) If any man defiles the temple of God, God shall destroy him; because the temple of God is holy, Whose temple you are.
(18) Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.	(18) Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seems to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.
(19) For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.	(19) Because the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. Because it is written, He takes the wise in their own Craftiness.[a]
(20) And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.	(20) And again, The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.[b]

3:19a - Job 5:13

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(21) Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours; (22) Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; (23) And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.	(21) Therefore let no man boast in men. Because all things are yours; (22) Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; (23) And you are Christ's; and Christ is God's.
Chapter 4 (1) Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. (2) Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. (3) But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self. (4) For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord. (5) Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God. (6) And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.	Chapter 4 (1) Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. (2) Furthermore it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. (3) But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's judgment: yes, I do not judge myself. (4) Because I know nothing by myself; yet I am not justified because of it: but He Who judges me is the Lord. (5) Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, Who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will reveal the counsels of the hearts: and then every man shall have praise from God. (6) And these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that you might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up against one another.

(7) For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?	(7) Because who causes you to differ from another? and what do you have that you did not receive? now if you received it, why do you take pride in it, as if you had not received it?
(8) Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.	(8) Now you are full, now you are rich, you have reigned as kings without us: and I wish to God you did reign, that we also might reign with you.
(9) For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.	(9) Because I think that God has set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: because we are made a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to men.
(10) We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.	(10) We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are honorable, but we are despised.
(11) Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;	(11) Even to this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are beaten, and have no certain place to live;
(12) And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:	(12) And labor, working with our own hands: being reviled {mocked; made fun of}, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:
(13) Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.	(13) Being slandered, we ask that they be forgiven: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the scum of all things to this day.
(14) I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.	(14) I write these things not to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.
(15) For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.	(15) Because though you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers: because in Christ Jesus I have fathered you through the gospel.

(16) Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me. (17) For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church. (18) Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you. (19) But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power. (20) For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. (21) What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?	(16) Therefore I urge you, be my followers. (17) Because for this reason I have sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall remind you of my ways which are in Christ, as I teach everywhere in every church. (18) Now some are puffed up {with pride}, as though I would not come to you. (19) But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord wills, and will know, not the speech of those who are puffed up {with pride}, but the power. (20) Because the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. (21) What do you want? shall I come to you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of humility?
Chapter 5 (1) It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. (2) And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. (3) For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,	Chapter 5 (1) It is reported commonly that there is fornication {sex outside of marriage}[a] among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles {non-Jews}, that one should have his father's wife.[b] (2) And you are puffed up {with pride}, and have not rather mourned, that he who has done this deed might be taken away from among you. (3) Because truly I, though absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him who has so done this deed,

5:1a – fornication – sex outside of marriage - See Mat. 5:32
5:1b – See Ezek. 22:10

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, (5) To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. (6) Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? (7) Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us: (8) Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. (9) I wrote unto you in an epistle not to company with fornicators: (10) Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world. (11) But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.	(4) In the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, (5) To deliver such an one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.[c] (6) Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? (7) Purge out therefore the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, as you are unleavened. Because even Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us: (8) Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. (9) I wrote to you in a letter not to keep company with fornicators {those who have sex outside of marriage}:[d] (10) Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortionists, or with idolaters; because then you would need to go out of the world. (11) But now I have written to you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother is a fornicator {has sex outside of marriage},[d] or covetous {greedy},[e] or an idolater, or one who rages against others, or a drunkard, or an extortionist; with such a one do not eat.

5:5c - See note on I Cor. 1:8
5:9,11d - See Mat.5:32
5:11e – covetous – wanting things that belong to others – greedy – Ex. 20:17

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(12) For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?	(12) Because what have I to do to judge those also who are outside? Do you not judge those who are inside?
(13) But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.	(13) But those who are outside God judges. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.
Chapter 6	Chapter 6
(1) Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?	(1) Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?
(2) Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?	(2) Do you not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters?
(3) Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?	(3) Do you not know that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?
(4) If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.	(4) If then you have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set those to judge who are least esteemed in the church.
(5) I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?	(5) I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one who shall be able to judge between his brothers?
(6) But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.	(6) But brother goes to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.
(7) Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?	(7) Now therefore there is completely a fault among you, because you go to law one with another. Why do you not rather take wrong? why do you not rather allow yourselves to be defrauded?
(8) Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.	(8) No, you do wrong, and defraud, and that to your brothers.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, (10) Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. (11) And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. (12) All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any. (13) Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. (14) And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power. (15) Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid. (16) What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.	(9) Do you not know that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate {homosexuals}, nor those who abuse themselves {their bodies} with mankind, (10) Nor thieves, nor covetous {greedy}, nor drunkards, nor revilers {slanderers}, nor extortionists, shall inherit the kingdom of God. (11) And such were some of you: but you are washed, but you are sanctified {made holy}, but you are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. (12) All things are lawful to me, but all things are not expedient {beneficial}: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any. (13) Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. (14) And God has both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by His own power. (15) Do you not know that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a prostitute? God forbid. (16) What? Do you not know that he who is joined to a prostitute is one body {with her}? Because He says, the two, shall become one flesh.[a]

(17) But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit. (18) Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. (19) What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? (20) For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.	(17) But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit. (18) Flee fornication {sex outside of marriage}. Every sin that a man does is outside the body; but he who commits fornication sins against his own body. (19) What? Do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit Who is in you, Whom you have from God, and you are not your own? (20) Because you are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.
Chapter 7 (1) Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman. (2) Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. (3) Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband. (4) The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife. (5) Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.	Chapter 7 (1) Now concerning the things of which you wrote to me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman. (2) Nevertheless, to avoid fornication {sex outside of marriage}, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. (3) Let the husband render to the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife to the husband. (4) The wife does not have power over her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband does not have power over his own body, but the wife. (5) Do not deprive one another {sexually}, except by mutual consent for a time, that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

(6) But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.	(6) But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.
(7) For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.	(7) Because I would desire that all men were even as I myself. But every man has his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.
(8) I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.	(8) I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they stay even as I.
(9) But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.	(9) But if they cannot contain themselves, let them marry: because it is better to marry than to burn.
(10) And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband:	(10) And to the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Do not let the wife depart from her husband:
(11) But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.	(11) But and if she departs, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and do not let the husband divorce his wife.
(12) But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.	(12) But to the rest I speak, not the Lord: If any brother has a wife who does not believe, and she is willing to live with him, let him not divorce her.
(13) And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.	(13) And the woman who has a husband who does not believe, and if he is willing to live with her, let her not leave him.
(14) For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.	(14) Because the unbelieving husband is sanctified {made holy} by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified {made holy} by the husband: else your children would be unclean; but now are they holy.

(15) But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace.	(15) But if the unbelieving departs, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage[a] in such cases: but God has called us to peace.
(16) For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?	(16) Because how do you know, O wife, whether you shall save your husband? or how do you know, O man, whether you shall save your wife?
(17) But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches.	(17) But as God has distributed to every man, as the Lord has called everyone, so let him walk. And so I ordain in all churches.
(18) Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.	(18) Is any man called while being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.
(19) Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.	(19) Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.
(20) Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.	(20) Let every man live in the same calling in which he was called.
(21) Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.	(21) Are you called while being a servant? do not worry about it: but if you may be made free, do so.
(22) For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant.	(22) Because he who is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he who is called, being free, is Christ's servant.

7:15a - not under bondage - i.e. if the unbeliever leaves the believer, the believer is free to remarry

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(23) Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.	(23) You are bought with a price; do not be the servants of men.
(24) Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.	(24) Brothers, let every man, in which he is called, live in that manner with God.
(25) Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.	(25) Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one who has obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.
(26) I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.	(26) I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man to be so.
(27) Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.	(27) Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed. Are you loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife.
(28) But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.	(28) But and if you marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I would spare you.
(29) But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;	(29) But this I say, brothers, the time is short: it remains, that both those who have wives be as though they had none;
(30) And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;	(30) And those who weep, as though they did not weep; and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess;
(31) And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.	(31) And those who use this world, as not abusing it: because the form of this world passes away.
(32) But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:	(32) But I would have you not be full of cares. He who is unmarried cares for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

(33) But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.	(33) But he who is married cares for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.
(34) There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.	(34) There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she who is married cares for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
(35) And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.	(35) And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is becoming, and that you may attend upon the Lord without distraction.
(36) But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.	(36) But if any man thinks that he behaves himself unbecoming toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and needs so require, let him do what he will, he does not sin: let them marry.
(37) Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.	(37) Nevertheless he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own will, and has so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, does well.
(38) So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.	(38) So then he who gives her in marriage does well; but he who does not give her in marriage does better.
(39) The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.	(39) The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband lives; but if her husband dies, she is at liberty to be married to whom she wills; only in the Lord.[b]
(40) But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.	(40) But she is happier if she so lives, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

7:39b - marry in the Lord - i.e. a believer must never marry an unbeliever. The previous verses about believers married to unbelievers has to do with those who become believers but are still married to unbelievers. A believer must always be sure the person he or she is planning to marry is a believer. See II Cor. 6:14-15; Lev. 34:16; Ezr. 9:2,12; Neh. 13:25; Mal. 2:11

Chapter 8 (1) Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth. (2) And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know. (3) But if any man love God, the same is known of him. (4) As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one. (5) For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,) (6) But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him. (7) Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. (8) But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse. (9) But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.	Chapter 8 (1) Now as concerning things offered to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but charity edifies {builds up}. (2) And if any man thinks that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know. (3) But if any man loves God, the same is known by Him. (4) As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God but one. (5) Because though there are those that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there are many gods, and many lords,) (6) But to us there is but one God, the Father, of Whom all things are, and we in Him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by Whom all things are, and we by Him. (7) However not every man has that knowledge: because some with conscience of the idol to this hour eat it as a thing offered to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. (8) But meat does not commend us to God: because neither, if we eat, are we the better; nor, if we do not eat, are we the worse. (9) But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours becomes a stumbling block to those who are weak.

(10) For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols; (11) And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? (12) But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. (13) Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.	(10) Because if any man sees you who has knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not his conscience which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols; (11) And through your knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? (12) But when you sin so against the brothers, and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ. (13) Therefore, if meat causes my brother to be offended, I will eat no meat while the world stands, lest I cause my brother to be offended.
Chapter 9 (1) Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord? (2) If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord. (3) Mine answer to them that do examine me is this, (4) Have we not power to eat and to drink? (5) Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? (6) Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?	Chapter 9 (1) Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are you not my work in the Lord? (2) If I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you: because you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. (3) My answer to those who examine me is this, (4) Do we not have power to eat and to drink? (5) Do we not have power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? (6) Or I only and Barnabas, do we not have power to forbear working?

(7) Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?	(7) Who goes to war at any time at his own charges? who plants a vineyard, and does not eat of its fruit? or who feeds a flock, and does not drink of the milk of the flock?
(8) Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?	(8) Do I say these things as a man? or does the law not also say the same?
(9) For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?	(9) Because it is written in the law of Moses, You shall not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treads out the corn.[a] Does God take care for oxen?
(10) Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.	(10) Or does He say it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he who plows should plow in hope; and that he who threshes in hope should be partaker of his hope.
(11) If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?	(11) If we have sown to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal {worldly} things?
(12) If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.	(12) If others are partakers of this power over you, do we not have the same right? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.
(13) Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?	(13) Do you not know that those who minister about holy things live off the things of the temple? and those who wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?[b]
(14) Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.	(14) Even so has the Lord ordained that those who preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

9:9a - Deut. 25:4
9:13b - Num. 18:24-31 - at the Lord's command the Levites were to be provided for by the tithes and offerings brought to them

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.	(15) But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done to me: because it would be better for me to die, than that any man should make my boasting void.
(16) For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!	(16) Because though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast about: because necessity is laid upon me; yes, woe is me, if I do not preach the gospel!
(17) For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.	(17) Because if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a stewardship of the gospel is committed to me.
(18) What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.	(18) What is my reward then? Truly that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I do not abuse my power in the gospel.
(19) For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.	(19) Because though I am free from all men, yet I have made myself servant to all, that I might gain the more.
(20) And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;	(20) And to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law;
(21) To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.	(21) To those who are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain those who are without law.
(22) To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.	(22) To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.
(23) And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.	(23) And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker with you.

(24) Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. (25) And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. (26) I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air: (27) But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.	(24) Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? So run, that you may obtain. (25) And every man who strives for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown;[c] but we an incorruptible {crown}. (26) I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so I fight, not as one who beats the air: (27) But I keep control over my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.
Chapter 10 (1) Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; (2) And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; (3) And did all eat the same spiritual meat; (4) And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ. (5) But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness. (6) Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.	Chapter 10 (1) Moreover, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant, how that all our forefathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; (2) And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; (3) And all ate the same spiritual meat; (4) And all drank the same spiritual drink: because they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ. (5) But with many of them God was not well pleased: because they were overthrown in the wilderness. (6) Now these things were our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

9:25c – crown – stephanon {στεφανον} - crown of victory

(7) Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. (8) Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. (9) Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents. (10) Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. (11) Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. (12) Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. (13) There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. (14) Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry. (15) I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say. (16) The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?	(7) Neither be idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.[a] (8) Neither let us commit fornication {sex outside of marriage}, as some of them committed, and twenty-three thousand fell in one day. (9) Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed by snakes.[b] (10) Nor murmur, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer.[c] (11) Now all these things happened to them for examples: and they are written for our warning, upon whom the ends of the world have come. (12) Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall. (13) There has no temptation overtaken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, Who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able to bear; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that you may be able to bear it.[d] (14) Therefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry. (15) I speak as to wise men; you judge what I say. (16) The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

(17) For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.	(17) Because we being many are one bread, and one body: because we are all partakers of that one Bread.
(18) Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?	(18) Consider Israel after the flesh: are not those who eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?[e]
(19) What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?	(19) What do I say then? that the idol is anything, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is anything?
(20) But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.	(20) But I say, that the things which the Gentiles {non-Jews} sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God: and I do not want you to have fellowship with demons.
(21) Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.	(21) You cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons: you cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of demons.
(22) Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?	(22) Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than He?
(23) All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.	(23) All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things do not profit.
(24) Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.	(24) Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wellbeing.
(25) Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:	(25) Whatsoever is sold in the market places, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:

10:18e – See note on I Cor. 9:13

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(26) For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof. (27) If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake. (28) But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof: (29) Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience? (30) For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks? (31) Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. (32) Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God: (33) Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.	(26) Because the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness. (27) If any of those who do not believe bid you to a feast, and you are disposed to go; whatever is set before you, eat, asking no questions for conscience sake. (28) But if any man says to you, This is offered in sacrifice to idols, do not eat for his sake who told you, and for conscience sake: because the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness: (29) Conscience, I say, not your own {conscience}, but of the other person's {conscience}: because why is my liberty judged by another man's conscience? (30) But if I by grace am a partaker, why am I evilly spoken of for that for which I give thanks? (31) Whether you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. (32) Give no offense, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles {non-Jews}, nor to the church of God: (33) Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.
Chapter 11 (1) Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. (2) Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you.	Chapter 11 (1) Be my followers, even as I also am of Christ. (2) Now I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

(3) But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God.	(3) But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God.
(4) Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.	(4) Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head.
(5) But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.	(5) But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head: because that is the same as if she were shaved.
(6) For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.	(6) Because if the woman is not covered, let her also be shaved: but if it is a shame for a woman to be shaved, let her be covered.
(7) For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.	(7) Because a man indeed ought not to cover his head, inasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
(8) For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.	(8) Because the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.
(9) Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.	(9) Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.
(10) For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels.	(10) Because for this reason the woman ought to have power on her head[a] as a witness to the angels.
(11) Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.	(11) Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.
(12) For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.	(12) Because as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.
(13) Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?	(13) Judge in yourselves: is it becoming that a woman pray to God uncovered?

11:10a - power on her head - literally a covering over her head as a sign of submission as a witness to the angels. - in 11:16 Paul makes it clear that this was the custom of the day.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(14) Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?	(14) Does not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man has long hair, it is a shame to him?
(15) But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.	(15) But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her: because her hair is given to her for a covering.
(16) But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.	(16) But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.
(17) Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.	(17) Now in this that I declare to you I do not praise you, that you come together not for the better, but for the worse.
(18) For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.	(18) Because first of all, when you come together in the church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and I partly believe it.
(19) For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.	(19) Because there must be also heresies among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you.
(20) When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.	(20) When you come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.
(21) For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.	(21) Because in eating everyone takes his own supper before the other: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.
(22) What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.	(22) What? have you not houses to eat and to drink in? or do you despise the church of God, and shame those who do not have? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I do not praise you.

(23) For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:	(23) Because I have received of the Lord that which I also delivered to you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which He was betrayed took bread:
(24) And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.	(24) And when He had given thanks, He broke it, and said, Take, eat: this is My body, which is broken for you: do this in memory of Me.
(25) After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.	(25) After the same manner also He took the cup, when He had eaten, saying, This cup is the new testament in My blood: do this, as often as you drink it, in memory of Me.
(26) For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.	(26) Because as often as you eat this bread, and drink this cup, you show the Lord's death until He comes.
(27) Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.	(27) Therefore whoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.[b]
(28) But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.	(28) But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.
(29) For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.	(29) Because he who eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.
(30) For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.	(30) For this reason many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.
(31) For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.	(31) Because if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.
(32) But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.	(32) But when we are judged, we are disciplined by the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

11:27b - see 11:21 - eat and drink "unworthily" - the issue here is not whether any of us are "worthy" to take of the Lord's supper, but that the Lord's supper should be taken in reverence and respect - apparently from verse 21 some were gorging themselves on the bread and getting drunk on the wine and as a result others did not get to participate in the Lord's supper. See verse 34. The instruction in verse 34 is for people to eat their meals at home and not gorge themselves on the Lord's supper.

(33) Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another. (34) And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.	(33) Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. (34) And if any man is hungry, let him eat at home; that you not come together to condemnation. And the rest I will set in order when I come.
Chapter 12 (1) Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant. (2) Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led. (3) Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost. (4) Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. (5) And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. (6) And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. (7) But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. (8) For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;	Chapter 12 (1) Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant. (2) You know that you were Gentiles {non-Jews}, carried away to these dumb idols, even as you were led. (3) Therefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calls Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Spirit. (4) Now there are differing gifts, but the same Spirit. (5) And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. (6) And there are differing operations, but it is the same God Who works all in all. (7) But the revelation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit from. (8) Because to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

(9) To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; (10) To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: (11) But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. (12) For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. (13) For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. (14) For the body is not one member, but many. (15) If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? (16) And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? (17) If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? (18) But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.	(9) To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; (10) To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another various kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: (11) But all these work that one and the same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as He wills. (12) Because as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. (13) Because by one Spirit we are all baptized into one body, whether we are Jews or Gentiles {non-Jews}, whether we are slave or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. (14) Because the body is not one member, but many. (15) If the foot should say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? (16) And if the ear should say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? (17) If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? (18) But now God has set the members everyone of them in the body, as it has pleased Him.

{46} I Corinthians
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(19) And if they were all one member, where were the body? (20) But now are they many members, yet but one body. (21) And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. (22) Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary: (23) And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness. (24) For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: (25) That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another. (26) And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it. (27) Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. (28) And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.	(19) And if they were all one member, where would the body be? (20) But now they are many members, yet but one body. (21) And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of you: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. (22) No, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary: (23) And those members of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we bestow more abundant honor; and our unpresentable parts have more abundant beauty.[a] (24) Because our more beautiful parts have no need: but God has tempered the body together, having given more abundant honor to that part which lacks: (25) That there should be no division in the body; but that the members should have the same care for one another. (26) And when one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it. (27) Now you are the body of Christ, and members in particular. (28) And God has set some in the church, first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, varieties of tongues.

12:23-24a - less honorable .. we bestow more honor, unpresentable parts . - i.e. we are careful to cover our private parts so that they are not seen, but our face and more presentable parts of our body do not require such coverings. Each part of the body has its own purpose which God has provided for the benefit of the entire body.

(29) Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles? (30) Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? (31) But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.	(29) Are all apostles {no}?[b] are all prophets {no}?[b] are all teachers {no}?[b] are all workers of miracles {no}?[b] (30) Have all the gifts of healing {no}?[b] do all speak with tongues {no}?[b] do all interpret {no}?[b] (31) But earnestly desire the best gifts: and yet I will show to you a more excellent way.
Chapter 13 (1) Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. (2) And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. (3) And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. (4) Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, (5) Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; (6) Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;	Chapter 13 (1) Though I speak with the languages of men and of angels, and do not have charity {love},[a] I have become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. (2) And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and do not have charity {love}, I am nothing. (3) And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and do not have charity {love}, it does not profit me anything. (4) Charity {love} suffers long, and is kind; charity {love} does not envy; charity {love} does not flaunt itself, is not puffed up {with pride}, (5) Does not behave itself unseemly, does not seek her own benefit, is not easily provoked, thinks no evil; (6) Does not rejoice in sin, but rejoices in the truth;

12:29-30b - the wording requires a "no" answer to each of the questions
13:1a - charity - agape love {ἀ γ ά π η}- love that moves to action in helping others.
The King James usually translates agape as charity because godly love is not an emotion, but an attitude of service to others.

(7) Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. (8) Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away. (9) For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. (10) But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. (11) When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. (12) For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. (13) And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.	(7) Bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. (8) Charity {love} never fails: but where there are prophecies, they shall fail; where there are languages they shall cease; where there is knowledge, it shall vanish away. (9) Because we know in part, and we prophesy in part. (10) But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part shall be done away. (11) When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. (12) Because now we see through a glass, dimly {as a blur}; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then I shall know even as also I am known. (13) And now these three faith, hope, charity {love} remain; but the greatest of these is charity {love}.
Chapter 14 (1) Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy. (2) For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. (3) But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.	Chapter 14 (1) Seek after charity {love}, and desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. (2) Because he who speaks in an unknown language speaks not to men, but to God: because no man understands him; even so in the spirit he speaks mysteries. (3) But he who prophesies speaks to men to encouragement, and exhortation, and comfort.

(4) He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church. (5) I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying. (6) Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine? (7) And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? (8) For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle? (9) So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air. (10) There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.	(4) He who speaks in an unknown language uplifts himself; but he who prophesies uplifts the church. (5) I desire that you all spoke with {spiritual} languages, but even more that you prophesied: because greater is he who prophesies than he who speaks with {spiritual} languages, unless he interprets, that the church may receive encouragement. (6) Now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with {spiritual} languages, what shall I profit you, unless I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by teaching? (7) And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, unless they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? (8) Because if the trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle? (9) So likewise you, unless you speak by the {spiritual} language words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? because you shall speak into the air. (10) There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without significance.

(11) Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me. (12) Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church. (13) Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret. (14) For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. (15) What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. (16) Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest? (17) For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified. (18) I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all: (19) Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.	(11) Therefore if I do not know the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him who speaks a barbarian {uneducated; uncivilized}, and he who speaks shall be a barbarian {uneducated; uncivilized} to me. (12) Even so you, inasmuch as you are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that you may excel to the encouragement of the church. (13) Therefore let him who speaks in an unknown language pray that he may interpret. (14) Because if I pray in an unknown language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. (15) What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. (16) Else when you shall bless with the spirit, how shall he who occupies the room of the unlearned say Amen {Let it be} at your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you say? (17) Because you truly give thanks well, but the other is not encouraged. (18) I thank my God, I speak with {spiritual} languages more than you all: (19) Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown language.

(20) Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men. (21) In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord. (22) Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe. (23) If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad? (24) But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all: (25) And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth. (26) How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.	(20) Brothers, do not be children in understanding: let it be that you are in malice children, but in understanding be men. (21) In the law it is written, With men of other languages and other lips I will speak to this people; and yet for all that they will not listen to Me, says the Lord.[a] (22) Therefore {spiritual} languages are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to those who do not believe: but prophesying does not serve those who do not believe, but those who believe. (23) If therefore the whole church comes together into one place, and all speak with {unknown} languages, and there comes in those who are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that you are mad? (24) But if all prophesy, and there comes in one who does not believe, or one unlearned, he is convicted of all, he is judged of all: (25) And so the secrets of his heart are revealed; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is truly in you. (26) How is it then, brothers? when you come together, every one of you has a song, has a teaching, has a {spiritual} language, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let all things be done to the up-building {of the church}.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(27) If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.	(27) If any man speaks in an unknown language, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.
(28) But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.	(28) But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.[b]
(29) Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.	(29) Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the others judge.
(30) If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.	(30) If anything is revealed to another who sits by, let the first hold his peace.
(31) For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.	(31) Because you may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.
(32) And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.	(32) And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.
(33) For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.	(33) Because God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.
(34) Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.	(34) Let your women keep silence in the churches: because it is not permitted for them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also the law says.[c]
(35) And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.	(35) And if they will learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home: because it is a shame for women to speak in the church.
(36) What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?	(36) What? Did the word of God come out from you? or did it come to you only?
(37) If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.	(37) If any man thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write to you are the commandments of the Lord.

14:28b – If there is no one to interpret – tongues {unknown} languages are not allowed in the church!

14:34c - Gen. 3:16 - i.e. women are not to speak out in church [this was the custom of the Jews in the synagogues which Paul carries over to the modern church - see chapter 11] - This also suggests that women {and men} should not be talking about other things when they should be listening to what is being said.

(38) But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant. (39) Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues. (40) Let all things be done decently and in order.	(38) But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant. (39) Therefore, brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak with {spiritual} languages.[d] (40) Let all things be done decently and in order.
Chapter 15 (1) Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; (2) By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. (3) For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; (4) And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: (5) And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: (6) After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep. (7) After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles. (8) And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.	Chapter 15 (1) Furthermore, brothers, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you have received, and in which you stand; (2) By which also you are saved, if you keep in memory what I preached to you, unless you have believed in vain. (3) Because I delivered to you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; (4) And that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the scriptures: (5) And that He was seen by Cephas {Peter}, then by the twelve: (6) After that, He was seen by more than five hundred brothers at once; of whom the greater part remain to this present {day},[a] but some are fallen asleep. (7) After that, He was seen by James; then by all the apostles. (8) And last of all He was seen by me also, as of one born out of due time.

14:39d – we are not to forbid the use of tongues in church – however, there must be an interpreter present to translate the message – see 14:28

15:6a - Acts 1:3

(9) For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.	(9) Because I am the least of the apostles, that am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.
(10) But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.	(10) But by the grace of God I am what I am: and His grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
(11) Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.	(11) Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.
(12) Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?	(12) Now if Christ is preached that He rose from the dead, how is it that some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?
(13) But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:	(13) But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not risen:
(14) And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.	(14) And if Christ has not risen, then our preaching is vain, and your faith is also vain.
(15) Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.	(15) Yes, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that He raised up Christ: Whom He did not raise up, if it is that the dead do not rise.
(16) For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:	(16) Because if the dead do not rise, then Christ is not raised:
(17) And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.	(17) And if Christ is not raised, your faith is vain; you are yet in your sins.
(18) Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.	(18) Then they also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.
(19) If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.	(19) If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.
(20) But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.	(20) But now Christ has risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of those who slept.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(21) For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.	(21) Because since by man death came, by Man the resurrection of the dead came also.
(22) For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.	(22) Because as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
(23) But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.	(23) But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward those who are Christ's at His coming.[b]
(24) Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.	(24) Then comes the end, when He shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when He shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.
(25) For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.	(25) Because He must reign, until He has put all enemies under His feet.
(26) The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.	(26) The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.
(27) For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.	(27) Because He has put all things under His feet. But when He says all things are put under Him, it is revealed that He is excepted, Who put all things under Him.
(28) And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.	(28) And when all things shall be subdued to Him, then the Son shall also Himself be subject to Him Who put all things under Him, that God may be all in all.
(29) Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?	(29) Else what shall they do who are baptized for the dead, if the dead do not rise at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?[c]
(30) And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?	(30) And why do we stand in jeopardy every hour?
(31) I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.	(31) I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

15:23b - His coming - i.e. the Rapture - see Is. 26:20

15:29c - baptized for the dead - literally baptized on behalf of the dead – apparently some practiced baptizing by proxy, where someone is baptized for someone who is already dead. Interestingly, Paul not only does not criticize this practice, but uses it as an argument for the resurrection of the dead.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(32) If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die. (33) Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. (34) Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame. (35) But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? (36) Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die: (37) And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain: (38) But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body. (39) All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. (40) There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. (41) There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.	(32) If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage is it to me, if the dead do not rise? let us eat and drink; because tomorrow we die. (33) Do not be deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. (34) Awake to righteousness, and do not sin; because some do not have the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame. (35) But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? (36) You fool, that which you sow does not come alive, unless it dies: (37) And that which you sow, is not sown in that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain: (38) But God gives it a body as it has pleased Him, and to every seed its own body. (39) All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fish, and another of birds.[d] (40) There are also heavenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another. (41) There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: because one star differs from another star in glory.

15:39d - the flesh of man, or of animals, or of fish, or of birds is not the same - anyone who eats meat knows that the meat of cattle is not the same as the meat of fish, or of birds – it doesn't look the same, it doesn't smell the same, it doesn't taste the same.

(42) So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:	(42) So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:
(43) It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:	(43) It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:
(44) It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.	(44) It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.
(45) And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.	(45) And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a life giving Spirit.
(46) Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.	(46) So it is that which is spiritual was not first, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.
(47) The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.	(47) The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second Man is the Lord from heaven.
(48) As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.	(48) As is the earthy, such are they also who are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are those also who are heavenly.
(49) And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.	(49) And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.
(50) Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.	(50) Now this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.
(51) Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,	(51) Look, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(52) In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. (53) For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. (54) So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. (55) O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? (56) The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. (57) But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. (58) Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. Chapter 16 (1) Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye. (2) Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.	(52) In a moment,[e] in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump:[f] because the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. (53) Because this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. (54) So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.[g] (55) O death, where is your sting? O grave, where is your victory? (56) The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. (57) But thanks be to God, Who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. (58) Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, inasmuch as you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord. Chapter 16 (1) Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so you do the same. (2) Upon the first day of the week {Sunday},[a] let everyone of you lay by in store, as God has prospered him, that there be no collections when I come.

(3) And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.	(3) And when I come, whomever you shall approve by your letters, them I will send to bring your generous offerings[b] to Jerusalem.
(4) And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.	(4) And if it is appropriate that I go also, they shall go with me.
(5) Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.	(5) Now I will come to you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: because I will pass through Macedonia.
(6) And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.	(6) And it may be that I will stay, yes, and winter with you, that you may bring me on my journey wherever I go.
(7) For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.	(7) Because I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to stay a while with you, if the Lord permits.
(8) But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.	(8) But I will remain at Ephesus until Pentecost.
(9) For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.	(9) Because a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.
(10) Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.	(10) Now if Timothy[c] comes, see that he may be with you without fear: because he works the work of the Lord, as I also do.
(11) Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.	(11) Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come to me: because I look for him with the brothers.
(12) As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.	(12) As concerning our brother Apollos,[d] I greatly desired him to come to you with the brothers: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.
(13) Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.	(13) You watch, stand fast in the faith, stand like men, be strong.
(14) Let all your things be done with charity.	(14) Let all your things be done with charity {love}.

16:3b - liberality - liberal offerings - generous offerings to be sent to Jerusalem to help out with those who had needs due to the famine that was going on there - see Acts 11:28

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)	(15) I urge you, brothers, (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have dedicated themselves to the ministry of the saints,)
(16) That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.	(16) That you submit yourselves to such, and to everyone who helps with us, and labors.
(17) I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.	(17) I am glad for the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: because that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.
(18) For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.	(18) Because they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge them who are such.
(19) The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.	(19) The churches of Asia Minor salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.
(20) All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.	(20) All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.
(21) The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.	(21) The salutation is mine, Paul, with my own hand.
(22) If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha.	(22) If any man does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be cursed, Maranatha {Come, Lord}.[d]
(23) The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.	(23) The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
(24) My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.	(24) My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen {let it be}.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 1 (1) Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia: (2) Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. (3) Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; (4) Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. (5) For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. (6) And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. (7) And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.	Chapter 1 (1) Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy[a] our brother, to the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia: (2) Grace be to you and peace[b] from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. (3) Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; (4) Who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, by the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. (5) Because as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our comfort also abounds by Christ. (6) And whether we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation, which is effective in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we are comforted, it is for your comfort and salvation. (7) And our hope in you is steadfast, knowing, that as you share in the sufferings, so shall you also share in the comfort.

(8) For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: (9) But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: (10) Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us; (11) Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf. (12) For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. (13) For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end; (14) As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus. (15) And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit; (16) And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judaea.	(8) Because we do not want, brothers, to have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia {Minor},[c] that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, so much so that we despaired even of life: (9) But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God Who raises the dead: (10) Who delivered us from so great a death, and does deliver: in Whom we trust that He will yet deliver us; (11) You also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(17) When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?	(17) When I was therefore so minded, did I make this decision lightly? or the things that I decide, do I decide according to the flesh, that with me there should be yes yes, and no no?
(18) But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.	(18) But as God is true, our word towards you was not yes and no.
(19) For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.	(19) Because the Son of God, Jesus Christ, Who was preached among you by us, even by myself and Silvanus and Timothy, was not yes and no, but in Him was yes.
(20) For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.	(20) Because all the promises of God in Him are yes, and in Him Amen {let it be}, to the glory of God by us.
(21) Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;	(21) Now He Who established us with you in Christ, and has anointed us, is God;
(22) Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.	(22) Who has also sealed us, and given the guarantee[e] of the Spirit in our hearts.
(23) Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.	(23) Moreover I call God for a witness upon my soul, that to spare you I have not come as yet to Corinth.
(24) Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.	(24) Not because we have rule over your faith, but are helpers for your joy: because by faith you stand.
Chapter 2	Chapter 2
(1) But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.	(1) But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.
(2) For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?	(2) Because if I make you sorry, who is he then who makes me glad, but the same who is made sorry by me?

1:22e - earnest - [αρραβωνα] from Hebrew [ערבון] - pledge or down payment
- fore taste

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.	(3) And I wrote this same to you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from those of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.
(4) For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.	(4) Because out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears; not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have more abundantly towards you.
(5) But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.	(5) But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.
(6) Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many.	(6) Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted by many.
(7) So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.	(7) So that on the contrary you ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with too much sorrow.
(8) Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.	(8) Therefore I urge you that you would confirm your love towards him.
(9) For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.	(9) Because for this purpose I also wrote, that I might know your proof, whether you are obedient in all things.
(10) To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ;	(10) To whom you forgive anything, I forgive also: because if I forgave anything, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes I forgave it in the person of Christ;
(11) Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.	(11) Lest Satan should get an advantage over us: because we are not ignorant of his devices.
(12) Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord,	(12) Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened to me by the Lord,

(13) I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.	(13) I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from there into Macedonia.
(14) Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.	(14) Now thanks be to God, Who always causes us to triumph in Christ, and reveals the aroma of His knowledge by us in every place.
(15) For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:	(15) Because we are to God a sweet smell of Christ, in those who are saved, and in those who perish:
(16) To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?	(16) To the one we are the smell of death to death; and to the other the smell of life to life. And who is sufficient for these things?
(17) For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.	(17) Because we are not as many, who corrupt the word of God: but of sincerity, and of God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.
(1) Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?	(1) Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or do we need, as some others, letters of recommendation to you, or letters of recommendation from you?
(2) Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:	(2) You are our letter written in our hearts, known and read by all men:
(3) Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.	(3) Inasmuch as you are declared to be the letter of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in fleshy tablets of the heart.
(4) And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:	(4) And we have such trust through Christ towards God:

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(5) Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God; (6) Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. (7) But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away: (8) How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious? (9) For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. (10) For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth. (11) For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious. (12) Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech: (13) And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:	(5) Not that we are sufficient by ourselves to think anything of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God; (6) Who also has made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: because the letter kills, but the spirit gives life. (7) But if the ministry of death, written and engraved in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look upon the face of Moses because the glory of his appearance;[a] a glory which was to be done away with: (8) How shall the ministry of the spirit not be rather glorious? (9) Because if the ministry of condemnation is glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness exceed in glory. (10) Because even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, because of the glory that excels. (11) Because if that which is done away with was glorious, much more that which remains is glorious. (12) Since we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech: (13) And not as Moses, who put a veil over his face, that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look upon to the end of that which is abolished:[b]

3:7a – Ex. 34:30, 35
3:13b – Ex. 34:35

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(14) But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ. (15) But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart. (16) Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away. (17) Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. (18) But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.	(14) But their minds were blinded: because until this day the same veil remains untaken away in the reading of the old testament; that veil is done away in Christ. (15) But even to this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their hearts. (16) Nevertheless when a heart shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away. (17) Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. (18) But we all, with an unveiled face seeing as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.
Chapter 4 (1) Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not; (2) But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. (3) But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:	Chapter 4 (1) Therefore since we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we do not faint; (2) But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by revelation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. (3) But if our gospel is hidden, it is hidden to those who are lost:

(4) In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. (5) For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. (6) For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. (7) But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. (8) We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; (9) Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; (10) Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. (11) For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. (12) So then death worketh in us, but life in you. (13) We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;	(4) In whom the god of this world has blinded their minds who do not believe, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, Who is the image of God, should shine upon them. (5) Because we do not preach about ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. (6) Because God, Who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts, to the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. (7) But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. (8) We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; (9) Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; (10) Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be revealed in our body. (11) Because we who live are constantly delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that Jesus' life also might be revealed in our mortal flesh. (12) So then death works in us, but life in you. (13) We having the same spirit of faith, accordingly as it is written, I believed, and therefore I have spoken;[a] we also believe, and therefore speak;

4:13a - Ps. 116:10

(14) Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. (15) For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God. (16) For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. (17) For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; (18) While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.	(14) Knowing that He Who raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. (15) Because all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many abound to the glory of God. (16) For this cause we do not faint; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. (17) Because our light affliction, which is but for a moment, works for us a far more exceedingly and eternal abundance of glory; (18) While we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: because the things which are seen are temporary; but the things which are not seen are eternal.[b]
Chapter 5 (1) For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. (2) For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven: (3) If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.	Chapter 5 (1) Because we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle {our body} is dissolved, we have a building {body} made by God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. (2) Because in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed[a] with our house which is from heaven: (3) If so being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4:18b – What we see is temporary; what we can't see is eternal - the very object of magic is to convince people that what they see is real – but we all know that no magician can actually cut a person in half and put them back together again

5:2a - clothed - our clothing is the righteousness of Christ - Rev. 19:8

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.	(4) Because we who are in this tabernacle {body} groan, being burdened: not because we want to be unclothed, but clothed, that mortality might be swallowed up by life.
(5) Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.	(5) Now He Who has made us for this very thing is God, Who also has given to us the guarantee[b] of the Spirit.
(6) Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:	(6) Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:
(7) (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)	(7) (Because we walk by faith, not by sight:)
(8) We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.	(8) We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.
(9) Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.	(9) Therefore we labor, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted by Him.
(10) For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.	(10) Because we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that everyone may receive the things done in his body, according to what he has done, whether it is good or bad.
(11) Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.	(11) Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made known to God; and I trust also are made known in your consciences.
(12) For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.	(12) Because we do not commend ourselves again to you, but give you occasion to boast on our behalf, that you may have something to answer for those who boast in appearances, and not in heart.

5:5b - earnest - guarantee - see note on 1:22

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.	(13) Because whether we are beside ourselves, it is for God: or whether we are sober, it is for your cause.
(14) For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:	(14) Because the love of Christ constrains us; because we so judge, that if one died for all, then all were dead:
(15) And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.	(15) And that He died for all, that those who live should not from this time forth live to themselves, but to Him Who died for them, and rose again.
(16) Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.	(16) Therefore from now on we do not know any man after the flesh: yes, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet from now on we do not know Him any more in that way.
(17) Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.	(17) Therefore if any man is in Christ, he is a new creature: old things have passed away; indeed, all things have become new.
(18) And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;	(18) And all things are of God, Who has reconciled us to Himself by Jesus Christ, and has given to us the ministry of reconciliation;
(19) To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.	(19) To this end, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to Himself, not holding their sins against them; and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.
(20) Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.	(20) Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God urged you by us: we in Christ's place urge you, be reconciled to God.
(21) For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.	(21) Because He has made Him to be sin for us, Who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him.

Chapter 6 (1) We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. (2) (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.) (3) Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed: (4) But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, (5) In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings; (6) By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned, (7) By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, (8) By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true; (9) As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; (10) As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.	Chapter 6 (1) We then, as workers together with Him, urge you also that you not receive the grace of God in vain. (2) (Because He says, I have heard you in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation I have nursed you:[a] indeed, now is the accepted time; indeed, now is the day of salvation.) (3) Giving no offence in anything, that the ministry not be blamed: (4) But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, (5) In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings; (6) By pureness, by knowledge, by patience, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by un-pretended love, (7) By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, (8) By honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true; (9) As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, indeed, we live; as disciplined, and not killed; (10) As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

6:2a – Is. 49:8

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(11) O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged. (12) Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels. (13) Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged. (14) Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? (15) And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? (16) And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. (17) Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, (18) And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.	(11) O you Corinthians, our mouths are open to you, our hearts are enlarged. (12) You are not restrained by us, but you are restrained by your own {worldly} affections. (13) Now for a reward in the same, (I speak as to my children,) be also enlarged {continue to grow [spiritually]}. (14) Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers: because what fellowship does righteousness have with unrighteousness? and what communion does light have with darkness?[b] (15) And what agreement does Christ have with Belial {Satan}?[c] or what part does he who believes have with an infidel {unbeliever}?[d] (16) And what agreement does the temple of God have with idols? because you are the temple of the living God; as God has said, I will live in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.[e] (17) Therefore come out from among them, and be separate, says the Lord, and do not touch any unclean thing; and I will receive you, (18) And will be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.

6:14b – believers are never allowed to marry unbelievers – see I Cor. 7:39; Lev. 34:16; Ezr. 9:2,12; Neh. 13:25; Mal. 2:11
6:15c - Belial - worthlessness - another name of Satan
6:15d - infidel - an unbeliever - one who willfully rejects the Lord

{47} II Corinthians
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 7 (1) Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. (2) Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man. (3) I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you. (4) Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation. (5) For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. (6) Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus; (7) And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more. (8) For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.	Chapter 7 (1) Therefore having these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear {reverence} of God. (2) Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man. (3) I do not speak this to condemn you: because I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die and live with you. (4) Great is my boldness of speech towards you, great is my boasting for you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation. (5) Because, when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; outside were fightings, inside were fears. (6) Nevertheless God, Who comforts those who are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus; (7) And not by his coming only, but by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent {zealous} mind towards me; so that I rejoiced all the more. (8) Because though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: because I perceive that the same letter has made you sorry, though it was but for a season.

(9) Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.	(9) Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you sorrowed to repentance: because you were made sorry after a godly manner, that you might not be harmed by us in any way.
(10) For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.	(10) Because godly sorrow works repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world works death.
(11) For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.	(11) Because see this same thing, that you sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it brought about in you, yes, what clearing of yourselves, yes, what indignation, yes, what fear, yes, what vigorous desire, yes, what zeal, yes, what revenge! In all things you have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.
(12) Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.	(12) Therefore, though I wrote to you, I did not do it for the one who had done the wrong, nor for the cause of the one who was wronged, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you.
(13) Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.	(13) Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yes, and we are exceedingly all the more joyful because of the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.
(14) For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.	(14) Because if I have boasted anything to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found to be truth.
(15) And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.	(15) And his inward affection is more abundant towards you, while he remembers your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him.
(16) I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.	(16) I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 8 (1) Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia; (2) How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality. (3) For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves; (4) Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. (5) And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God. (6) Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also. (7) Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also. (8) I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love. (9) For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.	Chapter 8 (1) Furthermore, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia; (2) How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their generosity. (3) Because to their ability, I bear record, yes, and beyond their ability they were willing to give of themselves; (4) Begging us with much urging that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.[a] (5) And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us by the will of God. (6) So much so that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also. (7) Therefore, as you abound in everything, in faith, and speech, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love towards us, see that you abound in this grace also. (8) I do not speak by commandment, but because of the earnestness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love. (9) Because you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might be rich.

8:4a – of the ministering to the saints – the churches took up collections and gave generously begging Paul to give it to those who had need – especially to those in the Jerusalem area who were in great need – see Acts 24:17; Gal. 2:10

(10) And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.	(10) And in this I give my advice: because this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also willingly a year ago.
(11) Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.	(11) Now therefore perform its works*;* that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have.
(12) For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.	(12) Because if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to what a man has, and not according to that he does not have.
(13) For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:	(13) Because I do not mean that other men be eased, and you burdened:
(14) But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:	(14) But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their needs, that their abundance also may be a supply for your needs: that there may be equality:
(15) As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.	(15) As it is written, He who had gathered much had nothing left over; and he who had gathered little had no lack.[b]
(16) But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.	(16) But thanks be to God, Who put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.
(17) For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.	(17) Because indeed he accepted the encouragement; but being more sincere, of his own accord he went to you.
(18) And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;	(18) And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

8:15b - Ex. 16:18

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(19) And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind: (20) Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us: (21) Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. (22) And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you. (23) Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ. (24) Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.	(19) And not only that, but who was also chosen by the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind: (20) Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us: (21) Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. (22) And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you. (23) Whether any do inquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you: or our brothers be inquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ. (24) Therefore show them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.
Chapter 9 (1) For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you: (2) For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.	Chapter 9 (1) Concerning the ministering to the saints, it is unnecessary for me to write to you: (2) Because I know the sincerity of your mind, because of which I boast of you to those in Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal has provoked very many.

(3) Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready: (4) Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting. (5) Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness. (6) But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. (7) Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. (8) And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work: (9) (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.	(3) Yet I have sent the brothers, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this matter; that, as I said, you may be ready: (4) Lest haply if those of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we not to say, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting. (5) Therefore I thought it necessary to encourage the brothers, that they would go before to you, and collect beforehand your bounty, of which you had notice beforehand, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness {greed; lust; want things that belong to others}.[a] (6) But this I say, He who sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly; and he who sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully. (7) Every man accordingly as he determines in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: because God loves a cheerful giver. (8) And God is able to make all grace abound towards you; that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work: (9) (As it is written, He has dispersed abroad; He has given to the poor: His righteousness remains forever.[b]

9:5a – Paul sent messengers ahead of time to the Corinthians to let them know that a collection would be collected to help those in need – see note on II Cor. 8:4

(10) Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;) (11) Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God. (12) For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God; (13) Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men; (14) And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you. (15) Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.	(10) Now he who ministers seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;) (11) Being enriched in everything to all bountifulness, which through us causes thanksgiving to God. (12) Because the administration of this service not only supplies the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings to God; (13) While by the experiment of this ministry they glorify God for your professed submission to the gospel of Christ, and for your generous distribution to them, and to all men; (14) And by their prayer for you, who long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you. (15) Thanks be to God for His unspeakable gift.
Chapter 10 (1) Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you: (2) But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.	Chapter 10 (1) Now I Paul myself urge {ask; encourage} you by the humility and gentleness of Christ, who in presence is lowly among you, but being absent am bold towards you: (2) But I urge {ask; encourage} you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, with which I think to be bold against some, who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

(3) For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (4) (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) (5) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; (6) And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled. (7) Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's. (8) For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed: (9) That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters. (10) For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible. (11) Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.	(3) Because though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (4) (Because the weapons of our warfare are not carnal {fleshly; worldly}, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) (5) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; (6) And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled. (7) Do you look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trusts in himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's. (8) Because though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord has given us for encouragement, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed: (9) That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters. (10) Because, they say, his letters, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible. (11) Let such a one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, so will we be also in deed when we are present.

{47} II Corinthians
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(12) For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise. (13) But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you. (14) For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ: (15) Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, (16) To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand. (17) But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. (18) For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.	(12) Because we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise. (13) But we will not boast of things outside our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God has distributed to us, a measure to reach even to you. (14) Because we do not stretch ourselves beyond our measure, as though we did not reach to you: because we have come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ: (15) Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labors; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, (16) To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand. (17) But he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord. (18) Because it is not he who commends himself who is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 11 (1) Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me. (2) For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. (3) But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. (4) For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him. (5) For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles. (6) But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things. (7) Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely? (8) I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.	Chapter 11 (1) I wish to God you could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me. (2) Because I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: because I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. (3) But I fear, lest by any means, as the snake deceived Eve through his subtlety {craftiness; deception}, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. (4) Because if he who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if you receive another spirit, which you have not received, or another gospel, which you have not accepted, you might well bear with him. (5) Because I suppose I was not a least bit behind the very greatest of the apostles. (6) But though I lack eloquence in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly revealed among you in all things. (7) Have I committed an offense in abasing {putting down} myself that you might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely? (8) I robbed other churches, taking wages from them, to do you service.[a]

11:8a – Paul received financial support from other churches as he ministered to the Corinthians and did not ask for nor receive financial support from them although he had every right to do so.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.	(9) And when I was present with you, and had need, I borrowed from no man: because that which was lacking to me the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so I will keep myself.
(10) As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.	(10) As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.
(11) Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.	(11) Why? because I do not love you? God knows.
(12) But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.	(12) But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from those who desire occasion; that in which they boast, they may be found even as we.
(13) For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.	(13) Because such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.
(14) And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.	(14) And no wonder; because Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.
(15) Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.	(15) Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also are transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.
(16) I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.	(16) I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.
(17) That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.	(17) That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.
(18) Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.	(18) Since many boast after the flesh, I will boast also.

(19) For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.	(19) Because you suffer fools gladly, since you yourselves are wise.
(20) For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.	(20) Because you suffer, if a man brings you into bondage, if a man devours you, if a man take from you, if a man exalts himself, if a man strikes you on the face.
(21) I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.	(21) I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. However in whatever anyone is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.
(22) Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.	(22) Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.
(23) Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.	(23) Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths often.
(24) Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one.	(24) Of the Jews five times I received thirty-nine stripes.[b]
(25) Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;	(25) Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;
(26) In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;	(26) In travels often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by my own countrymen, in perils by the heathen {ungodly}, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brothers;
(27) In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.	(27) In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

11:24b - 40 stripes less one - i.e. 39 lashes - it was believed that if someone received 40 lashes they would die, so 39 lashes were given to bring a person to the brink of death without killing them – the law of Moses set the maximum of 40 stripes – Deut. 25:3

(28) Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches. (29) Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not? (30) If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities. (31) The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not. (32) In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me: (33) And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.	(28) Beside those things that are outside, that which comes upon me daily, the cares of all the churches. (29) Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I do not burn? (30) If I need to boast, I will boast of the things which concern my weaknesses. (31) The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who is blessed forevermore, knows that I do not lie. (32) In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desired to apprehend me: (33) And through a window in a basket I was let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.[c]
Chapter 12 (1) It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. (2) I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven. (3) And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)	Chapter 12 (1) Without a doubt it is not beneficial for me to boast. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. (2) I knew a man in Christ {who} more than fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knows;) such a one caught up to the third heaven.[a] (3) And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knows;)

(4) How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. (5) Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities. (6) For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me. (7) And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. (8) For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. (9) And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. (10) Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.	(4) How he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to speak. (5) Of such a one I will boast: yet of myself I will not boast,[b] but in my weaknesses. (6) Because though I would desire to boast, I shall not be a fool; because I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he sees me to be, or that he hears of me. (7) And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh,[c] the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. (8) For this thing I asked the Lord three times, that it might depart from me. (9) But He said to me, My grace is sufficient for you: because My strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore I will rather boast in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. (10) Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: because when I am weak, then I am strong.

12:5b - Of such a one I will boast: yet of myself I will not boast - contrary to modern pop theology, this verse rules out Paul as being the one caught up to the third heaven since he says: of such a man he will boast, but of himself he will not boast. It is possible that he was referring to the apostle John or some other saint.

12:7c – thorn in the flesh – usually refers to a person [Num. 33:55], but most believe Paul is referring to a medical problem, possibly his failing eyesight [Gal. 4:15; 6:11]

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(11) I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.	(11) I have become a fool in boasting; you have compelled me: because I ought to have been commended by you: because in nothing am I behind the very greatest of apostles, although I am nothing.
(12) Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.	(12) Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.
(13) For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.	(13) Because what is it in which you were inferior to other churches, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.
(14) Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.	(14) Indeed, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: because I do not seek what is yours, but you: because the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.
(15) And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.	(15) And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I am loved.
(16) But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.	(16) But so be it, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with trickery.
(17) Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?	(17) Did I make a gain of you by any of those whom I sent to you?
(18) I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?	(18) I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps?

(19) Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying. (20) For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults: (21) And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.	(19) Again, do you think that we excuse ourselves to you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your encouragement. (20) Because I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would desire, and that I shall not be found by you such as you would want: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths {anger}, strifes, backbitings {back-talking}, whisperings {gossiping}, swellings, tumults: (21) And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall grieve over many who have already sinned, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication {sex outside of marriage} and sexual immorality which they have committed.
Chapter 13 (1) This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established. (2) I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare: (3) Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.	Chapter 13 (1) This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.[a] (2) I told you before, and forewarn you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them who until now have sinned, and to all others, that, if I come again, I will not spare: (3) Since you seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which towards you is not weak, but is mighty in you.

(4) For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.	(4) Because though He was crucified through weakness, yet He lives by the power of God. Because we also are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by the power of God towards you.
(5) Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?	(5) Examine yourselves, whether you are in the faith; prove your own selves. Do you not know your own selves, how Jesus Christ is in you, unless you are castaways?
(6) But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.	(6) But I trust that you shall know that we are not castaways.
(7) Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.	(7) Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that you should do that which is honest, though we are as castaways.
(8) For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.	(8) Because we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.
(9) For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection.	(9) Because we are glad, when we are weak, and you are strong: and this we also wish, even your perfection.
(10) Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.	(10) Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord has given me for encouragement, and not to destruction.
(11) Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.	(11) Finally, brothers, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

Chapter 1 (1) Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;) (2) And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia: (3) Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, (4) Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father: (5) To whom be glory for ever and ever. (8) But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. (9) As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. (11) But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.	(11) But I certify to you, brothers, that the gospel which was preached by me is not after man.

(22) And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judaea which were in Christ: (23) But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed. (24) And they glorified God in me. Chapter 2 (1) Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also. (2) And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain. (3) But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: (4) And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: (5) To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. (6) But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me:	(22) And was unknown by face to the churches of Judaea which were in Christ: (23) But they had heard only, That he who persecuted us in times past now preaches the faith which he once destroyed. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter; (8) (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:) (9) And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision. (10) Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do. (11) But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed. (12) For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision. (13) And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.	(7) But to the contrary, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision {non-Jews} was committed to me, as the gospel of the circumcision {Jews} was to Peter; (8) (Because He Who worked effectively in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision {Jews}, the Same was mighty in me towards the Gentiles {non-Jews}:) (9) And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given to me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go to the heathen {ungodly}, and they to the circumcision {Jews}. (10) Only they desired that we should remember the poor; which I also was determined to do. (11) But when Peter had come to Antioch, I withstood him to his face, because he was to be blamed. (12) Because before certain ones came from James, he ate with the Gentiles {non-Jews}: but when they had come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision {Jews}. (13) And the other Jews likewise separated with him; so much so that Barnabas also was carried away with their separation.

(14) But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?	(14) But when I saw that they did not behave uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before them all, If you, being a Jew, live after the ways of Gentiles {non-Jews}, and not as the Jews, why do you compel the Gentiles {non-Jews} to live as the Jews?
(15) We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,	(15) We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles {non-Jews},
(16) Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.	(16) Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ,[b] even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: because by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified.
(17) But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.	(17) But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sin? God forbid.
(18) For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.	(18) Because if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a sinner.
(19) For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.	(19) Because I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live to God.
(20) I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.	(20) I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ lives in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, Who loved me, and gave Himself for me.
(21) I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.	(21) I do not frustrate the grace of God: because if righteousness comes by the law, then Christ has died in vain.

Chapter 3 (1) O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? (2) This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? (3) Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? (4) Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain. (5) He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? (6) Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. (7) Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. (8) And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. (9) So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.	Chapter 3 (1) O foolish Galatians, who has bewitched {cast a spell upon} you, that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ has been set forth with evidence, as crucified among you? (3) Are you so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are you now made perfect by the flesh? (4) Have you suffered so many things in vain? if it is yet in vain. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. (11) But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. (12) And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. (13) Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: (14) That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. (15) Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto. (16) Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.	(10) Because as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: because it is written, Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.[b] (11) But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: because, The just shall live by faith.[c] (12) And the law is not of faith: but, The man who does them shall live in them. (13) Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: because it is written, Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree:[d] (14) That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles {non-Jews} through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. (15) Brothers, I speak after the manner of men; Though it is but a man's covenant, yet if it is confirmed, no man can disannul it, or add to it. (16) Now to Abraham and his Descendant were the promises made. He did not say, And to descendants, as of many; but as of one, And to your Descendant,[e] Who is Christ.

(17) And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.	(17) And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before by God in Christ, the law, which came four hundred and thirty years later,[f] cannot void the promise, that it should make the promise of no effect.
(18) For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.	(18) Because if the inheritance is by the law, it is no more by promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.
(19) Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.	(19) Therefore then what purpose does the law serve? It was added because of sins, until the Descendant should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.
(20) Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.	(20) Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.
(21) Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.	(21) Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: because if there had been a law given which could have given life, truly righteousness would have been by the law.
(22) But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.	(22) But the scripture has concluded that all are under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.
(23) But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.	(23) But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up to the faith which would afterwards be revealed.

3:17f - The Law was given on Mount Sinai 430 years after the promise was given to Abraham who was 75 years old at the time. Abraham lived to be 175 years old [Gen. 25:7] The Israelites came out of Egypt 430 years to the very day from the day the promise was given to Abraham. [Ex. 12:41]

Note: this proves conclusively that the Jews were not slaves 400 years as so many misquote scripture. Every Jew knows this is true, but many Christians who do not understand King James English don't and many modern translations totally corrupt the scripture. - See notes on Genesis 12:1-4; 15:13; 50:26.

(24) Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. (25) But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. (26) For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. (27) For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. (28) There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. (29) And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.	(24) Therefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. (25) But after that faith has come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. (26) Because you are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. (27) Because as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. (28) There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female: because you are all one in Christ Jesus. (29) And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's descendants, and heirs according to the promise.
Chapter 4 (1) Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all; (2) But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father. (5) To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.	(5) To redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.
(6) And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.	(6) And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying, Abba,[a] Father.
(7) Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.	(7) Therefore you are no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.
(8) Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.	(8) How is it then, when you did not know God, you did service to those who by nature are not gods.
(9) But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?	(9) But now, after you have known God, or rather are known by God, how is it that you turn again to the weak and beggarly elements, to which you desire again to be in bondage?
(10) Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.	(10) You observe days, and months, and times, and years.[b]
(11) I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.	(11) I am afraid for you, lest I have bestowed labor upon you in vain.
(12) Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.	(12) Brothers, I urge you, be as I am; because I am as you are: you have not injured me at all.
(13) Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first.	(13) You know how through weakness of the flesh I preached the gospel to you at the first.

4:6a - abba - [αββα] Greek transliterated from Hebrew 'av' [אב] for "father" see Mark 14:36

4:10b – observe days, and months… - observing days and months, etc. throughout scripture deals with astrology and horoscopes which along with other occult practices are always forbidden to God's children – see Lev. 19:26; II Ki. 21:6; II Chr. 33: 6 – Paul himself continued to observe God's holy days [Lev. 23:2] – see Acts 20:16; I Cor. 16:8. However, here the issue is that certain Jews were trying to get the Gentiles to follow the all the Levitical laws including circumcision, monthly and holy day sacrifices, etc. Jesus has already made the ultimate sacrifice for all who believe.

(14) And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.	(14) And my temptation which was in my flesh you did not despise, nor reject; but received me as an angel {messenger}[c] of God, even as Christ Jesus.
(15) Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.	(15) Where then is the blessedness you spoke of? Because I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.[d]

(18) But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.	(18) But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

(24) Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. (25) For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. (26) But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all. (27) For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband. (28) Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. (29) But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now. (30) Nevertheless what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman. (31) So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.	(24) These things are an allegory: because these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which leads to slavery, which is Hagar. (25) Because this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to Jerusalem which now is, and is in slavery with her children. (26) But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all. (27) Because it is written, Rejoice, you barren who do not give birth; break forth and cry, you who do not go into labor because the desolate has many more children than she who has a husband.[f] (28) Now we, brothers are the children of promise, as Isaac was. Chapter 5 (1) Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. (2) Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. (3) For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. (4) Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. (5) For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. (6) For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. (7) Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth? (8) This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you. (9) A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. (10) I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be. (11) And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased. (12) I would they were even cut off which trouble you.	Chapter 5 (1) Stand fast therefore in the liberty in which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with the yoke of slavery. (2) Indeed, I Paul say to you, that if you are circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. (3) Because I testify again to every man who is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. (4) Christ has become of no effect to you, whoever of you are justified by the law; you have fallen from grace. (5) Because we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. (6) Because in Jesus Christ neither circumcision is of any value, nor uncircumcision; but faith which works by love. (7) You ran well; who hindered you that you should not obey the truth? (8) This persuasion does not come by Him Who calls you. (9) A little leaven leavens the whole lump. (10) I have confidence in you through the Lord, that you will not be otherwise minded: but he who troubles you shall bear his judgment, whoever he is. (13) For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. (14) For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. (15) But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another. (16) This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. (17) For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. (18) But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law. (19) Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, (20) Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, (21) Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. (22) But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,	(13) Because, brothers, you have been called to liberty; only do not use liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. (18) But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. (19) Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are these; Adultery {married people having sex with someone they are not married to}, fornication {having sex outside of marriage}, impurity, promiscuity, (20) Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, disputes, jealousies, anger, strife, divisions, heresies, (21) Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that those who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. (23) Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. (24) And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. (25) If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. (26) Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.	(23) Humility, temperance: against such there is no law. (24) And those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts. (25) If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. (26) Let us not seek after selfish ambition, provoking one another, envying one another.
Chapter 6 (1) Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. (2) Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. (3) For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. (4) But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another. (5) For every man shall bear his own burden. (6) Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. (7) Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.	Chapter 6 (1) Brothers, if a man is overtaken in a fault, you who are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of humility; considering yourself, lest you also be tempted. (2) Carry one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. (3) Because if a man thinks himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. (4) But let every man prove his own work, and then he shall have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another. (5) Because every man shall carry his own burden. (6) Let him who is taught in the word share with him who teaches in all good things. (7) Do not be deceived; God is not mocked: because whatever a man sows, that he shall also reap.

(8) For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.	(8) Because he who sows to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he who sows to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.
(9) And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.	(9) And let us not be weary in doing good: because in due season we shall reap, if we do not faint.
(10) As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.	(10) Therefore as we have opportunity, let us do good to all men, especially to those who are of the household of faith.
(11) Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.	(11) You see how large a letter I have written to you with my own hand.
(12) As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.	(12) As many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only that they may not suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.
(13) For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.	(13) Because they themselves who are circumcised do not keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh.
(14) But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.	(14) But God forbid that I should boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by Whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world.
(15) For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.	(15) Because in Christ Jesus neither circumcision, nor uncircumcision, profits anything but a new creature.
(16) And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.	(16) And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.
(17) From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.	(17) From now on let no man trouble me: because I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.
(18) Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.	(18) Brothers, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen {let it be}.

Chapter 1 (1) Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus: (2) Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. (3) Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: (4) According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: (5) Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, (6) To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved. (7) In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace; (8) Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence; (9) Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself:	Chapter 1 (1) Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints who are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus: (2) Grace to you, and peace,[a] from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. (10) That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him: (11) In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will: (12) That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. Chapter 2 (1) And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; (2) Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: (3) Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.	Chapter 2 (1) And you He has made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins; (2) In which in time past you walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air {Satan},[a] the spirit that now works in the children of disobedience: (3) Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath {anger; judgment}, even as others.

2:2a – prince of the power of the air – Satan – due to increasing sin, he is the real culprit behind crazy weather and climate! In rejecting God, mankind is giving Satan free reign.

(4) But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, (5) Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) (6) And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: (7) That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. (8) For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: (9) Not of works, lest any man should boast. (10) For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. (11) Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands; (12) That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: (13) But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.	(4) But God, Who is rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, (5) Even when we were dead in sins, has made us alive together with Christ, (by grace[b] you are saved;) (6) And has raised us up together, and caused us to sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: (7) That in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness towards us through Christ Jesus. (8) Because by grace you are saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: (9) Not of works, lest any man should boast. (10) Because we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God has before ordained that we should walk in them. (11) Therefore remember, that you being in time past Gentiles {non-Jews} in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision {non-Jews} by those who are called the Circumcision {Jews} in the flesh made by hands; (12) That at that time you were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: (13) But now in Christ Jesus you who sometimes were far off are made near by the blood of Christ.

Chapter 3 (1) For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles, (2) If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward: (3) How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words, (4) Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ) (5) Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; (6) That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel: (7) Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. (8) Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; (9) And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:	Chapter 3 (1) For this reason I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles {non-Jews}, (2) If you have heard of the fullness of the grace of God which is given to me towards you: (3) How that by revelation He made known to me the mystery; (as I wrote before in few words, (4) By which, when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ) (5) Which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed to His holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; (6) That the Gentiles {non-Jews} should be fellow heirs, and of the same body, and share in His promise in Christ by the gospel: (7) Of which I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by the effective working of His power. (8) To me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles {non-Jews} the unsearchable riches of Christ; (9) And to cause all men to see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world has been hidden in God, Who created all things by Jesus Christ:

Chapter 4 (1) I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, (2) With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; (3) Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. (4) There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; (5) One Lord, one faith, one baptism, (6) One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. (7) But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. (8) Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. (9) (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? (10) He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.) (11) And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; (12) For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:	Chapter 4 (1) I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord,[a] urge you that you walk worthy of the vocation {life's work, career} in which you are called, (2) With all lowliness and humility, with patience, bearing with one another in love; (3) Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. (13) Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: (14) That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; (15) But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: (16) From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. (17) This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, (18) Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: (19) Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. (20) But ye have not so learned Christ; (21) If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:	(13) Until we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect {spiritually mature} man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ: (14) That we from now on may no more be children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of teaching, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, with which they lie in wait to deceive; (15) But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into Him in all things, Who is the head, even Christ: (16) From Whom the whole body fitly joined together and benefits from that which each joint supplies, as every part works effectively together, increases the up building of the body itself in love. (17) This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you from now on walk not as other Gentiles {non-Jews} walk, in the vanity of their mind, (18) Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: (19) Who being past feeling have given themselves over to passions of lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness. (20) But you have not so learned Christ; (21) If it is that you have heard Him, and have been taught by Him, as the truth is in Jesus:

(22) That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; (23) And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; (24) And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. (25) Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. (26) Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: (27) Neither give place to the devil. (28) Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. (29) Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. (30) And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. (31) Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: (32) And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.	(22) That you put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; (23) And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; (24) And that you put on the new man, who is created after God in righteousness and true holiness. (25) Therefore putting away lying, let every man speak truth with his neighbor: because we are members of one another. (26) Be angry, but do not sin: Do not let the sun go down upon your wrath {anger}: (27) Neither give place for the devil. (28) Let him who stole steal no more: but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him who has need. (29) Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of encouragement, that it may minister grace to the hearers. (30) And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by which you are sealed to the day of redemption. (31) Let all bitterness, and wrath {anger; judgment}, and anger, and arguing, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: (32) And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake has forgiven you.

Chapter 5 (1) Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; (2) And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour. (3) But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints; (4) Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks. (5) For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. (6) Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. (7) Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (8) For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light: (9) (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) (10) Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. (11) And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.	Chapter 5 (1) Therefore you be followers of God, as dear children; (2) And walk in love, as Christ also has loved us, and has given Himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling aroma. (3) But fornication {sex outside of marriage}, and all uncleanness, or covetousness {greed; lusting after things that belong to others}, let it not be once named among you, as becomes saints; (4) Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor joking, which are not appropriate: but rather giving of thanks. (5) Because you know this, that no one who chases after prostitutes, nor unclean person, nor covetous {greedy} man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. (6) Let no man deceive you with vain words: because it is because of these things the wrath {anger; judgment} of God comes upon the children of disobedience. (7) Therefore do not be participants with them. (8) Because you were sometimes darkness, but now you are light in the Lord: walk as children of light: (9) (Because the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) (10) Proving what is acceptable to the Lord. (11) And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

(12) For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. (13) But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. (14) Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. (15) See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, (16) Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. (17) Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. (18) And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit; (19) Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; (20) Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; (21) Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. (22) Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. (23) For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body. (24) Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.	(12) Because it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. (13) But all things that are reproved are revealed by the light: because whatever reveals is light. (14) Therefore He said, Awake you who sleep, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you light. (15) See to it that you walk discretely, not as fools, but as wise, (16) Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. (17) Therefore do not be unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. (18) And do not be drunk with wine, in which is excess; but be filled with the Spirit; (19) Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; (20) Giving thanks always for all things to God and the Father in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ; (21) Submitting yourselves to one another in the fear of God. (22) Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord. (23) Because the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and He is the savior of the body. (24) Therefore as the church is subject to Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything.

(25) Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; (26) That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, (27) That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. (28) So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. (29) For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church: (30) For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. (31) For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. (32) This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church. (33) Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.	(25) Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave Himself for it; (26) That He might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, (27) That He might present it to Himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. (28) So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. (29) Because no man ever yet hated his own body; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord does the church: (30) Because we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones. (31) For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall be joined to his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.[a] (32) This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church. (33) Nevertheless let everyone of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she respects her husband.

(2) Honour thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise;) (3) That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. (4) And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. (9) And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him. (11) Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.	(11) Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.
(12) But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;	(12) But I desire that you should understand, brothers, that the things which happened to me have turned out rather to the furtherance of the gospel;
(13) So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places;	(13) So that my bonds in Christ are clearly seen in all the palace, and in all other places;
(14) And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.	(14) And many of the brothers in the Lord, growing confident because of my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.
(15) Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:	(15) Some indeed preach Christ even out of envy and strife; and some also of good will:

{50} Philippians
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(21) For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. (22) But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not. (23) For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better: (24) Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you. (25) And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith; (26) That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again. (27) Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel; (28) And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God. (29) For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake; (30) Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.	(21) Because to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. (22) But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labor: yet what I shall choose I do not know. (23) Because I am in a strait between two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better: (24) Nevertheless to remain in the flesh is more needful for you. (25) And having this confidence, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith; (26) That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again. (27) Only let your conversation be as it becomes the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel; (28) And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God. (29) Because to you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on Him, but also to suffer for His sake; (30) Having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 2 (1) If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, (2) Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. (3) Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. (4) Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. (5) Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: (6) Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: (7) But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: (8) And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. (9) Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: (10) That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; (11) And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.	Chapter 2 (1) If there is therefore any encouragement in Christ, if there is any comfort of love, if there is any fellowship of the Spirit, if there is any compassion and mercies, (2) Fulfill my joy, that you be like minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. (3) Let nothing be done through strife or selfish ambition; but in humility let each consider others better than themselves. (4) Let everyone not look out just for his own interests, but let everyone also look out for the interests of others. (5) Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: (6) Who, being in the form of God, did not think it robbery to be equal with God: (7) But made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Himself the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: (8) And being found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself, and became obedient to death, even the death of the cross. (9) Therefore God also has highly exalted Him, and given Him a Name which is above every name: (10) That at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; (11) And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

(12) Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.	(12) Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.
(13) For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.	(13) Because it is God Who works in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure.
(14) Do all things without murmurings and disputings:	(14) Do all things without murmurings and disputes:
(15) That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;	(15) That you may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom you shine as lights in the world;
(16) Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.	(16) Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ,[a] that I have not run in vain, neither labored in vain.
(17) Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.	(17) Yes, and if I am offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I have joy, and rejoice with you all.
(18) For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.	(18) For this same reason you also rejoice, and rejoice with me.
(19) But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.	(19) But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly to you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.
(20) For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.	(20) Because I have no man like minded, who will naturally care for your state.
(21) For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.	(21) Because all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.
(22) But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.	(22) But you know his proof, that, as a son with the father, he has served with me in the gospel.
(23) Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.	(23) Therefore I hope to send him presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

(24) But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly. (25) Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants. (26) For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick. (27) For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. (28) I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. (29) Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation: (30) Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.	(24) But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly. (25) Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus,[b] my brother, and companion in labor, and fellow soldier, but your messenger, and he who ministered to my wants. (26) Because he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because you had heard that he had been sick. (27) Because indeed he was sick near to death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. (28) I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when you see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. (29) Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation: (30) Because for the work of Christ he was near to death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service towards me.
Chapter 3 (1) Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe. (2) Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.	Chapter 3 (1) Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe. (2) Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the mutilators.

2:25b – Epapharoditus – Philip. 4:18

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.	(3) Because we are the circumcision, who worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.
(4) Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:	(4) Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has reason to trust in the flesh, I have more:
(5) Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee;	(5) Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin,[a] a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as concerning the law, a Pharisee;
(6) Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.	(6) Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.
(7) But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.	(7) But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.
(8) Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,	(8) Yes doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for Whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but dung, that I may win Christ,
(9) And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:	(9) And be found in Him, not having my own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ,[b] the righteousness which is of God by faith:
(10) That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;	(10) That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being made conformable to His death;
(11) If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.	(11) If by any means I might attain to the resurrection of the dead.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(12) Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus. (13) Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, (14) I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. (15) Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you. (16) Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing. (17) Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample. (18) (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: (19) Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) (20) For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: (21) Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.	(12) Not as though I had already attained it, nor am already perfect: but I follow after it, that I may take hold of that for which also I have been taken hold of for Christ Jesus. (13) Brothers, I do not count myself to have attained it: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth to those things which are before, (14) I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. (15) Let us therefore, as many as are perfect {spiritually mature}, be so minded: and if in anything you are otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this to you. (16) Nevertheless, where we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us be like minded. (17) Brothers, be my followers together, and mark those who walk so as you have us for an example. (18) (Because many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: (19) Whose end is destruction, whose god is their stomach, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) (20) Because our conversation is in heaven; from where we also look for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ: (21) Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like His glorious body, according to the working with which He is able even to subdue all things to Himself.

Chapter 4 (1) Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. (2) I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. (3) And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life. (4) Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice. (5) Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. (6) Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. (7) And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. (8) Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. (9) Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.	Chapter 4 (1) Therefore, my brothers dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. (2) I urge {ask; encourage} Euodias, and Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. (3) And I ask you also, true yoke fellow, help those women who labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with others of my fellow laborers, whose names are in the Book of Life. (4) Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice. (5) Let your moderation be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. (6) Do not be anxious about anything; but in everything by prayer and requests with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. (7) And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. (8) Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think on these things. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.	(10) But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care for me has flourished again; in which you were also careful, but you lacked opportunity.
(11) Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.	(11) Not that I speak in respect of want: because I have learned, in whatever state I am, to be content.
(12) I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.	(12) I know both how to be brought low, and I know how to be lifted up: everywhere and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to have plenty and to suffer need.
(13) I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.	(13) I can do all things through Christ Who strengthens me.
(14) Notwithstanding ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.	(14) Nevertheless you have done well, that you did communicate with my affliction.
(15) Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.	(15) Now you Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but you only.
(16) For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.	(16) Because even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my needs.
(17) Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.	(17) Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.
(18) But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God.	(18) But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus[a] the things which were sent from you, an aroma of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to God.

(19) But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. (20) Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen. (21) Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you. (22) All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Caesar's household. {51} Colossians

Chapter 1 (1) Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother, (2) To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. (3) We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, (4) Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints, (5) For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel; (6) Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth: (7) As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ; (8) Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit. (9) For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; (10) That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;	Chapter 1 (1) Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy[a] our brother, (2) To the saints and faithful brothers in Christ who are at Colosse: Grace to you, and peace,[b] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. (3) We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, (4) Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have towards all the saints. (22) In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreproveable in his sight: (23) If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister; (24) Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church: (25) Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God; (26) Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: (27) To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: (28) Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus: (29) Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.	(22) In the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy and without blame and above reproach in His sight: (23) If you continue in the faith grounded and settled, and not be moved away from the hope of the gospel, which you have heard, and which was preached to every creature that is under heaven; of which I Paul am made a minister; (24) Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for His body's sake, which is the church: (25) Of which I am made a minister, according to the stewardship of God which is given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God; (26) Even the mystery which has been hidden from ages and from generations, but now is revealed to His saints: (27) To whom God would make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles {non-Jews}; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: (28) Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect {spiritually mature} in Christ Jesus: (29) For this reason I also labor, striving according to His working, Who mightily works in me.

Chapter 2 (1) For I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; (2) That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; (3) In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. (4) And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words. (5) For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ. (6) As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: (7) Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. (8) Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. (9) For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. (10) And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power:	Chapter 2 (1) Because I want you to know what great conflict I have for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as who have not seen my face in the flesh; (2) That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgment of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; (3) In Whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. (4) And this I say, lest any man should deceive you with enticing words. (5) Because though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. (6) As you have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him: (7) Rooted and built up in Him, and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving. (8) Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. (9) Because in Him lives all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. (10) And you are complete in Him, Who is the head of all principality and power:

(11) In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ: (12) Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. (13) And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses; (14) Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; (15) And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. (16) Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: (17) Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. (18) Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, (19) And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.	(11) In Whom also you are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ: (12) Buried with Him in baptism, in which also you have risen with Him through the faith of the operation of God, Who has raised Him from the dead. (13) And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all sins; (14) Blotting out the handwriting of laws that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to His cross; (15) And having spoiled principalities and powers, He made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it. (16) Let no man therefore judge you in food, or in drink, or in respect to a holy day, or of the new moons, or of the sabbath days {Saturdays}: (17) Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. (18) Let no man deceive you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshiping of angels, intruding into those things which he has not seen,[a] vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, (19) And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increases with the increase of God.

(20) Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, (21) (Touch not; taste not; handle not; (22) Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men? (23) Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.	(20) Since you are dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are you subject to laws, (21) (Touch not; taste not; handle not; (22) Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and teachings of men? (23) Those things indeed have a show of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honor to the satisfying of the flesh.
Chapter 3 (1) If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. (2) Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. (3) For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. (4) When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. (5) Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: (6) For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience: (7) In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.	Chapter 3 (1) If you then have risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sits at the right hand of God. (2) Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. (3) Because you are dead, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (4) When Christ, Who is our life, shall appear, then you shall also appear with Him in glory.[a] (5) Put to death therefore the parts of you which are worldly; fornication {sex outside of marriage},[b] uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil desire, and covetousness {greed; lusting for things that belong to others}, which is idolatry: (6) For these things' sake the wrath {anger; judgment} of God comes on the children of disobedience: (7) In which you also walked some time, when you lived in them.

(8) But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. (9) Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; (10) And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: (11) Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. (12) Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; (13) Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. (14) And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. (15) And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. (16) Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. (17) And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.	(8) But now you also put off all these; anger, wrath {anger; judgment}, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. (9) Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old man with his deeds; (10) And have put on the new man, who is renewed in knowledge after the image of the One Who created him: (11) Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian {uncivilized}, Scythian, slave nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. (12) Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, compassions, kindness, humbleness of mind, humility, patience; (13) Bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if any man has a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also you do {likewise}. (14) And above all these things put on charity,[c] which is the bond of perfectness. (15) And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you are called in one body; and be thankful. (16) Let the word of Christ live in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing {encouraging} one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. (17) And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the Name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(18) Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord. (19) Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them. (20) Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord. (21) Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged. (22) Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God: (23) And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men; (24) Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. (25) But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.	(18) Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord. (19) Husbands, love your wives, and do not be bitter against them. (20) Children, obey your parents in all things: because this is well pleasing to the Lord. (21) Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, lest they be discouraged. (22) Servants, obey your masters in all things according to the flesh; not with eye service, as men pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God: (23) And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not to men; (24) Knowing that you shall receive from the Lord the reward of the inheritance; because you serve the Lord Christ. Chapter 4 (1) Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven. (2) Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving; (3) Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds: (4) That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak. (5) Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.	Chapter 4 (1) Masters, give to your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that you also have a Master in heaven. (2) Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving; (3) In all things praying also for us, that God would open to us a door to speak, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds: (4) That I may make it known, as I ought to speak. (5) Walk in wisdom towards those on the outside, redeeming the time.

{52} I Thessalonians

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 1 (1) Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. (2) We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; (3) Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father; (4) Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God. (5) For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake. (6) And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost: (7) So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia. (8) For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing. (9) For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;	Chapter 1 (1) Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy,[a] to the church of the Thessalonians[b] which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you, and peace,[c] from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. (2) We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; (3) Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father; (4) Knowing, beloved brothers, your election of God. (5) Because our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance; as you know what manner of men we were among you for your sake. (6) And you became our followers, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit: (7) So that you were examples to all who believe in Macedonia and Achaia. (8) Because from you the word of the Lord was proclaimed not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith towards God is spread abroad; so that we do not need to say anything. (9) Because they themselves show how we came to you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;

1:1b – church of Thessalonians – Acts 17:1f
1:1c – Grace and Peace – grace always precedes peace – Rom. 1:7; I Cor. 1:3; II Cor. 1:2; Gal. 1:3; Eph. 1:2; Philip. 1:2; Col. 1:2; II Thes. 1:2; I Tim. 1:2; II Tim. 1:2; Tit. 1:4; Philemon 1:3; I Pet. 1:2; II Pet. 1:2; II Jn. 1:3 – grace means receiving something as a free gift that is totally undeserved

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.	(10) And to wait for His Son from heaven, Whom He raised from the dead, even Jesus, Who delivered us from the wrath {anger; judgment} to come.
Chapter 2	Chapter 2
(1) For yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:	(1) Because you yourselves know, brothers, our coming to you, was not in vain:
(2) But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.	(2) But even after we had suffered before, and were shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi,[a] we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God even amid much controversy.
(3) For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:	(3) Because our encouragement was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in trickery:
(4) But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.	(4) But as we were allowed by God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, Who tries our hearts.
(5) For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness:	(5) Because never at any time did we use flattering words, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness {greed};[b] God is witness:
(6) Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.	(6) Nor did we seek praise of men, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been a burden to you, as the apostles of Christ.
(7) But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:	(7) But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherishes her children:
(8) So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.	(8) So affectionately desiring you, we were willing to have imparted to you, not the gospel of God only, but also our very own souls, because you were dear to us.

2:2a - Acts 16:12f
2:5b – covetousness – greed - wanting things that belong to others

(9) For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.	(9) Because you remember, brothers, our labor and pain: we preached to you the gospel of God laboring night and day, because we did not want to be indebted to any of you.
(10) Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:	(10) You are witnesses, and God also, how holy and justly and blamelessly we behaved ourselves among you who believe:
(11) As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children,	(11) As you know how we encouraged and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father does his children,
(12) That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.	(12) That you would walk worthy of God, Who has called you to His kingdom and glory.
(13) For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.	(13) Also for this reason we thank God without ceasing, because, when you received the word of God which you heard from us, you received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectively works also in you who believe.
(14) For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:	(14) Because you, brothers, became followers of the churches of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus: because you also have suffered similar things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:
(15) Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:	(15) Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they do not please God, and are contrary to all men:
(16) Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.	(16) Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles {non-Jews} that they might be saved, to fill up their sins always: because the wrath {anger; judgment} has come upon them completely.

(17) But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire. (18) Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us. (19) For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? (20) For ye are our glory and joy.	(17) But we, brothers, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavored the more abundantly to see your face with great desire. (18) Therefore we would have come to you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us. (19) Because what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is it not you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming? (20) Because you are our glory and joy.
Chapter 3 (1) Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone; (2) And sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith: (3) That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto. (4) For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know. (5) For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.	Chapter 3 (1) Therefore when we could no longer wait, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone; (2) And sent Timothy, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow laborer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith: (3) That no man should be moved because of these trials: because you yourselves know that we are appointed for this purpose. (4) Because truly, when we were with you, we told you before that we would suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and you know. (5) For this reason, when I could no longer wait, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor was in vain.

(6) But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you: (7) Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith: (8) For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord. (9) For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God; (10) Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith? (11) Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you. (12) And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you: (13) To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.	(6) But now when Timothy came from you to us, and brought us good news of your faith and charity {love},[a] and that you have fond memories of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you: (7) Therefore, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith: (8) Because now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord. (9) Because what thanks can we render to God again for you, because all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God; (10) Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith? (11) Now may God Himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you. (12) And may the Lord cause you to grow and abound in love towards one another, and towards all men, even as we do towards you: (13) To the end He may establish your hearts without blame in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming[b] of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.

3:6a – charity – agape {αγαπην}– godly love – this love is not merely an emotion, but true godly love is love of action; therefore it is often translated as "charity" in the King James - see I Cor. 13:1

3:13b – coming – parousia {παρουσια} - coming with the saints - the second coming of our Lord Jesus Christ - Armageddon - see note on I Cor. 1:8

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 4 (1) Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more. (2) For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. (3) For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication: (4) That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour; (5) Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God: (6) That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. (7) For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. (8) He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit. (9) But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.	Chapter 4 (1) Furthermore then we urge you, brothers, and encourage you by the Lord Jesus, that as you have received from us how you ought to live and to please God, so you would grow more and more. (2) Because you know the commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. (3) Because this is the will of God, even your growing in sanctification {spiritual maturity},[a] that you should abstain from fornication {sex outside of marriage}:[b] (4) That every one of you should know how to possess his body in purity and honor; (5) Not in the passions of lust, as the Gentiles {non-Jews} who do not know God: (6) That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because the Lord is the One Who takes vengeance on all such, as we also have warned you and told you ahead of time.[c] (7) Because God has not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness. (8) He therefore who despises {these commandments}, does not despise man, but God, Who has also given to us His Holy Spirit. (9) But concerning brotherly love you do not need that I write to you: because you yourselves are taught by God to love one another.

(10) And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more; (11) And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you; (12) That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing. (13) But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. (14) For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. (15) For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. (16) For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: (17) Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. (18) Wherefore comfort one another with these words.	(10) And indeed you do it towards all the brothers who are in all Macedonia: but we urge you, brothers, that you increase more and more; (11) And that you study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you; (12) That you may walk honestly towards those who are outside, and that you may not lack anything. (13) But I would not have you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who are asleep, that you not sorrow, even as others who have no hope. (18) Therefore comfort one another with these words.

{52} I Thessalonians

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 5 (1) But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you. (2) For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. (3) For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. (4) But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief. (5) Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. (6) Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober. (7) For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night. (8) But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation. (9) For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, (10) Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. (11) Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.	Chapter 5 (1) But of the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that I write to you. (2) Because you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord[a] so comes as a thief in the night. (3) Because when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction will come upon them, as birth pains upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. (4) But you, brothers, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.[b] (5) You are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. (6) Therefore let us not sleep, as others do; but let us watch and be sober. (7) Because those who sleep, sleep in the night; and those who get drunk get drunk in the night. (12) And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; (13) And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves. (14) Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men. (15) See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men. (16) Rejoice evermore. (17) Pray without ceasing. (18) In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. (19) Quench not the Spirit. (20) Despise not prophesyings. (21) Prove all things; hold fast that which is good. (22) Abstain from all appearance of evil. (23) And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. (24) Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it. (25) Brethren, pray for us. {53} II Thessalonians

Chapter 1 (1) Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: (2) Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. (3) We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth; (4) So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure: (5) Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer: (6) Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you; (7) And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, (8) In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: (9) Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;	Chapter 1 (1) Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians[a] in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: (2) Grace to you, and peace,[b] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. (3) We are bound to thank God always for you, brothers, as it is appropriate, because your faith is growing exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all towards each other abounds; (4) So that we ourselves boast in you in the churches of God because of your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that you endure: (5) Which is revealed as a token of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer: (6) Since it is a righteous thing with God to reward tribulation to those who trouble you; (7) And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels,[c] (8) In flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: (9) Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His power;

(10) When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day. (11) Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power: (12) That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.	(10) When He shall come to be glorified in His saints, and to be admired in all those who believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day. (11) Therefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of His goodness, and the work of faith with power: (12) That the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.
Chapter 2 (1) Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, (2) That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. (3) Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; (4) Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.	Chapter 2 (1) Now we urge {ask; encourage} you, brothers, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together to Him, (2) That you not be soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ[a] is at hand. (3) Let no man deceive you by any means: because that day shall not come, except there comes a falling away first, and that man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition; (4) Who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sits in the temple of God, displaying himself as God.[b]

(5) Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?	(5) Do you not remember, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?
(6) And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.	(6) And now you know who restrains him that he might be revealed in his time.
(7) For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.	(7) Because the mystery of sin is already at work: only he who now restrains will restrain,[c] until he is taken out of the way.
(8) And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:	(8) And then that Wicked {one} shall be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the Spirit of His mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of His coming:
(9) Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,	(9) Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,
(10) And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.	(10) And with all deceit of unrighteousness in those who perish; because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
(11) And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:	(11) And for this reason God shall send upon them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:[d]
(12) That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.	(12) That they all might be damned who did not believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.[e]

2:7c - "he who now restrains ... until he is taken out of the way" - there is some question as to who this individual is who is restraining the man of sin [i.e. the antichrist] -- It could be the Holy Spirit Who may be removed in the present sense from the earth at the time of the Rapture. It is also possible that Michael or another angel is preventing the antichrist from his reign until his time has come to reign. Traditionally many have believed that it was some governing official or the pope. Whoever it is, will cease to restrain the antichrist when it is the proper time.

2:11d – believe a lie – Rev. 12:9; 13:14; 16:14

2:12e - Rom. 1:18-32

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: (14) Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. (15) Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle. (16) Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, (17) Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.	(13) But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, beloved brothers of the Lord, because God has from the beginning chosen you to salvation through purification[f] of the Spirit and belief of the truth: (14) To which He called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. (15) Therefore, brothers, stand fast, and hold on to the traditions which you have been taught, whether by word, or our letter. (16) Now our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and God, even our Father, Who has loved us, and has given us everlasting comfort and good hope through grace, (17) Comfort your hearts, and establish yourselves in every good word and work.
Chapter 3 (1) Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you: (2) And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith. (3) But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil. (4) And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.	Chapter 3 (1) Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you: (2) And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: because all men do not have faith. (3) But the Lord is faithful, Who shall establish you, and keep you from evil. (4) And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you both do and will do the things which we command you.

2:13f – sanctification – purification, growing in spiritual maturity

(5) And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.	(5) And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.
(6) Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.	(6) Now we command you, brothers, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received from us.
(7) For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;	(7) Because you yourselves know how you ought to follow us: because we did not behave disorderly among you;
(8) Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:	(8) Neither did we eat any man's bread for anything; but worked with labor and pain night and day, that we might not be indebted to any of you:
(9) Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.	(9) Not because we did not have the right to, but to make ourselves an example to you to follow us.
(10) For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.	(10) Because even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.[a]
(11) For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies.	(11) Because we hear that there are some who walk among you disorderly, not working at all, but are busybodies.
(12) Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.	(12) Now those who are such we command and encourage by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.
(13) But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing.	(13) But you, brothers, do not be weary in well doing.

Chapter 1 (1) Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope; (2) Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord. (3) As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine, (4) Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do. (5) Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned: (6) From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling; (7) Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm. (8) But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully; (9) Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,	Chapter 1 (1) Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Savior, and Lord Jesus Christ, Who is our hope; (2) To Timothy,[a] my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace,[b] from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord. (10) For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine; (11) According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. (12) And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; (13) Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. Chapter 2 (1) I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; (2) For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. (3) For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; (4) Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. (5) For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; (6) Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. (7) Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity. (8) I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.	Chapter 2 (1) Therefore I urge {ask; encourage} you, that, first of all, requests, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; (2) For kings, and for all those who are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. (3) Because this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior; (4) Who wants all men to be saved, and to come to the knowledge of the truth. (5) Because there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus; (6) Who gave Himself a ransom for all, to be testified {revealed} in due time. (7) To which I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and do not lie;) a teacher of the Gentiles {non-Jews} in faith and truth. (8) Therefore I desire that men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without anger and doubts.

(9) In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; (10) But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works. (11) Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. (12) But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. (13) For Adam was first formed, then Eve. (14) And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. (15) Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety. Chapter 3 (1) This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.	(9) In the same way also, that women adorn themselves in modest clothes, with modesty and discretion; not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array {jewelry; expensive clothing}.[a] (10) But (which becomes women professing godliness) with good works. (11) Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. (12) But I do not allow a woman to teach, nor to force authority over the man, but to be in silence. (13) Because Adam was first formed, then Eve. (14) And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the sin. (15) Nevertheless she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with discretion. Chapter 3 (1) This is a true saying, If a man desires the office of a bishop {pastor},[a] he desires a good work.

2:9a – dress in modesty… - no braided hair, gold, pearls, costly array – the purpose of someone dressing in a "revealing" way or wearing such things is to draw attention to themselves and to set themselves above others – all this is unbecoming a child of God.

3:1a - bishop - episkopē {ἐπισκοπή} - overseer [pastor]

{54} I Timothy
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(2) A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; (3) Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; (4) One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; (5) (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) (6) Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil. (7) Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil. (8) Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; (9) Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. (10) And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.	(2) A bishop {pastor} then must be blameless, {presently be} the husband of one wife,[b] vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, able to teach; (3) Not given to wine, no bully, not greedy for filthy worldly riches; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; (4) One who rules his own household well, having his children in subjection with all honor; (5) (Because if a man does not know how to rule his own household, how shall he take care of the church of God?) (6) Not a new convert, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil. (7) Furthermore he must have a good report of those who are outside; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil. (8) Likewise the deacons[c] must be honorable, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy worldly riches; (9) Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. (10) And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

3:2b - notice the verb "be" is present tense - {εἶναι} [present infinitive in the Greek] the man must presently be the husband of one wife. To translate as "must have been" the husband of one wife would be a mistranslation and a distortion of God's word. The command here is that the man must currently have only one wife [i.e. he cannot be a bishop {pastor} in the church if he currently has multiple wives, i.e. polygamist] I Tim 3:12 gives the same requirement for deacons. See Acts 6:3 {first deacons?} - qualifications always have to do with a person's present submission to the Holy Spirit - qualifications never have to do with past sin. – see also Titus 1:5f - see note on I Tim. 3:12 below.

3:8c - deacon - diakonos {διάκονος} – servant – attendant – someone who waits on another – see Acts 6

(11) Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. (12) Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. (13) For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. (14) These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly: (15) But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. (16) And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.	(11) Even so their wives must be honorable, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. (12) Let the deacons {presently} be the husbands of one wife,[d] ruling their children and their own households well. (13) Because those who have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. (14) These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly: (15) But if I delay long, that you may know how you ought to behave yourself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. (16) And without controversy; great is the mystery of godliness: God was revealed in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen by angels, preached to the Gentiles {non-Jews}, believed on in the world, received up into glory.
Chapter 4 (1) Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; (2) Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;	Chapter 4 (1) Now the Spirit speaks expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of demons; (2) Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3:12d - {διακονοι [deacons] εστωσαν [must be] μιας [one] γυναικος [wife] ανδρες [husbands]}
- estoesan {εστωσαν} is present tense imperative - To translate as "must have been" the husband of one wife would be a mistranslation and a distortion of God's word. Qualifications for deacons, elders, or bishops [overseers] are always based on a person's present relationship with the Lord, never on their past {See Acts 6:3} - see note on 3:2 above and Titus 1:5f. [If the qualifications were based on a person's past - Paul himself would be disqualified!]

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.	(3) Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God has created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.
(4) For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:	(4) Because every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it is received with thanksgiving:
(5) For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.	(5) Because it is purified by the word of God and prayer.
(6) If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.	(6) If you remind the brothers of these things, you will be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good teaching, to which you have attained.
(7) But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.	(7) But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise yourself rather to godliness.
(8) For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.	(8) Because bodily exercise profits little: but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.
(9) This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.	(9) This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.
(10) For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.	(10) Therefore we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, Who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe.
(11) These things command and teach.	(11) These things command and teach.
(12) Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.	(12) Do not let any man despise your youth; but be an example for the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.
(13) Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.	(13) Until I come, give attendance to reading, to encouragement, to teaching.

(14) Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. (15) Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. (16) Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.	(14) Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands by the church-members. (15) Meditate upon these things; give yourself wholly to them; that your profiting may appear to all. (16) Take heed to yourself, and to the teaching; continue in them: because in doing this you will both save yourself, and those who listen to you.
Chapter 5 (1) Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren; (2) The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity. (3) Honour widows that are widows indeed. (4) But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God. (5) Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day. (6) But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth. (7) And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.	Chapter 5 (1) Do not rebuke an elder, but plead with him as a father; and treat the younger men as brothers; (2) The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity. (3) Honor widows who are widows indeed. (4) But if any widow has children or nephews, let them learn first to show piety at home, and to provide for their own parents {and relatives}: because that is good and acceptable before God. (5) Now she who is a widow indeed, and has nothing, trusts in God, and continues in petitions to God and prayers night and day. (6) But she who lives in pleasure is dead even while she lives. (7) And charge them to obey these things, that they may be blameless.

(8) But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.	(8) But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel {unbeliever}.
(9) Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,	(9) Do not let a widow be taken into the number under sixty years old,[a] having been the wife of one man,[b]
(10) Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.	(10) Well reported of for good works; if she has brought up children, if she has lodged strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, if she has diligently followed every good work.
(11) But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;	(11) But the younger widows refuse: because when they have begun to become lustful against Christ, they will marry;
(12) Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.	(12) Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.
(13) And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.	(13) And as a result they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but gossips also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.
(14) I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.	(14) Therefore I want the younger women to marry, bear children, guide the household, give no occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.
(15) For some are already turned aside after Satan.	(15) Because some have already turned aside after Satan.

5:9a - i.e. if the widow is less than 60 years of age, she should not be included in the daily distribution of food. See I Tim. 5:14 and 5:16 below. The deacons were first called because the Greek widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food. See Acts 6:1-6

5:9b - having been the wife of one man - note the difference in the tense of the verb as compared to 3:2 and 3:12 above which were present tense verbs.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(16) If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed. (17) Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine. (18) For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his reward. (19) Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses. (20) Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear. (21) I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality. (22) Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. (23) Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. (24) Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after. (25) Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.	(16) If any man or woman who believes has widows, let them provide for them, and do not let the church be charged; that it may provide for those who are widows indeed. (17) Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and teaching. (18) Because the Scripture says, You shall not muzzle the ox that treads out the corn.[c] And, The laborer is worthy of his reward. Chapter 6 (1) Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. (2) And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort. (3) If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; (4) He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, (5) Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself. (6) But godliness with contentment is great gain. (7) For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. (8) And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. (9) But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.	Chapter 6 (1) Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the Name of God and His teaching not be blasphemed. (10) For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.	(10) Because the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.
(11) But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.	(11) But you, O man of God, flee from these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, humility.
(12) Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses. (9) Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, (10) But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel: (11) Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. (1) Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.	(1) You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.
(2) And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.	(2) And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, the same commit to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also.
(3) Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.	(3) You therefore endure difficulty, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.
(4) No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.	(4) No man who is a soldier entangles himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who has chosen him to be a soldier.
(5) And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.	(5) And if a man strives in athletics, yet he is not crowned, unless he strives according to the rules.
(6) The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.	(6) The gardener who labors must be first to receive of the fruits.
(7) Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.	(7) Consider what I say; and may the Lord give you understanding in all things.
(8) Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel:	(8) Remember that Jesus Christ of the descent of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel:
(9) Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.	(9) In which I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even to bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

(10) Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.	(10) Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.
(11) It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:	(11) It is a faithful saying: Because if we are dead with Him, we shall also live with Him:
(12) If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us:	(12) If we suffer, we shall also reign with Him: if we deny Him, He will also deny us:
(13) If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.	(13) If we do not believe, yet He remains faithful: He cannot deny Himself.
(14) Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.	(14) Remind them of these things, charging them before the Lord that they not strive about words to no profit, but to the subverting {leading away from the truth} of the hearers.
(15) Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.	(15) Study to show yourself approved to God, a workman who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.
(16) But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.	(16) But shun profane and vain babblings: because they will increase into more ungodliness.
(17) And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus;	(17) And their word will eat as a canker: of whom are Hymenaeus and Philetus;
(18) Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.	(18) Who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.
(19) Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.	(19) Nevertheless the foundation of God stands sure, having this seal, The Lord knows those who are His. And, Let everyone who names the Name of Christ depart from sin.

(20) But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.	(20) But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and pottery; and some to honor, and some to dishonor.
(21) If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.	(21) If a man therefore purges himself from these, he shall be a vessel of honor, sanctified, and useful for the Master's use, and prepared for every good work.
(22) Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.	(22) Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
(23) But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.	(23) But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they foster strife.
(24) And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient,	(24) And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle to all men, able to teach, patient,
(25) In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;	(25) In humility instructing those who oppose themselves; if God perhaps will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;
(26) And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.	(26) And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

(4) Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; (5) Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. (6) For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, (7) Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. (8) Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith. (9) But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was. (10) But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience, (11) Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me. (12) Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. (13) But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived. (14) But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;	(4) Traitors, heady, arrogant, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; (5) Having a form of godliness, but denying its power: from such turn away. (6) Because of this sort are those who creep into houses, and lead captive silly women loaded down with sins, led away with various lusts, (7) Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. (8) Now as Jannes and Jambres[a] withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, castaways concerning the faith. (9) But they will proceed no further: because their folly will be visible to all men, as theirs also was. (10) But you have fully known my teaching, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience, (11) Persecutions, afflictions, which came to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me. (12) Yes, and all who will live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. (13) But evil men and seducers will grow worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived. (14) But you continue in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing of whom you have learned them;

3:8a – Jannes and Jambres - Not Dathan and Abriram [Numbers chapter 16] as some confuse but according to Jewish writings were magicians of Pharoah's court who opposed Moses. Ex. 7:11, 22; 8:18

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. (16) All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: (17) That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works. (7) I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: (8) Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. (9) Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me: (10) For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia. (11) Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry. (12) And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus. (13) The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments. (14) Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works: (15) Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words. (16) At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.	(7) I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: (8) From this day forward there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me at that day:[b] and not to me only, but to all those also who love His appearing. {57} Philemon

Chapter 1 (1) Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellowlabourer, (2) And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellowsoldier, and to the church in thy house: (3) Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. (4) I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers, (5) Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints; (6) That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus. (7) For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother. (8) Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient, (9) Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. (10) I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds: (11) Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me: (12) Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels:	Chapter 1 (1) Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellow laborer, (2) And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house: (3) Grace to you, and peace,[a] from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. (4) I thank my God, making mention of you always in my prayers, (5) Hearing of your love and faith, which you have towards the Lord Jesus, and towards all saints; (6) That the communication of your faith may become effective by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus. (7) Because we have great joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints are refreshed by you, brother. (8) Therefore, though I might be very bold in Christ to require you to do what is right, (9) Yet for love's sake I rather urge you, as an elderly Paul, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. (10) I urge you for my son Onesimus, whom I have fathered in my bonds: (11) Who was in time past unprofitable to you, but now is profitable to you and to me: (12) Whom I have sent back to you: therefore receive him, who is, my own heart:

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel: (14) But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly. (15) For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever; (16) Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord? (17) If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself. (18) If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account; (19) I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides. (20) Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord. (21) Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say. (22) But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you. (23) There salute thee Epaphras, my fellowprisoner in Christ Jesus; (24) Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellowlabourers. (25) The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.	(13) Whom I would have kept with me, that in your place he might have ministered to me in the bonds of the gospel: (14) But without your consent I would do nothing; that your good deed should not be of necessity, but willingly. (15) Because perhaps he departed from you for a season in order that you should receive him forever; (16) Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh, and in the Lord? (17) If you count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself. (18) If he has wronged you, or owes you anything, put that on my account; (19) I Paul have written it with my own hand, I will repay it: although I do not say to you how you owe to me even your own self besides. (20) Yes, brother, let me have joy because of you in the Lord: refresh my heart in the Lord. (21) Having confidence in your obedience I wrote to you, knowing that you will also do more than I say. (22) But prepare for me also a lodging: because I trust that through your prayers I shall be given to you. (23) Salute Epaphras,[b] my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus; (24) Marcus,[c] Aristarchus,[d] Demas,[e] Lucas, my fellow laborers. (25) The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen {Let it be}.

{58} Hebrews

Chapter 1 (1) God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, (2) Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; (3) Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; (4) Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. (5) For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son? (6) And again, when he bringeth in the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him. (7) And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.	Chapter 1 (1) God Who at various times and in various ways spoke in times past to the forefathers by the prophets, (2) Has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, Whom He has appointed heir of all things, by Whom also He made the worlds; (3) Who being the brightness of His glory, and the express image of His person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; (4) Being made so much better than the angels, as He has by inheritance obtained a more excellent Name than they. (5) To which of the angels has He said at any time, You are My Son, today I have fathered You?[a] And again, I will be to Him a Father, and He shall be to Me a Son?[b] (6) And again, when He brings in the First Born into the world, He says, And let all the angels of God worship Him.[c] (7) And of the angels He says, Who makes His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire.[d]

The letter to Hebrews does not state in the text who wrote it. According to tradition it was written by Paul. Mathematical analysis of the book verifies that Paul did in fact write the letter. (8) But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom. (9) Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. (10) And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands: (11) They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment; (12) And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail. (13) But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool? (14) Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?	(8) But to the Son He says, Your throne, O God, is forever and ever: a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom. (9) You have loved righteousness, and hated sin; therefore God, even Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness above Your companions.[e] (10) And, You, Lord, in the beginning have laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of Your hands:[f] (11) They shall perish; but You remain; and they all shall grow old as clothing; (12) And as clothing You shall fold them up, and they shall be changed: but You are the same, and Your years shall not fail.[g] (13) But to which of the angels did He say at any time, Sit on My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool?[h] (14) Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for those who shall be heirs of salvation?

Chapter 2 (1) Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. (2) For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward; (3) How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him; (4) God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will? (5) For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak. (6) But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him? (7) Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands: (8) Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.	Chapter 2 (1) Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. (2) Because if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every sin and disobedience received a just punishment; (3) How shall we escape, if we neglect so great a salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed to us by those who heard Him; (4) God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with various miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to His own will? (5) Because He has not put the world to come in subjection to the angels, of which we speak. (6) But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that You are mindful of him? or the Son of Man, that You visit Him? (7) You made Him a little lower than the angels; You crowned Him with glory and honor, and set Him over the works of Your hands: (8) You have put all things in subjection under His feet.[a] Since He put all in subjection under Him, He left nothing that is not put under Him. But now we do not yet see all things put under Him.

(9) But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man. (10) For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. (11) For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, (12) Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee. (13) And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me. (14) Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; (15) And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. (16) For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.	(9) But we see Jesus, Who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor; that He by the grace of God should taste death for every man. (10) Because it became Him, for Whom all things are, and by Whom all things are, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the Captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. (11) Because both He Who sanctifies {makes holy} and those who are sanctified {made holy} are all of one: for this reason He is not ashamed to call them brothers, (12) Saying, I will declare Your Name to My brothers, in the midst of the church I will sing praise to You.[b] (13) And again, I will put My trust in Him.[c] And again, Look, I and the children whom God has given Me.[d] (14) Since the children are of flesh and blood, He Himself also became flesh and blood; that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil; (15) And deliver those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. (16) Because truly He did not take upon Himself the nature of angels; but He took upon Himself the offspring of Abraham.

2:13c - Ps. 18:2
2:13d - Is. 8:18

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(17) Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. (18) For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted. Chapter 3 (1) Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; (2) Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house. (3) For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house. (4) For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God. (5) And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after; (6) But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.	(17) Therefore in all things He obligated Himself to be made like His brothers, that He might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things concerning God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. (18) Since He Himself has suffered being tempted, He is able to support those who are tempted. Chapter 3 (1) Therefore, holy brothers, who take part in the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; (2) Who was faithful to Him Who appointed Him, as also Moses was faithful in all his household. (3) Because this Man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, just as he who has built the house has more honor than the house. (4) Because every house is built by some man; but He Who built all things is God. (5) And Moses truly was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken afterwards; (6) But Christ as a son over His own house; Whose house we are, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firmly until the end.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith, To day if ye will hear his voice, (8) Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness: (9) When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years. (10) Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways. (11) So I sware in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.) (12) Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. (13) But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. (14) For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end; (15) While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation. (16) For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.	(7) Therefore (as the Holy Spirit says, Today if you will hear His voice, (8) Do not harden your hearts, as in the provocation,[a] in the day of temptation in the wilderness: (9) When your forefathers tempted Me, proved Me, and saw My works forty years. (10) Therefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They always err in their hearts; and they have not known My ways. (11) So I swore in My wrath {anger; judgment}, They shall not enter into My rest.)[b] (12) Take heed, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. (13) But encourage one another daily, while it is called Today; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. (14) Because we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast until the end; (15) While it is said, Today if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts, as in the provocation.[c] (16) Because some, when they had heard, provoked God: Though not all who came out of Egypt by Moses.

3:8a – days of provocation – 40 years in the wilderness when Israel rebelled repeatedly against the Lord
3:11b – Ps. 95:7-10
3:15c – Ps. 95:7-8

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(17) But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness? (18) And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not? (19) So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief. Chapter 4 (1) Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. (2) For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. (3) For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. (4) For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works. (5) And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest. (6) Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:	(17) But with whom was He grieved forty years? was it not with those who had sinned, whose dead bodies fell in the wilderness? (18) And to whom He swore that they should not enter into His rest, but to those who did not believe? (19) So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief. Chapter 4 (1) Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into His rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. (2) Because to us the gospel was preached, as well as to them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it. (3) Because we who have believed will enter into rest, as He said, As I have sworn in My wrath {anger; judgment}, lest they should enter into My rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.[a] (4) Because He spoke in a certain place of the seventh day {Saturday} in this way, And God rested the seventh day {Saturday} from all His works.[b] (5) And in this place again, If they shall enter into My rest. (6) Since therefore it remains that some must enter therein, and those to whom it was first preached did not enter in because of unbelief:

4:3a – Ps. 95:11; Num. 14:23, 28, 30
4:4b - Gen. 2:2

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.	(7) Again, He limits a certain day, saying in David, Today, after so long a time; as it is said, Today if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts.[c]
(8) For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.	(8) Because if Jesus {Joshua}[d] had given them rest, then he would not afterwards have spoken of another day.
(9) There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.	(9) There remains therefore a rest to the people of God.
(10) For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.	(10) Because he who has entered into his rest, has also ceased from his own works, as God did from His.
(11) Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.	(11) Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.
(12) For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.	(12) Because the Word of God is living, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
(13) Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.	(13) Neither is there any creature that is not completely seen in His sight: but all things are naked and opened to His eyes with Whom we have to do.
(14) Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.	(14) Since we have a great high priest, Who has passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.
(15) For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.	(15) Because we do not have a high priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our weaknesses; but was in all ways tempted as we are, yet without sin.

4:8d - Joshua - Jesus [Ιησους] is the Greek name for the Hebrew name Joshua [יהושע]
- Joshua means "Jehovah Saves"

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(16) Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.	(16) Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.
Chapter 5	Chapter 5
(1) For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:	(1) Because every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:
(2) Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.	(2) Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on those who are out of the way; because he himself also is surrounded with infirmity.
(3) And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.	(3) And because of this he must, also offer for his own sins as well as for the people.
(4) And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.	(4) And no man takes this honor to himself, but he who is called of God, as was Aaron.
(5) So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.	(5) So also Christ did not glorify Himself to be made a high priest; but He Who said to Him, You are My Son, today I have fathered You.[a]
(6) As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.	(6) As He says also in another place, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.[b]
(7) Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;	(7) Who in the days of His flesh, when He had offered up prayers and requests with strong crying and tears to Him Who was able to save Him from death, and was heard because He feared {revered the Father};
(8) Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;	(8) Though He was a Son, yet He learned obedience by the things which He suffered;

5:5a - Heb. 1:5; Ps. 2:7; Acts 13:33
5:6b - Ps. 110:4 – Melchizedek – see Genesis chapter 14

(9) And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him; (10) Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec. (11) Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing. (12) For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat. (13) For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe. (14) But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.	(9) And being made perfect, He became the Author of eternal salvation to all those who obey Him; (10) Called by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. (11) Of Whom we have many things to say, and hard to be spoken, since you are dull of hearing. (12) Because when by this time you ought to be teachers, you have need that someone teach you again the first principles of the oracles of God; and have become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat. (13) Because everyone who uses milk is unskillful in the word of righteousness: because he is a babe. (14) But strong meat belongs to those who are of full age, even those who because of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.
Chapter 6 (1) Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, (2) Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. (3) And this will we do, if God permit.	Chapter 6 (1) Therefore leaving the first principles of the teaching of Christ, let us go on to perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith towards God, (2) Of the teaching of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. (3) And this we will do, if God permits.

(4) For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, (5) And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, (6) If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. (7) For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God: (8) But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned. (9) But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak. (10) For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. (11) And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end: (12) That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.	(4) Because it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, (5) And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, (6) If they shall fall away, to renew them again to repentance; since they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put Him to an open shame. (7) Because the earth which drinks in the rain that comes often upon it, and brings forth herbs suitable for those by whom it is gardened, receives blessing from God: (8) But that which bears thorns and briars is rejected, and is near to being cursed; whose end is to be burned. (9) But, beloved, we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, though we speak in this manner. (10) Because God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which you have shown towards His Name, in that you have ministered and do minister to the saints. (11) And we desire that everyone of you show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope to the end: (12) That you not be lazy, but followers of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself, (14) Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. (15) And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. (16) For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife. (17) Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath: (18) That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: (19) Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil; (20) Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.	(13) Because when God made promise to Abraham, because He could swear by no greater, He swore by Himself, (14) Saying, Surely with blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply you.[a] (15) And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. (16) Because men truly swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife. (17) In which God, willing more abundantly to show to the heirs of promise the immutability {unchanging} of His counsel, confirmed it by an oath: (18) That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: (19) This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enters into the inside of the curtain {Holy of Holies; throne room of God};[b] (20) Where the Forerunner for us has entered, even Jesus, made a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.[c]

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 7 (1) For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him; (2) To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; (3) Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually. (4) Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils. (5) And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham: (6) But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises. (7) And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better. (8) And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.	Chapter 7 (1) Because this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;[a] (2) To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of Peace;[b] (3) Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like the Son of God; stays a priest continually. (4) Now consider how great this man was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils. (5) And truly those who are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brothers, though they came out of the body of Abraham: (6) But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him who had the promises. (7) And without any question the lesser is blessed by the greater. (8) And here men who die receive tithes; but there he received them, of whom it is witnessed that he lives.

7:2b - king of Salem [Shalom] - "king of peace" - Salem later to be called Jerusalem [ירושלם] - [Ps. 76:1] - "He shall see Peace" or “City of Peace”

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham. (10) For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him. (11) If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron? (12) For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. (13) For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar. (14) For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood. (15) And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, (16) Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life. (17) For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. (18) For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.	(9) And as I may so say, Levi also, who received tithes, paid tithes in Abraham. (10) Because he was yet in the body of his father, when Melchizedek met him. (11) If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (because under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron? (12) Because the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. (13) Because he of whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar. (14) Because it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Judah; of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. (15) And it is yet far more evident: because after the similarity of Melchizedek there arises another priest, (16) Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life. (17) Because He testifies, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.[c] (18) Because there is truly a putting aside of the commandment going before because of its weakness and unprofitableness.

7:17c – Heb. 5:6; 6:20; Ps. 110:4 – Melchizedek – see Genesis chapter 14

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(19) For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God. (20) And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest: (21) (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:) (22) By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament. (23) And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death: (24) But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. (25) Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. (26) For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; (27) Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. (28) For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.	(19) Because the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by which we draw near to God. (20) And since H*e was* not made priest without an oath: (21) (Because those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by Him Who said to him, The Lord swore and will not repent, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek:)[d] (22) By so much was Jesus made a surety {guarantee} of a better testament. (23) And there were truly many priests, because they were not allowed to continue because of death: (24) But this Man, because He continues forever, has an unchangeable priesthood. (25) Therefore He is able also to save those completely who come to God by Him, since He ever lives to make intercession for them. (26) Because such a High Priest has come to us, Who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; (27) Who does not need daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: because this He did once, when He offered up Himself. (28) Because the law makes men high priests who have weaknesses; but the word of the oath, which came after the law, makes the Son {High Priest}, Who is consecrated forevermore.

7:21d -Ps. 110:4 – Melchizedek – see Genesis chapter 14

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 8 (1) Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest,who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens; (2) A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man. (3) For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer. (4) For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law: (5) Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount. (6) But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises. (7) For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second. (8) For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:	Chapter 8 (1) Now this is the conclusion of the things which we have spoken: We have such a High Priest, Who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens; (2) A Minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man. (3) Because every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: therefore it is of necessity that this Man have something also to offer. (4) Because if He were on earth, He should not be a priest, since there are priests who offer gifts according to the law: (5) Who serve to the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: Because, He said, See that you make all things according to the pattern shown to you on the mount.[a] (6) But now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also He is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises. (7) Because if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place should have been sought for the second. (8) But finding fault with them, He said, Look, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

8:5a - Ex. 25:9, 40; 26:30

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord. (10) For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people: (11) And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. (12) For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more. (13) In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away. Chapter 9 (1) Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary. (2) For there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary.	(9) Not according to the covenant that I made with their forefathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they did not continue in My covenant, and I did not regard them, says the Lord. (10) Because this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord; I will put My laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to Me a people: (11) And they shall not teach every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: because all shall know Me, from the least to the greatest. (12) Because I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their failures and their sins I will remember no more.[b] (13) In that He says, A new covenant, He has made the first old. Now that which decays and grows old is ready to vanish away. Chapter 9 (1) Then truly the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary. (2) Because there was a tabernacle made; the first, in which was the candlestick, and the table, and the holy bread; which is called the sanctuary.

8:8-12b - Jer. 31:31-34

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all; (4) Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant; (5) And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly. (6) Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God. (7) But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people: (8) The Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing: (9) Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience; (10) Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.	(3) And after the second curtain, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all {Holy of Holies}; (4) Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid all around with gold, in which was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant; (5) And over it the cherubim of glory shadowing the mercy seat; of which we cannot now speak in detail. (6) Now when these things were so ordained, the priests always went to the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God. (7) But into the second the high priest went alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people: (8) The Holy Spirit was by this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet revealed, while the first tabernacle was yet standing: (9) Which was a symbol for that present time, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him who did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience; (10) Which stood only in meats and drinks, and various washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(11) But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; (12) Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. (13) For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: (14) How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? (15) And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance. (16) For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. (17) For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth. (18) Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.	(11) But Christ having come as a High Priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; (12) Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by His own blood He entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. (13) Because if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies {makes holy} to the purifying of the flesh: (14) How much more shall the blood of Christ, Who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? (15) And for this reason He is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the sins that were under the first testament, those who are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance. (16) Because where a testament {will}[a] is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator {the one who made the will}. (17) Because a testament {will} is in force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator {the one who made the will} lives. (18) Upon which neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.

9:16a - testament [will and testament] - i.e. - a person's will does not go into effect until after the person making the will dies

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(19) For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,	(19) Because when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book {scroll}, and all the people,
(20) Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.	(20) Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God has made with you.[b]
(21) Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.	(21) Furthermore he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.
(22) And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.	(22) And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.
(23) It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.	(23) It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.
(24) For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:	(24) Because Christ has not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the images of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:
(25) Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;	(25) Nor yet that He should offer Himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy place every year with blood of others;
(26) For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.	(26) Because then He must have often suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world He has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself.
(27) And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:	(27) And as it is appointed to men once to die, but after this the judgment:

9:20b - Ex. 24:8

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(28) So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.	(28) So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and to those who look for Him He shall appear the second time without sin for salvation.[c]
Chapter 10	Chapter 10
(1) For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.	(1) Because the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make those who came perfect.
(2) For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.	(2) Because would they not have ceased to be offered? because the worshipers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.
(3) But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.	(3) But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.
(4) For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.	(4) Because it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.
(5) Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:	(5) Therefore when He comes into the world, He says, Sacrifice and offerings You do not desire, but a body You have prepared for Me:
(6) In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.	(6) In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin You have had no pleasure.
(7) Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.	(7) Then I, said, Look, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do Your will, O God.[a]

9:28c - when He appears the second time- i.e. at the Rapture, He will not deal with sin, but will appear to save those waiting for Him.
10:5-7a - Ps. 40:6-8

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(8) Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law; (9) Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. (10) By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. (11) And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins: (12) But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; (13) From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. (14) For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. (15) Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before, (16) This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; (17) And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.	(8) When He said above, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin You did not desire, neither had pleasure in them; which are offered by the law; (9) Then He said, Look, I come to do Your will, O God.[b] He takes away the first, that He may establish the second. (10) Through Who's will we are sanctified {made clean} through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. (11) And every priest stands daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins: (12) But this Man, after He had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God; (13) From now on expecting until His enemies are made His footstool. (14) Because by one offering He has perfected forever those who are sanctified {made clean}. (15) O*f which* the Holy Spirit also is a witness to us: because after He had said before, (16) This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord, I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds I will write them; (17) And their failures and sins I will remember no more.[c]

10:16-17c - see Heb. 8:8-12

(18) Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.	(18) Now where there is forgiveness of these, there is no more offering for sin.
(19) Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,	(19) Therefore, brothers, having boldness to enter, into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,
(20) By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;	(20) By a new and living way, which He has consecrated for us, through the curtain, that is to say, His flesh;
(21) And having an high priest over the house of God;	(21) And having a High Priest over the house of God;
(22) Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.	(22) Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.
(23) Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;)	(23) Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (because He is faithful Who promised;)
(24) And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:	(24) And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and to do good works:
(25) Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.	(25) Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together,[d] as is the habit of some; but exhorting {encouraging} one another: and so much the more, as you see the day[e] approaching.
(26) For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,	(26) Because if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more sacrifice for sins,
(27) But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.	(27) But a certain fearful expectation of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.
(28) He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:	(28) He who despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

10:25d – not forsaking the assembly of ourselves – coming together with fellow Christians as a church to have fellowship with and to worship the Lord
10:25e – the day – the Day of Christ – see note on I Cor. 1:8

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(29) Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?	(29) Of how much greater punishment, do you suppose, shall he be thought worthy, who has trodden underfoot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant, with which he was sanctified {cleansed}, an unholy thing, and has done in spite to the Spirit of grace?
(30) For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.	(30) Because we know Him Who has said, Vengeance belongs to Me, I will repay, says the Lord.[f] And again, The Lord shall judge His people.[g]
(31) It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.	(31) It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.
(32) But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;	(32) But remember the former days, in which, after you were illuminated, you endured a great fight of afflictions;
(33) Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used.	(33) Partly, while you were made a spectacle both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, while you became companions of those who were so used.
(34) For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.	(34) Because you had compassion on me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that you have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.
(35) Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.	(35) Therefore do not cast away your confidence, which has great payment of reward.
(36) For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.	(36) Because you have need of patience, that, after you have done the will of God, you might receive the promise.

10:30g - Deut:32:36

(37) For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry. (38) Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. (39) But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul. Chapter 11 (1) Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. (2) For by it the elders obtained a good report. (3) Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear. (4) By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh. (5) By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.	(37) Because yet, in a little while, and He Who shall come will come, and will not delay. (38) Now the just shall live by faith:[h] but if any man draws back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. (39) But we are not of those who draw back to perdition; but of those who believe to the saving of the soul. Chapter 11 (1) Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. (2) Because by it the elders obtained a good report. (3) Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which are visible.[a] (4) By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain,[b] by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaks. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. (7) By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith. (8) By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. (9) By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: (10) For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. (11) Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised. (12) Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.	(6) But without faith it is impossible to please Him: because he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. (13) These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.	(13) These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them from afar, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.
(14) For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.	(14) Because those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.
(15) And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.	(15) And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from where they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.
(16) But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.	(16) But now they desire a better country, that is heavenly: therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: because He has prepared for them a city.

(39) And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: (40) God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect. Chapter 12 (1) Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, (2) Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. (3) For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. (4) Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin. (5) And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him: (6) For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.	(39) And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, did not receive the promise: (40) God having provided some better thing for us, that those outside us should not be made perfect. Chapter 12 (1) Therefore since we also are encircled about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which does so easily comes upon us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, (2) Looking to Jesus the Author and Finisher of our faith; Who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has set down at the right hand of the throne of God. (3) Because consider Him Who endured such contradiction of sinners against Himself, lest you be wearied and faint in your minds. (4) You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin. (5) And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to children, My son, do not despise the discipline of the Lord, nor faint when you are rebuked by Him: (6) Because those whom the Lord loves He disciplines,[a] and disciplines every son whom He receives.

12:6a – Pro. 3:12

(7) If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?	(7) If you endure discipline, God deals with you as with sons; because what son is he whom the father does not discipline?
(8) But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.	(8) But if you are without discipline, of which all are partakers, then you are bastards {illegitimate children}, and not sons.
(9) Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?	(9) Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh who corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live?
(10) For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.	(10) Because they truly for a few days disciplined us after their own pleasure; but He for our profit, that we might be partakers of His holiness.
(11) Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.	(11) Now no discipline for the present seems to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterwards it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who are exercised by it.

(24) And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. (25) See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven: (26) Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven. (27) And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain. (28) Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear: (29) For our God is a consuming fire. Chapter 13 (1) Let brotherly love continue. (2) Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. (3) Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.	(24) And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaks better things than that of Abel. (25) See that you not refuse Him Who speaks. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. (5) Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. (6) So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me. (7) Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation. (8) Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. (9) Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein. (10) We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle. (11) For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp. (12) Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.	(4) Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but those who go after prostitutes and adulterers God will judge. (5) Let your conversation be without covetousness {greed; lusting after things that belong to others}; and be content with such things as you have: because He has said, I will never leave you, nor forsake you.[a] (6) So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man can do to me. Chapter 1 (1) James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting. (2) My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; (3) Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. (4) But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. (5) If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. (6) But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. (7) For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. (8) A double minded man is unstable in all his ways. (9) Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted: (10) But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away. (12) Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.	(12) Blessed is the man who endures temptation: because when he is tried, he shall receive the crown[b] of life, which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.
(13) Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:	(13) Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted by God: because God cannot be tempted with evil, neither does He tempt any man:
(14) But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.	(14) But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed.
(15) Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.	(15) Then when lust has conceived, it brings forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, brings forth death.
(16) Do not err, my beloved brethren.	(16) Do not err, my beloved brothers.
(17) Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.	(17) Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with Whom there is no variation, neither shadow of turning.
(18) Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.	(18) Of His own will He fathered us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of His creatures.
(19) Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:	(19) Therefore, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger:
(20) For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.	(20) Because the anger of man does not work the righteousness of God.
(21) Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.	(21) Therefore lay aside all filthiness and overflow of evil, and receive with humility the in-grafted word, which is able to save your souls.
(22) But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.	(22) But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

1:12b - crown - stephanous [στέφανος] crown - crown of victory [not diadem which is a kingly crown]

(23) For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: (24) For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. (25) But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed. (26) If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain. (27) Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.	(23) Because if anyone is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like a man looking at his natural face in a mirror: (24) Because he sees himself, and goes his way, and immediately forgets what he looks like. (25) But whoever looks into the perfect law of liberty, and continues in it, he not being a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deeds. (26) If any man among you seems to be religious, and does not bridle his tongue, but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is in vain. (27) Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.
Chapter 2 (1) My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. (2) For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment; (3) And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:	Chapter 2 (1) My brothers, do not show partiality with the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory. (2) Because if there comes to your assembly a man with a gold ring, in nice clothing, and there comes in also a poor man in ragged clothing; (3) And you have respect towards him who wears the nice clothing, and say to him, Sit here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand there, or sit here under my footstool:

(4) Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts? (5) Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him? (6) But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats? (7) Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called? (8) If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well: (9) But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors. (10) For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. (11) For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law. (12) So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty. (13) For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.	(4) Are you not then partial in yourselves, and have become judges with evil thoughts? (5) Listen, my beloved brothers, Has not God chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which He has promised to those who love Him? (6) But you have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats? (7) Do they not blaspheme that worthy Name by which you are called? (8) If you fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, You shall love your neighbor as yourself,[a] you do well: (9) But if you have partiality, you commit sin, and are convicted by the law as sinners. (10) Because whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet sins in one point, he is guilty of all. (11) Because He Who said, Do not commit adultery, also said, Do not kill.[b] Now if you commit no adultery, yet if you kill, you have broken the law. (12) So speak, and so do, as those who shall be judged by the law of liberty. (13) Because he shall receive judgment without mercy, who has shown no mercy; and mercy rejoices against judgment.

2:8a - Lev. 19:18
2:11b – ten commandments – Ex. 20:3-17

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(14) What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?	(14) What does it profit, my brothers, though a man say he has faith, but does not have works? can faith save him?
(15) If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,	(15) If a brother or sister is naked, and destitute of daily food,
(16) And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?	(16) And one of you says to them, Depart in peace, be warmed and filled; but you do not give them those things which are needful to the body; what does it profit?
(17) Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.	(17) Even so faith, if it does not have works, is dead, by itself.
(18) Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.	(18) Yes, a man may say, You have faith, and I have works: show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works.
(19) Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.	(19) You believe that there is one God; you do well: the demons also believe, and tremble.
(20) But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?	(20) But will you know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?
(21) Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?	(21) Was not Abraham our forefather justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?
(22) Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?	(22) Do you see how faith worked with his works, and by works faith was made perfect?
(23) And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.	(23) And the scripture was fulfilled which says, Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness:[c] and he was called the Friend of God.
(24) Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.	(24) You see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

2:23c - Gen. 15:6

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(25) Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way? (26) For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also. Chapter 3 (1) My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. (2) For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body. (3) Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body. (4) Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth. (5) Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth! (6) And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.	(25) Likewise also was not Rahab the prostitute justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?[d] (26) Because as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also. Chapter 3 (1) My brothers, do not let many be teachers, knowing that we {teachers} shall receive the greater condemnation. (2) Because in many things we offend all. If any man does not offend in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body. (3) Indeed, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body. (4) Consider also the ships, which though they are so great, and are driven by fierce winds, yet they are turned about with a very small rudder, wherever the captain chooses. (5) Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasts great things. Look, how great a matter a little fire kindles! (6) And the tongue is a fire, a world of sin: so is the tongue among our members, that it defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

2:25d - Josh. 2

(7) For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:	(7) Because every kind of beast, and bird, and snakes, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and has been tamed by mankind:
(8) But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.	(8) But the tongue no man can tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.
(9) Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.	(9) With it we praise God, even the Father; and with it we curse men, who are made after the likeness of God.
(10) Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.	(10) Out of the same mouth proceeds blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be.
(11) Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?	(11) Does a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?
(12) Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.	(12) Can the fig tree, my brothers, bear olive berries? or a vine, figs? so no fountain can yield both salt water and fresh.
(13) Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.	(13) Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him show out of a good conversation his works with humility of wisdom.
(14) But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.	(14) But if you have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, do not boast, and do not lie against the truth.
(15) This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.	(15) This wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, sensual, demonic.
(16) For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.	(16) Because where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.
(17) But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.	(17) But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be persuaded, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

(18) And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.	(18) And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.
Chapter 4	Chapter 4
(1) From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?	(1) From where do wars and fights come among you? do they not come from here, even from your lusts that war in your members?
(2) Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.	(2) You lust, and do not have: you kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: you fight and war, yet you do not have, because you do not ask.
(3) Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.	(3) You ask, and do not receive, because you ask for the wrong reasons, that you may consume it upon your lusts.
(4) Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.	(4) You adulterers and adulteresses, do you not know that the friendship with the world is sin against God? whoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.
(5) Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?	(5) Do you think that the scripture says in vain, The spirit that lives in us lusts to envy?[a]
(6) But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.	(6) But He gives more grace. Therefore He says, God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.[b]
(7) Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.	(7) Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.
(8) Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.	(8) Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double minded.

4:5a - Gen. 6:5;8:21; Num. 11:9; Prov. 21:10
4:6b - Prov. 3:34

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.	(9) Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to sorrow.
(10) Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.	(10) Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He shall lift you up.
(11) Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.	(11) Do not speak evil of one another, brothers. He who speaks evil of his brother, and judges his brother, speaks evil of the law, and judges the law: but if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge.
(12) There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?	(12) There is one Lawgiver, Who is able to save and to destroy: who are you who judges another?
(13) Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:	(13) Come now, you who say, Today or tomorrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and make a profit:
(14) Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.	(14) Whereas you do not know what tomorrow shall be. Because what is your life? It is but a vapor, that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away.
(15) For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.	(15) But what you ought to say is, If the Lord wills, we shall live, and do this, or that.
(16) But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.	(16) But now you rejoice in your boasting all such rejoicing is evil.
(17) Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.	(17) Therefore to him who knows to do good, and does not do it, to him it is sin.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 5 (1) Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. (2) Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are motheaten. (3) Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days. (4) Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth. (5) Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter. (6) Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you. (7) Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. (8) Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. (9) Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.	Chapter 5 (1) Come now, you rich men, weep and howl because of your miseries that shall come upon you. (2) Your riches are corrupted, and your clothing is moth-eaten. (3) Your gold and silver is tarnished; and their tarnish shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. You have heaped treasure together for the last days. (4) Listen, the hire of the laborers who have reaped your fields, which you have kept back by fraud, cries: and the cries of those who have reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Hosts {armies; multitudes}.[a] (5) You have lived in pleasure on the earth, and in luxury; you have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter. (6) You have condemned and killed the just; and he does not resist you. (7) Be patient therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord.[b] Indeed, the gardener waits for the precious fruit of the earth, and has long patience for it, until he receives the early and latter rain. (8) You also be patient; establish your hearts: because the coming of the Lord[b] is drawing near. (9) Do not begrudge one another, brothers, lest you be condemned: Look, the Judge stands before the door.

5:4a - Lord of sabaoth [κυριου σαβαωθ] - transliterated from Hebrew [יהוה צבאות]
Lord of hosts; Lord of armies

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience. (11) Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. (12) But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation. (13) Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms. (14) Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: (15) And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. (16) Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. (17) Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.	(10) Take, my brothers, the prophets, who have spoken in the Name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience. (11) Indeed, we count those happy who endure. You have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is compassionate, and of tender mercy. (12) But above all things, my brothers, do not swear, neither by heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath: but let your yes be yes; and your no, no;[c] lest you fall into condemnation. (13) Is anyone among you afflicted? let him pray. Is anyone happy? let him sing songs. (14) Is anyone sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the Name of the Lord: (15) And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he has committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. (16) Confess your faults one to another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much. (17) Elijah was a man subject to passions just as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months.[d]

(18) And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit. (19) Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; (20) Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.	(18) And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit. (19) Brothers, if any of you err from the truth, and one converts him; (20) Let him know, that he who converts the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall cover a multitude of sins.

Chapter 1 (1) Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, (2) Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied. (3) Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, (4) To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, (5) Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. (6) Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:	Chapter 1 (1) From Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers {aliens; exiles} scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia {Minor}, and Bithynia,[a] (2) Chosen according to the foreknowledge[b] of God the Father, through purification by the Spirit, for obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ:[c] Grace to you, and peace,[d] be multiplied to you. (3) Blessed is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who according to His abundant mercy has given us new birth to a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, (4) For an incorruptible and undefiled {without spot or blemish} inheritance, that does not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, (5) Who are kept by the power of God through faith for salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. (6) In which you greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if necessary, you are weighed down because of many temptations:

1:1a - Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia {Minor}, and Bithynia – all areas in and around modern Turkey

1:2b - foreknowledge - to know ahead of time - God Who knows all things past, present, and future knew who would be His children before He created the heavens and the earth. i.e. God knew and chose us before the foundation of the world - see Ephesians 1:4

1:2c – sprinkling of the blood of Jesus – Ex. 29:20-21; Lev. 1:5-11; Lev. 3:2-13;; Lev. 16:14-19; Mat. 26:28; Mk. 14:24; Lk. 22:20; Acts 20:28; Rom. 5:8-9; Eph. 1:7

1:2d – grace and peace – grace always precedes peace

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:	(7) That the trial of your faith, which is much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tried with fire, might be found to be praise and honor and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:[e]
(8) Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:	(8) Whom although you have not seen Him, you love; in Whom, though now you do not see Him, yet believing, you rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:
(9) Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.	(9) Receiving the end {finishing; completion} of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.
(10) Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:	(10) Of this salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied beforehand of the grace that would come to you:
(11) Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.	(11) Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ Who was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.
(12) Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.	(12) To whom it was revealed, that not for themselves, but for us they ministered the things, which are now reported to you by those who have preached the gospel to you with the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven; of things the angels desire to look into.
(13) Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;	(13) Therefore bind up your minds,[f] be sober, and keep hope to the end because of the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;
(14) As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:	(14) As obedient children, not living according to your former lusts in your ignorance:

1:7e - appearing of Jesus Christ - i.e. the Rapture - See I Cor. 1:8; Is. 26:20

1:13f - gird up [tie up] the thighs [loins] of your mind - i.e. in your mind be ready for action to do what is right at all times - in Bible times the long robes were a hindrance to running, so they had to pull them up and tie them with their belt to hold them up {control your thoughts}

(15) But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; (16) Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. (17) And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear: (18) Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; (19) But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: (20) Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, (21) Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God. (22) Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently: (23) Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.	(15) But as He Who has called you is holy, so you be holy in all manner of conversation; (16) Because it is written, Be holy; because I am holy.[g] (17) And if you call on the Father, Who judges without respect of persons according to every man's deeds, pass the time of your living here in fear: (18) Inasmuch as you know that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your worthless conversation received by tradition from your forefathers; (19) But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot: (20) Who truly was chosen before the foundation of the world, but was revealed in these last times for you, (21) Who by Him believe in God, Who raised Him up from the dead, and gave Him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God. (22) Since you have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit to un-pretended love for the brothers, see that you fervently love one another with a pure heart: (23) Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, Who lives and stays with you forever.

(24) For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: (25) But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you. Chapter 2 (1) Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings, (2) As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: (3) If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious. (4) To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, (5) Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. (6) Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. (7) Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,	(24) Because all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withers, and its flower falls away: (25) But the word of the Lord endures forever.[h] And this is the word which by the gospel is preached to you. Chapter 2 (1) Therefore laying aside all evil intentions, and all evil deeds, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil talk, (2) As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that you may grow by it: (3) If you have tasted that the Lord is gracious. (4) To Whom coming, as to a living stone, rejected indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, (5) You also, as living stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. (6) Therefore also it is written in the scripture, Look, I lay in Zion a chief corner stone, chosen, precious: and he who believes on Him shall not be disappointed.[a] (7) To you therefore who believe He is precious: but to those who are disobedient, the stone which the builders rejected, the same has been made the head of the corner,[b]

(8) And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.	(8) And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to those who stumble at the word, being disobedient: where also they were appointed.
(9) But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:	(9) But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood,[c] a holy nation, a peculiar people; that you should show forth His praises Who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light:
(10) Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.	(10) You who in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.
(11) Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;	(11) Dearly beloved, I urge you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;
(12) Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.	(12) Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles {non-Jews}: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may because of your good works, which they shall witness, glorify God in the day of visitation.
(13) Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;	(13) Submit yourselves to every law of man for the Lord's sake: whether it is to the king, as supreme;
(14) Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.	(14) Or to governors, as to those who are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of those who do well.
(15) For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:	(15) Because this is the will of God, that with well doing you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:[d]

(16) As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. (17) Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king. (18) Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. (19) For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. (20) For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. (21) For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: (22) Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: (23) Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: (24) Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. (25) For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.	(16) As free people, and not using your liberty as a disguise for evil, but as the servants of God. (17) Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king. (18) Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the bad. (19) Because this is worthy of thanks, if a man because of conscience towards God endures grief, suffering wrongfully. (20) What glory is it, if, when you are abused because of your faults, you take it patiently? but if, when you do well, and suffer for it, and you bear it patiently, this is acceptable with God. (21) Because this is what you were called for: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps: (22) Who committed no sin, neither was deceit found in His mouth: (23) Who, when He was cursed at, did not curse back; when He suffered, He did not threaten back; but committed Himself to Him Who judges righteously: (24) Who His own self bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live to righteousness: by Whose stripes you were healed.[e] (25) Because you were as sheep going astray; but are now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Chapter 3 (1) Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives; (2) While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear. (3) Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; (4) But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. (5) For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands: (6) Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement. (7) Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.	Chapter 3 (1) Likewise, you wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any husbands do not obey the word, they also may without the word be won over by the conversation of the wives; (2) While they see your chaste conversation coupled with fear. (3) Whose beauty is not that outward beauty of braiding the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of fancy clothing; (4) But let it be the inner man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of an humble and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. (5) Because after this manner in the old times the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands: (6) Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters you are, as long as you do well, and are not afraid with any amazement. (7) Likewise, you husbands, live with them according to knowledge, giving honor to the wife, as to the weaker container, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers not be hindered.

(8) Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous: (9) Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing. (10) For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile: (11) Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it. (12) For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil. (13) And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good? (14) But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled; (15) But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear: (16) Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.	(8) Finally, let all of you be of one mind, having compassion towards one another, love as brothers, be full of pity, be courteous: (9) Not returning evil for evil, or cursing for cursing: but on the contrary blessing; knowing that you are called for this, that you should inherit a blessing. (10) Because he who would love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no evil: (11) Let him flee from evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and pursue it. (12) Because the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and His ears are open to their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil. (13) And who is he who would harm you, if you are followers of that which is good? (14) But and if you suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are you: and do not be afraid of their terror, neither be troubled; (15) But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you with humility and fear: (16) Having a good conscience; that, while they speak evil of you, as evildoers, those who falsely accuse may be ashamed because of your good conversation in Christ.

(17) For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.	(17) Because it is better, if it is the will of God, that you suffer for doing good, than for doing evil.
(18) For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:	(18) Because Christ also has once suffered for sins, the Just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive by the Spirit:
(19) By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison;	(19) By Whom also He went and preached to the spirits in prison;

(20) Who in times past were disobedient, when once the long-suffering {patience} of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which few, that is, eight souls were saved through the water.[a]
(21) The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:	(21) In a like manner even baptism does also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:[b]
(22) Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.	(22) Who has gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers are being made subject to Him.

3:21b – it is not the washing of the flesh with water but the baptism of the Holy Spirit, being born again, giving a clean conscience – that saves

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 4 (1) Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; (2) That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. (3) For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries: (4) Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you: (5) Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead. (6) For for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit. (7) But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. (8) And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins. (9) Use hospitality one to another without grudging.	Chapter 4 (1) Since Christ has suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: because he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin; (2) That he should no longer live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. (3) Because in the times past of our lives we allowed ourselves to do the will of the Gentiles {non-Jews}, when we walked in passions of the flesh, lusts, excess of wine, riotous living, excessive over eating, and abominable idolatries: (4) In which they think it strange that you do not run with them to the same excess of riotous living, speaking evil of you: (5) Who shall themselves give account to Him Who is ready to judge the living and the dead. (6) For this reason the gospel was preached also to those who have died, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit. (7) But the end of all things is at hand: therefore be sober, and give attention to prayer. (8) And above all things have fervent charity {love}[a] among yourselves: because charity will cover a multitude of sins. (9) Have hospitality towards one another without grudging.

4:8a – charity – agape {ἀγάπη} love – love that moves to action in helping others.
The King James version usually translates agape {godly} love as charity because godly love is not an emotion but an attitude of service to others. – see note on I Cor. 13:1

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.	(10) As every man has received the gift, even so minister the same to one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.
(11) If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.	(11) If any man speaks, let him speak the words of God; if any man ministers, let him do it as with the ability which God gives: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to Whom be praise and authority forever and ever. Amen {let it be}.
(12) Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:	(12) Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to test you, as though some strange thing happened to you:
(13) But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.	(13) But rejoice, since you share in Christ's sufferings; that, when His glory shall be revealed, you may be glad also with exceeding joy.
(14) If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.	(14) If you are reproached for the Name of Christ, happy are you; because the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you: on their part He is evilly spoken of, but on your part He is glorified.
(15) But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.	(15) But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.
(16) Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.	(16) Yet if any man suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God because of this.

(17) For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? (18) And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? (19) Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.	(17) Because the time has come that judgment must begin at the house of God:[b] and if it first begins with us, what shall the end be of those who do not obey the gospel of God? (18) And if the righteous are scarcely saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? (19) Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to Him in well doing, as to a faithful Creator.
Chapter 5 (1) The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: (2) Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; (3) Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. (4) And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. (5) Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.	Chapter 5 (1) The elders[a] who are among you I urge, because I am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: (2) Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking its oversight, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy profit, but of a ready mind; (3) Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being examples to the flock. (4) And when the Chief Shepherd shall appear, you shall receive a crown[b] of glory that does not fade away. (5) Likewise, you who are younger, submit yourselves to the elders. Yes, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: because God resists the proud, and gives grace to the humble.[c]

4:17b – judgment begins at the house of God – II Chron. 7:14
5:1a – elders – presbuteros {πρεσβυτερους} – older, mature leaders
5:4b – crown – stephanous {στέφανος} – victor's crown – not diadem {kingly crown}

(6) Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: (7) Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. (8) Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: (9) Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. (10) But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. (11) To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. (12) By Silvanus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand. (13) The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Marcus my son. (14) Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.	(6) Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time: (7) Casting all your care upon Him; because He cares for you. (8) Be sober, be vigilant {watchful, alert};[d] because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walks about, seeking whom he may devour: (9) Resist him firmly in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brothers who are in the world. (10) But the God of all grace, Who has called us to His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a while, makes you perfect, establishes, strengthens, and settles you. (11) To Him be glory and dominion {authority; kingship}[e] forever and ever. Amen {let it be}. (12) By Silvanus, a faithful brother to you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, encouraging, and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand. (13) The church that is at Babylon, chosen together with you, salutes you; and so does Marcus[f] my son. (14) Greet one another with a kiss of charity {love}.[g] Peace be with you all who are in Christ Jesus. Amen {Let it be}.

5:8d - vigilant - watchful, alert, paying attention to things that are happening
5:11e - dominion - kingdom, rulership, full authority over all things
5:13f – Marcus – Barnabas' sister's son [Col. 4:10] – Phm. 1:24
5:14g – charity – love – agape {αἰγάπη} -see note on I Cor. 13:1

{61} II Peter

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 1 (1) Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ: (2) Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, (3) According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: (4) Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. (5) And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; (6) And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; (7) And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. (8) For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. (9) But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.	Chapter 1 (1) From Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained the same precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Savior Jesus Christ: (2) Grace and peace[a] be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, (3) According to His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him Who has called us to glory and virtue: (4) Through Whom is given to us exceedingly great and precious promises: that by these you might share in the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. (5) And besides this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; (6) And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; (7) And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity {love}.[b] (8) Because if these things are in you, and abound, they will cause you to neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. (9) But he who lacks these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and has forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

1:2a – grace and peace – grace always precedes peace

1:7b – charity – agape {ἀγάπη} love – love that moves to action in helping others. The King James version usually translates agape {godly} love as charity because godly love is not an emotion but an attitude of service to others. – see note on I Cor. 13:1

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:	(10) Therefore, brothers, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: because if you do these things, you shall never fall:
(11) For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.	(11) So that an entrance shall be abundantly ministered to you into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
(12) Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.	(12) Therefore I will not be negligent to always remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth.
(13) Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;	(13) Yes, I think it appropriate, as long as I am in this tabernacle {body}, to stir you up by reminding you;
(14) Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.	(14) Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle {body}, even as our Lord Jesus Christ has shown me.[c]
(15) Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.	(15) Furthermore I will seek to have you always remember these things after my death.
(16) For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.	(16) Because we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of His majesty.
(17) For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.	(17) Because He received from God the Father honor and glory, when there came such a voice to Him from the excellent glory saying, This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased.[d]
(18) And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.	(18) And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with Him on the holy mount.

1:14c – Jn. 21:18-19
1:17d - Mat. 17:2-5, Mk. 9:2-7

(19) We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts: (20) Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. (21) For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.	(19) We have also a more sure word of prophecy; to which you would do well to take heed, as to a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the Day Star arises in your hearts: (20) Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. (21) Because the prophecy did not come in old times by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.
Chapter 2 (1) But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. (2) And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. (3) And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. (4) For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;	Chapter 2 (1) But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privately shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord Who bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. (2) And many shall follow their destructive ways; because of whom the way of truth shall be spoken of in an evil way. (3) And because of their coveting[a] they shall with deceitful words take advantage of you: their judgment does not linger for long, and their damnation does not sleep. (4) Because if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved for judgment;

2:3a – coveting – wanting things that belong to others

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(5) And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;	(5) And did not spare the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the great flood upon the world of the ungodly;[b]
(6) And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;	(6) And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an example to those who afterwards should live ungodly;[c]
(7) And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:	(7) And delivered just Lot, who was tormented with the filthy conversation of the wicked:
(8) (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)	(8) (Because that righteous man living among them, in seeing and hearing, tormented his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)
(9) The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:	(9) The Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust for the day of judgment to be punished:
(10) But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.	(10) But chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. They are presumptuous, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of governing officials.
(11) Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.	(11) While angels, who are greater in power and might, do not bring cursing accusations against them before the Lord.
(12) But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;	(12) But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they do not understand; and shall completely perish in their own corruption;

2:5b – Genesis chapter 6
2:6c – Genesis chapters 18 and 19

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you; (14) Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: (15) Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; (16) But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet. (17) These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. (18) For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. (19) While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. (20) For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.	(13) And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as those who count it pleasure to riot in the day time. They are spots and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceptions while they feast with you; (14) Having eyes full of adultery, and cannot cease from sin; deceiving unstable souls: a heart they have exercised with coveting practices; cursed children: (15) Who have forsaken the right way, and have gone astray, following the way of Balaam[d] the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; (16) But was rebuked because of his sin: the dumb donkey speaking with a man's voice forbade the madness of the prophet.[e] (17) These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved forever. (18) Because when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they through the lusts of the flesh, through much worldly desire, lead astray those who were clean and had escaped from those who live in error. (19) While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: because by whom a man is overcome, of the same he is brought into bondage. (20) Because if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in it, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than it was at the beginning.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(21) For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. (22) But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire. Chapter 3 (1) This second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance: (2) That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour: (3) Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, (4) And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. (5) For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:	(21) Because it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them. (22) But it is happened to them according to the true proverb, The dog returns to his own vomit again;[f] and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire {mud}. Chapter 3 (1) This second letter, beloved, I now write to you; in both letters I am stirring up your pure minds to be reminded: (2) That you may be reminded of the words which were spoken beforehand by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us apostles of the Lord and Savior: (3) Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, (4) And saying, Where is the promise of His coming? Because since the forefathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. (5) Because they are willfully ignorant of this, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

2:22f - Prov. 26:10

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: (7) But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. (8) But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. (9) The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. (10) But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. (11) Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, (12) Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?	(6) By which the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished {in the flood}:[a] (7) But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved for fire against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. (8) But, beloved, do not be ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.[b] (9) The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some men count slackness; but is patient towards us, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.[c] (10) But the day of the Lord[d] will come as a thief in the night;[e] in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are in it shall be burned up. (11) Since all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in all holy conversation and godliness, (12) Looking for and expecting the coming of the day of God,[d] in which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

3:8b – Ps. 90:4
3:9c - this verse gives us the reason why the Lord has not already come back! He is patient and is giving people of the world time to repent because it is not His will that any should perish. If anyone does go to hell (which is prepared for the devil and his angels [Mat. 25:41]) it is because they have chosen to reject God's Son.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.	(13) Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for a new heavens and a new earth,[f] in which righteousness lives.
(14) Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.	(14) Therefore, beloved, since you look forward to such things, be diligent that you may be found by Him in peace, without spot, and blameless.
(15) And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;	(15) And count the patience of our Lord as salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given to him has written to you;
(16) As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.	(16) As also in all his letters, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to understand, which those who are uneducated and unstable twist, as they do also the other scriptures, to their own destruction.
(17) Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.	(17) You therefore, beloved, since you know these things beforehand, beware lest you also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.
(18) But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.	(18) But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be glory both now and forever. Amen {Let it be}.

{62} I John

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 1 (1) That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life; (2) (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;) (3) That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. (4) And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full. (5) This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. (6) If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: (7) But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. (8) If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. (9) If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.	Chapter 1 (1) That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our {own} eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life; (2) (Because the Life was revealed, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and show to you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us;) (3) That which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ. (4) And we write these things to you, that your joy may be full. (5) This then is the message which we have heard from Him, and declare to you, that God is light, and in Him there is no darkness at all. (6) If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and are not truthful: (7) But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin. (8) If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. (9) If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us of our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.	(10) If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His Word is not in us.
Chapter 2	Chapter 2
(1) My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:	(1) My little children, these things I write to you, that you do not sin. But if any man does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:
(2) And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.	(2) And He is the atoning {debt paying} sacrifice[a] for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.[b]
(3) And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.	(3) And this is how we know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments.
(4) He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.	(4) He who says, I know Him, and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.
(5) But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.	(5) But whoever keeps His word, in him the love of God is truly perfected: this is how we know that we are in Him.
(6) He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.	(6) He who says he lives in Him ought himself also so to live, even as He lived.
(7) Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.	(7) Brothers, I do not write a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you have heard from the beginning.
(8) Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.	(8) Again, a new commandment I do write to you, which is true in Him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shines.

2:2a - propitiation – atoning {debt paying} sacrifice – He paid the price for our sin by His death on the cross. See I John 2:12

2:2b – and for the whole world – but if anyone rejects Him and what He did for them, they will spend all eternity in hell. Hell was prepared for the devil and his angels [Mat. 25:41]. If anyone goes there it's by their choice!

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.	(9) He who says he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in darkness even until now.
(10) He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.	(10) He who loves his brother lives in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him.
(11) But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.	(11) But he who hates his brother is in darkness, and walks in darkness, and does not know where he is going, because that darkness has blinded his eyes.
(12) I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.	(12) I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for His Name's sake.
(13) I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.	(13) I write to you, fathers, because you have known Him Who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the wicked one. I write to you, little children, because you have known the Father.
(14) I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.	(14) I have written to you, fathers, because you have known Him Who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the Word of God lives in you, and you have overcome the wicked one.
(15) Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.	(15) Do not love the world, nor the things that are in the world. If any man loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
(16) For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.	(16) Because all that is in the world; the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.
(17) And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.	(17) And the world and its lust passes away: but he who does the will of God lives forever.

(18) Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.	(18) Little children, it is the end of time: and as you have heard that {the} antichrist[c] will come, even now there are many antichrists; this is how we know that it is the end of time.
(19) They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.	(19) They went out from us, but they were not of us; because if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out from us, that they might be revealed to all that they were not all of us.
(20) But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things.	(20) But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all these things.
(21) I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.	(21) I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it, and that no lie is of the truth.
(22) Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.	(22) Who is a liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is {the} antichrist,[d] who denies the Father and the Son.
(23) Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.	(23) Whoever denies the Son, the same does not have the Father: (but) he who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.
(24) Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.	(24) Therefore let that which you have heard from the beginning live in you. If that which you have heard from the beginning will remain in you, you also will continue in the Son, and in the Father.
(25) And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.	(25) And this is the promise that He has promised us, even eternal life.
(26) These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.	(26) These things I have written to you concerning those who seduce you.

2:18c - that antichrist - literally "the" antichrist {ο αντιχριστο} – masculine, singular
- Dan. 11:36; Mat. 24:15

2:22d - see note on 2:18

(27) But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. (28) And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. (29) If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.	(27) But the anointing which you have received of Him lives in you, and you do not need that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teaches you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it has taught you, you will live in Him. (28) And now, little children, live in Him; that, when He appears, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before Him at His coming. (29) If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone who does righteousness is born of Him.
Chapter 3 (1) Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. (2) Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. (3) And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. (4) Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law. (5) And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.	Chapter 3 (1) Consider, what manner of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world does not know us, because it did not know Him. (2) Beloved, now we are the sons of God, and it does not yet appear what we will be: but we know that, when He appears, we will be like Him; because we will see Him as He is. (3) And every man that has this hope in him purifies himself, even as He is pure. (4) Whoever commits sin disobeys the law: because sin is disobedience to the law. (5) And you know that He was revealed to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin.

(6) Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.	(6) Whoever lives in Him does not sin: whoever sins has not seen Him, nor knows Him.
(7) Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.	(7) Little children, let no man deceive you: he who does righteousness is righteous, even as He is righteous.
(8) He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.	(8) He who commits sin is of the devil; because the devil has sinned from the beginning. Because for this purpose the Son of God was revealed, that He might destroy the works of the devil.
(9) Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.	(9) Whoever is born of God does not commit sin; because His Seed remains in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.
(10) In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.	(10) In this the children of God are revealed, and the children of the devil: whoever does not do righteousness is not of God, neither he who does not love his brother.
(11) For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.	(11) Because this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.
(12) Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.	(12) Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and killed his brother. And why did he kill him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.
(13) Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.	(13) Do not marvel, my brothers, that the world hates you.
(14) We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.	(14) We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brothers. He who does not love his brother lives in death.

(15) Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.	(15) Whosoever hates his brother is a murderer: and you know that no murderer has eternal life living in him.
(16) Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.	(16) This is how we perceive the love of God, because He laid down His life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers.
(17) But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?	(17) But whoever has this world's goods, and sees his brother having need, and closes up his heart of compassion from him, how does the love of God live in him?
(18) My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.	(18) My little children, let us not love in word, nor in speech; but in deed and in truth.
(19) And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.	(19) And this is how we know that we are of the truth, and will assure our hearts before Him.
(20) For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.	(20) Because if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.
(21) Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.	(21) Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, then we have confidence towards God.
(22) And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.	(22) And whatever we ask, we receive of Him, because we keep His commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in His sight.
(23) And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.	(23) And this is His commandment, That we should believe on the Name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as He gave us commandment.

(24) And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.	(24) And he who keeps His commandments lives in Him, and He in him. And this is how we know that He lives in us, by the Spirit which He has given us.
Chapter 4	Chapter 4
(1) Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.	(1) Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets have gone out into the world.
(2) Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:	(2) This is how you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God:
(3) And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.	(3) And every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, of which you have heard that it would come; and even now already it is in the world.
(4) Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.	(4) You are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is He Who is in you, than he who is in the world.
(5) They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.	(5) They are of the world: therefore they speak of the world, and the world listens to them.
(6) We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.	(6) We are of God: he who knows God listens to us; he who is not of God does not listen to us. This is how we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.
(7) Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.	(7) Beloved, let us love one another: because love is of God; and every one that loves is born of God, and knows God.

(8) He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.	(8) He who does not love does not know God; because God is love.
(9) In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.	(9) In this the love of God was revealed towards us, because God sent the only Son He has fathered into the world, that we might live through Him.
(10) Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.	(10) This is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us, and sent His Son to be the atoning {debt paying} sacrifice[a] for our sins.
(11) Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.	(11) Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.
(12) No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.	(12) No man has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God lives in us, and His love is perfected in us.
(13) Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.	(13) This is how we know that we live in Him, and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit.
(14) And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.	(14) And we have seen and testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Savior of the world.
(15) Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.	(15) Whoever will confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in him, and he in God.
(16) And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.	(16) And we have known and believed the love that God has towards us. God is love; and he who lives in love lives in God, and God in him.
(17) Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.	(17) This is how our love is made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as He is, so are we in this world.

4:10a - propitiation – atoning {debt paying} sacrifice – see note on I John 2:2

(18) There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. (19) We love him, because he first loved us. (20) If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? (21) And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.	(18) There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear: because fear causes torment. He who is afraid is not made perfect in love. (19) We love Him, because He first loved us. (20) If a man says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar: because he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God Whom he has not seen? (21) And this commandment we have from Him, That he who loves God love his brother also.
Chapter 5 (1) Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him. (2) By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments. (3) For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous. (4) For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. (5) Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?	Chapter 5 (1) Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and everyone who loves Him Who fathered loves Him also Who was fathered by Him. (2) By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep His commandments. (3) Because this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments: and His commandments are not grievous. (4) Because whoever is born of God overcomes the world: and this is the victory that overcomes the world, even our faith. (5) Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

(6) This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth. (7) For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. (8) And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one. (9) If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son. (10) He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. (11) And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. (12) He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. (13) These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. (14) And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:	(6) This is He Who came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit Who bears witness, because the Spirit is truth. (7) Because there are three Who bear witness in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit: and these Three are One. (8) And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one. (9) If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: because this is the witness of God which He has testified of His Son. (10) He who believes on the Son of God has the witness in himself: he who does not believe God has made Him a liar; because he does not believe the witness that God gave concerning His Son. (11) And this is the witness, that God has given to us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. (12) He who has the Son has life; and he who does not have the Son of God does not have life. (13) These things have I written to you who believe on the Name of the Son of God; that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may believe on the Name of the Son of God. (14) And this is the confidence that we have in Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us:

(15) And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.	(15) And if we know that He hears us, in whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of Him.
(16) If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.	(16) If any man sees his brother sin a sin which is not to death, he must ask, and He will give him life for those who do not sin to death. There is a sin that leads to death: I do not say that he must pray for that.
(17) All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.	(17) All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin that is not to death.
(18) We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.	(18) We know that whoever is born of God does not sin; but he who is fathered by God keeps himself, and that wicked one does not touch him.
(19) And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.	(19) And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in wickedness.
(20) And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.	(20) And we know that the Son of God has come, and has given us an understanding, that we may know Him Who is true, and we are in Him Who is true, even in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 1 (1) The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth; (2) For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever. (3) Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love. (4) I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father. (5) And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. (6) And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it. (7) For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. (8) Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. (9) Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.	Chapter 1 (1) The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all those who have known the truth; (2) For the truth's sake, which lives in us, and shall be with us forever. (3) Grace be with you, mercy, and peace,[a] from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love. (4) I rejoiced greatly that I found of your children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father. (5) And now I urge you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. (6) And this is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, That, as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in it. (7) Because many deceivers have entered into the world, who do not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. (8) Look to yourselves, that we do not lose those things which we have done, but that we receive a full reward. (9) Whoever sins, and does not live in accordance with the teaching of Christ, does not have God. He who lives in accordance with the teaching of Christ, he has both the Father and the Son.

{63} II John
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: (11) For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. (12) Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full. (13) The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.	(10) If any come to you, and do not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house, neither bid him God speed: (11) Because he who bids him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. (12) Having many things to write to you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come to you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full. (13) The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen {Let it be}.

{64} III John

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 1 (1) The elder unto the wellbeloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth. (2) Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. (3) For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth. (4) I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth. (5) Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers; (6) Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well: (7) Because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles. (8) We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth. (9) I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not. (10) Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.	Chapter 1 (1) The elder to the well beloved Gaius,[a] whom I love in the truth. (2) Beloved, I wish above all things that you may prosper and be in health, even as your soul prospers. (3) Because I rejoiced greatly, when the brothers came and testified of the truth that is in you, even as you walk in the truth. (4) I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth. (5) Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you do to the brothers and to strangers; (6) Who have borne witness of your charity before the church: whom if you bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, you will do well: (7) Because for His Name's sake they went forth, taking nothing from the Gentiles {non-Jews}. (8) We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellow helpers to the truth. (9) I wrote to the church: but Diotrephes, who loves to have first place among them, does not receive us. (10) Therefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he does, speaking against us with malicious words: and not content to do just that, he himself does not even receive the brothers, and forbids those who would receive them, and casts them out of the church.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(11) Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God. (12) Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true. (13) I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee: (14) But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.	(11) Beloved, do not follow that which is evil, but that which is good. He who does good is of God: but he who does evil has not seen God. (12) Demetrius[b] has a good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yes, and we also bear witness; and you know that our witness is true. (13) I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write to you: (14) But I trust I shall shortly see you, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to you. Our friends salute you. Greet the friends by name.

{65} Jude

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 1 (1) Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called: (2) Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied. (3) Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. (4) For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. (5) I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. (6) And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.	Chapter 1 (1) Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James,[a] to those who are sanctified {made clean} by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called: (2) Mercy, and peace, and love, be multiplied to you. (3) Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write to you of the common salvation, it was necessary for me to write to you, and exhort {encourage; warn} you that you should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered to the saints. (4) Because there are certain men who have snuck in without notice, who were beforehand of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into uncontrolled lust, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. (5) I will therefore remind you, though you once knew these things, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. (6) And the angels who did not keep their first estate, but left their own habitation {home}, He has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of the great day.

{66} Revelation

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 1 (1) The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John: (2) Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw. (3) Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand. (4) John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne; (5) And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, (6) And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.	Chapter 1 (1) The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to Him, to show to His servants things which must shortly come to pass; and He sent and signified it by His angel to His servant John: (2) Who bore record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all the things that he saw. (3) Blessed is he who reads, and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep the things which are written in it: because the time is at hand. (4) From John to the seven churches who are in Asia {Minor}:[a] Grace be to you, and peace,[b] from Him Who is, and Who was, and Who is to come;[c] and from the seven Spirits[d] Who are before His throne; (5) And from Jesus Christ, Who is the faithful witness, and the first born from the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. To Him Who loved us, and washed us from our sins in His own blood, (6) And has made us kings and priests to God and His Father; to Him be glory and authority to rule forever and ever. Amen {let it be}.

(7) Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.	(7) Look, He comes with clouds; and every eye will see Him,[e] and those also who pierced Him: and all nationalities of the earth wail because of Him.[f] Even so, Amen {let it be}.
(8) I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.	(8) I am Alpha and Omega,[g] the Beginning and the Ending, says the Lord, Who is, and Who was, and Who is to come, the Almighty.
(9) I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.	(9) I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos,[h] because of the word of God, and because of the testimony of Jesus Christ.
(10) I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet,	(10) I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day {Sunday},[i] and heard behind me a great voice, like a trumpet,
(11) Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.	(11) Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the First and the Last:[j] and, What you see, write in a book, and send it to the seven churches who are in Asia {Minor}; to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.
(12) And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;	(12) And I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;[k]

(13) And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.	(13) And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like the Son of Man, clothed with a robe down to the foot, and with a golden vest wrapped about the breasts.
(14) His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;	(14) His head and His hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and His eyes were as a flame of fire;[l]
(15) And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.	(15) And His feet like fine brass, as if they glowed in a furnace; and His voice as the sound of many waters.
(16) And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.	(16) And He had in His right hand seven stars:[m] and out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword and His appearance was as the sun shining in its strength.
(17) And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:	(17) And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. And He laid His right hand upon me, saying to me, Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last:
(18) I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.	(18) I am He Who lives, and was dead; and, look, I am alive forevermore, Amen {Let it be}; and have the keys of hell and of death.
(19) Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;	(19) Write the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will be hereafter;[n]
(20) The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches. Chapter 2 (1) Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks; (2) I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars: (3) And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted. (4) Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love. (5) Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. (6) But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. (7) He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.	Chapter 2 (1) To the angel[a] of the church of Ephesus write; These things says He Who holds the seven stars in His right hand Who walks in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks; (2) I know your works, and your labor, and your patience, and how you cannot bear those who are evil: and you have tried those who say they are apostles, and are not, and have found them to be liars: (3) And have borne, and have patience, and for My Name's sake have labored, and have not fainted. (4) Nevertheless I have somewhat against you, because you have left your first love. (5) Remember therefore from where you have fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come to you quickly, and will remove your candlestick out of its place, unless you repent. (6) But this you do have, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans,[b] which I also hate. (7) He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches; To him who overcomes I will give to eat of the tree of life,[c] which is in the midst of the paradise[d] of God.

2:1a – angel –{αγγελω} (messenger from God) – John the Baptist was called an angel by Jesus – Matt. 11:10; Mk. 1:2; Lk. 7:27 – See Rev. 16

2:6b - Nicolaitans - supposed Christians who were guilty of fornication (having sex with those they were not married to), adultery (having sex with someone who is married to someone else), and eating of food offered to idols. Supposedly they also shared their wives with each other. They rejected "holiness of living." Note: It is the deeds of the Nicolaitans that the Lord hates -- not the Nicolaitans themselves! (8) And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;	(8) And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things says the First and the Last,[e] Who was dead, and is alive;
(9) I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.	(9) I know your works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but you are rich) and I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.
(10) Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.	(10) Do not be afraid of those things which you will suffer: look, the devil will cast some of you into prison, that you may be tried; and you will have tribulation ten days; be faithful to death, and I will give you a crown[f] of life.
(11) He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.	(11) He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches; He who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death.[g]
(12) And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;	(12) And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things says He Who has the sharp sword with two edges;
(13) I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.	(13) I know your works, and where you live, even where Satan's seat is: and you hold fast My Name, and have not denied My faith, even in those days in which Antipas was My faithful martyr, who was killed among you, where Satan lives.

(14) But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.	(14) But I have a few things against you, because you have there those who hold the teaching of Balaam,[h] who taught Balac to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit fornication {sex outside of marriage}.[i]
(15) So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.	(15) So you have also those who hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans, which thing[j] I hate.
(16) Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.	(16) Repent; or else I will come to you quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of My mouth.
(17) He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.	(17) He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches; To him who overcomes I will give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no man knows except him who receives it.[k]
(18) And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;	(18) And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things says the Son of God, Who has His eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet are like fine brass;[l]
(19) I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.	(19) I know your works, and charity, and service, and faith, and your patience, and your works; and the last are more than the first.
(20) Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.	(20) Nevertheless I have a few things against you, because you allow that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce My servants to commit fornication {sex outside of marriage}, and to eat things sacrificed to idols.

(21) And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not. (22) Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds. (23) And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works. (24) But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden. (25) But that which ye have already hold fast till I come. (26) And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations: (27) And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father. (28) And I will give him the morning star. (29) He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.	(21) And I gave her time to repent of fornication; but she did not repent. (22) Look, I will cast her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of their deeds. (23) And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches will know that I am He Who searches the hearts and minds: and I will give to every one of you according to your works. (24) But to you I say, and to the rest in Thyatira, as many as do not have this teaching, and who have not known the depths of Satan, as they call it; I will put upon you no other burden. (25) But that which you have already hold fast until I come. (26) And he who overcomes, and keeps My works to the end, to him I will give power over the nations: (27) And he will rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter they will be broken to pieces: even as I received of My Father. (28) And I will give him the morning star.[m] (29) He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

Chapter 3 (1) And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. (2) Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God. (3) Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. (4) Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy. (5) He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. (6) He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. (7) And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;	Chapter 3 (1) And to the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things says He Who has the seven Spirits of God,[a] and the seven stars; I know your works, that you have a name that you live, but you are dead. (8) I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.	(8) I know your works: look, I have set before you an open door, and no man can shut it: because you have a little strength, and have kept My word, and have not denied My Name.
(9) Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.	(9) Indeed, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews, and are not, but lie; I will cause them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you.
(10) Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.	(10) Because you have kept the word of My patience, I also will keep you from[c] the hour of temptation, which will come upon all the world, to try those who live upon the earth.
(11) Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.	(11) Indeed, I come quickly: hold fast that which you have, that no man takes your crown.[d]
(12) Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.	(12) He who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of My God, and he will no more go out: and I will write upon him the Name of My God, and the name of the city of My God, which is New Jerusalem,[e] which comes down out of heaven from My God: and I will write upon him My new Name.

(15) I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.	(15) I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot: I wish that you were cold or hot.
(16) So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.	(16) So then because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew you out of My mouth.
(17) Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:	(17) Because you say, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and do not know that you are wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:[f]
(18) I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.	(18) I counsel you to buy from Me gold tried in the fire, that you may be rich; and white clothing, that you may be clothed, and that the shame of your nakedness does not appear;[g] and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see.
(19) As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.	(19) As many as I love, I rebuke and discipline: be zealous therefore, and repent.
(20) Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.	(20) Indeed, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hears My voice, and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with Me.
(21) To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.	(21) To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, even as I also overcame, and have set down with My Father on His throne.

Chapter 4 (1) After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter. (2) And immediately I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne. (3) And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald. (4) And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold. (5) And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. (6) And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind.	Chapter 4 (1) After this[a] I looked, and, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up here, and I will show you things which must be hereafter.[b] (2) And immediately I was in the spirit: and, indeed, a throne was set in heaven, and One sat on the throne. 4:3d - jasper, sardine, emerald stones -- ems -- jasper usually amber to light green in color, sardine usually deep orange-red or brown-red -- emerald – deep green color

4:4e – crowns of gold – stephanous { στεφανους} – victor's crowns – Jesus' crown is a diadem – kingly crown – see note on 6:2

(7) And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle. (8) And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. (9) And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever, (10) The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, (11) Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.	(7) And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle. (8) And the four beasts[f] each had six wings about him; and inside they were full of eyes: and they do not rest day or night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, Who was, and is, and is to come.[g] (9) And when those beasts give glory and honor and thanks to Him Who sat on the throne, Who lives forever and ever, (10) The twenty-four elders fall down before Him Who sat on the throne, and worship Him Who lives forever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, (11) You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power: because You have created all things, and for Your pleasure they are and were created.[h]
Chapter 5 (1) And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals. (2) And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? (3) And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.	Chapter 5 (1) And I saw in the right hand of Him Who sat on the throne a book {scroll}[a] written inside and on the backside, sealed with seven seals. (2) And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book {scroll}, and to loose its seals? (3) And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book {scroll}, nor to look upon it.

5:1a – book - scroll

(4) And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.	(4) And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look upon it.
(5) And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.	(5) And one of the elders said to me, Do not weep: indeed, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the book {scroll}, and to loose its seven seals.
(6) And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.	(6) And I looked, and, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been killed, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God[b] sent forth into all the earth.
(7) And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.	(7) And He came and took the book {scroll} out of the right hand of Him Who sat upon the throne.
(8) And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints.	(8) And when He had taken the book, the four beasts and twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb,[c] each one of them having harps, and golden vials full of aromas, which are the prayers of saints.
(9) And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;	(9) And they sang a new song, saying, You are worthy to take the book, and to open its seals: because You were killed, and have redeemed us to God by Your blood out of every family, and language, and people, and nation;
(10) And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.	(10) And have made us kings and priests to our God: and we will reign on the earth.

5:6b - seven Spirits of God -Rev. 1:3; 3:1; 4:5; Is. 11:2

5:8c – fell down before the Lamb – namely Jesus – and worshiped Him. If Jesus was not God, God the Father would have not allowed them to fall down before Him – see Rev. 8:13-14; 19:10; 22:7

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(11) And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; (12) Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. (13) And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. (14) And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.	(11) And I saw, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;[d] (12) Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb Who was killed to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing. (13) And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, I heard saying, Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be to Him Who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb forever and ever. (14) And the four beasts said, Amen {Let it be}. And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped Him Who lives forever and ever.
Chapter 6 (1) And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see. (2) And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.	Chapter 6 (1) And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see. (2) And I saw, and look a white horse:[a] and he who sat on him had a bow; and a crown[b] was given to him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

5:11d -- ten thousands times ten thousands and thousands of thousands - lit. αυτων μυριαδες μυριαδων και χιλιαδες χιλιαδων -- myriads upon myriads and thousands of thousands – See Dan. 7:10

6:2a - Zech. 1:8-11 - white, black, red, and gray horses (white-economic, red-blood [war], black-famine, pale [gray or pale] -death) Note: In Zech. These horsemen report on conditions on the earth. See Zech. 6:5

6:2b - crown - stephanous {στεφανος }(wreath)- not diadem {διαδηματα }(kingly crown) Note: Jesus sometimes wears the stephanous crown of victory, but we never wear the diadem crown of kingship {The antichrist will wear a diadem (see chapter 13) because he intends to rule over people.}

(3) And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.	(3) And when He had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.
(4) And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.	(4) And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him who sat upon it to take peace from the earth,[c] and that they should kill one another: and there was given to him a great sword.
(5) And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.	(5) And when He had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I saw, and a black horse; and he who sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.
(6) And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.	(6) And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny;[d] and see that you do not harm the oil and the wine.[e]
(7) And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.	(7) And when He had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.
(8) And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.	(8) And I looked, and a pale horse: and his name who sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given to them over the fourth part of the earth,[f] to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.
(9) And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:	(9) And when He had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who were killed because of the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:

6:4c - Mat. 24:6-8; I Thes. 5:3
6:6d – famine, a person will barely be able to earn enough to feed himself
6:6e - oil and wine - used for medical purposes, and here represents scarcity
6:8f – fourth part – 25% of the earth's population will be killed

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?	(10) And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, do You not judge and avenge our blood on those who live on the earth?
(11) And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.	(11) And white robes were given to every one of them; and it was said to them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow servants also and their brothers, who should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.
(12) And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;	(12) And I saw when He had opened the sixth seal, and, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;[g]
(13) And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.	(13) And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, even as a fig tree casts her untimely figs, when she is shaken by a mighty wind.
(14) And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.	(14) And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.
(15) And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;	(15) And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every slave, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

(16) And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: (17) For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand? Chapter 7 (1) And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. (2) And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, (3) Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. (4) And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel. (5) Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.	(16) And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him Who sits on the throne, and from the wrath {anger; judgment} of the Lamb: (17) Because the great day of His wrath {anger; judgment} has come; and who will be able to stand? Chapter 7 (1) And after these things[a] I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. (2) And I saw another angel ascending from the east,[b] having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, (3) Saying, Do not hurt the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. (4) And I heard the number of those who were sealed: and there were sealed one hundred forty-four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel. (5) Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

(14) And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. (15) Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. (16) They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. (17) For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.	(14) And I said to him, Sir, you know. And he said to me, These are those who came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. (15) Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple: and He Who sits on the throne shall live among them. (16) They will hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; neither will the sun light on them, nor any heat. (17) Because the Lamb Who is in the midst of the throne will feed them, and will lead them to living fountains of waters: and God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.
Chapter 8 (1) And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. (2) And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets. (3) And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. (4) And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.	Chapter 8 (1) And when He had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. (4) And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

(5) And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.	(5) And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it upon the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.
(6) And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.	(6) And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.
(7) The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.	(7) The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.
(8) And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;	(8) And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;
(9) And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.	(9) And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life,[a] died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.
(10) And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;	(10) And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as if it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;
(11) And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.	(11) And the name of the star is called Wormwood:[b] and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

8:9a - life - See Gen. 1:20; Rev. 16:3

8:11b – wormwood – bitter – the Soviet nuclear reactor that exploded in 1986 was named Chernobyl which means wormwood – it could be the waters are made bitter with nuclear radiation

(12) And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.	(12) And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was stricken, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so the third part of them was darkened, and the day did not shine for a third part of it, and the night likewise.
(13) And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!	(13) And I saw, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to those who live on the earth because of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!
(1) And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.	(1) And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven to the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.[a]
(2) And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.	(2) And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke of the pit.
(3) And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.	(3) And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and to them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.
(4) And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.	(4) And they were commanded that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men who do not have the seal of God in their foreheads.

(5) And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man. (6) And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. (7) And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men. (8) And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. (9) And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle. (10) And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months. (11) And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon. (12) One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter. (13) And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,	(5) And they were commanded that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was the torment of a scorpion, when he strikes a man. (14) Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.	(14) Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.
(15) And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.	(15) And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, to kill the third part of men.[d]
(16) And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.	(16) And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred million:[e] and I heard the number of them.
(17) And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.	(17) And so I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone {sulfur}:[f] and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone {sulfur}.
(18) By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.	(18) By these three the third part of men were killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone {sulfur}, which issued out of their mouths.
(19) For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.	(19) Because their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: because their tails were like snakes, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.
(20) And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:	(20) And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues still did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk:

9:15d – one fourth were killed in 6:8 leaving 75%, now one third of those left are killed – leaving only 50% of the original population! - see Is. 4:1 – note: most armies consist of a vast majority of men. - see Rev. 9:18

9:16e – in the 1970's China boasted that it could field an army of two hundred million

9:17f – fire, jacinth, and brimstone {sulfur} – red, blue, and yellow – red and yellow are the colors of the communist flag -blue usually symbolizes freedom and liberty. As China grows economically, changes in its political structure may also occur.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(21) Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.	(21) Neither did they repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries {drug use},g nor of their fornication {sex outside of marriage}, nor of their thefts.
Chapter 10	Chapter 10
(1) And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:	(1) And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:
(2) And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,	(2) And he had in his hand a little book {scroll} open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,
(3) And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.	(3) And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.
(4) And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.	(4) And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them.
(5) And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,	(5) And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,
(6) And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:	(6) And swore by Him Who lives forever and ever, Who created heaven, and the things that are in it, and the earth, and the things that are in it, and the sea, and the things which are in it, that there should be time no longer:
(7) But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.	(7) But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he begins to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as He has declared to His servants the prophets.

9:21g – sorceries – pharmakion – [φαρμακειων] - word we use for pharmacy - drug use [not for medical purposes, but for the purpose of getting high, drunk]

(8) And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. (9) And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. (10) And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter. (11) And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.	(8) And the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again, and said, Go and take the little book {scroll} which is open in the hand of the angel who stands upon the sea and upon the earth. (9) And I went to the angel, and said to him, Give me the little book {scroll}. And he said to me, Take it, and eat it up; and it will make your belly bitter, but it will be in your mouth sweet as honey. (10) And I took the little book {scroll} out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.[a] (11) And he said to me, You must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.
Chapter 11 (1) And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. (2) But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.	Chapter 11 (1) And there was given to me a reed like a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God,[a] and the altar, and those who worship in it. (2) But the court which is outside the temple leave out, and do not measure it; because it is given to the Gentiles {non-Jews}: and they will tread the holy city under foot forty-two months.[b]

(9) And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.	(9) And all of the people and families and languages and nations will see their dead bodies three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be put in graves.

11:8c – where our Lord was crucified - Jerusalem

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth. (11) And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them. (12) And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them. (13) And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven. (14) The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly. (15) And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever. (16) And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,	(10) And those who live upon the earth will rejoice over them, and make merry, and will send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented those who lived on the earth. 11:12d - "come up here" - Rev. 4:1

(17) Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned. (18) And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth. (19) And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.	(17) Saying, We give You thanks, O Lord God Almighty, Who are, and was, and is to come;[e] because You have taken to Yourself Your great power, and have reigned. (18) And the nations were angry, and Your wrath {anger; judgment} has come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that You should give reward to Your servants the prophets, and to the saints, and those who fear {revere} Your Name, small and great; and should destroy those who destroy the earth. (19) And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in His temple the ark of His testament:[f] and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.
Chapter 12 (1) And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: (2) And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. (3) And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.	Chapter 12 (1) And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:[a] (2) And being pregnant she cried out, having great pain in birth, and was in pain to be delivered. (3) And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and look a great red dragon,[b] having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

12:1a - Israel – see Gen. 37:9-10
12:3b - dragon -- the devil-- Satan -- Rev. 12:9; 20:2 – note: the crowns are diadems – crowns of kings and rulers – the seven heads represent 7 empires; the 10 horns represent 10 kings – see the book of Daniel – John sees all seven empires that have reigned and will reign through history – Daniel saw the one head of the last empire

(4) And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.	(4) And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, in order to devour her Child as soon as it was born.
(5) And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.	(5) And she brought forth a man Child, Who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her Child was caught up to God, and to His throne.
(6) And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.	(6) And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there one thousand two hundred sixty days.[c]
(7) And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,	(7) And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,
(8) And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.	(8) And they did not prevail; neither was their place found any more in heaven.
(9) And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.	(9) And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent {snake}, called the Devil, and Satan, who deceives the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.[d]
(10) And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.	(10) And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now salvation has come, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ: because the accuser of our brothers is cast down, who accused them before our God day and night.

(11) And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.	(11) And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they did not love their lives even to the death.
(12) Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.	(12) Therefore rejoice, you heavens, and you who live in them. {But} woe to those who live on the earth and in the sea! because the devil has come down to you, having great wrath {anger}, because he knows that he has but a short time.
(13) And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.	(13) And when the dragon saw that he was cast to the earth, he persecuted the woman who brought forth the man Child.[e]
(14) And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.	(14) And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and two times, and half a time {3 1/2 years},[f] from the face of the serpent {snake}.
(15) And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.	(15) And the snake cast out of his mouth water as a flood[g] after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood.
(16) And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.	(16) But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.
(17) And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.	(17) And the dragon was angry with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her descendants, who keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.[h]

12:13e - Israel
12:14f - time two times and half time -- Dan. 7:25; 12:7; Rev. 13:5
12:15g – flood – as Israel flees [Rev. chapter 7; Mat. 15:20] to the wilderness {Petra?} the antichrist will try to destroy those fleeing – possibly by destroying a dam
12:17h – note that even at this point in the Revelation {the last 3 ½ years before Armageddon there will be some who accept Jesus as Lord

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 13 (1) And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. (2) And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. (3) And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. (4) And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? (5) And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. (6) And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.	Chapter 13 (1) And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea,[a] having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns,[b] and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. (2) And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion:[c] and the dragon[d] gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. (3) And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death;[e] and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. (4) And they worshiped the dragon which gave power to the beast: and they worshiped the beast, saying, Who is like the beast? who is able to make war with him? (5) And there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given to him to continue forty-two months {3 ½ years}.[f] (6) And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His Name, and His Tabernacle, and those who live in heaven.

13:1a - coming up out of the sea {water} - Rev. 17:15 - water represents people
13:1b – crowns – diadems - see note on 6:2
13:2c – lion – Dan. 7 – note: the leopard represented the Greek empire; the bear the Medo-Persian empire, and the lion the Babylonian empire – note here they are in reverse order
13:2d – dragon – named as Satan in 20:2
13:3e, 12e - wounded to death -- mortally wounded -- i.e. killed - but comes back to life and is healed – see Rev. 13:12 – Rev. 13:4 suggests that Satan is at this point actually living in the antichrist
13:5f - forty-two months -- 3 1/2 years -- 1260 days - See Dan. 12:7f

(14) And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.	(14) And deceives those who live on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to those who live on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and lived.

13:8g – Lamb killed from the foundation of the earth – before Adam and Eve were even created, Jesus planned to die on the cross for all who would accept Him

13:11h - Rev. 17:8 says he was, is not, yet will be - i.e. the beast once lived, died, and will live again. The beast represents an empire, the two horns represent 2 kings – see the book of Daniel

13:12i – second beast causes everyone to worship the first beast – false prophet – Rev. 16:13

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed. (16) And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: (17) And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. (18) Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.	(15) And he had power to give life to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast be killed. (16) And he caused all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:[j] (17) And that no man might buy or sell, except he who had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. 13:16j – receive a mark – note that 13:15 makes it clear that to receive the mark a person must worship the antichrist – see Rev. 14:9

13:18k - 666 - There are four references to 666 in the Bible - I Ki. 10:14, II Chron. 9:13; Ez. 2:13, and Rev. 13:18 - in I Ki. and II Chr. it is the amount of gold paid to Solomon. In Ezra it is a reference to the descendants of Adonikam returning from captivity. Three sons of Adonikam (come, Lord or My Lord comes) are named by name: Eliphelet (My God delivers), Jeuel (God carries away), and Shemaiah (She [Israel?]] listens.)

(3) And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.	(3) And they sang a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred forty-four thousand, who were redeemed from the earth.
(4) These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.	(4) These are those who were not defiled with women; because they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These were redeemed from among men, being the first fruits to God and to the Lamb.
(5) And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.	(5) And in their mouth was found no deceit: because they are without fault before the throne of God.
(6) And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,	(6) And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach to those who live on the earth, and to every nation, and family, and language, and people,[a]
(7) Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.	(7) Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to Him; because the hour of His judgment has come: and worship Him Who made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.
(8) And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.	(8) And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath {anger; judgment} of her fornication.

14:6a – when all human witnesses to the gospel have been removed from the earth, the Lord will send an angel in the sky to preach the gospel

(9) And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,	(9) And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worships the beast and his image, and receives his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,
(10) The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:	(10) The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath {anger; judgment} of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of His indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:
(11) And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.	(11) And the smoke of their torment ascends up forever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name.
(12) Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.	(12) Here is the patience of the saints: here are those who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.
(13) And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.	(13) And I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, Write, Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from this time forward: Yes, says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works follow them.
(14) And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.	(14) And I looked, and saw a white cloud, and upon the cloud One sat like the Son of Man, having on His head a golden crown,[b] and in His hand a sharp sickle.
(15) And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.	(15) And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, Thrust in Your sickle, and reap: because the time has come for You to reap; because the harvest of the earth is ripe.

14:14b – crown of gold – stephanous { στεφανους} – victor's crown – Jesus wears both kinds of crowns – the victor's crown and the kingly crown

(16) And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped. (17) And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. (18) And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. (19) And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. (20) And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.	(16) And He who sat on the cloud thrust in His sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.[c] (17) And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. (18) And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; because her grapes are fully ripe. (19) And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath {anger; judgment} of God. (20) And the winepress was trodden outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even to the horse bridles, a distance of one thousand six hundred furlongs {about 200 mi.; 322 km.}.[d]
Chapter 15 (1) And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God. (2) And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.	Chapter 15 (1) And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; because in them is completed the wrath {anger; judgment} of God. (2) And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and those who had gained the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

14:16c - note that the Lord reaps His harvest first then the second angel reaps the lost
14:20d - 1600 furlongs -- about 200 miles or 322 kilometers. See Appendix J: Bible Weights and Measures - Armageddon – the Lord speaks and bodies literally Disintegrate – see Rev. 16:17

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints. (4) Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest. (5) And after that I looked, and, behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: (6) And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles. (7) And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever. (8) And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.	(3) And they sing the song of Moses[a] the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are Your ways, You King of saints. (4) Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your Name because You only are holy: because all nations will come and worship before You; because Your judgments are revealed. (5) And after that I looked, and, saw, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: (6) And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts clothed with golden vests. (7) And one of the four beasts gave to the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath {anger; judgment} of God, Who lives forever and ever. (8) And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from His power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, until the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.
Chapter 16 (1) And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.	Chapter 16 (1) And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials {bowls} of the wrath {anger; judgment} of God upon the earth.[a]

15:3a - song of Moses Ex. 15:1; Deut. 31:22; 32:1-43

16:1a – vials {bowls} of the wrath of God – all previous plagues could be the result of mankind's destruction, but from this point on the judgments are specifically sent by God Himself

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(2) And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.	(2) And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a horrible and painful sore upon the men who had the mark of the beast, and upon those who worshiped his image.
(3) And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.	(3) And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul[b] died in the sea.
(4) And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.	(4) And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.
(5) And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.	(5) And I heard the angel of the waters say, You are righteous, O Lord, Who is, and was, and will be,[c] because You have judged so.
(6) For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.	(6) Because they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink; because they are worthy.
(7) And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments.	(7) And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments.
(8) And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.	(8) And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given to him to scorch men with fire.
(9) And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.	(9) And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the Name of God, Who has power over these plagues: and they did not repent to give Him glory.

(10) And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, (11) And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds. (12) And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared. (13) And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. (14) For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. (15) Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. (16) And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.	(10) And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, (11) And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds. (12) And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and its water was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.[d] (13) And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. (14) Because they are the spirits of demons, working miracles,[e] which go forth to the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.[f] (15) Look, I come as a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his clothing, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.[g] (16) And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.[h]

16:12d – see Rev. 9:14
16:14e - spirits of demons - performing (fake) miracles to deceive those on the earth - gathering them together for the day of Armageddon [Possibly telling them that the earth is about to be invaded by aliens from outer space.}
16:14f - great day of God Almighty – Armageddon – Rev. 16:16
16:15g - naked - see note on Rev. 3:18

(17) And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done. (18) And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. (19) And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. (20) And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. (21) And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.	(17) And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.[i] (18) And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. (19) And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath {anger; judgment}. (20) And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. (21) And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone weighed about a talent {about 75 lbs.; 33 kg.}:[j] and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; because the plague was exceedingly great.
Chapter 17 (1) And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters: (2) With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.	Chapter 17 (1) And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying to me, Come here; I will show to you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits upon many waters: (2) With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and those who live on the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

16:21j -- talent -- about 33 kg or 75 lbs - See Appendix J: Bible Weights and Measures

(3) So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.	(3) So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet colored beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.
(4) And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:	(4) And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet color, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:
(5) And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.	(5) And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.
(6) And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.	(6) And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.
(7) And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.	(7) And the angel said to me, Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and ten horns.[a]
(8) The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.	(8) The beast that you saw was, and is not; and will ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and those who live on the earth will wonder, whose names were not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.[b]

17:7a - Seven heads explained 17:9; seven horns explained 17:10 - See Rev. 12:3; Dan. 7:7; 8:20

17:8b - was, is not, and yet is -- literally - was alive, currently is not alive {at the time John is writing the Revelation}, but will be alive; see Rev. 13:1; 17:11

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.	(9) And here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains,[c] on which the woman sits.
(10) And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.	(10) And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one presently is, and the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must continue a short space.
(11) And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.	(11) And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goes into perdition.
(12) And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.	(12) And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings, who have received no kingdom as yet;[d] but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.
(13) These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.	(13) These have one mind, and will give their power and strength to the beast.
(14) These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.	(14) These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them: because He is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and those who are with Him are called, and chosen, and faithful.
(15) And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.	(15) And he said to me, The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and languages.
(16) And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.	(16) And the ten horns which you saw upon the beast, these will hate the prostitute, and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.[e]

17:9c -- seven mountains or hills -- the city of Rome sits on seven hills - false church which comes into existence after God raptures the true church will have its headquarters in Rome.

17:12d - have not received a kingdom as yet (when John is writing the Revelation) but will reign with the antichrist; Dan. 7:7; 8:20

17:16e – Rev. 18:9 – once the antichrist has taken his seat in the temple [II Thes. 2:4], he will have no further use for the false church, so he will have it destroyed

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(17) For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. (18) And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.	(17) Because God has put in their hearts to fulfill His will, and to agree, and give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. (18) And the woman which you saw is that great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth.
Chapter 18 (1) And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. (2) And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. (3) For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. (4) And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. (5) For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.	Chapter 18 (1) And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. (2) And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and has become the home of demons, and the home of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. (3) Because all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath {anger; judgment} of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich through the abundance of her delicacies. (4) And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, My people, that you not be partakers of her sins, and that you not receive of her plagues. (5) Because her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her sins.

(6) Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.	(6) Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double to her double according to her works: in the cup which she has filled fill to her double.
(7) How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.	(7) How much she has glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: because she says in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will see no sorrow.
(8) Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.	(8) Therefore her plagues will come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she will be completely burned with fire: because strong is the Lord God Who judges her.
(9) And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,	(9) And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, will mourn because of her, and lament for her, when they see the smoke of her burning,
(10) Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.	(10) Standing afar off[a] because of the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! Because in one hour[b] your judgment has come.
(11) And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:	(11) And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her; because no man buys their merchandise any more:
(12) The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,	(12) The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

18:10a - standing far away because of the fear of her torment - possibly due to nuclear destruction – if it was ordinary fire, they would rush in to put out the fire, but if is radioactive fire or volcanic eruption, they can't do anything but watch from a great distance – see Rev. 18:22-23

18:10b – in one hour – totally destroyed – also suggests either volcanic or nuclear destruction since an entire city would take more than an hour to be totally destroyed by ordinary fire

(13) And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.	(13) And cinnamon, and perfumes, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.
(14) And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.	(14) And the fruits that your soul lusted after have departed from you, and all things which were dainty and good have departed from you, and you will find them no more at all.
(15) The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,	(15) The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand afar off because of the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,
(16) And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!	(16) And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!
(17) For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,	(17) Because in one hour so great riches have come to nothing. And every ship-captain, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,
(18) And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!	(18) And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like this great city!
(19) And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.	(19) And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, in which all who had ships in the sea were made rich because of her costliness! Because in one hour she was made desolate.

(20) Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her. (21) And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. (22) And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee; (23) And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. (24) And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth. Chapter 19 (1) And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:	(20) Rejoice over her, you heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets; because God has avenged you on her. (2) For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. (3) And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever. (4) And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia. (5) And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great. (6) And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. (7) Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. (8) And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. (9) And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.	(2) Because true and righteous are His judgments: because He has judged the great prostitute, who corrupted the earth with her fornication, and has avenged the blood of His servants at her hand. (3) And again they said, Alleluia {praise the Lord}. And her smoke rose up forever and ever. (4) And the twenty-four elders and the four beasts fell down and worshiped God Who sat on the throne, saying, Amen {let it be}; Alleluia {praise the Lord}. (5) And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all you His servants, and you who fear Him, both small and great. (6) And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia {praise the Lord}: because the Lord God all powerful[b] reigns. (7) Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to Him: because the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready. (8) And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: because the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. (9) And he said to me, Write, Blessed are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he said to me, These are the true sayings of God.

(10) And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.	(10) And I fell at his feet to worship him.[c] But he said to me, See that you do not: I am your fellow servant, and of your brothers who have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: because the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.
(11) And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.	(11) And I saw heaven opened, and look a white horse; and He Who sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war.
(12) His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.	(12) His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns;[d] and He had a Name written, that no man knew, except He Himself.
(13) And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.	(13) And He was clothed with a robes dipped in blood: and His Name is called The Word of God.
(14) And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.	(14) And the armies which were in heaven followed Him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.
(15) And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.	(15) And out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should strike the nations: and He will rule them with a rod of iron: and He treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath {anger; judgment} of Almighty God.
(16) And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.	(16) And He has on His vest and on His belt a Name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

(17) And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;	(17) And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together to the supper of the great God;
(18) That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.	(18) That you may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, both small and great.
(19) And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.	(19) And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him Who sat on the horse, and against His army.
(20) And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.	(20) And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who performed miracles before him, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast, and those who worshiped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone {sulfur}.[e]
(21) And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.	(21) And the remnant were killed with the sword by Him Who sat upon the horse, Whose sword proceeded out of His mouth: and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

Chapter 20 (1) And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. (2) And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, (3) And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season. (4) And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. (5) But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. (6) Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(17) And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. (18) For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: (19) And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. (20) He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. (21) The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.	(17) And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him who hears say, Come. And let him who is thirsty come. And whoever will, let him take the water of life freely.[f] (18) Because I testify to every man who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man will add to these things, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book: (19) And if any man will take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. (20) He Who testifies of these things says, Surely I come quickly. Amen {let it be}. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. (21) The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen {let it be}.

I Chr. 1-3 – Ahaziah, Joash, Amaziah, and Jehoiakim – are omitted by Matthew. The first three: Ahaziah, Joash, and Amaziah were descendants of Athaliah who reigned as a wicked queen following the death of her husband King Jehoram and her son Ahaziah who were assassinated

[II Ki. 11:1-20]. See Appendix G: "World Time Line of Biblical History"

Matthew gives the physical descent of Joseph rather than the legal descent.

Ahaziah [evil] born 3210 AH – began reign 3232 AH – assassinated 3233 AH

Joash [good] born 3232 AH – began reign 3239 [age 7] – reigned 40 years died 3279 AH

Amaziah [good] born 3254 AH – began reign 3279 AH [age 25]

Josiah [good] born 3478 AH - began reign 3487 AH [age 8] – reigned 31 years died 3517 AH

Jehoiakim [evil] born 3493 AH - begins reign 3518 AH [age 25] under taxation of Egypt – taken captive to Babylon in 3520 AH - 3 years after death of Josiah.

In Matthew's birth narrative (chapters 1-2) which includes Jesus' genealogy through Joseph (Jesus' legal genealogy): Joseph's name occurs exactly 7 times: Mat. 1:16,18,19,20,24; Mat. 2:13,19 --- Mary's name occurs exactly 4 times: Mat. 1:16,18,20; 2:11 --- Matthew's genealogy starts with Abraham {patriarch of the Jews} and goes forward to show that Jesus is the fulfillment of the promises made to Abraham for a savior Who would reign forever.
In Luke's birth narrative (chapters 1-3) which includes Jesus' genealogy through Mary (Jesus' blood genealogy): Joseph's name occurs exactly 4 times: Lu. 1:26; 2:4,16; 3:23 --- Mary's name occurs exactly 12 times: Lu. 1:27,30,34,38,39,41,46,56; 2:5,16,19,34 --- Luke's genealogy starts with Jesus and goes backward to Adam to show that Jesus is the savior of all people promised to Adam and Eve in the garden.
David had 4 sons by Bathesheba {I Chr. 3:5} – Mary and Joseph are both descended from David by Bathesheba. Joseph through Bathesheba's son Solomon; Mary through Bathesheba's son Nathan.

Interestingly, Bathesheba isn't called by name in Matthew's account but is referred to as having been the wife of Uriah. This suggests the possibility that Bathesheba deliberately seduced King David – nevertheless, Jesus is descended from her rather than any of David's other wives..

Appendix D
HOW TO BECOME A CHRISTIAN

All the knowledge in the world is unimportant unless you know where you are going to spend eternity. The question is never whether the Lord is on your side; the question is -- are YOU on the Lord's side? If you don't know that you are on the Lord's side, that issue needs to be settled once and for all.

The Lord our God and our Creator has given us commandments to follow. Disobedience to these commandments is sin. According to scripture, even thoughts that are contrary to the Lord's commandments are sin. Also, according to scripture no one has kept every commandment except Jesus Christ God's only Son. God the Father sent His only Son Jesus {God-in-the-flesh} to pay the price for the sins of the world. The promise has been given that anyone who accepts Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Savior will be saved. To be "saved" means that our sins are forgiven and we have the right as "adopted" children of God to enter the kingdom of heaven when we die, or when Jesus comes to take us home at the rapture of the church. It also means we have a special relationship with our heavenly Father now because once we've accepted His Son, His Holy Spirit lives in us to teach us, convict us when we sin, and to give us a glimpse of "heaven on earth."

(6) Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. (John 14:6)	(6) Jesus said to him, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life: no man can come to the Father, except by Me. ({43} John 14:6)

To those who are lost, this seems very narrow minded, but consider this: Suppose someone owed you a lot of money and had no hope of ever having the ability to repay you. Suppose you told that person, "If you will just love and respect my only son, I will cancel all of your debt." Then suppose that person told you, "I will never love or respect your son. I despise Him and all He represents." How would you feel. This is a very good example of how God the Father views those who reject His Son.

The Roman Road to salvation: {From the book of Romans}
A. All have sinned -- We must all acknowledge that we are sinners and have not lived in accordance with the Lord's commands.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: (11) There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. (12) They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. (Rom. 3:10-12)	(10) As it is written, "There is no one who is righteous, no, not one: (11) There is no one who understands, there is no one who seeks after God. (12) They have all gone out of the way, they have all together become unprofitable; there is no one who does good, no, not one."[b] ({45} Rom. 3:10-12)

{Righteous -- means to be right with God and to keep ALL of His commandments -- Jesus said if you have thought a wrong thought you have broken all of the commandments.} [Mat 5:8]

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(20) Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. (21) But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; (22) Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: (23) For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; (Rom. 3:20-23)	(20) Therefore by the deeds of the law no flesh will be justified in His sight: because by the law comes the knowledge of sin. (21) But now the righteousness of God without the law is revealed, being witnessed to by the law and the prophets; (22) Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ to all and upon all those who believe: because there is no difference: (23) Because all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; ({45} Rom. 3:20-23)

B. All deserve to die -- None of us deserves to live or to have eternal life.

King James 1769 Version		King James Paraphrase
(23) For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; (Rom. 3:23)		(23) Because all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; ({45} Rom. 3:23)

C. The price of sin was paid for, for all who believe -- Believe that if you accept God's only Son, Jesus, as your personal Lord and Savior, He has paid the price for your salvation. {To accept Jesus as your personal Lord means that you are sincere in your desire to live in accordance with His commands; to allow Him to be Lord of your life; but also knowing that you can never repay Jesus for the love and mercy He has shone towards you. -- Jesus said,

King James 1769 Version		King James Paraphrase
(15) If ye love me, keep my commandments. (John 14:15)		(15) If you love Me, keep My commandments. ({43} John 14:15)

Salvation means to not have your sins counted against you and the right to spend eternity in heaven -- not because of what you've done, but because of what Jesus has done for you. It is a free gift, totally undeserved, given to everyone who accepts God's Son Jesus as his/her Lord and Savior.

King James 1769 Version		King James Paraphrase
(9) That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. (Rom. 10:9)		(9) That if you will confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and will believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. ({45} Rom. 10:9)

{Believing also means that you believe that Jesus was truly born of a virgin, lived a sinless life, died on the cross for the sins of the world, arose from the dead, and will soon return to take us to be home with Him. If any of these things were not true, then He could not be our savior.}

(21) But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; (22) Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: (23) For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; (Rom. 3:21-23)	(21) But now the righteousness of God without the law is revealed, being witnessed to by the law and the prophets; (22) Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ to all and upon all those who believe: because there is no difference: (23) Because all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; ({45} Rom. 3:21-23)

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, (7) Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. (8) Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin. (Rom. 4:6-8)	(6) Even as David also describes the blessedness of the man, to whom God credits righteousness without works, (7) Saying, "Blessed are those whose sins are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."[b] (8) "Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not count sin."[c] ({45} Rom. 4:6-8)

[cf. Ps. 32:1-2]

(13) And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven. (14) And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: (15) That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. (16) For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. (17) For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. (18) He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. (19) And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. (20) For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. (21) But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. (John 3:13-21)	(13) And no man has ascended up to heaven, but He Who came down from heaven, even the Son of Man Who is in heaven. (14) And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness,[b] even so must the Son of Man be lifted up: (15) That whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life. (16) Because God loved the world so much, that He gave the only Son He has ever fathered, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. (17) Because God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved. (18) He who believes on Him is not condemned: but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the Name of the only fathered Son of God. (19) And this is the condemnation, that light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. (20) Because everyone who does evil hates the light, neither comes to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. (21) But he who does what's right comes to the light, that his deeds may be revealed, that they are done in God. ({43} John 3:13-21)

Do not think to yourself that when you "get your act together" you'll ask the Lord into your life. You can't live a life that is pleasing to Him without His help. Ask for forgiveness and ask Jesus to come into your life. If there is anything in your life that shouldn't be there, He'll take care of it AFTER you've made a commitment to Him.

None of us knows when our life will end and we will stand in the presence of the Lord. It may be years from now; it may be 5 minutes from now. This life is only a testing grounds. It is here your life must count for the Lord. The scriptures state: "Now is the time for decision." [II Cor. 6:2] When this life ends, there will not be another chance!

(38) Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. (Mark 8:38)	(38) Whoever therefore shall be ashamed of Me and of My words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of Man be ashamed, when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels. ({41} Mark 8:38)

Suggested prayer:

Father, I know that I have sinned against You and I have not lived the kind of life I know You want me to live. Please, forgive me for the ways I have failed You. I know that You sent Your Son, Jesus, to pay the price for my salvation and I believe You raised Him from the dead to become King of Kings and Lord of Lords. I believe that one day soon He is coming back again to reign forever and ever. I accept Your Son, Jesus, as my personal Lord and Savior. With Your help, I will strive to live for You and to be the person You want me to be.
Father, let Your Holy Spirit come into my heart and cleanse me from all unrighteousness. I know I do not deserve what Jesus has done for me, but forgive me and help me to live for You every moment of my life. In Jesus' Name I pray. Amen.

If you are sincere and believe the things in this prayer you have the promise of God that your salvation is assured. Your salvation is based on His faithfulness, and He is always faithful.

For those who do not already have an established daily Bible study routine, I would recommend reading {01} Genesis (to get some historical background) followed by {42} Luke. Luke gives Jesus' ministry in chronological order, explains some of the Jewish customs, and shows Jesus as the Savior for all who will accept Him as their Lord. For those with a Jewish background, I would recommend reading {40} Matthew before reading Luke, since Matthew shows Jesus as fulfilling Bible prophecy for the Jews' long awaited Messiah.

{40} Matthew chapters 5 through 7 gives Jesus' sermon on the mount explaining how God wants us to live. The book of {59} James gives us practical applications of the sermon on the mount.

Appendix E
ASSURANCE FOR BELIEVERS

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. (Rom. 10:9)	(9) That if you will confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and will believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. ({45} Rom. 10:9)

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(8) If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. (9) If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (I John 1:8-9)	(8) If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. (9) If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us of our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ({62} I John 1:8-9)

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) If ye love me, keep my commandments. (16) And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; (17) Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. (18) I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. (19) Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. (20) At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.	((15) If you love Me, keep My commandments. (16) And I will ask the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may stay with you forever; (17) Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it does not see Him, neither knows Him: but you know Him; because He lives with you, and shall be in you. (18) I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. (19) Yet a little while, and the world will see Me no more; but you see Me: because I live, you shall live also. (20) At that day you shall know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you.

(21) He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. (John 14:15-21)	(21) He who has My commandments, and keeps them, he it is who loves Me: and he who loves Me shall be loved by My Father, and I will love him, and will reveal Myself to him. ({43} John 14:15-21)

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(5) Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. (Heb. 13:5)	(5) Let your conversation be without covetousness {greed}; and be content with such things as you have: because He has said, I will never leave you, nor forsake you.[a] ({58} Heb. 13:5)

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(11) And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. (12) He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. (13) These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. (I John 5:11-13)	(11) And this is the witness, that God has given to us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. (12) He who has the Son has life; and he who does not have the Son of God does not have life. (13) These things have I written to you who believe on the Name of the Son of God; that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may believe on the Name of the Son of God. ({62} I John 5:11-13)

(40) And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. (John 6:40)	(40) And this is the will of Him Who has sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son, and believes on Him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. ({43} John 6:40)

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(24) Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. (John 5:24)	(24) Truly, Truly, I say to you, He who hears My word, and believes on Him Who sent Me, has everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death into life. ({43} John 5:24)

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(18) For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit: (I Peter 3:18)	(18) Because Christ also has once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive by the Spirit: ({60} I Peter 3:18)

(5) And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him: (6) For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. (7) If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? (8) But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. (9) Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? (10) For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. (Heb. 12: 5-10)	(5) And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to children, My son, do not despise the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when you are rebuked by Him: (6) Because those whom the Lord loves He disciplines, and disciplines every son whom He receives. (7) If you endure discipline, God deals with you as with sons; because what son is he whom the father does not discipline? (8) But if you are without discipline, of which all are partakers, then you are bastards, and not sons. (9) Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh who corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live? (10) Because they truly for a few days disciplined us after their own pleasure; but He for our profit, that we might be partakers of His holiness. ({58} Heb. 12: 5-10)

Our salvation is not based on our faithfulness; if it were we would all loose our salvation. Our salvation is based on the promise of God. He is always faithful even when we are unfaithful to Him. As long as we are in these mortal bodies we will continue to make mistakes, and even at times rebel against God. If we have accepted Jesus Christ as our personal Lord and Savior, He has promised to discipline us to whatever extent is necessary to bring us back into His will. I John 1:8-9 {quoted above} was written to Christians, not unbelievers.

Appendix F
Holiness of Living
{Evidences of Salvation}

I, myself, am acutely aware of how far below God's standard of holiness that I am, that I would never consider passing judgment on someone else -- so anything that you may read here and interpret as judgmental on my part, I apologize for at the very beginning and assure you that is not the case at all. Only by God's grace is there hope for any of us.

King James 1769 Version		King James Paraphrase
(14) Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord: (15) Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled; (Heb. 12:14-15)		(14) Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord: (15) Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up troubles you, and thereby many are defiled; ({58} Heb. 12:14-15)

Christianity is the only religion which states that God so loved the world that He came to earth in human form to teach us how He wants us to live, paid the price for our salvation, and rose from the dead as proof of His power over sin and death. The leaders of all other religions, are in their tombs, but the tomb of Jesus is empty! It has been said that Christianity is not a religion, but a way of life.

(35) By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. (John 13:35)		(35) By this all men shall know that you are My disciples, if you have love one to another. ({43} John 13:35)

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(37) Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. (38) This is the first and great commandment. (39) And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. (40) On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. (Mat. 22:37-40)	(37) Jesus said to him, You shall love the LORD {Jehovah} your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind[d]. (38) This is the first and greatest commandment. (39) And the second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.[e] (40) On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. ({40} Mat. 22:37-40)

Jesus said,"If you love Me, you will keep My commandments." And "a tree is known by the fruits it bears. A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit." Jesus' "Sermon on the Mount" {Matthew chapters 5 and 6} teaches us the attitudes that we must show towards our heavenly Father and those around us. After accepting Jesus as our Lord and Savior He has given the commandment that we make a public profession of faith in Him by submitting to baptism and by attending Christian services where we can learn how He wants us to live.

(38) Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. (Mark 8:38)	(38) Whoever therefore shall be ashamed of Me and of My words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of Man be ashamed, when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels. ({41} Mark 8:38)

King James 1769 Version		King James Paraphrase
(24) And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: (25) Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. (Heb. 10:24-25)		(24) And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and to good works: (25) Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting {encouraging} one another: and so much the more, as you see the day approaching. ({58} Heb. 10:24-25)

It is by worshiping and studying God's word together with other Christians that we are strengthened, receive the proper nourishment, and are encouraged in living the life He has called us to.

Christianity is personal, but it is not private. Love and joy in the Lord that are not shared with others, do not exist! There is no such thing as having love and not sharing it. How much we show our love towards other children of God, and towards unbelievers, is a good indication of just how much we really love Him. I John 4:20 says,

King James 1769 Version		King James Paraphrase
(20) If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? (21) And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also. (I John 4:20-21)		(20) If a man says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar: because he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God Whom he has not seen? (21) And this commandment we have from Him, That he who loves God love his brother also. ({62} I John 4:20-21)

-- A single coal of fire left to itself will soon die out, but coals put together become a blaze of fire. Does this mean that a person who does not regularly attend church is not a Christian? No, but it does mean that if he/she is able and has opportunity to attend church and doesn't, he/she is in rebellion against the Lord as Hebrew 10:25 indicates an is in need of repentance.

Those outside the church often point at the church and say, "That church is full of hypocrites." And in one sense they are right -- none of us fully live up to the life we profess. In fact I John 1:8-9 says:

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(8) If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. (9) If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (10) If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (I John 1:8-10)	(8) If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. (9) If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us of our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (10) If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His Word is not in us.({62} I John 1:8-10)

In the Biblical sense, however, a hypocrite is not one who fails to live up to the commands of the Lord. The Biblical definition of a hypocrite is a person who claims to believe in God, but refuses to make any attempt to live the life He has called us to.

As someone once said: "I'd rather go to church with hypocrites bound for heaven than to not go to church and to be with the other hypocrites bound for hell."

The following are evidences given in the Bible which are "fruits" or indicators of our relationship with the Lord. The evidences of being saved are the goals we as Christians strive for. The evidences of not being saved are hindrances we strive to permanently remove from our lives.

If we are missing some of the evidences of being saved, we should pray that the Lord will help us obtain them. If we have some of the evidences of not being saved, we should admit to the Lord that we have sinned against Him and pray for forgiveness. Having evidences of not being saved does not necessarily mean we aren't saved any more than having some of the evidences of being saved means that we are saved. If we truly have accepted Jesus as our Lord and savior, we have His promise that He will discipline us to whatever extent it it necessary to bring us back into His will. "Those whom the Lord loves, He reproves and disciplines." According to I John it is possible for a child of God to get so far out of the Father's will that He must call that child home to be with Him before he/she does too much damage to His kingdom down here.

We must also be on guard that we do not pass judgment on a fellow believer's salvation. We are commanded to not judge lest we be judged. We are not called to be judges, but we are called to be "fruit inspectors." "We are to hate sin, but love the sinner." For the unbeliever, this is not possible, because he has no understanding of what true love is all about. {This is one reason why the Lord has specifically forbidden believers to intermarry with unbelievers.} [I Cor. 7:39; II Cor. 6:14-15] For the believer, it is sometimes difficult, but we are reminded that the Lord loved us even when we had no love for Him.

Bad things do happen to good people. And often bad people are not punished in this lifetime. But ultimately as Jesus said, we will reap what we sow. We may not understand many things that happen down here in this lifetime. And many things we will not understand until we stand in His presence.

Never be ashamed to admit that you don't know the answers to something. There is only One Who knows the answers to everything. Beware of anyone who claims to have all the answers.

Evidences of Being Saved:

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(12) Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets. (13) Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: (14) Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. (15) Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. (16) Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? (17) Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. (18) A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. (19) Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. (20) Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. (21) Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. (22) Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?	(12) Therefore all things that you would have men do to you, even so you do to them: because this is the law and the prophets. (13) Enter in at the straight gate: because wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leads to destruction, and many there are who enter there: (14) But straight is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leads to life, and there are few who find it. (15) Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. (16) You shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? (17) Even so every good tree brings forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree brings forth bad fruit. (18) A good tree cannot bring forth bad fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. (19) Every tree that does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire. (20) Therefore by their fruits you shall know them. (21) Not every one who says to Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he who does the will of My Father Who is in heaven. (22) Many will say to Me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name and in Your name have cast out devils? and in Your name done many wonderful works?

(23) And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. (24) Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: (25) And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not; for it was founded upon a rock. (26) And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: (27) And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it. (Mat. 7:12-25)	(23) And then will I profess to them, I never knew you: depart from Me, you who do works of sin. (24) Therefore whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will compare him to a wise man, who built his house upon a rock: (25) And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it did not fall; because it was founded upon a rock. (26) And everyone who hears these sayings of Mine, and does not do them, shall be compared to a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand: (27) And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was its fall. ({40} Mat. 7:12-27)

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(23) And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; (24) And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. (Eph. 4:23-24)	(23) And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; (24) And that you put on the new man, which is created after God in righteousness and true holiness. ({49} Eph. 4:23-24)

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(8) Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. (9) Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation. (10) Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. (Mal. 3:8-10)	(8) Will a man rob God? Yet you have robbed Me. But you say, How have we robbed You? In tithes and offerings. (9) You are cursed with a curse: because you have robbed Me, even this whole nation. (10) Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in My house, and prove Me now in this, says the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies}, if I will not open the windows of heaven to you, and pour out a blessing upon you, that there will not be room enough to receive it. ({39} Mal. 3:8-10)

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. (14) For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. (15) But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another. (16) This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. (17) For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. (18) But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.	(13) Because, brothers, you have been called to liberty; only do not use liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. (14) For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; You shall love your neighbor as yourself. (15) But if you bite and devour one another, take heed that you not be consumed by one another. (16) This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. (17) Because the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary to one another: so that you cannot do the things that you want. (18) But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(19) Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, (20) Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, (21) Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. (22) But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, (23) Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. (24) And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. (25) If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. (26) Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another. (Gal. 5: 13-26)	(19) Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, (20) Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, disputes, jealousies, anger, strife, divisions, heresies, (21) Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that those who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. (22) But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, (23) Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. (24) And those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts. (25) If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. (26) Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another. ({48} Gal. 5: 13-26)

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. (8) For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. (9) And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. (10) As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. (Gal. 6:7-10)	(7) Do not be deceived; God is not mocked: because whatever a man sows, that he shall also reap. (8) Because he who sows to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he who sows to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. (9) And let us not be weary in well doing: because in due season we shall reap, if we do not faint. (10) Therefore as we have opportunity, let us do good to all men, especially to those who are of the household of faith. ({48} Gal. 6:7-10)

Note: A tree cannot decide what kind of fruit it will bear. But, the abundance and quality of its fruit is determined to a large extent by whether it receives the proper nourishment. If a person is a Christian, the above fruits will be evidenced. How much they are evidenced is determined both by the individual's willingness to be submissive to the will of the Lord and how much of the proper nourishment he receives. Unlike the tree, a Christian can determine whether he/she will receive the proper nourishment. That nourishment comes through Bible study and fellowship with other believers.

Appendix G

WORLD TIME LINE OF BIBLICAL HISTORY

{With notes and Scriptural references by Sonny Stephens available at: http://www.TheWordNotes.com}

The chronology used in most Bibles is from Archbishop Ussher published in 1650 A.D.. He puts Adam's creation at 4004 B.C. and the exodus at 1491 B.C. The chronology compiled here is based on the Scriptures and the outstanding work of Dr. David L. Cooper, president of the Biblical Research Society. For more information on this subject see his book: Messiah: His First Coming Scheduled, published by the Biblical Research Society, Los Angelos, Ca.. {1939} [See www.biblicalresearch.info] I have personally verified all counts, added Scriptural references, and have both noted and given explanations for the departures from the traditional chronology. B.C. dates given here have been corrected in accordance with Dr. Cooper's findings, except for the 4 year error dating the birth of Christ at 4 B.C. which has been retained in order to keep our present Gregorian calendar intact. Any errors which may be discovered in the B.C. calendar or in our modern Gregorian calendar do not in any way affect the accuracy of the A.H. calendar prior to the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. There is some question even among historians as to the exact year of Jesus' birth. Some say as early as 5 B.C.; others as late as 1 A.D. The commonly accepted 4 B.C. has been accepted here until more evidence proves otherwise.

There are two Biblical events which are subject to at least some degree of interpretation: (1) The first question is whether the Ammonite rule over the eastern bank of the Jordan (2852 A.H.) and the Philistine rule over the rest of Israel (2923 A.H.) were actually concurrent. {At least for the present I am standing by Dr. Cooper's analysis which indicates these events were not concurrent even though this is not commonly accepted.} (2) The second question is whether the reign of Abimelech (2826 A.H.) should be counted as part of the oppression years, since he had no legitimate claim to the judgeship. {Again, I am going with Dr. Cooper's position, that because Abimelech usurped the judgeship, his reign should be counted as part of the oppression years.} I remain open on all of these issues until it can be clearly demonstrated otherwise. Since the oppression years were not counted in the 480 years from the Exodus to Solomon's fourth year (I Ki. 6:1,38), either of these events would affect the over all chronology after Abimelech's judgeship began in 2826 A.H. All dates given unless indicated otherwise are Scripturally accurate to within a year. (Dates in parenthesis are from secular history sources but in no way affect the Biblical chronology.)

A.H. - Anno Hominis -- Year of Man -- figured from the creation of Adam and Eve. This calendar does not correspond to the Jewish C.E. (Creation Event or Common Era) calendar due to the halting of the Jewish calendar during periods of oppression which has created a number of discrepancies. See notes at end of this document. See also: How Long Was Israel In Egypt? in Appendix M.

B.C. - Before Christ - dates can be obtained by subtracting the A.H. date from 4042. {or 4039 if Jesus was born 1 A.D.} The question of the possible concurrent rule of the Ammonites and Philistines [2852 A.H. and 2923 A.H. respectively] would reduce the difference between the traditional 4004 B.C. and 4042 B.C. by 31 years giving a difference of only 7 years. See note at end concerning the 83 year error with modern chronologies.

A.D. - Anno Domini – Year of our Lord – Year of Jesus' birth.

A.H. B.C.

0 (4042) Adam and Eve created (Gen. 1-2)
{4039?}

Cain born to Adam -- undated (Gen. 4:1)
Abel born to Adam -- undated (Gen. 4:2)
[It is possible that Cain and Abel were twins.]

Abel killed by Cain -- undated (Gen. 4:8)

130 (3912) Seth born to Adam age 130 (Gen. 5:3)

{Note that Seth is the third son and it is through his descendants the Savior would come.}

235 (3807) Enosh born to Seth age 105 (Gen. 5:6)

325 (3717) Kenan born to Enosh age 90 (Gen. 5:9)
(May be the root name for Canaan!)

395 (3647) Mahalalel born to Kenan age 70 (Gen. 5:12)

460 (3582) Jared born to Mahalalel age 65 (Gen. 5:15)

622 (3420) Enoch born to Jared age 162 (Gen 5:18)
{Note that Enoch is the seventh generation.}

687 (3355) Methuselah born to Enoch age 65 (Gen. 5:21)
{Methuselah means "It Shall Be Sent." Methuselah died the year of the Great Flood - Enoch knew the flood was coming!}

874 (3168) Lamech born to Methuselah age 187(Gen. 5:25)

930 (3112) Adam's death age 930 (Gen. 5:5)

987 (3055) Enoch taken to heaven age 365 (Gen. 5:23-24)

1042 (3000) Seth's death age 912 (Gen. 5:8)

1056 (2986) Noah born to Lamech age 182 (Gen. 5:28-29)
{Note that Noah is the tenth generation.}
Noah is Methuselah's grandson.

1140 (2902) Enosh's death age 905 (Gen. 5:10-11)
1235 (2807) Kenan's death age 910 (Gen. 5:13-14)
1290 (2752) Mahalalel's death age 895 (Gen. 5:16-17)
1422 (2620) Jared's death age 962 (Gen. 5:20)
1556 (2486) Japheth born to Noah age 500 (Gen. 5:32;
10:21)(It is possible that Japheth and Ham were twins.)
------1558 (2484) Shem born to Noah age 502 (Gen. 11:10)
| (It is also possible that Shem and Ham were twins)
| At first glance at Gen. 5:32 it appears that Shem was
| born when Noah was 500 years old, but because Shem
| was 100 years old two years after the flood {Gen. 11:10}
| We know that Noah was 502 when Shem was born. Shem is listed first in
| Gen. 5:32 because of his importance (as an ancestor of Jesus.) Japheth is
| referred to as the "elder" (oldest) in Gen. 10:21
| 1651 (2391) Lamech's death age 777 (Gen. 5:31)
| 1656 (2386) The Great Flood (also the year of Methuselah's death age 969
| – according to tradition Methuselah died 7 days before the Flood
| Noah is age 600. Gen. 5:28-29; 7:6)
| 1657 (2385) Noah and family leave the ark (1 year and 10 days later) (Gen. 8:13)
----1658 (2384) Arpachshad born to Shem age 100 (Gen. 11:10)
1693 (2349) Shelah born to Arpachshad age 35 (Gen. 11:12)
1723 (2319) Eber born to Shelah age 30 (Gen. 11:14)
1757 (2285) Peleg born to Eber age 34 (Gen. 11:16)
The name Peleg means division and could have been named the year of the Tower of Babel and/or the division of the continents as we know them [The latter is proposed by Dr. Cooper.) [100 years after the end of the flood.]
1787 (2255) Reu born to Peleg age 30 (Gen. 11:18)
1819 (2223) Serug born to Reu age 32 (Gen. 11:20)
1849 (2193) Nahor born to Serug age 30 (Gen. 11:22)
1878 (2164) Terah born to Nahor age 29 (Gen. 11:24)
---- 1948 (2094) Nahor#2 born to Terah age 70 (Gen. 11:26)
| 1996 (2046) Peleg's death age 239 (Gen. 11:19)
| 1997 (2045) Nahor's death age 148 (Gen. 11:25)
| 2006 (2036) Noah's death age 950 (Gen. 9:28-29)
| [349 years after end of the flood.]
| 2008 [1] (2034) Abram born to Terah age 130 (Gen. 11:31-32;
| Gen. 12:4; Acts 7:4) {Note that Abram is the tenth generation from
| Noah.} At first glance at Gen 11:26 it appears that Terah was 70 when
| Abram was born, but since Terah lived to the age of 205 {Gen. 11:32}
| and Abram left for Canaan after Terah's death {Acts 7:4} Terah had
| to be 130 at the time of Abram's birth. Although Nahor#2 is the oldest
| son of Terah, Abraham is listed first in Gen. 11 because of his
| importance. See note on Shem's birth {1558 A.H.} above. [Jewish

| chronologies do not accept Acts 7:4 and therefore assume Terah was only
| 70 when Abram was born.]
| 2018 (2024) Birth of Sarai (Abram's half-sister and future wife; born to Terah
| Abram's father. Abram age 10. Sarai is the daughter of Abram's father,
| but they have different mothers. (Gen. 11:29; Gen. 17:17; 20:12)
| 2026 (2016) Reu's death age 239 (Gen. 11:21)
| 2049 (1993) Serug's death age 230 (Gen. 11:23)
| 2083 (1959) Terah's death age 205 (Gen. 11:31-32)
--1/14/2083 (1959) Abram age 75 called to Canaan, (After Terah's death Acts 7:4)
Covenant made with him, Abram goes to Canaan then to Egypt the same year due to a famine in Canaan.(Gen. 11:32-12:5)
Note that the exact date 1/14 is the date which 430 years later becomes the Passover. (Gal. 3:15-19) (Ex. 12:41)
----2084 (1958) Abram returns to Canaan age 76 (Gen. 16:3,16)

The A.H. dating can be verified Biblically through the year 3589 A.H. when king Cyrus issued the decree to restore Jerusalem [Is. 44:28]; together with the prophecy of Daniel the date of Jesus' crucifixion can be accurately and Biblically determined. {With the three above noted question marks.} By adding the year 1948 A.D. and the four year error in the dating of the birth of Christ (4 B.C.) to the year of Christ's birth 4038 A.H. we can place the re-birth of Israel as a nation in the year 5990 A.H.. I am not completely convinced that the 4 year error at the birth of Jesus is the only error in the Gregorian calendar. Also, it should be noted that because of the overlapping chronologies given for the Northern and Southern kingdoms given in scripture, the dating of the reigns of the kings gives us a chronology during the divided kingdoms of plus or minus half a year. However, after the fall of the Northern kingdom, there is no longer an overlapping chronology for checking. Thus there may be a half-year error for each king's reign from Hezekiah to Jehoiakim {5 kingships} for a total of 2 1/2 years in possible question. An additional note on the A.H. calendar. The A.H. calendar is believed to be a lunar/solar calendar which was adjusted to be kept in line with the solar year. For more information on this subject see the section: "How Long Was a Day In Genesis" at www.TheWordNotes.com.

Additional Notes on chronology of the Old Testament:
The time period from the promise given to Abraham until the Law was given was 430 years. {Galatians 3:16-17} But Genesis 15:13 implies {in English} that Abraham's descendants would be enslaved for 400 years {four generations}. The Jews know that Gen. 15:13 does not mean Israel would be enslaved for 400 years and they correctly note in their teachings that the actual bondage was not 400 years but a couple of hundred years. {They don't know the correct time period because they don't accept the New Testament. Galations 3:17 tells us there were 430 years from the time the promise was given to Abraham until the law was given to Moses.} By subtraction we can determine that Joseph who died at the age of 110 – died 286 years after the covenant was given to Abraham. This means there was only 144 years from the death of Joseph until the Law was given to Moses who was 80 at the time. – Moses parents could well have known Joseph while he was still alive!!

If Genesis 15:13 does not mean the Israelites would be in bondage for 400 years, what is the correct translation? The literal translation goes something like this: Your descendants will be strangers in a land that is not theirs for four hundred years and will also be afflicted. --- Every Jew knows this is correct, but many Christians, especially Protestants get hung up on English translations which by the way they are worded imply 400 years of bondage. The King James version is one of the few versions that gives a correct translation, but it is often misunderstood by those who do not understand 16th century English grammar.

Paul tells us that there were 430 years from the promise to the Law {Galatians 3:16-17}, so where did the 400 year count begin? It began on Isaac's 5th birthday! The promise was given to Abraham when he was 75. Isaac was born 25 years later {Gen. 21:5}. 400 subtracted from 430 leaves 30 years -- 30 years after the promise was given, Isaac was 5 years old. {Note: Ishmael was never counted as a descendant of Abraham.} Why did the count begin when Isaac was 5 years old? - it is commonly believed that the Israelite women nursed their young until about the age of 5 during that time period [Abraham lived to 175 years of age (Gen. 25:7)] – this is commonly believed to be the reason why the 400 years is counted from Isaac's 5 th birthday. Isaac was in a land that did not belong to him!! It became Israel's land when Israel left Egypt. {Although they did not claim it for forty years!}

The four hundred years is a literal time period, but is counted from Isaac's 5th birthday, not from when Israel entered Egypt, nor when Israel became enslaved. There were literally four generations from Isaac to Moses {five counted in the actual ancestral line of Amram {Moses' father}, four for Jochebed {Moses' mother} (Ex. 6:16-20) and others.
The Genesis passage also indicates that a generation is 100 literal years!

Second note on Old Testament Chronology

Daniel 9:25-26 Tells us that from the issuing of the decree by Cyrus {as foretold by Isaiah 44:28} until the Messiah is "cut off" -- literally "executed" will be 69 - sevens – i.e. 483 years. This means that from the decree by Cyrus to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the crucifixion of Jesus was 483 years [If Jesus was 33 as we believe when he was crucified, this means the decree would actually be issued in the year 450 B.C. -- if the calendars were all correct. If you review my chronology I show the year 453 B.C. for the year of the decree because 1) historically there is no year zero B.C. and 2) the common belief is that Jesus was actually born in 4 B.C. rather than 1 A.D. I would not presume that the secular calendars are correct in either case, but I will stand by Daniel's prophecy that 483 years would transpire from the decree by Cyrus to Jesus' execution. There are seven years of unfulfilled prophecy concerning the nation of Israel and Daniel chapter nine gives the reason for those years. {The Revelation and other prophecies give details of those last seven years which are specifically decreed upon the nation of Israel, NOT the church!} It is Daniel's prophecy that allows us to link the secular calendar to the Biblical calendar, and that link is only as good as the accuracy of the secular calendar from the crucifixion of Jesus forward. I'm personally convinced that there are other errors we're not aware of in the secular calendar and possibly some questions about a couple of passages mentioned in my "World Time Line Chart" that gives us a time of over 6000 years from the creation to this date. There are no reliable calendars in existence today, so we probably won't know details until the Lord reveals them to us in His kingdom. It is interesting to note from my chronology that not only were the children of Israel in bondage for 70 years to the nation of the Babylonians, but the temple which was destroyed 19 years after the captivity began, was not completely rebuilt until 19 years after the captivity ended and thus the temple was non-existent for 70 years. Thus the 70 years foretold by Jeremiah 25:12 were doubly fulfilled.

The A.D. [Anno Domini – year of the Lord] calendar was created by Dionysius Exiguus around 525 A.D. which originally set the birth of Jesus at 1 A.D.. Most modern chronologies are based on Archbishop Ussher's chronology which incorporates calculations by Claudis Ptolemy (90 A.D. - 168 A.D.) which has known errors on the reigns of Persian kings. Consequently they have an 83 year error dating the decree of Cyrus to restore and rebuild Jerusalem and ending the Babylonian exile. Due to the 83 year error most modern theologians try to claim that the decree to restore Jerusalem was actually issued by Ahasuerus later to force the traditional chronology to fit with the crucifixion of Jesus. However, Isaiah 44:28 makes it clear that Cyrus is the one who issued the decree. The chronology given here does not acknowledge secular chronologies, but relies 100% upon scripture with the three question marks given in the introduction.

Our own Gregorian calendar was modified in 1582 A.D. By decree of Pope Gregory XIII in 1582 A.D., Thursday, Oct. 4, 1582 A.D. {Julian day -- 2299159} was followed by Friday, Oct. 15, 1582 A.D. {Julian day -- 2299160} to re-align the calendar to the vernal {spring} equinox. He also changed century years to not be leap years unless divisible by 400 {1900 was not a leap year; 2000 was}. These changes were not adopted by England or the colonies until 1752 A.D.

The construction of the modern Jewish calendar during the second temple {around 430 B.C. to 70 A.D.} was done secretly by a handful of men on the Sanhedrin {which in my opinion was modified following Jesus' resurrection to not call attention to His fulfillment of Biblical prophecy} and the calendar construction was made public in the fourth century A.D. out of fears the calendar information might be lost due to the dispersion of the Jews.

Reckoning Jacob's age:

Jacob was 147 when he died, he had lived 17 years in Egypt [Gen 47:28]
He came to Egypt in the 2nd year of the famine at the age of 130 [147-17] [Gen. 45:6]
-- Joseph was 39 [30 + 7 +2]
Jacob was 91 when Joseph was born [130 - 39]
Jacob had been in the east 14 years when Joseph was born [Gen. 45:6; 47:28; 30:26; 31:41]
Jacob was 77 when he fled from Esau [91 - 14]
Isaac was 60 when Jacob was born [Gen 25:26]
Abraham was 100 when Isaac was born [Gen. 21:15]
Abraham was 175 when he died -- Jacob and Esau would have been 15 at the time.

Appendix H: Does Isaiah 7:14 refer to a virgin? -- Yes!!!

Concerning the use of the Hebrew word "alma" {העלמה} - literally 'the virgin'

First let me say that I believe that Jesus truly was born of a virgin and truly God. If He wasn't, then He was not 'without sin' and He could not be our Savior. I strongly disagree that the Hebrew word 'alma {עלמה} does not specifically mean virgin. Modern 'pop' theology has too long quoted misled, unscholarly men without taking the time to actually examine the Biblical text. I am quoting the following quote verbatim from the Hebrew-Greek Key Word Study Bible, copyright 1991 by AMG International, Inc, and edited by Spiros Zodhrates which gives probably the most concise arguments I have seen related to this issue. Please note section (1) concerning the Hebrew. At the end of the quote, I am including the verses cited in King James Version, my own King James Paraphrase, and the Hebrew [with an inter-linear translation to assist those who know some Hebrew to examine the text for themselves]. I have also added the Hebrew and Greek words referenced in the quote in { }.

"Is. 7:14 The famous prophecy of Christ's virgin birth is contained in this verse. The events of chapter seven occurred about 734 B.C. Isaiah was sent to King Ahaz with areassuring word (Is. 7:4-9), but Isaiah's word also challenged him to exercise faith in God during this crisis (cf Hezekiah's response in Is. 36-38). The Lord generously offered to grant a sign to Ahaz to bolster his faith (Is. 7:11) However in this crisis, Ahaz was not trusting in God, but in his alliance with Assyria (2 Kgs. 16:7-9). His reply, "I will not ask ..." was pure hypocrisy (v. 14) Few passages have provoked such controversy as this verse, even among those who hold to a conservative viewpoint. Recent studies have a uniform tendency to downplay the miraculous aspects, and rationalize that this verse is a prophecy that some young woman would shortly bear a child in the normal way, and the brief time of his youth would see the downfall of those countries now threatening Judah and King Ahaz. It is believed that these approaches do not do justice to the text, and some reasons are summarized below.

(1) The meaning of the Hebrew word {העלמה} 'almah (5959 [Strong's Concordance number]). It has become commonplace to suggest that 'almah {עלמה} does not mean virgin, and that in fact, had Isaiah meant "virgin," he would have used the Hebrew word bethula {בתולה} (1330). The facts of the language are otherwise. {emphasis added} 'Almah {עלמה} is the clearest word Isaiah could have chosen to convey the idea of virginity. There is no appearance of 'almah {עלמה} in the OT where the meaning “virgin” cannot be used. Bethulah {בתולה}, on the other hand often needs qualification to clarify whether or not "virgin” is intended (e.g., Gen. 24:16, where Rebekah is described as a "virgin" [bethulah] {בתולה}, "neither had any man known her." Note that

'almah, {עלמה }which occurs later in the same context [Gen. 24:43], needs no such qualification. The qualification is doubtless needed because bethulah {בתולה}, unlike 'almah {עלמה}, can sometimes refer to a married woman [Deut. 22:23-24; Joel 1:8].)

It is evident that 'almah {עלמה} ought indeed be translated "virgin" on the basis of Hebrew usage. But this is not the extent of the argument. The Greeks, who translated the OT into their language hundreds of years before Christ, had no question; they translated Isaiah 7:14 in the Septuagint, with the Greek word parthenos {ἡ παρθένος}, the word for "virgin." Finally, the Holy Spirit affirmed this as the meaning when He guided Matthew to use parthenos {παρθένος} when quoting Isaiah 7:14 in Matthew 1:23.

(2) The meaning of the word {אות} 'oth (224), "sign." Those who suggest that the birth mentioned in Isaiah 7:14 would be a normal birth contradict the significance of 'oth. This word never refers to ordinary events, but always to special or distinctive actions or things. With reference to God, it is commonly translated as, or understood to refer to, "miracle." This is particularly true of its uses in Isaiah, which, aside from this context, are concentrated with reference to God's miraculous sign of the sundial (chaps. 37;38), and with God's miraculous millennial dealings with Israel (chaps. 55;56). Therefore, the "sign" would need to be something extraordinary, not merely the normal birth of a male child who would live to see the downfall of Syria. It certainly would not be the defeat of Syria and Israel by Assyria! That was the very thing Ahaz was scheming to do without God's involvement!

(3) The specific reference of the prophecy. One must note that after Ahaz refuses a sign, God does not address him again. Verse fourteen is addressed to the whole "house of David." This immediately takes us beyond a rigid focus on the current scene. Moreover, the language of the announcement "Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bring forth ..." is reminiscent of pagan phraseology used to announce the birth of "gods." It is not suggested that Isaiah is likening Christ's birth to that of some pagan idol, merely that the idol-worshiping Ahaz would recognize the significance of the prophecy. Note also that both 'virgin' in verse fourteen and "child" in verse sixteen have the definite article. It is agreed that these articles of general reference, and that "a virgin" is the proper translation in verse fourteen. But note what happens if we translate "a child" in verse sixteen. The prophetic verse makes excellent sense on its own as a statement about the length of the crisis, with no reference to verse fourteen. One must also observe that the Hebrew word {בן} ben (1121), which means "son," is used in verse fourteen, while a completely different Hebrew word, {הנער} "na'ar" (5288), meaning "young man," appears in verse sixteen.

(4) The child born. The name is "Immanuel," or "God with us." He cannot be just any child for in Isaiah 8:8 (and probably 8:10), "Immanuel" is presented as the true owner of the land (cf. the implications of Lev. 25:23), and the one who will vanquish Assyria. Further, the "son" to be born is mentioned again in Isaiah 9:6 and 11:1-5, and is clearly seen there to be a divine Person, No child of normal parentage could be so understood; certainly not the child of Isaiah or Ahaz, as some commentators have suggested.

(5) The nature of messianic prophecy. Throughout the OT, passages of messianic importance are presented without chronological separation or distinction. Peter explicitly states that the prophets were ignorant regarding when the messianic prophecies would be fulfilled (I Peter 1:10-12). It was indeed this prophecy of Isaiah 7:14 itself which was to be a sign. Its mysterious reference to a virgin birth would remain (as it did) to challenge students of God's word until the proper time came for it to be fulfilled."

Isaiah 7:14 [Septuagint]

διὰ τοῦτο δώσει κύριος αὐτὸς ὑμῖν σημεῖον· ἰδοὺ ἡ παρθένος ἐν γαστρὶ ἕξει καὶ τέξεται through this He shall give the Lord Himself to you a sign behold the virgin in the womb shall conceive and bear

υἱόν, καὶ καλέσεις τὸ ὄνομα αὐτοῦ Εμμανουηλ·

a son and call the name of Him Immanuel

See Isaiah 62:4

Note: The group of men who made changes in the Hebrew and Greek texts in the late 1800's rejected the deity of Jesus. See New Age Versions and Hazardous Materials by Dr. G.A. Riplinger. See also: Look What's Missing by David Daniels and Appendix I: Examples of Missing Words and Verses of Scripture in Modern Translations.

One further note: Matthew was a tax collector. As such he had to be proficient in both the Hebrew and Greek languages as well as having a thorough knowledge of both systems of weights and measures and how they related to each other. There are passages which suggest that Matthew may have actually originally written his gospel in Hebrew and then translated it into Greek. Certainly the genealogy of Joseph was in all probability in Hebrew and although it is primarily a list of names, still required translating into Greek.

To say that Isaiah 7:14 does not refer specifically to a virgin accuses Matthew {Mat. 1:23} of not being led by the Holy Spirit and suggests that his gospel is not inspired by God and that Matthew himself was ignorant of his own native language and also the New Testament Greek language his gospel was written in. If Matthew was wrong, we have to throw out the entire Bible as being inspired by God and there is no longer any basis of salvation. -- I believe that Matthew knew exactly what he was saying and that he was led by the Holy Spirit and ALL scripture is inspired by God and without error in any form.

Appendix I: Examples of Missing Words and Verses of Scripture in Modern Translations

For more information see my article: Holy Bible vs New Age Bible at: http://www.TheWordNotes.com
And these books: New Age Bible Versions and Hazardous Material by Dr. G.A. Riplinger {www.avpublications.com} and Look What's Missing by David Daniels {www.chick.com}.

Note: These books cannot be purchased in most book stores, but must be purchased online at the websites given. {Too much money is at stake for most book stores to carry the books!}

Here I am comparing the KJV with the NIV, [simply because I personally used the NIV for many years] however, you can check any modern version (HCSB, NIV,CEV, ESV, NASB, NKJV, TLB, etc.) and the results will be the same because they are all based on the same corrupted Hebrew and Greek texts which were mutilated in the late 1800's. Both Daniels and Riplinger have put verses in parallel, side-by-side, as I have done here to demonstrate literally hundreds of changes that have been made to our Bibles. I've been told, but have not personally verified that new publications of the King James Version are also being mutilated by some publishers. Riplinger in her book points out the individuals involved in many of the changes and how the changes reflect the new age movement and Satan's attempts to attribute God's attributes to himself.

It is because of these discoveries that I began my own King James Version/King James Paraphrase Parallel Bible which is available free of charge at: http://www.TheWordNotes.com

(36) And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? (37) And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. (38) And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. (Acts 8:36-38 KJV)	(36) As they traveled along the road, they came to some water and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water. Why shouldn't I be baptized?" (37) And he gave orders to stop the chariot. Then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water and Philip baptized him. (Acts 8:36-38 NIV)

Note that in modern translations Acts 8:37 is missing altogether

Look at the above scriptures and notice what has been left out of the modern translations. Then ask yourself these questions:

1) Is Philip's answer to the Ethiopian eunuch important?

2) Is the eunuch's reply to Philip important?

3) Do you really believe the Bible is the inspired word of God?

4) Is it unacceptable to take words out of the Bible just because you don't believe them?

If your answer to any of the above questions is: yes, you owe it to yourself, your loved ones, your friends, and your church to investigate what is happening to our Bibles. Bible teachers and ministers all over the world today are encouraging people to spend time reading their Bibles not realizing that the Bibles they may be reading may be leading them away from a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ and towards a "universal" religion.

(12) How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! (Is. 14:12 KJV)	(12) How you have fallen from heaven, O morning star, son of the dawn! You have been cast down to the earth, you who once laid low the nations!" (Is. 14:12 NIV)

Notice that "morning star" is substituted for Lucifer, but Jesus is the "morning star" (Rev. 22:16) not Satan.

(54) And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elijah did? (55) But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. (56) For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village. (Luke 9:54-56 KJV)	(54) When the disciples James and John saw this, they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call fire down from heaven to destroy them?" (55) But Jesus turned and rebuked them, (56) and they went to another village. (Luke 9:54-56 NIV)

Notice that Jesus' answer is omitted altogether!

(8) And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. (Luke 4:8 KJV)	(8) Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Worship the Lord your God and serve him only." (Luke 4:8 NIV)

Notice that part of Jesus' words are omitted. Satan doesn't want to draw attention to his opposition to Jesus.

(3) His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. (4) For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world. (5) For neither did his brethren believe in him. (6) Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready. (7) The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. (8) Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come. (9) When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. (10) But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. (John 7:3-10 KJV)	(3) Jesus' brothers said to him, "You ought to leave here and go to Judea, so that your disciples may see the miracles you do, (4) No one who wants to become a public figure acts in secret. Since you are doing these things, show yourself to the world." (5) For even his own brothers did not believe in him. (6) Therefore Jesus told them, "The right time for me has no yet come, for you anytime is right. (7) the world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify that what it does is evil. (8) You go to the Feast. I am not yet going up to this Feast, because for me the right time has not come." (9) Having said this, he stayed in Galilee. (10) However, after his brothers had left for the Feast, he went also, not publicly but in secret. (John 7:3-10 NIV)

Notice that in verse 8 Jesus said: "I go not up yet unto this feast." – The most modern translations leave out the word "yet" implying that Jesus lied because in verse 10 it clearly says He went up to the feast. The NIV does put the word "yet" in the text, but footnotes: "Some early manuscripts do not have yet."

(16) And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshiped God, (17) Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned. (Rev. 11:16 KJV)	(16) And the twenty-four elders, who were seated on their thrones before God, fell on their faces and worshiped God, (17) saying: We give thanks to you Lord God Almighty, the One who is and who was. Because you have taken your great power and have begun to reign. (Rev. 11:16-17 NIV)

Note that the phrase: "art to come" has been omitted in the modern translations – also note that this occurs also in Revelation 16:5

(1) The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God; (2) As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee. (3) The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. (Mark 1:1-3 KJV)	(1) The beginning of the gospel about Jesus Christ, the Son of God. (2) It is written in Isaiah the prophet: "I will send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way." (3) "a voice of one calling in the desert, 'Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him.' " (Mark 1:1-3 NIV)

Note that modern translations insert the name "Isaiah" in verse 2 creating an "intentional" error. The quote is actually from two verses Malachi 3:1 and Is. 40:3. Interestingly, the New King James version puts "Isaiah" as a footnote.

(2) And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth. (3) Give us day by day our daily bread. (4) And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. (Luke 11:2-4 KJV)	(2) He said to them, "When you pray, say: 'Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come. (3) Give us each day our daily bread. (4) Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us. And lead us not into temptation." (Luke 11:2-4 NIV)

Notice what's missing!

(14) For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, (15) Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, (Eph. 3:14 KJV)	(14) For this reason I kneel before the Father, (15) from whom his whole family in heaven and on earth derives its name. (Eph. 3:14 NIV)

Note: new versions consistently leave out references to the Lord Jesus. We know that "Father" in verse 14 is a reference to Jesus' Father, but Satan wants to claim that name for himself.

(32) Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? (John 10:32 KJV)	(32) but Jesus said to them, "I have shown you many great miracles from the Father. For which of these do you stone me?" (John 10:32 NIV)

Modern translations consistently leave out references to "my" Father and change them to "the" Father.

(2) Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. (II Thes. 1:2 KJV)	(2) Grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. (II Thes. 1:2 NIV)

Modern translations consistently omit the fact that He is also "our" Father.

(9) After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. (10) Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. (11) Give us this day our daily bread. (12) And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. (13) And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen. (Mat. 6:9-13 KJV)	(9) This, then, is how you should pray: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, (10) your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. (11) Give us today our daily bread. (12) Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. (13) And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from the evil one. (Mat. 6:9-13 NIV)

Modern translations omit that the kingdom that is forever is God's kingdom.

(44) But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; (Mat. 5:44 KJV)	(44) But I tell you: Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you. (Mat. 5:44 NIV)

Notice what's missing.

(13) But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in. (14) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation. (15) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves. (Mat. 23:13-15 KJV)	(13) Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the kingdom of heaven in men's faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you lot those enter who are trying to. (15) Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees; you hypocrites! You travel over land and sea to win a single convert, and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of hell as your are. (Mat. 23:13-15 NIV)

Notice what's missing.

(21) For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. (II Peter 1:21 KJV)	(21) For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit. (II Peter 1:21 NIV)

Notice that "holy" is missing.

(39) (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.) (John 7:39 KJV)	(39) By this he meant the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were later to receive. Up to that time the Spirit had not been given, since Jesus had not yet been glorified. (John 7:39 NIV)

Notice that "holy" is missing.

(38) But in his estate shall he honor the God of forces[n]: and a god whom his fathers did not know he shall honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. (Dan. 11:38 KJV)	(38) Instead of them, he will honor a god of fortresses; a god unknown to his fathers he will honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts. (Dan. 11:38 NIV)

Notice the subtle change

(30) And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, (Acts 10:30 KJV)	(30) Cornelius answered: "Four days ago I was in my house praying at this hour, at three in the afternoon, Suddenly a man in shining clothes stood before me. (Acts 10:30 NIV)

Notice that "fasting" is almost always, if not always omitted in the modern translations.

And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS. (Matt. 1:25 KJV)	(25) But he had no union with her until she gave birth to a son. And he gave him the name Jesus. (Matt. 1:25 NIV)

Notice that "firstborn" is omitted in the modern translations.

(11) And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. (John 17:11 KJV)	(11) I will remain in the world no longer, but they are still in the world, and I am coming to you, Holy Father, protect them by the power of your name – the name you gave me – so that they may be one as we are one. (John 17:11 NIV)

Notice the meaning is completely changed.

(4) And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God. (Luke 4:4 KJV)	(4) Jesus answered, "It is written: ' Man does not live on bread alone'" (Luke 4:4 NIV)

Notice what's missing.

(13) Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: (14) In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: (Col. 1:13-14 KJV)	(13) For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, (14) in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. (Col. 1:13-14 NIV)

Notice that "his blood" is almost always missing in modern translations.

(24) And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honor into it. (Rev. 21:24 KJV)	(24) The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their splendor into it. (Rev. 21:24 NIV)

Notice what's missing.

(6) This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth. (7) For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. (8) And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one. (I John 5:6-8 KJV)	(6) This is the one who came by water and blood – Jesus Christ. He did not come by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. (7) For there are three that testify (8) the Spirit, the water and the blood; and the three are in agreement. (I John 5:6-8 NIV)

Notice what's missing

(24) And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! (Mark 10:24 KJV)	(24) The disciples are amazed at his words. But Jesus said again, "Children how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! (Mark 10:24 NIV)

Notice that it hard for those trusting in riches, but the modern translations imply it is hard for everyone.

(18) Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, (Col. 2:18 KJV)	(18) Do not let anyone who delights in false humility and the worship of angels disqualify you for the prize. Such a person goes into great detail about what he has seen, and his unspiritual mind puffs him up with idle notions. (Col. 2:18 NIV)

Notice the modern translations say the exact opposite!

(21) The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen. (Rev. 22:21 KJV)	(21) The grace of the Lord Jesus be with God's people. Amen. (Rev. 22:21 NIV)

Notice that "the" is substituted for "our"

(28) And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favored, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. (Luke 1:28 KJV)	(28) The angel went to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favored! The Lord is with you." (Luke 1:28 NIV)

Notice what's missing.

And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the marketplaces, (Mar 12:38 KJV)

If you have a n old King James Version lying around somewhere – hold on to it, before many years, many of the scriptures may be unrecognizable!

Appendix J: Bible Weights and Measures

Note: Some Biblical weights and measures are well documented and understood such as the cubit. Others such as the dram seem to have various weights depending on who you check with. Still others perhaps including the talent may have actually changed values through the years. The units of measure given here are the ones used throughout the King James Paraphrase.

Most measures come from: http://www.bibleresourcecenter.org and others

Lengths/Distances

Rod (Reed) 9 ft. = 6 cubits = 3 paces = 21 spans = 36 handbreadths = 144 fingers
(In Ezekiel a Reed is 6 long cubits [22 inches] for a total of 11 ft.)
pace = 3 ft. = 2 cubits = 4 spans = 6 handbreadths = 48 fingers cubit = 1.5 ft = 6 handbreadths = 24 fingers = 0.457 meters span = 9 in = 3 handbreadths = 12 fingers = 23 centimeters handbreadth = 4 in. = 4 fingers = 10 centimeters finger = .75 in
A day's journey = 20 miles {26 miles according to some}
A sabbath day's journey = 2,000 cubits {Jewish Targum}; 3,000 feet; 0.56 miles; 0.91 km Distance from top of the Mount of Olives to the east gate of Jerusalem {Acts 1:12} some distance = 5 miles a Roman mile = 4,854 feet
a stadion (furlong) = 606 feet.
a fathom = 6 ft.
foot = 0.3048 meters
meter = 39.37 inches = 2.187 cubits = 3.281 ft mile = 1.609 kilometers

Weights

a talent = 75.6 lbs = 34.3 kilograms = 60 minas = 3000 shekels = 60,000 gerahs a mina = 1.26 lbs = 571.2 grams = 50 shekels = 1000 gerahs a shekel = 0.4 ounces = 11.4 grams = 2 bekahs = 20 gerahs a pim = 2/3 shekel = 0.27 ounces = 7.8 grams
a bekah = 10 gerahs = 0.2 ounces = 5.7 grams dram - about 0.154 ounces or about 4.37 grams gerah = .57 grams = 0.02 ounces pound = 0.454 kilograms

Dry measures

homer {cor} [also spelled kor] = 10 ephahs = 222 liters = 6.25 bushels = 240 quarts = about 60 gallons ephah = 22.2 liters = 24 quarts = 3 pecks seah = 2 hins = 7.3 liters = 8 quarts = 1 peck = 2 gallons omer = 0.1 ephah = 2.2 liters = 2.3 quarts bushel = 4 pecks = 8 gallons = 32 quarts = 30.2 liters cab = 1/6 seah = about 1 1/3 quarts; 43 ounces; 1.2 liters

Liquid measures

homer = 10 baths = 220 liters = 58 gallons bath = 22 liters = 5.8 gallons hin = 1/6 bath = 3.6 liters = 1 gallon log = 1/12 hin = .35 liters = .63 pints firkin = about 9 US gallons or 7.5 imperial gallons {UK}

Appendix K: What Day of the Week Was Jesus Crucified?

There has been much controversy through the years as to what day of the week Jesus was actually crucified. The fact is that the gospels clearly tell us what day it was, but the problem is that most English speaking Christians have forgotten how the Jewish calendar works. For the Jews the new day begins at evening [not midnight]. This goes back to the first chapter of Genesis: "there was evening and there was morning the first day…" [Gen. 1:5]; "there was evening and there was morning the second day…" [Gen. 1:8], etc.

Matthew and Mark both plainly tell us that Jesus was taken off the cross at evening – this means that the new day had begun. The only question remaining is whether this "new day" was the "sabbath" or "the day of preparation" and Mark, Luke, and John answer that question.

If Jesus was crucified on Friday, as most traditions say that He was, then the evening {of the new day} that Jesus was taken down off the cross was the sabbath which begins Friday evening. If Jesus was crucified on Thursday then the evening {of the new day} that He was taken down off the cross was the "day of preparation" [which began the Thursday evening] which was the day before the sabbath. The scriptures speak for themselves.

{40} Matthew
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(57) When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathaea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: (58) He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. (59) And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, (60) And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed. {Mat. 27:57-60 KJV}	(57) When the evening had come, there came a rich man of Arimathaea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:[j] (58) He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. (59) And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, (60) And laid it in his own new tomb,[k] which he had cut out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. {Mat. 27:57-60 KJP}

{41} Mark
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(42) And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, (43) Joseph of Arimathaea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus. {Mark 15:42-43 KJV}	(42) And now when the evening had come, because it was the preparation {day},[f] that is, the day before the sabbath {Saturday}, (43) Joseph of Arimathaea, an honorable counselor, who also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly to Pilate, and requested the body of Jesus.[g] {Mark 15:42-43 KJP}

{42} Luke
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(50) And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just: (51) (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Arimathaea, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God. (52) This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. (53) And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid. (54) And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on. {Luke 23:50-54 KJV}	(50) And, there was a man named Joseph,[c] a counselor; and he was a good and just man: (51) (This same {man} had not consented to the counsel and their deed;) he was of Arimathaea, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.[d] (52) This man went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. (53) And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a tomb that was cut in stone, in which no man before had lain.[e] (54) And that day was the preparation,[f] and the sabbath {Saturday} was drawing near. {Luke 23:50-54 KJP}

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(31) The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. {John 19:31 KJV}	(31) The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation,[g] that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath {Saturday}, (because that sabbath day {Saturday} was a high holy day,) requested of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. {John 19:31 KJP}

{43} John
(41) Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid. (42) There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand. {John 19:41-42 KJV}	(41) Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb, in which no man had yet laid.[l] (42) There they laid Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day;[m] because the tomb was near at hand.{John 19:41-42 KJP}

Jesus was crucified on Thursday; Thursday evening began "the day of preparation". Jesus lay in the tomb Thursday night, Friday night, and Saturday night and on the third day He arose just as He said He would. The "day of preparation" was to prepare for Sunday the day of the "First Fruits Offering" according to Leviticus 23 – later to be called "Easter." The Jews could not "prepare" on the sabbath so a special day was set aside for that purpose the day before the sabbath. {For calendar purposes the new day for the Jews begins at 6:00 p.m. - for prophetic purposes 6 p.m. Jerusalem time.}

This means Jesus hung on the cross the day of the Passover which began Wednesday evening and extended to Thursday evening. The Modern Jewish calendar was changed after Jesus lifetime to not allow modern Jewish Passover to be on Wednesday!! See my notes on the construction of the modern Jewish calendar {The Jewish Calendar} at www.TheWordNotes.com.

Lamb presented on Nisan 10 {Palm Sunday}. -- Ex. 12:2-5

In the fourteenth day of the first month {Nisan [Mar.-Apr.]} at evening is the LORD's {Jehovah's} Passover. Lev. 23:5 KJP

{40} Matthew
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(40) For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. Mat. 12:40	(40) Because as Jonah was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. {40} Mat. 12:40

Note: the new day begins at evening – see Genesis 1 – so the Passover began at 6 p.m. Wednesday {Jesus celebrated the Passover meal with His disciples Wednesday evening}; the day of Preparation began at 6 p.m. Thursday {Jesus was taken off the cross Thursday evening}; the Sabbath began at 6 p.m. Friday {Jesus could not be touched or taken off the cross on the Sabbath}. If you say Jesus was buried on Jewish Friday {which begins 6 p.m. Thursday) you are correct. If you say He was buried on English {Gregorian} Friday, you are accusing Jesus of lying.

Note: On the modern Jewish calendar, Nisan can never begin on a Friday and Passover has been moved to Nisan 15. {It is the opinion of this author that the calendar was changed by the Sanhedrin following Jesus' resurrection.} See note on The Jewish Calendar at www.TheWordNotes.com

Note: Jonathan Cahn a Messianic Jewish Rabbi in his book: Book of Mysteries called my attention to the fact that Palm Sunday was on Nisan 10 {see Exodus chapter 12}. After looking at the calendar presented above, I realized that my calendar and his were an exact match for that date.

On Palm Sunday God was saying, "This is My Lamb that will be sacrificed on the Passover.

Rosh Hashanah- The Jewish New Year on their modern calendar. The first day of the month of Tishri. The seventh month of the Jewish calendar. The required time for the blowing of the trumpets. (Lev. 23:20) Rosh Hashanah will always occur in September or October of the year. 100 trumpet blasts will be sounded. 3 tones; three times - for a total of 9 will be sounded 11 times for a total of 99; followed by a pause - only the one blowing the trumpet will know when the "last trumpet" will sound for 100.
Yom Kippur- The Day of Atonement, the tenth day of the seventh month (Tishri) (Lev.23:27)
Succoth- Feast of Tabernacles- begins the 15th day of the seventh month (Lev. 23:34)
Hanukah- Beginning of the Jewish Feast of Lights (not an Old Testament Holy Day, but included here because it is considered holy to modern Jews. Also referred to as the Feast of Dedication [Jn. 10:22]

Christmas- a holy day to Christians, although the exact day of Jesus' birth is questionable
New Year (Gregorian -- January 1) added for reference purposes only
Purim (Adar 14 or Adar II 14) – Esther 9:21-27
Nisan 1- The first day of the first month of the year
{First month according to Exodus 12:2}
Nisan 14- Biblical Passover (Lev. 23:5)
Nisan 15- Modern Jewish Passover
Easter {Biblical} - First Fruits Offering- Sunday following the first Saturday which occurs on or after the Biblical Passover in accordance with the holy day of Jesus' resurrection. (Lev. 23:10-11)
Easter {Modern}- The first Sunday, after the fourteenth day of the ecclesiastical moon {nearly full moon} which occurs on or after the vernal equinox. Easter is computed according to the Gregorian method after 1582 A.D. [Easter can occur any time from March 22 to April 25.]
Israel's Birth-Jewish - Israel's re-birth on the Jewish Calendar {Iyar 5}
Israel's Birth-Gregorian - Israel's re-birth on the Gregorian Calendar {May 14}
Shavouth- 50 days from Modern Passover - Jewish Pentecost
Pentecost- 50 days from Modern Easter - Biblical Pentecost
Ab 9- the 9th of the month of Ab, the day which according to Jewish tradition is the exact day that both temples were destroyed.

The Gregorian Date is our modern Gregorian calendar. The Julian Star Date used by observatories and for space flights is computed from the arbitrary date of Jan. 1, 4713 B.C., at noon Greenwich mean time. The Reference Date can be computed by subtracting 2432685 from the astronomical Julian Star Date.
The tables that follow come from the Reference Day Calendar Day Data at www.TheWordNotes.com. The data is available for 1947 A.D. to 2100 A.D. at www.TheWordNotes.com. Note: Rosh Hashanah, 5778 C.E. is on a Thursday – this means it actually starts at 6:00 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 20, 2017 A.D. and ends Thursday, Sept. 21, 2017.
The Jewish day begins at 6:00 in the evening not midnight as on the Gregorian calendar.

Appendix M: How Long Was Israel in Egypt?

Chronology according to Jewish tradition {from The Comprehensive Hebrew Calendar, by Arthur Spier, Feldheim Publishers, Jerusalem/New York, 1981, page 21}

Year	{A.H. - Anno Hominis – "Year of Man"}
1	Adam
1057	Noah	1056 years from the creation of man to Noah
1949	Abraham	892 years from Noah to Abraham *
2049	Isaac	100 years from Abraham to Isaac
2239	Entrance into Egypt	190 years from Isaac to the Entrance to Egypt
2449	The Exodus	210 years from Egypt to Exodus

The above chronology demonstrates that the Jews know and understand that Israel was only in Egypt a little over 200 years. This chronology has two errors in it because the Jews do not accept the New Testament which we will discuss in these notes. The first error is dating the birth of Abraham at 1949 A.H. {Anno Hominis – "Year of Man" counted from creation of Adam}- which was actually 2008 A.H. This error comes from the assumption that Abraham was born when Terah was 70 years old and is based on Gen 11:26. Abraham is named first in Gen. 11:26 because of his importance {a similar listing is in Gen. 5:32 with Shem, Ham, and Japheth where Shem is listed first even though the scriptures plainly tell us that Japheth was the oldest Gen.10:2, 21}, [the genealogy in Genesis chapter 10 demonstrates that Shem was in fact the youngest.] but Abraham wasn't born until Terah was 130 years old. We know this because Stephen in Acts 7:4 tells us that Abraham left Haran after his father Terah's death and Terah was 205 {205 – 75 = 130} when he died and Abraham was 75 at the time.

{01} Genesis
(26) And Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Gen. 11:26 KJV	(26) And Terah lived seventy years, and fathered Abram, Nahor, and Haran {1948 A.H./C-2094 B.C.}.[f] {01} Gen. 11:26 KJP

11:26f - Terah at age 70 fathered Nahor, Abram was born when Terah was 130 (Gen. 11:31-32; Gen. 12:4; Acts 7:4) Abram is named first because of His importance. - See note on Gen. 5:32. We know this because Acts 7:4 tells us that Abram went to Canaan at age 75 after his father's death and Terah died at the age of 205 [see Gen. 11:32].
See Appendix G: World Time Line of Biblical History

{01} Genesis
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(32) And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran. (Gen. 11:32)	(32) And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran {2083 A.H./C-1959 B.C.}.[h] {01} Gen. 11:32 KJP

{44} Acts
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(2) And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran, (3) And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee. (4) Then came he out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell. Acts 7:2-4 KJV	(2) And he {Stephen} answered, Men, brothers, and fathers, listen; The God of glory appeared to our forefather Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran[a], (3) And said to him, Get out of your country, and away from your kindred, and come into the land which I shall show you.[b] (4) Then he came out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and lived in Haran: and from there, when his father was dead,[c] he removed himself into this land, in which you now live. {44} Acts 7:2-4 KJP
7:4c – when his father was dead – by this we know that Abraham came to Canaan following the death of his father who was 205 at the time {Gen. 11:31-32} and Abraham was 75 years old at the time {Gen. 11:32 – 12:5} See Appendix G: WorldTime Line of Biblcal History

Notice that the Jews believe Israel was in Egypt 210 years. They are actually off by 5 years. We know this by doing the chronology and using Paul's statement in Gal. 3:15-19. The Jews do not know the exact year because they do not believe the New Testament and Paul, so they are rounding the time off to 210 years when in actuality is was 215 years {see math below}.

{48} Galatians
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto. (16) Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. (17) And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect. (18) For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise. Gal. 3:15-18 KJV	(15) Brothers, I speak after the manner of men; Though it is but a man's covenant, yet if it is confirmed, no man can disannul it, or add to it. (16) Now to Abraham and his Descendant were the promises made. He did not say, And to descendants, as of many; but as of one, And to your Descendant,[e] Who is Christ. (17) And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before by God in Christ, the law, which came four hundred and thirty years later,[f] cannot void the promise, that it should make the promise of no effect. (18) Because if the inheritance is by the law, it is no more by promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise. {48} Gal. 3:15-18 KJP

3:17e - The Law was given on Mount Sinai 430 years after the promise was given to Abraham who was 75 years old at the time. Abraham lived to be 175 years old [Gen. 25:7] The Israelites came out of Egypt 430 years to the very day from the day the promise was given to Abraham. [Ex. 12:41]
The promise given to Abraham 1/14/2083 A.H.
The Jews came out of Egypt 1/14/2513 A.H. - See Appendix G: World Time Line of Biblical History

Note: this proves conclusively that the Jews were not slaves 400 years as so many misquote scripture. Every Jew knows this is true, but many Christians who do not understand King James English don't and many modern translations totally corrupt the scripture. - See notes on Genesis 12:1-4; 15:13; 50:26

Moses was 80 years old when he received the law {50 days after the Passover in 2513 A.H.}

Reckoning Jacob's age:
Jacob was 147 when he died, he had lived in Egypt 17 years {Gen. 47:28} {2315 A.H.}
He came to Egypt in the 2nd year of the famine at the age of 130 {147-17=130} {Gen. 45:6}
Joseph was 39 when Jacob came to Egypt {30+7+2=39} {2298 A.H.}
Jacob was 91 when Joseph was born {130-39=91} {2259 A.H.}
Jacob had been in the east 14 years when Joseph was born {Gen. 45:6; 47:28; 30:26; 31:41}
Jacob was 77 when he fled from Esau {91-14=77} {2245 A.H.}
Isaac was 60 when Jacob was born {Gen. 25:26} {2168 A.H.}
Abraham was 100 when Isaac was born {Gen. 21:15}{25 years after the promise was given}

By doing the math we know that Jacob entered Egypt 215 years after the promise was given to Abraham {25+60+130=215} By subtraction 430 -215 = 215 we know that there was only 215 years from the time Israel entered into Egypt until the Law was given to Moses.

Moses was 80 years old when he received the law.{2513 A.H.}
Joseph died at the age of 110 {Gen. 50:26} – which means he lived 71 years {110-39=71} after Israel came into Egypt. By subtraction {215-71-80 = 64} Moses was born only 64 years after Joseph's death which means that Moses' parents could well have known Joseph. This also means that there was only 144 years {215-71=144} years from the death of Joseph until Israel left Egypt. So the total number of years of actual slavery was at most 144 years.

If all this is true, where did the idea come from that Israel was in slavery for 400 years? It comes from a misunderstanding of two passages of scripture which we will now deal with.

{01} Genesis
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years; (14) And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance. (15) And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age. (16) But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full. Gen. 15:13-16 KJV	(13) And He said to Abram, Know for certain that your descendants shall be strangers in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years;[c] (14) And also that nation, whom they shall serve, I will judge: and afterward they shall come out with great substance. (15) And you shall go to your fathers in peace; you shall be buried in a good old age. (16) But in the fourth generation[d] they shall come here again: because the sin of the Amorites is not yet full. {01} Gen. 15:13-16 KJP

15:13c - Note: Abraham's descendants would live in land that would not be theirs and would be afflicted, but they were only in Egypt a total of 215 years. The 400 years is counted from Isaac's 5th birthday – it is believed that women of that time period nursed their young and then weaned them at age 5 – see Gen. 21:9. Moses was born only 64 years after Joseph's death. The law of Moses was given 430 years after the promise was given to Abraham who was 75 at the time. [Gal.3:15-19] Abraham lived 100 years after the promise was given to him. [Gen. 25:7] See Appendix G: World Time Line of Biblical History

15:16d - fourth generation - see note on 15:13 - four hundred years - See Ex. 6:20 Moses is actually the 5th generation through his father Amram, but 4th generation through his mother Jochebed. - see Ex. 2:1 and Ex. 6:20

The King James Version correctly translates the passage, but people don't understand or pay attention to the wording. Throughout their lifetimes, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob referred to themselves as strangers in the land in which they lived. Notice the passage says they will be strangers in the land and they will be afflicted 400 years {most of their lifetimes there were problems with the locals over wells that Abraham had dug}, and the land in which they will serve {namely Egypt}, God will judge. It does not say they will serve 400 years. Isaac was born 25 years after the promise was given to Abraham who was 100 when Isaac was born. This means that the 400 year count began when Isaac was 5 years old. We are told that a great feast was held when Isaac was weaned in Gen. 21:8. We believe that is when the 400 year count began.

Since there was only 430 years from the time the promise was given to Abraham until the Law was given {50 days after the Passover} {Gal. 3:15-19} – for the descendants of Abraham to have been in slavery for 400 years, Abraham himself would have had to been in slavery for 70 years {100-30=70} since he lived 100 years after the promise was given {Gen. 25:7}. We know of course that was not the case.

{02} Exodus
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(40) Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years. (41) And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. Ex. 12:40-41 KJV	(40) Now the history of the children of Israel, who lived in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years {from the time the promise was given to Abraham [Gal. 3:15-19]}.[f] (41) And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred thirty years, even to the very day {1/14/2513 A.H./C-1529 B.C.}[g*] it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD {Jehovah} went out from the land of Egypt. {02} Ex. 12:40-41 KJP

12:40f -the sojourning (history) of the children of Israel - note the phrase "who lived in Egypt" identifies the descendants of Abraham as the ones being spoken of - they were NOT in Egypt 400 years since there was only 430 years from the promise given to Abraham to the Exodus {Gal. 3:15-19} - see following note

12:41g - 430 years "to the selfsame day" - lit. to the very day the covenant was made with Abraham [2083 A.H.] See also Gal. 3:15-19 - 400 years from Isaac's 5th birthday, 215 years after Israel entered Egypt, 330 years after the death of Abraham, 144 years after the death of Joseph. Moses is 80 years old, Aaron is 83 years old.
See: Appendix G: World Time Line of Biblical History

Notice that Israel came out of Egypt exactly 430 years to the very day that the promise was given to Abraham. They came out of Egypt on the day of the Passover {which began at 6:00 p.m. the previous evening} which was the first month {Nisan [March-April]} the 14th day of the month {See Lev. 23:5}.

Next holy day to be fulfilled: Feast of Trumpets {modern Rosh Hashanah} 7/1/???? ({03} Lev. 23:24)

Trumpets are sounded 100 times – three different tones three times for 9 soundings – this is done eleven times for a total of 99. Then there is a pause. Only the trumpeter knows when the last trumpet will sound for number 100. ["In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: because the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed." I Cor. 15:52]

The following holy days were added later by the Jews:
Purim {lots} [Adar 14 and 15 {February-March} based on Esther chapter 9

Hanukah {dedication} - Feast of Dedication [Jn. 10:22] also called the Feast of Lights based on when the Lord miraculously provided oil for the temple lamps during the time of the Maccabees [around 168 B.C.] before Jesus' birth. The Maccabees led a successful revolt against the Syrian king Antiochus IV who had sacrificed a pig on the temple altar and banned Judaism. Hanukah can and often does occur on Christmas. It last occurred on Christmas in 2016 and it will occur on Christmas again in 2027. [This holy day is recorded in the Apocrypha in the books of first and second Maccabees but is also mentioned in John 10:22 when Jesus came to the temple at the Feast of Dedication.]

Appendix O: The Herods of Scripture

Herod I (Herod the Great) {75 B.C. To 4 B.C.} [Reigned from 37 B.C. To 4 B.C.] Had seven sons: Antipater II, Alexander, Aristobulus IV, and Herod II (also referred to as Herod Philip I). Of these, he executed the first three for various reasons. He wrote the fourth, Herod Philip I, out of his will. The next three sons were Antipas, Archelaus, and Philip (Herod Philip II) He executed his favorite son, Antipater, only five days before his death for plotting against him? Herod's first wife Miriamne had two sons whom he had drowned in the palace swimming pool next door due his suspicions of them. According to tradition Herod died from a combination of chronic kidney disease, intense itching, painful intestinal problems and a rare infection that causes gangrene of the genitalia. Started rebuilding the temple known as Herod's temple around 13 B.C. [see John 20:23] which was completed about the time of Jesus' crucifixion [See Mat. 24:1; Lk. 21:5; Jn. 2:20; Jn, 20:23]. Herod's kingdom was divided by the Romans between Herod's three living sons: Herod Antipas, Archelaus, and Philip and were referred to as tetrachs [meaning four] [Mat. 14:1] but as far as we know the provinces were only divided into three sections with Archelaus receiving the largest portion and the rest divided between Antipas and Philip.

Herod Antipas {21 B.C. - 39 A.D.} [According to tradition was executed during the reign of Nero (54 A.D. - 68 A.D.) Ruled over the province of Galilee during Jesus' lifetime. Executed John the Baptist. Herodias divorced her husband Herod Philip [probably for political reasons] and became Herod Antipas' wife which John the Baptist denounced as being against the law. Herod Antipas was referred to by Jesus as "that old fox" [Lk. 13:32] Pilate sent Jesus to him because Pilot heard that Jesus was from Galilee which Herod ruled over.

Herod Archelaus {22 B.C. - 18 A.D.} reigned following his father's death [Mat. 2:22] over the largest portion of Judea and Samaria. Was deposed by Rome around 18 A.D. due to his unpopularity.

Herod Agrippa I {11 B.C. - 44 A.D.} Son of Herod Antipas and grandson of Herod the Great. Reigned over Judea from around 41 A.D. To 44 A.D. Had John the brother of James executed [Acts 12:2] and put Peter in prison [Acts 12:3]. Died of worms [Acts 12:23].

Herod Agrippa II {27 A.D. - 93 A.D.} Son of Herod Agrippa I, grandson of Herod Antipas, great grandson of Herod the Great. Heard Paul's testimony before Festus {Acts 25:13 – 26:32}

See Josephus.
